Miss Tessie Patten spent several days last week in Bangor.

Mrs. Merton Foster of Grand Manan, N. B., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Clarence B. Day.

Mrs. H. R. Holmes is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Pearl S. Thorsen, in Weehawken, N. J.

Perry Betchel of Burlington, Vt., is spending the summer with his uncle, Merrill R. Head.

Horace Maddocks of Danforth has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Clifford Patten, on Water street.

The annual concert and ball of Senator Hale hose company will take place at Hancock hall, Monday evening.

Mrs. Charles D. Wignin left Monday evening for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Dot Savage Nickerson, in Bay Ridge, N. Y.

Representative Fred L. Mason, who has been visiting in Boston since final adjournment of the legislature, arrived home Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Cook arrived home last Wednesday, after spending the winter in Norway with their daughter, Mrs. M. L. Kimball.

The Thursday club will meet this week with Mrs. Austin H. Joy. As matters of special interest will come before the club, a full attendance is desired.

The Catholic club will have a cooked food sale Saturday afternoon at the Cirone building. All members of the society are requested to contribute food.

Percival Wescott and Leon Tilden, recently returned from overseas, have received their honorable discharge from service and arrived home Monday.

Capt. John Peterson has gone mate with Capt. John W. Jordan in the schooner Henrietta A. Whitney, which sailed last week from Bucksport for Staten Island, N. Y.

The woman's club will meet next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Miss Mary A. Stockbridge. Mrs. Georgia Pulsifer Porter of Old Town will address the club.

Dr. George R. Caldwell of Somerville, Mass., was the guest for the week-end and over Sunday of George S. Foster and wife. Dr. Caldwell and family are soon to move to Portland.

There will be community vespers at the Unitarian church next Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with special musical program in charge of Miss Erva Giles. Refreshments will be served after the service.

The April term of the supreme court will convene next Tuesday at 10 a. m., with Justice Dunn presiding. The grand jurors will report at that time, but the traverse jurors will not report until 10 a. m. Wednesday.

Mrs. A. W. King and son Robert have been spending a few days at their Ellsworth home. Mrs. King will spend a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Bryant Moore, in New Jersey, before opening her home here for the summer.

H. E. Anderson will open a restaurant and lunch room in the Stuart building on Water street next Saturday. Mr. Anderson is an Ellsworth man, but for the past seven seasons has been chef at the Rock-away hotel, Gloucester, Mass.

Francis Coughlin of Bangor is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Coughlin. Mr. Coughlin has just returned from overseas, after seven months' active service as dispatch-bearer, with the 103d trench mortar battery.

Good Friday will be observed at the Congregational church by a special service at 7.30 in the chapel. As this will be the only Protestant service held in the community on this day, a cordial invitation is extended to all Christians of whatever religious affiliation and to all who may be interested, to attend this service.

Friends of Mrs. Arthur Studer sympathize with her in the death of her mother, Mrs. Rogers, which occurred suddenly last week at Philadelphia, to which city the family had recently moved from Brooklyn. Mr. Studer left at once for Philadelphia, Mrs. Studer being unable to go on account of illness.

McKay & Kief of Bar Harbor on Monday started their new auto service between Ellsworth and Bar Harbor. The car will make two trips daily, week days, and one trip Sunday. The car leaves Bar Harbor at 8.30 a. m. and 2.30 p. m. week days, and 10 a. m. Sundays, and leaves Ellsworth at 12.15 and 4.45 p. m. week days and 4 p. m. Sundays.

The recently organized men's club of the Congregational church will have a supper at the vestry this evening at 6.30. The menu will include clam stew, doughnuts and coffee. All members of the club, and all men of the Congregational society or who are not affiliated with any other church who wish to join the club, are invited.

Charles W. Dawes and Simeon S. Lunt, otherwise known as Simeon S. Butler, both of Tremont, were arraigned in the Ellsworth municipal court last Thursday, charged with breaking, entering and larceny at the camp of Frank L. Hodgson on Bar island, Tremont, on March 15. They pleaded guilty, and were bound over for the grand jury in the sum of $200 each.

An especial effort has been made to make the Easter services at the Congregational church unusually attractive. The vested choir will make its first appearance at this time. An efficient committee has been appointed to attend to the decorations, and a special musical program has been arranged. All who desire to witness the procession are requested to be present at 10.30 promptly.

The date of the 26th division parade in Boston has been conditionally set for April 25. On page 4 appears an announcement from the adjutant-general's office regarding transportation of Maine men of the 26th to and from Boston. Hancock county men and relatives of deceased soldiers may obtain information from Rev. R. B. Mathews, Ellsworth, secretary of the home service committee of the Hancock county chapter, A. R. C.

Mrs. E. M. Dodge underwent a serious operation at her home on West Main street, April 8. Her many friends will be glad to learn that she is recovering rapidly. Mrs. Howard D. Moon of Bar Harbor is with her. Her son, H. C. Dodge, was called home from Palm Beach, Fla., by his mother's serious illness. His daughter, Miss Shirley Dodge, accompanied him from Washington, D. C., where she had been employed since September.

The Unitarian club will this week send out invitations to the masquerade party to be given by it at Hancock hall Thursday evening, May 1. Years ago the Unitarian Reading club used to give masquerade parties that were the social events of each season. The present club hopes to revive the old-time popularity of these parties. The first part of the dancing program will be exclusively for those in costume. Higgins' orchestra of ten pieces will play. Cabaret numbers are to be given throughout the evening.

