An off day

You may have one of this day occasionally. It may follow extraordinarily, for it's often almost the same day in succession. But it will be a few years before you have two of them in sequence. I think it must mean that you're more what we call an "average" person than an exceptional one. The days that get to us usually fall into three classes: (1) the days that you work, (2) the days that you don't work, and (3) the days that you wish you didn't work. There is nothing new, nay, not remotely, which should be considered to be the elements of this kind of day. There are many days that you don't work, and many days that you wish you didn't work. The best way to get through the former is to recognize the fact that the days are here and there, and that you must make the best of them. The best way to get through the latter is to realize that the days are here and there, and that you must make the best of them.

Three relief from the sugar shortage is promised by the return to Boston this week of two cargoes of Cuban sugar, valued at $750,000. Judging by the demand, more cargoes await departure that would keep Ellsworth people in sugar at least till next week.

Governor Milton has sent out the formal call for the special session of the legislature, to convene Thursday, Nov. 4. The special session was called, primarily, to enable the legislature to pass highway bond legislation, as approved by the voters at the special election held on Oct. 18.

A bill was also proposed to take up the bridge bill, on which agreement was reached at the regular session. Now the legislative buoyancy has been drawn wide open, and instructions are to begin session, with all authority.

Among the bills proposed is one to reduce the capital and annual limit of the state's highway bond issue. A similar bill has been approved by the voters at the special election held on Oct. 18.

The United States railroad administrations have suddenly pulled a pinch like a hundred law-abiding citizens who have been following the practice of railroad travel for years. The result is a string of railroad coaches.

Dealers in machinery and manufacturers afield are justly as interested in the new agreement as in the old. The dealers are pleased with the new agreement, which has been the subject of intense anxiety among the manufacturers who have been following the practice of railroad travel for years.

The new agreement is said to be particular in the way of keeping the various branches of the machinery business in touch with the railroad, and in the aggregate, the manufacturers are more than content with the new agreement. The dealers are said to be particularly careful in approaching highway crossings, and persons who make a practice of walking on railroad tracks are to be specially careful in the matter.

On the facts that 2,000 people are killed and as many injured by railroad accidents each year, it is evident that the new agreement is to be followed as a matter of national necessity.

MADRAS, OREG.

Miss. A. WRAY has been appointed supervisor of the school in the Nzuri, a village near the coast of the island of Zanzibar, East Africa, which will be maintained at the expense of the United States government. The school is designed to provide education for the children of the native population, and Miss. A. WRAY has been selected for the position because of her proficiency in the language and customs of the region.

COUNTY NEWS

OREG.

Frank W. Whitehouse's home burned to the ground in the town of Marion, on Wednesday afternoon.

Many from the town and neighborhood visited the scene of the conflagration, and two of the children were taken to the hospital with burns.

Frank W. Whitehouse, who lives in the town of Marion, was the owner of the house and all of his possessions were lost.

John Smith, who lives in the town of Marion, said that he was unable to save his home because the fire started in the early morning hours.

Mrs. J. B. Whitehouse, who lives in the town of Marion, said that she and her family were able to escape without injury.

The town of Marion plans to hold a memorial service for the victims of the fire on Thursday afternoon.

COVENTRY NEWS

On Aug. 15, the town of Coventry held a pageant to celebrate its 100th anniversary.

The pageant included a parade, a play, and a concert, and was attended by thousands of people.

The parade was led by a band, and the play was performed on the town square.

The concert was held in the town hall, and featured many local musicians.

The pageant was considered a great success, and plans are already underway for next year's celebration.

So Human

it amazed all Ellsworth

SOME of your friends must have been in the large audience which heard Marie Morrey in her Tons-Test recital at Hancock Hall recently. Ask them about it. This is the astonishing discovery they made.

The keenest musical ear can not distinguish any difference between the voice of a woman and the RE-CREATION of that voice by the New Edison.

and does it not amaze you, too, that Mr. Edison has succeeded in producing an instrument that captures every subtle sweetness of the human voice-what gives you all the ear can give you of the art of the world's great artists. No other phonograph dares to make this direct comparison.
