BURRILL NATIONAL BANK ELLSWORTH, MAINE

Making the Nation's Credit Liquid

RESERVOIR systems insure a steady water supply in every city and large town. The faucet is of very little value without the reservoir behind it.

The Federal Reserve Banking System is a simple and practical means of making the nation's credit liquid at all times.

As a member of that system, this bank is as independent of local conditions as it is humanly possible to make it.

LOCAL AFFAIRS

Elmer, five-year-old son of Everett Carter, was struck by a car in post-office square last evening. The child ran from the sidewalk directly in front of the car, which happened to be moving slowly. The child was badly bruised, but no bones were broken and it is believed the car did not pass over him.

The Congregational Sunday school will hold its annual picnic at the Russell camp, Patten's pond, Friday, July 11, if pleasant. Cars will leave the church steps at 9.30 for the transportation of the members of the school. Mothers of the children are invited, even if not members of the Sunday school.

The Ellsworth baseball team won one game and lost one at Bluehill on the Fourth. The morning game with Bucksport was won by Ellsworth, score 4 to 3. The arrangement was that the winner of this game should play Bluehill in the afternoon. Ellsworth is dependent upon one pitcher, Earle Jordan. He pitched a splendid game in the morning, and for the first five innings of the second game, when the score was in favor of Ellsworth, but under the strain of two hard games, he broke in the sixth inning, and the Bluehill sluggers piled up an overwhelming score in the remaining innings, Barron relieving Jordan in the box. "BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN"

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Ohio Woman.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and was so weak at times I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. I took it and it has restored my health. It is certainly the best medicine for woman's ailments I ever saw."—Mrs. SARA SHAW, R. No. 1, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. Shaw proved the merit of this medicine and wrote this letter in order that other suffering women may find relief as she did. Women who are suffering as she was should not drag along from day to day without giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its forty years experience is at your service.

Mutual Benefit Column.

EDITED BY "AUNT MADGE".

Its Motto: "Helpful and Helpful."

The purposes of this column are succinctly stated in the title and motto—it is for the mutual benefit, and aims to be helpful and hopeful being for the common good, it is for the common use—a public servant, a purveyor of information and suggestion, a medium for the interchange of ideas. In this capacity it solicits communications, and its success depends largely on the support given it in this respect. Communications must be signed, but the name of writer will not be printed except by permission. Communications will be subject to approval or rejection by the editor of the column, but none will be rejected without good reason. Address all communications to

THE AMERICAN, Ellsworth, Me.

THE HOUSEKEEPER'S TRAGEDY.

One day, as I wandered, I heard a complaining. And saw a poor woman, the picture of gloom: She glared at the mud on her doorstep ('twas raining). And this was her wall as she wielded her broom: "O! life is a toil, and love is a trouble. And beauty will fade, and riches will flee, And pleasure they twindle, and prices they double, And nothing is what I could wish it to be. "There's too much of worryment goes to a bonnet; There's too much of ironing goes to a shirt; There's nothing that pays for the time you waste on it; There's nothing that lasts but trouble and dirt. "In March it is mud; it's slush in December; The midsummer breezes are loaded with dust; In fall the leaves litter; in muggy September The wall-paper rots and the candlesticks rust. "There are worms in the cherries, and slugs in the roses. And ants in the sugar, and mice in the pie, And rubbish of spiders no mortal supposes, And ravaging roaches, and damaging flies. "It's sweeping at six, and it's dusting at seven; It's victuals at eight, and it's dusting at nine. It's potting and paning from ten to eleven; We scarce break our fast ere we plan how to dine. "With grease and with grime, from corner to centre, Forever at war, and forever alert, No rest for a day, lest the enemy enter— I spend my whole life in a struggle with dirt. "Last night, in my dream, I was stationed forever On a little bare isle in the midst of the sea; My one chance of life was a ceaseless endeavor To sweep off the waves ere they swept off poor me. "Alas! 'twas a dream—again I behold it! I yield; I am helpless my fate to avert." She rolled down her sleeves; her apron she folded; Then lay down and died, and was buried indirt. —Selected by E. E. S.