William Eaton, brother of Mrs. Eugenia Walker of this city, died at his home in Camden Friday, after an illness of a few weeks, following a shock. He was seventy-seven years of age, and for years had carried on an extensive farm. A Camden correspondent says of him: "He had a bright genial nature, and no one could have been taken from our midst who will be more missed and mourned. In business dealings his word was as good as his bond, and he has passed on, honored by the community." Mr. Eaton never married. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Horatio Collins, the latter making her home with him. His niece, Miss Sophia Walker of this city, has been with him most of the time during his illness, and his nephew, Burton B. Walker, went to Camden to attend the funeral, held on Sunday.

Mrs. C. C. Camber has received a letter from her son Raymond, 303d field artillery, A. E. F., announcing the arrival of his company at Paullac, France, an embarkation port, expecting soon to sail for the United States. He reports the boys

HUSBAND SAVES WIFE

From Suffering by Getting Her Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Pittsburgh, Pa.—"For many months I was not able to do my work owing to a weakness which caused backache and headaches. A friend called my attention to one of your newspaper advertisements and immediately my husband bought three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for me.

After taking two bottles I felt fine and my troubles caused by that weakness are a thing of the past. All women who suffer as I did should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. JAS. ROHRBERG, 620 Knapp St., N. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.

Women who suffer from any form of weakness, as indicated by displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness or "the blues," should accept Mrs. Rohrborg's suggestion and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a thorough trial.

For over forty years it has been correcting such ailments. If you have mysterious complications write for advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Mutual Benefit Column

EDITED BY "AUNT MADGE"

Its Motto: "Helpful and Helpful."

The purposes of this column are succinctly stated in the title and motto—it is for the mutual benefit, and aims to be helpful and hopeful for the common good, it is for the common use—a public servant, a purveyor of information and suggestion, a medium for the interchange of ideas. In this capacity it solicits communications, and its success depends largely on the support given it in this respect. Communications must be signed, but the name of the writer will not be printed except by permission. Communications will be subject to approval or rejection by the editor of the column, but none will be rejected without good reason. Address all communications to THE AMERICAN, Ellsworth, Me.

A SONG OF EASTER

Sing, children, sing! And the lily censers swing. Sing that life and joy are waking and that death no more is king. Sing the happy, happy tumult of the slowly brightening spring. Sing, little children, sing!

Sing, children, sing! Winter wild has taken wing. Fill the air with the sweet tidings, till the frosty echoes ring! Along the eaves the icicles no longer glittering cling;

And the crocus in the gardens lifts its bright face to the sun, And in the meadows softly the brooks begin to run;

And the golden catkins swing In the warm airs of the spring, Sing, little children, sing!

Sing, children, sing! The lilies white you bring. In the joyous Easter morning for hope are blossoming;

And as the earth her shroud of snow from off her breast doth fling, So may we cast our fetters off in God's eternal spring.

So may we find release at last from sorrow and from pain, So may we find our childhood's calm, delicious dawn again.

Sweet are your eyes, O, little ones, that look with smiling grace, Without a shade of doubt or fear into the future's face!

Sing, sing in happy chorus, with joyful voices tell That death is life and God is good and all things shall be well;

That bitter days shall cease In warmth and light and peace— That winter yields to spring. Sing, little children, sing!

—Celia Thaxter.

BROOKTON, MASS., April 8, 1919.

Dear Aunt Madge and M. Es.

There seems to be a scarcity of letters just now, and methinks I ought to write to help out the column, but as you all must know by this my best is very poor, and I would much rather read the letters that others write so much better than I. However, I suppose it is hardly right to expect them to furnish all the material. I enjoyed S. J. Y.'s chronicles very much, and the letter from her "Soldier Boy" was exceedingly interesting. I would like to hear from "Wanderer" again. That was a very nice account of her trip on the mission boat, Saubem. The woman's club of Brookton has just opened its 14th annual art exhibit in the public library. I have a catalogue of the pictures being shown, and as I was looking it over I noticed the name of one was "Bluehill Bay-Bar Harbor" by Walter Gilman Page. I was quite curious to see it, so the first opportunity I attended to see it. The principal feature of the exhibit is the $25,000 painting done by Arthur M. Hazard. This picture far exceeds all the others in size, and is shown on the platform of the lecture hall, special lighting being provided. It is entitled "The Spirit of the Armistice," and depicts a battlefield when the news of the armistice was received. In the foreground a Red Cross nurse is caring for a wounded soldier, and grouped in the background are soldiers bearing the flags of the allied nations, while above hovers the dove of peace. It is certainly a wonderful picture, and does great credit to the artist.

Among the collection were some very pretty winter scenes. If I could have my choice, I think it would be "The First Snow." It is a fine painting of a winter brook, the picture being brightened by gold tints of autumn leaves showing through the snow at the river's brink just after a light snow had fallen.

A few days ago my grandson and I went out to see Brookton's new welcome to soldiers and sailors who have recently returned home. More than half the men in khaki wore overseas caps indicating service in France, and some of them wore wound stripes. Major Grant headed the procession with the Knit Knickerknock band which played inspiring music. The boys were showered with confetti, not forgetting to give a good share to the Civil War and the Spanish War veterans who served as escort. The boys were given a thunderous greeting, with cow bells, rattles, horns, sirens and cheerers as they marched along. Two nurses who served in France, rode in a coupe at the end of the parade and came in for much applause.

