Ellsworth People Demand The Best in Candy

Our experience has shown that they do not patronize bargain sales in candy any more than they would a bargain sale of dirty sugar, sour milk or cheap butter. Our candy business is growing daily. We buy chocolates at least once a week, often twice a week, so that our candies are always fresh. Of course we carry different lines

Henry H. Higgins is tearing down the large barn at the rear of his house at Main and Oak streets. The appearance of this corner will be greatly improved by the removal of this barn.

The Ellsworth athletic club ball team was out last Saturday for its first warming up of the season, playing against the snappy Ellsworth high school team. The score was 18-12 in favor of the Athletics.

Ellsworth merchants seem unable to agree upon the closing of their stores Wednesday afternoons during the summer months, as had been suggested. They are, however, all in favor of closing at 9 p. m. Saturday evenings, and it is hoped this will be done.

Next Saturday at Wyman park the Ellsworth high school baseball nine will play Higgins classical institute. This should be one of the best school games of the season in Ellsworth. Higgins won the baseball championship of the Penobscot Valley high school league last year. They are out for the same honors this year.

An error was made in the dates for the special conclaves of Blanquefort commandery, K. T., announced to be held this month. One was held last Monday evening, and the other will be held Monday, May 24. There will be work in the orders of the red cross, temple and malta. Work will begin at 5, banquet at 6.30, followed by work again in the evening.

The Ellsworth Aces are still putting it all over the grammar school teams of other towns they meet on the diamond. Last Saturday at Bucksport they played a Bucksport team. The score was 18-8 in favor of Ellsworth. H. Higgins and L. Beal were the battery for Ellsworth. Davis led at the bat, and also made the only two-base hit of the game. A. Eaton played a fine game at third.

City Marshal Stuart and Night Officer Shea are making good the promise that they would enforce the automobile ordinance. John Harrington and J. Artelle McGown were arrested last week for driving at night without the necessary lights. In the municipal court, the case against Harrington was dismissed. McGown was fined $10 and costs, and appealed. City Marshal Stuart also calls attention to the ordinance regarding the sounding of horns, which reads as follows: "Drivers of motor vehicles of all kinds shall in approaching or in rounding a corner or curve on a public street, sound their signals in such a way so as to give warning to other vehicles and to pedestrians of their approach."

Justice Morrill has rendered judgment for plaintiff in the sum of $103.99, in the case of J. H. Brennan vs. Martin E. Salsbury, heard at the last term of court. The suit was for taxes of the city of Ellsworth for the years 1912-13-15-16-17-18, with interest. Justice Morrill, in rendering judgment, says in substance: "The defendant relied upon two contentions. 1. That plaintiff was not legally qualified as collector, but the plea of the general issue admits the capacity of the plaintiff to sue. 2. That the votes of the city government of Ellsworth introduced in evidence were not sufficient to authorize the collection of interest upon taxes. This contention I sustain." The judgment is for the full amount of taxes, with interest from the date of the writ.

Mrs. Henrietta Dyer of Brockton, Mass., formerly of Ellsworth, died very suddenly Saturday, May 1, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Vonie M. Walsh. Funeral services were held at the Olivet Memorial church, Brockton, of which she was an active member. Mrs. Dyer was born in Ellsworth Jan. 27, 1851, and her life, until the past eighteen years, was spent here and in neighboring towns. She is survived by five children, Mrs. Vonie M. Walsh and Mrs. Eva Duddy of Brockton, Mass., Mrs. Harriette Lydon of Abington, Mass., Mrs. Lola Hodgkins of Hancock, and Zelman E. Dyer of Auburn; also one sister, Mrs. Mary A. MUTUAL BENEFIT COLUMN.
Edited by "Aunt Madge."
MOTTO:—HELPFUL AND HOPEFUL
The purposes of this column are succinctly stated in the title and motto—it is for the mutual benefit, and aims to be helpful and hopeful. Being for the common good it is for the common use—a public servant, a purveyor of information and suggestions, a medium for the interchange of ideas, in this capacity it solicits communications, and its success depends largely on the support given it in this respect. Communications must be signed, but the name of writer will not be printed except by permission. Communications will be subject to approval or rejection by the editor of the column, but none will be rejected without good reason. Address all communications to The American, Ellsworth, Me.