Dear M. B. Friends: If you are the 'worrying housekeeper' described in the poem, read the lines all over carefully, and then write some new stanzas on the bright side of housework, and think how useless it is to dwell on domestic tragedies which you need never see. It is such a happy faculty to possess, that when you don't wish to see dirt you do not realize it is visible. Then, some day "when you feel like it, put on your best "specs," find the dirt and get after it with energy; but it is not conducive to health and peace of mind to have an eye out constantly for the worms and the slugs and the ants.

Oh, yes, the warm summer days start all such pests into action. They will appear often and when least expected, and they are trying to encounter in some places. But the whole of life is not toil, and trouble, and meeting unpleasant conditions; and unnecessary worryment is about as bad an evil as any named in the poem.

Dear Aunt Madge:

I do think we are all some heedless, not to take a few minutes and write a few words for the column. So here I come with just a word, that is not bright or witty, but just to say that I feel condemned when I look at the M. B. C. and see you are doing most all of the work alone. I have many letters to friends that I ought to answer, but feel so listless most of the time that I neglect answering. Am having blisters put on my back for spinal trouble, so, most of the time, sit up very dignified. It is early morning the sun just rising. Have any of you noticed how red the sun is when he peeps his head above the horizon. Lovely weather, but our gardens need a drink so badly.

Well this is no letter, but just a line to say that I remember you all, and we should all try to do little more for our column. Love and best wishes to aunts, nieces and nephews. JENNIE.

Thanks to you, Jennie, for coming to my rescue with a letter. Am sorry you are not as well as you have been, and hope you will soon be better. Here are some new recipes the Mutuals to try:

CHOCOLATE CAKE—One-fourth cup butter creamed with 1 cup sugar, 1 egg, 1/2 cup sweet milk, 1/2 cup sour milk, 2 squares chocolate or 1/2 cup cocoa, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon cream tartar, 1 1/2 cups sifted flour, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

MOLASSES COOKIES—One cup sugar, 1 cup molasses, 1/2 cup shortening, 2 eggs, 1 tablespoon ginger, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 4 tablespoons cold water, 1 teaspoon soda, a little salt, flour to roll quite stiff.

BROWN SUGAR DROP CAKES—One and one-half cups sugar dissolved in 1/2 cup boiling water, 1/2 cup shortening, 3 cups sifted flour, 1 teaspoon soda, and vanilla. Drop with teaspoon.

SUGAR DROP CAKES—One egg, 1 cup sugar, 1/2 cup sweet milk, 1/2 cup of butter, 2 1/2 cups flour, sift with it 2 teaspoons cream tartar, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon vanilla.—EDWINA.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Says Nothing Like Plain Argo-Phosphate to put on Firm, Solid, Stay-there Flesh and Muscle and Increase Strength, Vm, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Physicians claim there is nothing that will increase weight, strength and endurance like organic phosphate, commonly known by druggists as argo-phosphate. It is inexpensive and is sold by all leading druggists everywhere under a guarantee to give satisfaction or money refunded. Weakness and thinness are usually due to starved, nervous conditions. Our bodies need more phosphates than are contained in the foods we eat.

If you wish a more rounded figure and plump, well-developed arms, neck and bust in place of hollows, you should simply take plain argo-phosphate, as it builds up and restores run-down, nervous conditions by phosphatizing the system. It transforms the appearance and an increase in weight is often times quickly produced. The increase in weight also aids in improving the general health. Sleeplessness, nervousness, lack of energy and ambition quickly disappear. Pale cheeks are changed to rosy ones and dull eyes become bright. Miss Lena Brown of Atlanta, Ga., who only weighed 90 pounds, reports that she gained 10 pounds in two weeks time and says argo-phosphate has made a different person of her and she has never felt better in her life. SPECIAL NOTICE—Owing to the fact that so many physicians and druggists are recommending argo-phosphate for relieving all nervous, worn-out debilitated conditions and the unusually large sale for argo-phosphate, there will be found in the market numerous substitutes for the genuine article. All imitations are inferior in preparation, and owing to its unusual flesh-producing qualities it should not be used by any one unless they desire to put on flesh and increase in weight. Dispensed by E. G. Moore.

MODE OF TRIMMING

Demand for Decorations Is Gratified With Novelties.

Difficult to Turn Frivolous and Many Still Dress on a War-Reduced Income.

It is the way of fashion to be forever elusive, as it is the way of women to be forever in search of something new. If she does not find charm of new interest in the silhouette, then she looks for novelty in material or in the manner of trimming. This season finds the slender silhouette still holding first place in the fashion world. It remains slim, perhaps slimmer, but the whims of woman must be gratified by the vast variety and novelty of trimmings, materials and accessories for this season.