The parade was reviewed near the court house by the mayor and members of the city government. Then followed a reception in the high school hall, and later they were served to a turkey dinner. There were nearly 4,000 boys and girls from this city, and each five hundred as they return are given a rousing welcome. This was said to exceed all others in enthusiasm.

I anxiously look forward to the arrival of my American every week, and am always sure to find something of interest in the M. B. column even if Aunt Madge isn't alone. Isn't it nice to fall back on our old recipes and have all the sugar and white flour we want to use, and in place of a faded cake and even make candy, or more! I seem to taste better than I ever did before. Love and best wishes to you and all. H. O. B.

It is good to hear from you after this long silence, H. O. B. We have missed you in the column and at the reunions, but you have not been forgotten.

We are sure that Jennie has been so ill the last month or two. A personal letter from her tells me she is now improving, and that Irish Molly has been most kind and helpful to her during her illness.

MAKE WORLD SAFE FOR POSTERITY

Federal Public Health Service to Continue Its War Against Disease.

WANT PUBLIC HEALTH NURSES

Women of the Country Urged to Get Behind Movement and Aid Public Health Nurses—Increase Number If Possible.

Washington.—The United States public health service was the rear-guard of our armies in the war against Germany. It took over the fight against the enemy's most useful ally, disease. It won its share of the war, and sent an army to France fit to fight.

Surgeon General Rupert Blue and the officers under him have signed no armistice, admit no peace. They are keeping up the fight to make men fit.

Public proclamation that the war against disease is still on recently was given in an appeal to the 115,000 ministers of the country to devote their sermons to the necessity for keeping our communities as healthful as our camps were.

The appeal of the surgeon general was read from pulpits all over the country, and concludes:

"It is the social responsibility of the communities, of which the churches of every denomination are a part, to continue the work carried on in time of war in order that the world may be safe not only for democracy but for posterity."

Created as War Measure.

Particular emphasis is given by the United States public health service in opening this campaign to the work of the newly organized department of public health nursing, which, created as a war measure, has proved so valuable that, according to announcements, it will be continued and increased.

The women of the nation are appealed to, in a special communication from the surgeon general sent through the churches, to aid the work of the public health nurses, and to do everything possible to increase their number.

A noteworthy tribute was paid to the nurses by the surgeon general in the following statement:

"For the first time in its history the United States public health service during the recent war organized a department of public health nursing. The work which these nurses performed was of inestimable value. It is not too much to say that without their aid our success in keeping down sickness in the extra-cantonment zones and in making the venereal disease rate in our army lower than that of any other army in modern times could not have been achieved.

"In continuing our general campaign for health, and this special fight against venereal disease, we depend upon the continued assistance of public health nurses.

Ask Support of Women.

"Behind these public health nurses we hope to have the sympathetic understanding and support of all the women of the country. We believe that we will have this when the nurse accomplishes for her community is known.

"We depend upon the women of the nation not only for understanding and support but we depend upon them to encourage young women to take up the profession of the public health nurse, we depend upon them also to insist that hospitals provide training for nurses in public health service, including work in venereal diseases.

"In backing the public health nurse, the women of the nation will be backing one of the most vital forces in the struggle against the forces of disease which threaten the health, the safety, the very life of our children, which is the life of our nation."

The national organization for public health nursing is putting forth every effort to provide the increased numbers of public health nurses called for in this extended program of the public health service. The organization, of which Miss Ella Phillips Crandall is executive secretary, with offices at 156 Fifth avenue, New York, will advise and co-operate in every way with communities which wish to follow out the suggestions of the health service for extended public health nursing work.

200,000 JEWS IN YANK ARMY

Comprised From 4 to 5 Per Cent of Total Personnel of American Forces.

New York—The number of Jews in the military and naval service during the war was between 165,000 and 200,000, or from 4 to 5 per cent of the total personnel of the American forces at the time the armistice was signed, according to "The War Record of American Jews," issued by the American Jewish committee.

It was pointed out that the Jews compose about 3 per cent of the total population, so that the proportion of Jews in the service was about 50 per cent greater than the proportion of Jews in the total population.

Complete casualty records have not been obtained, but the committee estimates that 2,000 Jews were killed in action and that their casualties totaled 10,000.

Oh, stomach

Those people who suffer with the distressing symptoms attending chronic dyspepsia will be interested to read the following voluntary testimonial:—"I have kept the 'L. F.' Atwood's Medicine in the house for over twenty years and have received great benefit from it. It does seem as though I could not keep house without it. In the past I have had a very bad stomach trouble, and could hardly do my work. After taking a few bottles of the true 'L. F.' Atwood's Medicine, I became much better. My niece has also been greatly benefited by it. We both are willing to recommend the medicine to all who need a remedy for dyspepsia and constipation."

BIG HUN LOSS IN JUTLAND BATTLE

Own Official Report Gives 3,076 Casualties and Many Ships Wrecked.

TORPEDO CREW PENNED IN

Cut Off by Wreckage From Exit Till Vessel Was in Dry Dock—Clearly Established Germans Had Superior Force.

