TO ALL WOMEN WHO ARE ILL

This Woman Recommends
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Personal Experience.

McLean, Neb.:—I want to recommend to all suffering women who have my complaint to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have a family of six children, and from the time of my marriage, my troubles have been with me. About eight years ago I began to suffer from the most distressing symptoms, and I was about to give up hope of recovery. I asked a friend, a Mrs. Krueger, if she knew anything that could help me. She said she had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and was very much relieved. I went to a druggist and ordered it, and from that time on, I have never had any trouble. I am now the happiest woman I ever was in my life. I believe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I have no hesitation in recommending it to every woman who has complaints similar to mine. Your true friend, Anna M. McLean.

Movement to Draw English-Speaking Peoples Together.

WASHINGTON—In the general feel of jubilation which greeted the proposed League of Nations must be included the enthusiastic encouragement of the United States. The American public, which has been1 widely interested in the movement, is deeply interested in the proposal as being the first step toward world peace for democracy. Without supplemented by offers of friendship and sympathy from the governments of the United States and other advanced nations, the proposal will fail in its purpose. The American people, who have always been deeply interested in the question of peace and friendship among nations, are now more than ever ready to lend their support to the movement. A friend asked me to take "Fruit-At-Home" to her home and I did so. We had a wonderful meal, "Fruit-At-Home"! It was delicious. I was very happy to help her and the end result was that she was satisfied.

I remember a time when I had a giant pet that was very friendly, but when I was very young, it disappeared. It seemed to be gone forever, but I am happy to say it turned up again.

We saw the woman again the next day. She was very ill, but she seemed to be going well. She was very happy to see us.

The story was told of a man who was sent to jail for a year. He was very happy to be back home.