Fashion has grown very serious during the last four years, and it is difficult to turn frivolous "over night." For the woman who is still dressing on a war-reduced income, it is wise to choose fashions that are established, gowns and suits fashioned after those most favored by the conservative woman, says Vogue.

The top coat or motor coat is perhaps the most important piece in her wardrobe. To a woman who travels, this coat is invaluable, and its uses are many.

When dull copper tricotette is made up into a two-piece dress of simple becoming lines, it immediately becomes a garment of service, and is quite as appropriate for town as for country, as appears in a gown of this material which was seen recently. The top part of the dress is made like an over-buckle. The straight lines and unbroken simplicity made it a model suited to either matron or debutante. Four straight panels of the blouse fall over the straight skirt.

Oyster white pussy-willow taffeta makes another country suit. The original idea of quilting and embroidering it in navy blue silk comes from Lanvin. The straight box coat is embroidered all over and has a deep rolling collar ending where two large navy blue buttons fasten the coat. The crocheted girdle is finished with weight-like tassels of blue silk. The deep hem of the skirt is marked with the quilting and outlined with embroidery, an effect which is very new. The coat is very smart worn as a separate sports coat, and may be used with a sports skirt of white silk or navy blue pussy-willow taffeta.

EMBROIDERY ADDS TO BEAUTY

Lavish embroidery on the side of this attractive coat makes it a creation of exquisite beauty. The coat is of navy blue satin. The embroidery is of blue chenille. The same motif at the side of the dress is carried out on the sleeves and the collar. The blue and maroon silk belt and straps on the coat are all in one piece.

TIMELY FASHION TOPICS

The tendency is decidedly toward full flaring overskirts with right underskirts.

Charming face veils with chenille dotted motifs matching the hat trimming in color were recently noted at a smart hotel at the tea hour.

Lingerie blouses of net and of net and lace are a feature of midsummer fashions. Both white and ecru net are seen and valenciennes and filet lace are employed.

The tailored sports blouse or rather sports shirt is developed in wash silk, pique, linen and flannel and in many instances is decidedly gay in color; that is, the stripe or figure of the fabric is of gay coloring.

Old-time remedy

You may experiment with many so-called wonderful new discoveries for the cure of Dyspepsia, Liver trouble, or Constipation,—you may spend many hard earned dollars for the widely advertised pills, powders or tablets, and after trying them all you may find yourself practically no better than when you commenced. ## HOW UNCLE SAM FED HIS SOLDIERS

One Meal, on One-Man Basis for War Period, Cost $727,000,000.

9,000,000 POUNDS DAILY

Doughboys Ate 800,000,000 Pounds of Roast Beef, Smoked 425,000,000 Cigarettes and Ate 300,000 Pounds of Candy a Month.

Washington.—"Soldiers who fought against Spain in 1898 lost in weight on an average of 22 pounds each; the average American soldier at the end of the fighting in 1918 weighed 12 pounds more than he did when the selective service act or his own volition brought him into the army."

Thus the success won by the army's subsistence branch in the great war is epitomized in chapters of the official war "material" history made public by the war department.

The food problem of an army of 3,700,000 Americans is visualized in the history by considering the force as a single man and the entire war period as one dinner hour. Articles comprised in the army ration assumed these tremendous totals:

Roast beef, 800,000,000 pounds; bacon, 150,000,000 pounds; flour (bread) 1,000,000,000 pounds; butter, 17,500,000; oleomargarine, 11,000,000; baked beans, 150,000,000 pounds; potatoes, 487,000,000 pounds; onions, 40,000,000 pounds; corn, beans and peas, 150,000,000 cans; tomatoes, 190,000,000 cans; prunes, peaches and apples (for dessert), 107,000,000 cans; sugar, 350,000,000 pounds; coffee, 75,000,000 pounds; evaporated milk, 200,000,000 cans.

The bill for this "meal" amounted to $727,000,000 to December 1, 1918, the per capita cost having risen from 4 cents in 1897 to 48 in 1918.

9,000,000 Pounds Daily.

At the time of the armistice, American soldiers in France were consuming 9,000,000 pounds of food daily. Moving this stupendous quantity over the 3,000-mile communication was the principal obstacle to be overcome. This and the necessity for conserving cargo space led directly in the later months to the shipment of dehydrated vegetables to the American expeditionary force.