London.—There is no reason to doubt the substantial accuracy of the German official account of the losses suffered by the German fleet in the Jutland naval battle May 31, 1916. It is learned officially by Reuters. The German figures published June 16, 1916, showed that the casualties to the fleet's personnel were: Officers, killed or missing, 172; wounded, 41; other ratings, killed or missing, 2,414; wounded, 449. Total, 3,076.

Official details of damage done to individual vessels follow:

Battleship Koenig, struck about fifteen times and badly damaged. Ship went down by the head until her fore-castle was only 6½ feet above water. The crew of the forward torpedo tube was imprisoned until the ship was placed in dry dock June 5. Four fires were started on the ship and Admiral Hehne was wounded in the head. The casualties were heavy.

Hit by 28 Shells.

Cruiser Seydlitz, hit by 28 shells and one torpedo from a British destroyer. Her fore-castle was riddled and her fore turret was put out of action. The entire crew of the turret and magazine were killed with the exception of three or four men. The ship was beached in a sinking condition, but she was afterward refloated and repaired. She suffered heavy casualties.

Battleship Grosser Kurfuhrer, damaged by a torpedo and four heavy shells. Engines were damaged.

Battleship Oldenburg, hit by a shell from destroyer which killed 11 and wounded about a dozen, mostly officers on the bridge.

Battleship Ostfriesland, struck mine which tore large hole in her starboard side. She was assisted into port by salvage vessels.

Battleship Schlesien, slightly damaged.

Battleship Schleswig-Holstein, so badly damaged that the repair work necessary required several weeks.

Battle cruiser Lutzow, sustained at least forty direct hits from British gunfire, which did enormous damage, and was also twice torpedoed.

400 Casualties on One Ship.

Her casualties are variously given as being from 400 to nearly 600.

Battle cruiser Derflinger, so badly damaged that she had to be reconstructed.

Cruiser Moltke, hit by three large shells and was under repairs until August.

Cruiser Von der Tann, one turret completely put out of action and another virtually useless.

Light cruiser Eilbing so badly damaged that she was scuttled.

Light cruiser Rostock, after being damaged by gunfire, was blown up by her crew to prevent capture.

Light cruiser Wiesbaden, reduced to a complete wreck by gunfire and was finally torpedoed. There was only one survivor of her crew.

Light cruiser Frauenlob, set on fire and wrecked by gunfire and was torpedoed and sunk. Only eight men of her crew survived.

Five destroyers are known to have been sunk, while others had to be towed into port.

A complete record of the British forces engaged in the battle shows 24 dreadnoughts, 8 battle cruisers, 18 cruisers, 18 light cruisers and 78 destroyers. The German force included 21 battleships, 16 cruisers, 77 destroyers. It is clearly established, however, that of the ships which actually came into action the preponderance of force was held by the Germans.

Recovers $4,000 From Son.

Olympia, Wash.—By decision of the Supreme court, affirming the Stevens county court, John J. Thomas recovers $4,000 from his son, Charles E. Thomas, and his brother-in-law, G. W. Roberts. He worked for them seven years on a ranch near Chewelah without a specific understanding as to pay and claimed he could not collect anything. According to his statement he worked from 5 a. m. until 9 p. m., and sometimes midnight. He thought this was worth about $75 a month and board, and both courts coincide with this estimate to the extent of $4,000.

Factory to Crack Nuts Will Open in Georgia

A pecan-cracking plant capitalized at $40,000, which will be increased shortly, has been established at Baconton, Ga. Five modern, electrically driven pecan-cracking machines will be started immediately, capable of cracking 125,000 pounds of nuts this year. It is planned to increase the capacity to 500,000 pounds next year.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16, 1919.

Both Ellsworth and Bar Harbor have taken steps for county organization of the soldiers and sailors of the world war. Both towns at present seem to be working independently for the same object. They should speedily get together, that the boys of Hancock county should be united in line in the national organization being formed. Each town will undoubtedly have a local organization, but they should unite and work together in forming the county organization.

As Memorial day approaches, and we count the Civil war veterans who have responded to last "aps" during the past year, the rapid passing of the Grand Army of the Republic is emphasized. The ranks of the G. A. R. are growing thin, and the Sons of Veterans organizations, locally at least, seem to lack the enthusiasm and comradeship to take up the burden of devotion of Memorial day, growing harder each year for the handful of Civil war veterans. But Memorial day is safe. Upon the new American Legion now being formed by soldiers and sailors of the world war, will naturally fall this duty of love and honor to be paid to the veterans of the Civil war as well as to their own comrades. The boys in khaki of to-day have learned to appreciate better the service rendered by the boys in blue of yesterday, and will accept the heritage of Memorial day as a privilege and an honor.

The "council of four" of the allies has decided that the ex-kaiser must stand trial before an international tribunal, but at the same time has pronounced sentence to the extent of saying that he shall not be executed, but held in durance. This reversal of ordinary criminal procedure is not at all to the liking of the American people. In other news despatches from France we read that the Hohenzollerns have bought a magnificent estate in Switzerland, and that Holland is taxing the ex-kaiser on an income of $20,000,000. The New York Herald says: "The man who deliberately unleashes the dogs of war is at least as guilty as the dogs themselves. The person who hires or induces others to kill and slay is as great a murderer as the actual assassin and is an accessory before the fact, which in ordinary criminal law places him on a par with the person who committed the deed. However, it seems decided that the arch culprit who has been the direct cause of sending millions of innocent people to their deaths, and who has inspired deeds from which even a Nero or Caiigula might shrink, will not be called upon to pay the supreme penalty of his crimes but will become a lifelong prisoner."