NO OCCUPATION.
She rises up at break of day;
And through her tasks she races;
She cooks the meal as best she may,
And scrubs the children's faces,
While schoolbooks, lunches, ribbons
All need consideration.
And yet the census man insists
She has "no occupation."
When breakfast puddings all are done,
She bakes a pudding, maybe;
She cleans the rooms up one by one,
With one eye watching baby;
The mending pile she then attacks,
By way of variation.
And yet the census man insists
She has "no occupation."
She irons for a little while,
Then presses pants for daddy;
She welcomes with a cheery smile
Returning lass and laddie.
A hearty dinner next she cooks
(No time for relaxation).
And yet the census man insists
She has "no occupation."

For lessons that the children learn
The evening scare is ample,
To "mother dear" they always turn
For help with each example.
In grammar and geography
She finds her relaxation.
And yet the census man insists
She has "no occupation."
—Elsie Duncan Yale, in Woman's Home Companion.
Dear M. B. Friends:
I doubt not many a census taker in the country heard the exclamation: "What! No occupation!" when he called on the good wife for information about the farm or the home conditions. I am sure one such gentleman heard it, at least once—the additional statement that in former decades the woman, at least, was entitled to be called "housewife." Think of it! One, ten, twenty, forty, fifty years of housekeeping, and "no occupation." Alexia's poem tells the true story and will be much enjoyed.

Dear M. B.:
Spring is here, but isn't it cold! Too cold to think of cleaning house, yet. We had a hard winter, so much snow, and it seems nice to see the ground once more. I see the flies are coming, so I guess they think warm weather is coming, too. The hens and geese seem pleased to get out again. Did you ever see a goose egg? We have one that weighs one pound and is eleven and one-half inches one way and eight and one-half the other. We have some more that are quite large, but not so long.
I was remembered at Easter and on my birthday with cards and other remembrances. I picked up an old paper yesterday with the verses Vashit sent about a friend. How true they are. I enjoyed the questions, and answered twelve of the bible ones just reading them twice. I shall always remember that Patti was a great singer, the first person I can remember of being cremated and her ashes put in an urn. Well, Aunt Maria, we are going to raise two little bossies this year. I have named them Chery and Molly. And we have twenty-three little pigs. I haven't seen them yet. Don't you think I am a great farmer? But I never liked the barn. The automobiles have had quite a rest, but I see they are out again and before long our tractors can come and see us.

I extend the right hand of fellowship to all new members, and hope more will join. Someone asked about a rug. Take plain pants-cloth, cut in the shape of a tongue, work around button-hole stitch with worsted or yarn, all except the top. Take a piece of cloth, or two pieces, for you will need a lining, and bind it around. To give you an idea you can make it about thirty by eighteen inches, sew first on one end and then on the other, letting one row lap on the other to cover sewing on. For the center have cut out two horseshoes, work them around and put them on for a finish.
With best wishes to all,
"Pansy."

You will all find the following letter and clipping, relating to doughnuts, very interesting. It is the first time I have seen that recipe.
Dear Aunt Madge and Sisters:
Now that it is time for the smart M. B. sisters to be busy housecleaning, I thought that perhaps a little help might be acceptable to Aunt Madge, even if it was not the best kind.
Since the last reunion, Aunt Madge's nieces have been faithful to her, and written many interesting letters. I have enjoyed reading them during the past long, cold, stormy winter. To some of our sisters and friends the winter has brought sickness and sorrow. Those who have not the doughnuts that the Salvation had either have reason to be thankful.
Some time ago I found a recipe for Army lassies used to make for our boys over in France, with a history of them, and I thought that I would send it to the M. B. C., as some of the soldier boys' mothers or wives might Itching piles provoke profanity, but profanity won't remove them. Doan's Ointment is recommended for itching, bleeding or protruding piles. 60c at any drug store.—Adv't.

like to have it to keep, to show to their grandchildren in the years to come.
I have always thought that these lassies were very brave and good, to make those doughnuts, under such difficulties, and oftentimes in the midst of so much danger. They must have tasted good to the hungry, homesick boys, so far away from home and mother.
"Alexia."