"The problems were solved only by the assistance of the American food industry," the report says, and while instances were found of food specifications being violated, these are declared to have been very few and in most instances not intentional.

The emergency ration of the American soldier, designed to be used only in cases of extremity, was perfected during the war to consist of three cakes of beef, prepared with a bread compound of ground cooked wheat, each cake weighing three ounces; three one-ounce cakes of chocolate, three-fourths ounce fine salt, and one dram black pepper.

A special ration was designed for the use of invalid soldiers, including potted chicken, dried eggs, puddings, etc.

Importance attached to the supply of fresh coffee for the men is evidenced by the decision to ship the bean in the green form and have it roasted near the front. This led to the invention of portable roasters, capable of handling several tons a day. "Noting that tobacco has established its claim to a recognized place in the soldier's life," the report says probably 95 per cent of the American expeditionary force used the weed in one form or another. Monthly shipments averaged 20,000,000 cigars and 425,000,000 cigarettes.

The soldier's sweet tooth was satisfied by a monthly shipment of 300,000 pounds of candy during the early part of the war, but this was increased in November, 1918, to 1,373,000 pounds, and the following month the war department made candy a part of the regulation issue, one and one-half pounds being issued to each man every month. A close companion in popularity was chewing gum, more than 3,000,000 packages a month being consumed.

Economies Effected.

Interesting statistics are given of economies effected in changes in design. For instance, elimination of lugs and eyelets in trousers saved $17,000,000, and the redesigning of the coat cut the cost of this garment $5,000,000. Expert cutting reduced the consumption of cloth 23-100 of a yard, and saved 2,300,000 yards on the total order.

Innovations resulting from shortages in material included the substitution of American dyes for the German product and the use of vegetable "ivory" in button-making.

The activities of the quartermaster corps (afterward taken over largely by the bureau of purchase, storage and supply) included also the furnishing of hats, shoes, boots, fuel, oil, paint, tools, harness, and harness equipment, and even music. Prominent composers volunteered for the work of selecting a "balanced ration" of jazz and more restraining orchestration for the army bands.

To give the American aviator the surest fuel possible, the department took over every drop of "25.7 degree fighting naphtha" and confined its use to the service of planes actually on the front.

Ventilation.

The mayor of Terre Haute the other day appointed a number of the city schoolma'ams to do special police duty, such as to seeing to the ventilating of stores, etc., says the Indianapolis News. Miss Margaret Kilroy, a high school teacher, being one of those appointed, visited a number of stores. In one the manager became indignant as she explained the necessity of his doing more ventilation. "Why, it's very warm here," she complained, unbuttoning her coat and revealing a georgette crepe waist.

"Ventilating doesn't have anything to do with it," protested the man. "Why, 99 per cent of the cases of flu in this country have been caused by the wearing of georgette crepe waists."

He was actually ready to smile when back came Miss Kilroy's cool rejoinder: "I suppose that explains the great number of cases in the United States army, then."

Record Telephone Service.

The largest private telephone branch in the world is the one which serves the expanding needs of the war department. On July 1 this branch served 3,178 extensions; on August 1, 3,626. It requires 126 trunk lines for incoming calls; 76 for outgoing calls, local and submarine toll; 17 private toll lines to New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, via Cleveland, Hoboken and Newport News, and 105 tie lines to other government stations in Washington.

Acclimatizing Salmon.

The bureau of fisheries reports that 20,000,000 sockeye and 1,365,000 humpback salmon eggs had been obtained at the station at Yes bay, Alaska, from August 29, when collections began, to September 30. If the collections are sufficiently large 1,000,000 humpback eggs will be sent to the Maine stations for the continuation of the acclimatization experiments undertaken several years ago. Later in the year it is hoped to send a second consignment.

Idea for Liberty Monument.

A Washington man proposes that as the United States was in the war 584 days, a Liberty monument to the members of our heroes be erected at the capital, one foot in height for each day, making it 584 feet high, with the names of all who gave their lives engraved on bronze tablets, to be placed in the interior of the monument.

Why That Lame Back?