COUNTY GOSSIP.

Leslie Flye of North Brookline has a pair of 7½ feet Holstein oxen the equal of which for sagacity and intelligence would be hard to find. Mr. Flye does his own shoeing, and can shoe them without putting them in a brake, and often stops on the road or in the woods to nail on a shoe that is torn off. When the oxen are turned out to field or pasture, he yokes the off ox, and holding up the other end of the yoke, the nigh ox will come from wherever he is, walk under the yoke and stop in exact position to be yoked up.

Parade of 26th Division.

Adjutant General George McL. Presson announces that the following plan has been determined upon for the transportation of soldiers of the 26th division, and for application and distribution of grand stand tickets to their families for the parade in Boston Friday, April 25.

The parade will necessarily be confined to those men equipped with uniform who served with that division after its entry into the service of the United States, and will not include those who belonged to the national guard companies; who were discharged before the division was formed August 13, 1917.

The New England Division of the American Red Cross will pay for the transportation of all wounded officers and enlisted men of this division who have not received their discharge, to Boston and return. The Red Cross will meet all wounded, whether in service or discharged, at the railroad stations, conduct them in automobiles to the places where they are to stay while in Boston, and return them to the railroad stations in automobiles on their departure.

Honorably discharged soldiers, now in Maine, who desire to take part in the parade, should address letters at once to the adjutant general, Augusta, Maine, 26th Division Parade, giving the following information:

Full name.
 Town or city, and street address.
 The company and regiment to which attached during the time he served in the 26th division.

Rank while in that organization.
 Whether or not he served overseas.
 Whether or not he is wounded.
 If wounded, whether or not he would be able to march in the parade.

Number of immediate relatives, not to exceed three, for whom tickets of admission to the reviewing stand are desired.

Whether he prefers to be housed with the K. of C., Y. M. C. A., Salvation Army, War Camp Community Service or the Jewish Welfare Board.

There should be enclosed with this letter, copy of the soldier's discharge, certified by an officer qualified to administer oaths.

Immediately upon receipt of such letter and certified copy of discharge, transportation requests good upon presentation by the soldier in uniform to a railroad ticket office, for transportation to and from Boston, will be forwarded to each soldier entitled to such transportation, together with other forms necessary to insure quarters and subsistence for himself, and lodgings and seats in the reviewing stand for members of his family who may intend to witness the parade, not to exceed three.

The expense upon the State of transporting these men will be great, therefore it is absolutely necessary that every discharged man and unwounded man still in the service, provide his own transportation if possible.

Families of deceased soldiers formerly attached to this division, desiring to view the parade, should immediately write to the adjutant general, giving their name, address and the information regarding such deceased soldier as required by paragraphs above, also date of his death. Immediately upon receipt of the letter, application blanks for lodgings and seats, not to exceed three for each family, will be forwarded for filling out and return to the adjutant general.

The time being limited, it is imperative that the authorities know at once how many men to provide for, so every soldier is requested to make his application at once.

The Humanities.

The humanities are those branches of education or study which are included in what are called elegant learning, as languages, grammar, philosophy and poetry, including the ancient classics, an educator says. The name implies that the story of these branches has a tendency to humanize man, to cultivate particularly those faculties which distinguish him as a man in all his relations, social and moral; that is, which make him a truly cultured man.

OBITUARY.

MRS. GEORGE E. DAVIS.

Mrs. George E. Davis passed away at her home in Ellsworth Falls last Wednesday evening, at the age of sixty-one years. She had been in failing health several months, but was critically ill only a few weeks, failing very fast near the end.

Mrs. Davis was an ideal wife and mother, much devoted to her home and family, and her happiest moments were when she could have her children and grandchildren with her in her home. In 1872 she was married to Mr. Davis, who survives, with five daughters, Mrs. John A. Scott of Corinna, Mrs. William P. Moore of Randolph, Mass., Mrs. Harry C. Austin, Mrs. Leo B. Betts and Mrs. Arno Shea of Ellsworth, one son, William M. Davis of Ellsworth, and one sister, Mrs. Charles Gray, who lives in the West.

Mrs. Davis was deeply interested in grange work, being a member of Nicolin grange and Green Mountain Pomona. She was a valued member of Irene chapter, O. E. S.

The funeral was held at the home Saturday at 2 o'clock, and was attended by a host of relatives and friends. The services were conducted by Revs. Henry W. Conley and R. B. Mathews. Burial was at Juniper cemetery.

MRS. LUCRETIA M. FOX.

Mrs. Lucretia M. Fox passed away at the home of her son, H. Judson Fox, in Bar Harbor Friday, April 11.

Mrs. Fox was born in Ellsworth Nov. 9, 1838, a daughter of the late Elias and Nancy Brimmer Hill. She was married to Henry Fox of Ellsworth, and her home had always been in this city until about sixteen years ago, when she went to Bar Harbor with her son and his wife, who tenderly cared for her until the end.

She was a favorite with the young, who passed many pleasant hours with her. In faith she was a Christian Scientist. Besides her son, she leaves a sister, Mrs. Emily Grant, of Dorchester, Mass., and a brother, Herman Hill, of Ellsworth.