THE DOUGHNUT OF THE TRENCHES
In the glory of light
That comes after the fight
To hallow a nation's brave,
There stands forth a girl
Who in war's bloody whirl
Helped the fighter this country
to save.
The Salvation Army doughnut girl of the front line trenches is the heroine of this song which the soldier boys are bringing home.
Ensign Agnes Sheldon was the lassie who thought of the doughnuts as army provender. She and a group of the girls in short skirts and khaki were talking of the minimum of provisions and the maximum of need. "We need something nourishing that can be quickly cooked," they agreed. "And something that is simple, for we have few ingredients."
Ensign Sheldon rose from the council group, struck her tambourine and shouted, "Hallelujah!"
"Have you thought of something?" asked the others.
"Doughnuts!" she cried.
"Doughnuts!" they cried, struck their tambourines and shouted, "Hallelujah!"
Here is the recipe the lassies used:
Five cups flour (add more if needed); 2 cups sugar; 5 level teaspoonsful baking powder; 1 saltspoonful salt; 2 eggs; 1 1/2 cups milk; 1 tablespoonful lard.
The dry ingredients and the wet are mixed separately before the whole is kneaded and ready to fry.
Mix all into a soft doughball and cut with a doughnut cutter. Drop into very hot lard. It is well to clarify the lard by dropping a slice of raw potato into it. This will draw to it flakes of four or lumps of dough that may be floating in the hot lard; also the browning of the slice will indicate how hot the lard is and whether the doughnuts will quickly brown in it.
This quantity will make four dozen doughnuts.

During the recent gales and heavy rains the fishhouse of Adelbert Torrey on the eastern shore was almost tumbled over into the sea. NO REASON FOR IT

You Are Shown a Way Out.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills will fail to heed the word of a resident of this locality who has found relief. The following is convincing proof.

John Lake, stone mason, State st., Ellsworth Falls, Me., says: "Some years ago my back was lame and painful, and at times I could hardly get about, and was all bent over. My work causes more or less strain on my back and I think it had a lot to do with bringing on the trouble. I had fainting and dizzy spells, in fact, I was in pretty bad shape. I tried different kinds of kidney medicines but Doan's Kidney Pills did me more good than all the others combined. This medicine cured me."

Price 60c., at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lake had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

"Condition"

Practice and physical condition govern the tennis player's speed and staying power. Correct lubrication does the same for motors.