That morning lameness—those sharp pains when bending or lifting, make work a burden and rest impossible. Don't be handicapped by a bad back—look to your kidneys. You will make no mistake by following this Ellsworth Falls resident's example. John Lake, stone mason, State St., Ellsworth Falls, Me., says: "About four years ago my back was lame and painful and at times I could hardly get about and was all bent over. My work causes more or less strain on my back, and I think it had a lot to do with bringing on the trouble. I had fainting and dizzy spells; in fact, I was in pretty bad shape. I tried different kinds of medicines, but Doan's Kidney Pills did me more good than all the others combined. This medicine cured me."

VOICE IS MADE LOUD AS CANNON

No Trick at All to Magnify Sound Five Million Times.

WIRELESS EXPERT TELLS HOW

Ticking of Watch Can Be Amplified Until It Sounds Like Breakers on an Ocean Cliff—In Practical Use.

San Francisco.—A man's voice can be made as loud as the cannon's roar; it can be heard two or twenty miles. The ticking of a watch can be amplified until it sounds like breakers on an ocean cliff.

"It's no trick at all to magnify sound four or five million times, or indefinitely," said Tom Lambert, a wireless telephone engineer. "All that is needful is to connect a number of vacuum valves in multiple with a wireless receiving set, and the thing is done. At the first receiving contact a voice will be normal. Cut in one vacuum valve and it is raised seven times; thereafter it squares itself—seven times; thereafter it squares itself—seven times seven to forty-nine for the next vacuum valve, and forty-nine times forty-nine for the next, and so on."

"I mean volume of sound, not power of transmission," explained Lambert. "In a test recently a phonograph was connected with an amplifier at midnight, and we were lifting it up gradually to supply all San Francisco with song and amusement, when the police urged us to desist."

Grand Stand Hears Watch Tick.

"In the stadium at Golden Gate park the ticking of a watch was made audible all over the grand stand while an athletic meet was in progress. Capt. Robert W. A. Brewer, an experimenter, moved off 2,000 feet and spoke quietly to his dog, and the dog couldn't be held. A wireless station which I am not permitted to name recently received a telephoned message from Europe, and through its amplifier started duck hunters in the marshes eight miles away."

Mr. Lambert exhibited one of the vacuum valves. Its exterior resembled an ordinary 16-candle electric light bulb. Through the glass, however, could be seen electric winding that was dissimilar. Around a filament was wound convolutions of wire called a "grid." Above the grid was an encircling metallic plate. The current passed through each in the order described. The incoming wireless signals travel down the aerial wire to the tuning set and then to the vacuum valve, which is a "detector," or receiver.

Used to Address Audiences.

For practical purposes the vacuum valve has its use, as in warships, where the wireless telephone speaks its message through a horn to several officers instead of to one using earpieces. It can be availed of to address audiences.

The wireless telephone is wonderfully extending the field developed by the wireless telegraph. Any wireless telegraph receiving set is equally good for receiving telephoned messages. The transmitting instruments, of course, are different.

Every airplane possessed by Uncle Sam and all United States warships are equipped with wireless telephone apparatus. These sets on warships are efficient at least 20 miles.

Victory Cathedral as World War Memorial

Seattle, Wash.—The part which Northwestern soldiers played in the world war will be commemorated here by the erection of a victory memorial cathedral to cost almost $1,000,000. It is proposed that the 12 windows in the cathedral shall be in memory of the heroes of the allied nations which have made the supreme sacrifice. These nations include England, France, Belgium, Italy, Canada, Greece, Russia, Serbia, Portugal, Japan and China. Bronze tablets will contain the names of Northwestern men who entered their country's service, and battle flags will be hung from the Gothic rafters.

Doctor Makes Calls in Plane.

Beaver City, Neb.—Employment of an airplane as a means of transportation for a physician who is called upon to make long-distance professional calls, has been inaugurated by Dr. F. A. Brewster. He uses a Curtiss biplane with Wade Stevens, a former army lieutenant, as his pilot. Shortly after Doctor Brewster made his first flight he received a call to visit a patient in Kansas. He made the call in his airplane.

Long Argument.

San Francisco—A 4,200-mile argument ended today when Captain Lundin fired a galleymen for refusal to wear a shirt. The argument started when Steamer Thalia left Honolulu and ended when she docked here.

Crimean War.