Prayers were offered at the home in Bar Harbor, Sunday. The body was then brought to Ellsworth Falls, where services were held at the church, Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. A. P. MacDonald of Bar Harbor and Rev. Henry W. Conley of Ellsworth Falls. Interment was at Juniper cemetery.

MRS. FRANCES MOORE.

The death of Mrs. Frances Moore occurred Monday noon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Oscar Staples, at Ellsworth Falls, after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Moore was seventy-eight years of age and active until a few weeks ago, when she received injuries from a fall which resulted in complications which caused her death.

Mrs. Moore came to Ellsworth Falls from West Surry several years ago, after the death of her husband, and had made many friends who regret her demise. She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. Staples, and by two sons, John W. and Augustus Moore. The funeral will be held at the home of her daughter Wednesday afternoon.

Green Mountain Pomona.

Green Mountain Pomona grange met with Mountain View grange, West Eden, Friday, April 11. The uncertain weather prevented many from attending, but about fifty were present, representing six granges. The fifth degree was conferred on a class of seven.

Everyone whose name appeared on the program was present, and some excellent papers were read. The last topic of the day, "Some of the Needs of our Rural Schools," called forth animated discussion. The host grange served a fine dinner and supper, and in the evening furnished an interesting program.

MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, Death has again visited Green Mountain Pomona grange, No. 26, and removed our loved and highly honored sister, Priscilla Davis, therefore be it Resolved, That the death of Sister Davis has left a vacancy that will be hard to fill, and that her constant faithfulness to the best of Pomona's precepts is worthy of our example.

Resolved, That we extend our deepest sympathy to Brother Davis and the members of his family, believing that they will be comforted by the Divine Master in their great sorrow, which we all share.

Resolved, That in respect to the memory of Sister Davis, our altar be draped in mourning for three months, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family, one to the local paper, and one copy spread upon our records.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE. WHEREAS Forster M. Baskin of Ellsworth, in the county of Hancock and State of Maine, by his mortgage deed dated July 27, A. D. 1915, and recorded in the registry of deeds for said Hancock county, in book 583, conveyed to me the undersigned a certain lot or parcel of land situated in said Ellsworth and bounded and described as follows: Beginning on the east side of the beach Pond road and at the junction of the cross road passing Leonard Moore's, thence south 85° east on the north line of said road twenty-seven rods and twenty-three links to a cedar stake marked S. M.-J. L. M. and J. A. D. 1864, thence north 5° east on west line of land formerly of John L. Moore twenty-eight and three-fourths rods to the north line of the Benjamin F. Garland homestead lot, thence north 85° west on said north line to said first-mentioned road, thence southerly on said Branch Pond road to the homestead lot, containing five and one-half acres more or less, together with all buildings thereon. And whereas the said mortgage deed has been presented and is now being foreclosed by reason of the breach of the condition of said mortgage, I claim a foreclosure thereof and give this notice for that purpose.

CHARLES L. MONAGHAN.

Dated at Ellsworth, Maine, this 9th day of April A. D. 1919.

COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE. HANCOCK ss. ELLSWORTH, ME., April 14, 1919.

WE, the undersigned, having been duly appointed by the Honorable Bertrand E. Clark, judge of probate within and for said county, commissioners to receive and audit the claims of the creditors of Charles C. Burrill, late of Ellsworth, in said county, deceased, whose estate has been represented insolvent, hereby give public notice agreeably to the order of the said judge of probate, that six months from and after April 8, 1919, have been allowed to said creditors to present and prove their claims, and that we will attend to the duty assigned us at the office of Wm. E. Whiting, Ellsworth, Maine, on the 5th day of May, 1919, and on the 1st day of October, 1919, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of each of said days.

WM. E. WHITING,
 HARRY C. STRATTON,

all well and anxious to sail. Camber went across last July, and his company had been moved to the front shortly before the armistice was signed. On the night of his arrival at the front, while driving a motorcycle in the dark, lights not being allowed, he collided with some object (he does not yet know what it was) and was thrown and injured. When he recovered consciousness the next day he was in a hospital near the front, within sound of the guns. He was later transferred to a base hospital, and before he recovered sufficiently to report for duty, the armistice had been signed.

One of the old residence landmarks of Ellsworth, the Abenakis club building on Main street, adjoining the American house, will soon be a thing of the past. The house and lot were recently bought from the C. C. Burrill and Eugene Hale estates by Charles K. Burrill. Mr. Burrill in turn sold the building to Edmund Hamilton to be torn down and removed, and this is now being done. This house was built in Civil war times by the late John D. Hopkins, replacing one owned by him that was burned on the same site. Mr. Hopkins later sold the house to the late J. Tilden Grant, who occupied it until his death. It passed from the Grant heirs to Messrs. Hale and Burrill. For some years it was leased and occupied as a club house by the Abenakis club, but since that club went out of existence, it has been unoccupied most of the time, and was rapidly falling into decay. Built in the time of mansard roofs and ornate finish, with marble fireplaces and handsome interior finish, it was one of the show places of the city fifty years ago.

THE AMERICAN LEGION.

Soldiers and Sailors of the World War to Organize.