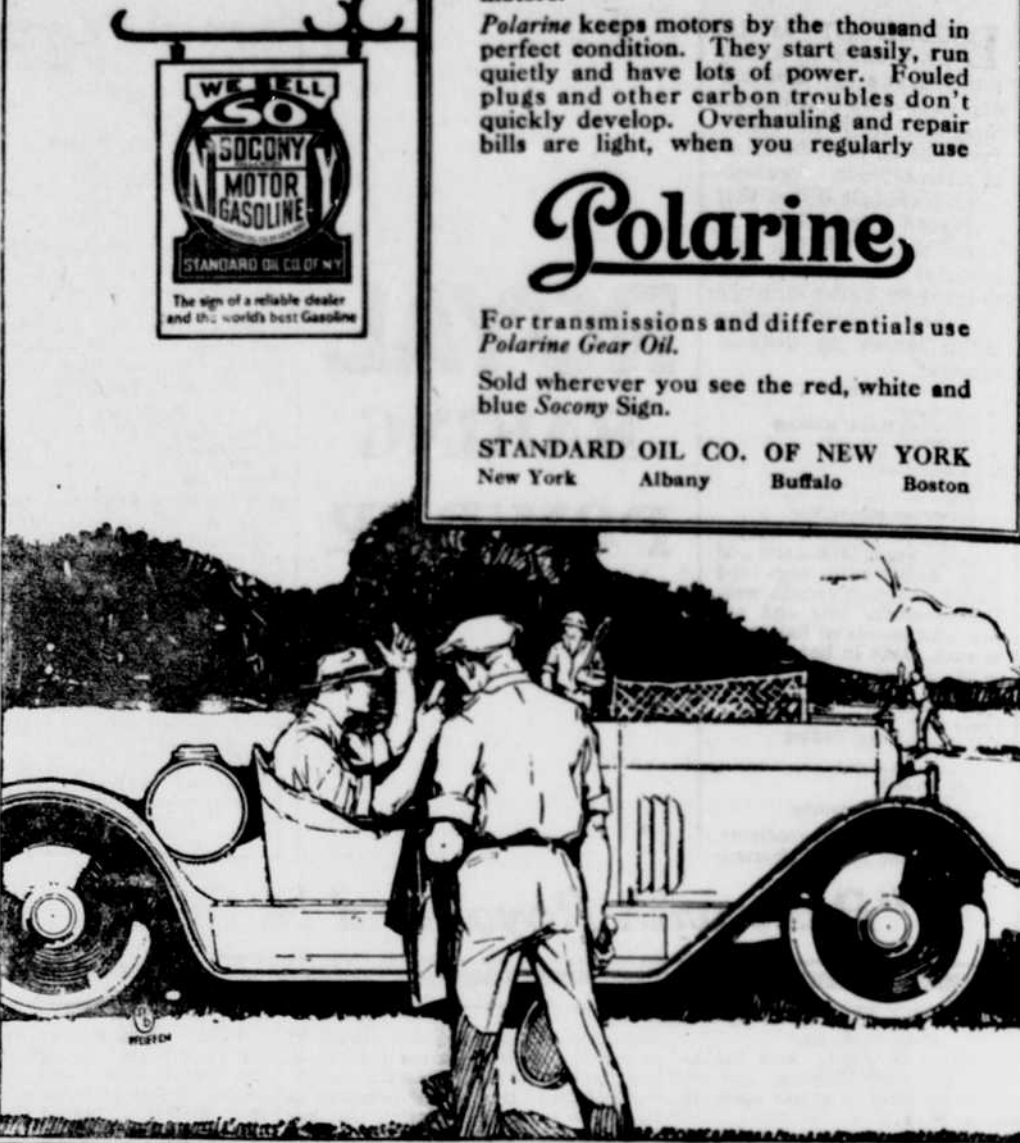

Polarine keeps motors by the thousand in perfect condition. They start easily, run quietly and have lots of power. Fouled plugs and other carbon troubles don't quickly develop. Overhauling and repair bills are light, when you regularly use

New Orleans Cemeteries.

Surrounded as it is on three sides by the Mississippi and on the fourth by Lake Pontchartrain, no wonder New Orleans must bury its dead above-ground! Even a shallow grave becomes a well. The cemeteries, with their wildernesses of stone and marble tombs, are one of the sights of the city.

United States' Land Best.

British America, which consists of Canada, Newfoundland and a number of islands, has an area of 3,750,000 square miles, while the total area of the United States and its possessions is 3,743,446 square miles. Thus Britain has a little more territory, but it is largely so far north as to be of comparatively little value.

Explains Sodom and Gomorrah.

Bricks cemented together with dried petroleum have curiously enough, been found in large quantities in Nineveh and Babylon. The oil-bearing and sulphur-impregnated shales of the Dead Sea, which are now being developed, supplied the "brimstone and fire" which destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.

Why Was The Highest Quality Corn Flakes Named —

POST TOASTIES

They could have been called just "corn flakes," but their superiority entitled them to a distinctive name.

Bear this in mind when ordering corn flakes. That name is your protection, as well as ours. Specify Post Toasties to your grocer and you are sure of satisfaction.

Post Toasties are in greater demand throughout the United States than other kinds of corn flakes.

There's a flavor, a substance and a satisfaction to these superior flakes which put them head and shoulders over other brands.