The Crimean war occurred in 1853-55, between Russia on one side and the allied forces of Turkey, France and Great Britain on the other. It grew out of dominating and aggressive claims by Russia. The war took its name from that it was mainly waged in a Russian peninsula on the border of the Black sea, a strip of country called Crim or Crim by the Russians and Anglicized as Crimea, pronounced Crim-e-a, with the I short as in criminal and accent on the second syllable.

INVENTORS HELPED WIN WAR

Patents, Long Held Up, Are Now Being Allowed—Come From All Sections.

Washington.—The latest war secret to leak out is how friendly inventors all over the world gave to the United States their ideas for death dealing machines for the destruction of Germany.

A companion secret is how all these ideas were kept from the enemy by the "seven serious Sphinxes" of the patent office. This was a board of seven men, of unquestioned loyalty and sworn secrecy, empowered to examine and withhold patents on war machines until the war was over and meanwhile turn ideas of promise over to the government.

More than 2,000 devices which it was thought might be of value to the United States or the allies were passed upon and 200 were important enough to get before military authorities. Some of them, it is said, helped win the war. The ideas came from England, France, Switzerland, Hawaii, New Zealand, Australia, Mexico, Spain, Italy, Russia, Poland and one from Germany. Of course, a larger number came from within the United States. Now that the war is over the patents are being allowed.

DREAMS REVEAL DISEASES

British Medical Corps Use This Method on Nerve-Shattered Soldiers.

London.—Curing nerve-shattered soldiers through their dreams is the latest experiment of the British army medical corps, and according to Captain M. Culpin, it is succeeding beyond all expectations.

"In the method I adopt," Doctor Culpin said, "the patient relates the dream to me, and I insist upon the man talking about the incident."

"I make the patient close his eyes and visualize the dream, and ascertain what particular feature causes emotion. By dwelling on this feature I induce an emotional state and assure him that he felt like that before and that memory is coming up."

"When success is attained there is a sudden change of facial expression or even an access of terror. By this I know I have reached the true cause of the dream."

U. OF TEXAS LEASES OIL LAND

School Has 2,000,000 Acres Acquired When Lone Star State Was Republic.

Dallas, Tex.—More than 2,000,000 acres of land granted to the University of Texas when the Lone Star state was a republic are being opened up for oil-drilling purposes.

The university already has leased tracts of land to oil companies and drilling has started. Thousands of other applications have been made for leases, it is said. Much of the property is in the Ranger and Burkburnett fields. Other tracts are in the western end of the state, where a new oil boom has just developed.

Applications to the land office in Austin for leases on this land must be made in duplicate to the county clerk of the particular county in which the land is located. One-eighth of the value of all oil found and one-tenth of the value of gas go to the university.

Sure Relief For All Rheumatisms

If So Crippled You Can't Use Arms or Legs, Rheuma Will Help You. If you want relief in two days, with certain, gratifying relief, take a small dose of Rheuma once a day. If you want to dissolve every particle of uric acid poison in your blood channels so that you will be free from rheumatism, get a bottle of Rheuma from Alexander's Pharmacy or any druggist at once. It must give the joyful relief expected in every instance. Rheumatism is a powerful disease strongly entrenched in joints and muscles. In order to conquer it a powerful enemy must be sent a rain of fire. Rheuma is the enemy of Rheumatism every instance. Judge John Barhorst, of Ft. Lorain, Ohio, knows it. He was walking with crutches, today he is well. It should be as much for you; it seldom fails.

Babies Burdened With Names.

It begins to look as if the same person who used to christen the Pullman sleepers has taken up his residence in this city and is now naming war babies. A glance at the vital statistics records shows that some of the girl babies are going through life burdened with Christian names that will compel the growing generation to give considerable time and study to pronounce them. All of which recalls the words of General Sherman.—New York Sun.

A Bit Twisted.

A squad of recruits was practicing communications down a line of men in open order formation. One message was: "Hard pressed on left; send reinforcements at once." To the amusement of the officer in charge this is how it reached him: "Hard up on left; send three dollars and four cents at once."—Buffalo Commercial.