In both Ellsworth and Bar Harbor steps are being taken to organize the soldiers and sailors of the world's war. Local organizations will doubtless be formed in both places, and while working independently at present, it is hoped that both towns will get together in the work of forming a county organization. At a meeting in Bar Harbor Monday evening steps in the direction of county organization were taken.

A meeting has been called to be held in Ellsworth this afternoon at the rooms of the Boys' Welfare club. Roy C. Haines, who called this meeting, has been in communication with the national leaders in the movement for the organization of the American Legion. A national caucus will be held at St. Louis May 8, and at the meeting here to-day it is probable that a delegate will be chosen to that caucus. Invitations to the Ellsworth meeting were sent to every town in the county.

SEAL HARBOR.

Miss Jennie Conary is quite ill of mumps.

Herbert Goodwin and wife, who have spent the winter in Boston, are home.

Lawrence Varnum is home from camp in Georgia, having received his honorable discharge.

Edward Campbell is home from Rumpford Falls, where he has been employed. He will work for F. H. Macomber.

Charles Eddy and wife of Waterbury, Conn., are with Mrs. Eddy's mother, Mrs. Herbert Carter. Mr. Eddy is ill of measles.

Stuart Campbell, wife and father, R. M. Campbell, are in town looking after the hotel Glen Cove, which is on the property recently bought by John D. Rockefeller, jr. The building will be removed, and the lot of some six acres will be converted by Mr. Rockefeller into a park and playground for the free use of permanent and summer residents.

Leslie, son of Mrs. Annie Carter, died at his home at Harbor Brook Wednesday evening, aged about thirty-two years. Mr. Carter had been a great sufferer for the past four years. Much sympathy is felt for the family, as this is the third death within the past nine months. Nowell, the youngest son, dying last June, and the father in September. He leaves besides his mother, two brothers, Elston and Calvin of this place, and one sister, Mrs. Ambrose Dorr of Bangor. The funeral was held Friday at the Congregational church, Rev. George S. Brooks officiating.

April 15.

She Earned It.

My little daughter came in with a penny. I asked her where she found it, and she said: "I earned it. You see, Carter called me a bad girl and I was going to fight him, but he had some pennies, so I told him if he would give me a penny I wouldn't fight him—and he did."

WORSE THIS SPRING

Owing to Run-down Condition Caused by the War.

Anxiety and worry have a bad effect on the nervous system, and de- range the bodily functions, especially digestion and excretion. Who escaped them during the war? They have made nervousness, paleness, lack of vitality worse this Spring. The very best medicine to take now is Pepton. It strengthens and tones the nerves. It gives a good color to the lips and cheeks. It is the great vitalizer, giving healthy activity to all the vital organs.

This good medicine, which is a real iron tonic, makes the blood rich in red corpuscles, an abundance of which is indispensable to perfect health. It promptly relieves mental and physical exhaustion, creates an appetite, and promotes sweet, refreshing sleep. Pepton is in the form of chocolate-coated tablets, and is pleasant to take.

"SARGE" CALLS BIDDLE

American General Is "Jacked Up" by Non-Com.

Reminded That He Is Not Conforming to Regulations in Matter of Dress.

London.—Major General Biddle, commanding American forces in England, has been firmly reminded by a sergeant of the military police that he was not conforming to regulations of dress. Likewise, Bishop C. H. Brent of Boston, an army chaplain, and Col. John C. Groom, at one time head of the military police in France, have been numbered among navy officers who have been "called down" for not adhering strictly to uniform regulations.

Fur is not allowed anywhere on the American uniform, but in choosing a new raincoat General Biddle selected one with a comfortable fur collar. The first time he stepped out of the entrance of the American headquarters into an automobile waiting to take him to an official appointment, he was stopped by the military policeman at the door.

"General, I must inform you that the fur collar you are wearing is a violation of uniform regulations," the sergeant said.

The best the general could do was to smile and hurry into the car, as he was late for his appointment, but the fur collar is no longer on the coat.

Archbishop Brent also erred as regards fur collars. Colonel Groom, on coming over from Paris, acquired a cane, evidently influenced by the almost universal custom among British officers. When entering headquarters, he was told that officers were not allowed to carry canes, and when he left he was conforming to regulations.

HOTEL GETS BACK TOWEL

Man Who Stopped at Hostelry Eight Years Ago Gets Change of Heart and Sends It Back.

New Orleans, La.—A person stopped at the Cosmopolitan hotel eight years ago for a couple of days. Of course there are scores of folks stop at the Cosmopolitan every day, but this particular man was there eight years ago.

When he was packing up his duds to leave, he pitched one of the hotel's towels into the grip. It was a common hotel face towel with the usual red border. The hotel clerk, certainly, didn't know the man took the towel or there would have been an extra 11 cents added to his bill.

Nothing more was heard of the man—the towel—until recently. Manager James Lynch received a package mailed from San Francisco. Inside the package was a towel—the same towel that the man took from the hotel room eight years ago and pinned to the towel was the following note:

"I took this towel eight years ago, thinking it was cute, but found it was sln. So will return it as I am living a much better life today." There was no signature.

U. S. TO SEE "MYSTERY SHIP"

Craft Used by Great Britain to Lure Submarines to Visit Lake Ports.

Winnipeg, Canada.—Information from Ottawa officially confirms reports that one of the much-discussed British "mystery ships" that preyed on unsuspecting German submarines will cross the Atlantic in the spring and visit a number of American and Canadian ports on the great lakes. It would be the first allied warship to come to the lake region.

"Mystery ships," a carefully guarded naval secret, were built with a draft of three and a half feet, making them almost immune from torpedo attacks. They resembled slow-going, helpless tramps, but carried guns of sufficient caliber to sink any submarine afloat.

Hero Is Robbed.

St. Louis.—Frank Fisher of Des Moines, Iowa, and late of the British army, had two years of war for nothing, he feels. The Victoria Cross and Croix de Guerre he won were stolen from him.

Sound Ranging Devices Found German Cannon

Washington.—American sound-ranging devices in use on the British front shortly before the signing of the armistice in a single day located more than a hundred hidden German guns, placing them at the mercy of the British artillery.

This and many other interesting achievements of army engineer corps were revealed with the opening to newspaper correspondents by the war department of an engineer corps exhibit.

In explaining the sound-ranging devices General Black, chief of engineers, said that after the armistice a survey was made of German gun positions on a portion of the front where the American devices were used, and it was found that the actual positions varied not more than twenty to thirty feet from the locations calculated by the sound registers.

LOYAL TO HOME.

The Maine Women's Club of New York City Elects Officers.

New York, April 8 (special).—In New York city there are many clubs and societies consisting of those who were once rural folks. There in the world's metropolis, was established on March 14, 1903, the Maine Women's Club of New York. It consists wholly of women who were born in the Pine Tree State and now residing in Greater New York. Its meetings are of a high order, and the spirit of friendship and good cheer is much in evidence. It meets at the celebrated Waldorf Astoria hotel the first Saturday of each month from October to May, at 3 o'clock.

The meeting for April was a most pleasing one from many points of view. The following officers for 1919-20 were elected: President, Mrs. Ada Shorey; first vice-president, Mrs. Mortimer F. Randolph; second vice-president, Mrs. Ambrose H. White; recording secretary, Miss Margaret L. H. Moore; corresponding secretary, Miss Alice M. Robinson; treasurer, Miss Mabel Duncan; auditor, Miss Mary J. Stinson.

At the conclusion of business a rare entertainment of music and literary life took place, the leading feature being personal experiences while in France with the Y. M. C. A., by Miss Ella F. Merrill, a daughter of Maine who is now a progressive New York school teacher. Miss Merrill, like all these daughters of Maine, has made good in the battle of life.

The Maine Women's Club in the world's greatest city has a deep and lasting influence over the social, ethical and literary life of New York. It gave liberally to the welfare work in the late war, and Miss Merrill pleased the members in relating her stewardship in France of the money sent her.

Every county, and nearly every town of Maine is represented in this club. Great is its future.

Reason for Term "Royal."

Naturally there is a good reason for calling golf a royal game, inasmuch as it was the favorite sport of the kings and queens of Scotland and England, as well as the dukes and earls in ancient times. King Charles, King James I, II, VI, Queen Mary of Scots and others were pre-eminent among the lovers of the recreation.

A Pen Joke.

A boy who is a firm believer in the "raise-a-pig" plan has a porker which he has christened "Ink," because he says the pig runs so freely from the pen.

IF ALL MOTHERS ONLY KNEW!

Thousands of Children Suffer from Worms and Their Mothers do not Know What the Trouble Is.

Signs of worms are: Deranged stomach, swollen upper lip, sour stomach, offensive breath, hard and full belly, with occasional gripings and pains about the navel, pale face of leaden tint, eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids, itching of the nose, itching of the rectum, short dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red points sticking out on the tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever.

Mrs. H. N. Roberts, 302 Asylum Street, Flint, Mich., used Dr. True's Elixir for her little baby 'girl when she was sick. Mrs. Roberts wrote to Dr. True: "My little girl is cured of her worms." And in a later letter wrote: "Baby is fine and I think it was your medicine (Dr. True's Elixir) that helped her." If your baby is ill start giving Dr. True's Elixir at once. Write us freely about the case. No charge for correspondence. Buy Dr. True's Elixir at your drug store at once. Dr. J. F. True & Co., Auburn, Maine.

Tired, Overworked Mothers

What You Need is Vinol

War conditions have made the demand upon a mother's time and energy unlimited. In their zeal to do all in their power for their loved ones, they continually overwork and are soon in a nervous, run-down condition. Vinol, the non-secret cod liver and iron tonic, will build you up and make you strong.

Whitman, Mass.

"I suffered from a nervous, run-down condition and loss of strength so it was hard for me to get around and do my work. After other medicines had failed to help me Vinol restored my health and strength and I heartily recommend it to anyone suffering from a nervous, run-down condition."—Mrs. E. M. Little.

Cleveland, Ohio.

"I keep house for my husband and myself and got into a weak, run-down condition, no strength, languid and no ambition. After doctoring for awhile and getting no better I tried Vinol and to my surprise it built me up and strengthened my whole system. It is certainly a good tonic."—Mrs. Wm. D. Dawson.

How Much is 1¢

Suppose that for one cent you could insure the quality of your cake, biscuits, etc., wouldn't that be real economy?

Well, one cent is about the difference in the cost of a whole cake or a pan of biscuits made with Royal Baking Powder as compared with cheaper baking powders made from alum or phosphate—a trifle, indeed, to insure the quality and wholesomeness of your baking.