OBITUARY.
It was with profound sorrow that the community learned of the death of Edwin Savage Wednesday evening, July 9. The family has lost an affectionate husband and father and the community a respected citizen. Mr. Savage was born in industry sixty years ago, but it was here that the greater part of his life was spent, among those who knew him but to love and honor him. He needs no higher eulogy than this, that all who knew him were glad to call him their friend.
Mr. Savage had been in failing for some years, most tenderly cared for by his wife and daughter Adah. Besides these, he leaves a son, Newman, and a daughter, Ruth, both of New York, and one brother, Samuel, of this place.
Funeral services were held in the Union church Sunday. The abundant floral tributes silently told of the esteem in which the deceased was held. Members of Tugwassa lodge, I. O. O. HEALTHY BOWELS.
Nine-tenths of human sickness, from infancy to old age, comes from stomach and bowels being out of order.
Headaches, tired feeling, nervous depression, weakness, spots before the eyes, bad breath, sleeplessness, irritability, dizziness and many other signs of sickness stop, if you treat the stomach and bowels right and get them into working order.
The prescription known as Dr. Tru's Elixir has done wonders for sick people, men, women and children, because it is the one remedy that you can rely on to set things right in the stomach and bowels.
Sold by all druggists, big or little, everywhere. Druggists, as a rule, are very honest. They do not try to substitute something else for Dr. Tru's Elixir, because they know its value. Many druggists use it in their own families.

The morning ball game between Ellsworth and Bucksport was won by Ellsworth, score 4 to 3. "Red" DeRocher for Bucksport and "Cuff" Jordan for Ellsworth, pitched gilt-edged ball, with Jordan having a shade the better of the argument. Both pitchers received poor support.

The game between Bluehill and Ellsworth in the afternoon, was won by Bluehill, score 24 to 6. Jordan, who started for Ellsworth, went along well until the sixth inning, when he was driven from the box by a storm of hits. Barron, who succeeded him, fared little better, while Doc. Dwyer, pitching for Bluehill, held the game safe at all times. Both Robertson and Linnehan caught a fine game. Trafton, as usual, starred at bat for Bluehill, with two doubles and two singles.

Arthur Fairley of New York and Brooksville won both the half-mile and 230-yard races. He ran the half in splendid form, finishing in a great rush to the tape, with Edwin Maddox a good second. Lincoln Fairley won second in the dash. The dance in the evening packed the town hall. Music was furnished by Hinkley's orchestra.

There is no Patent on How to Gain a Competency—It's Simple—Thrifty and War Savings Stamps Will form a Solid Foundation.

July 1919 is especially a season of rejoicings and beginnings. We celebrate our national anniversary this year with unusual vim and enthusiasm because of the cessation of war and the return of the boys from overseas. As in a long ago July we began our life as a nation, so in this July many young men are practically beginning their lives anew.

They are not the same careless young men who went away with a jest and a song. They have returned older, more thoughtful, more earnest. Some of their old associations will be distasteful to them, and they will create new ones.

The war has made a similar impression upon the entire nation. We too are changed, we too have learned to think more wisely. Especially notable in this connection is the revival of the old-time spirit of thrift upon which was built the national prosperity which enabled us to achieve wonderful results in a minimum of time.

In their zeal to help the Government many became during the war, almost unaware, the possessor of more money than they ever had before, and they will not willingly relax from so satisfactory a condition.

There is nothing which fosters a spirit of worthy independence as does the consciousness of sufficient means to meet an emergency. With those who experience it every day is independence day. If there are those who do not realize the happiness which comes through thrift, there is no better time than the present to make a declaration of independence all their own, and for a foundation Thrift and War Savings Stamps are available, safe and profitable.

LITTLE RUTH WANTED TO BUY "FRIF STAMPS"

Every week on pay day Ruth's auntie brought her one or more Thrift Stamps. Auntie was not only very fond of Ruth but she was a young woman of business and understood the value of small savings. She wanted Ruth to be well provided for and therefore made an investment for her in the way Uncle Sam had made possible for people with small incomes every time the payman had been around.

Three-year old Ruth was deeply interested in the stamps. She literally cried for them. Late one cold afternoon last winter when it had grown quite dark, Ruth insisted on going out. Nothing would dissuade her from it. She was finally bundled up and the door opened into the blackness beyond. Nothing daunted, Ruth went out alone and trotted up the street ever so far. Mamma, following after, wondered what the baby could want. As there seemed no end to the journey she finally asked Ruth what she was going for. The answer came promptly, "Ruth buy Frif Stamps."
Ruth seems to have learned her lesson and Auntie is more in earnest now than ever in buying Thrift Stamps and seeing them turn into War Savings Stamps for baby Ruth.
