MERRILL STILL GOING

I. L. Merrill Jr., of Camden, State amateur golf champion, broke the amateur record for the Penobscot Valley Country Club 18-hole course Sunday forenoon and equalled the course record of 71 established by the great Walter Hagen when he played Striley and Charles P. Webber, 2nd.
Merrill played in competition with Dr. C. M. Thomas, Arthur Thomas and P. C. Baldy. He made the first nine in par 36 and the second nine in 35, one under par. "He" is playing the best game of his life and has won everything but the state open amate-tour championship, being eliminated
in that tournament by his friend
Charles Webber.

It was hardly expected that Hagen's score of 71 would be met for many years, that one stroke below par,
which was the previous record,
being hard to equal. The performance of that wonderful amateur,
young Merrill, shows that great golf can be played by amateurs as well as professionals. The professional and amateur record now stands at 71, giving future golfers something to shoot at.

ST. GEORGE'S BIG DAY

Labor Day Plans Show Plenty Of Amusement In Store
Down At Ocean View Park

St. George and Labor Day have come to be synonymous terms, all because of the big celebration they have down there each season to raise funds
for their championship baseball team.

This year Ocean View Park is going to be the scene of another big gathering, with plenty to entertain the holiday pleasure seekers.

There will be two games in the Knox County Twilight League—10.30
a. m. and 4.30 p. m. daylight time.
The contenders will be St. George and Camden. Manager Thomas has strengthened the Camden team, with the avowed intention of taking at least one of the two games.

A feature of the afternoon will be the track meet at 1.30 with these events, open to all: 100, 220 and 440
yard dashes, half-mile and mile, running and broad jumps, pole vault, hammer throw, shotput, discus and javelin. The entry list already includes college and prep school men.

There will be a midway, and all kinds of games—to say nothing of that fascinating diversion known as Beano.

The Rockland Band of 20 pieces will tout 'er up all day, and in the evening there will be a dance at Odd Fellows' hall, with music by Kirk's Orchestra.

The admission to the grounds for the day is: Adults 40 cents, children, 8 to 15 years, 10 cents, and under 8 years free.

Lobster stew, clam chowder and other refreshments will be served on the grounds.

The townspeople take this method of giving a benefit for the baseball boys who play all season without salaries.

WHEN SOL WAS SHADOWED

Those Who Saw the Whole Show Have Something To Talk About For a Lifetime

Rockland citizens, in common with those from all over New England stared skyward between the hours of 3 and 5 yesterday afternoon to view the eclipse of the sun. Unfortunately this city did not happen to be in the zone of totality, but the show was a mighty interesting one, and all points of vantage were taken, "The Lookout" on Talbot avenue being especially favored.

A Courier-Gazette reporter who journeyed to Brunswick to see the event as a total eclipse was one of numerous guests entertained by Mr.

and Mrs. Ivan A. Truworth, former Rockland residents. Among others in this group were Edward Gonia and the families of Walter C. Ladd and Harold L. Karl.

With not a vestige of clouds to dim
the western sky the eclipse was a complete success, and when the sun was completely shadowed the corona presented a spectacle which none of the beholders will ever forget. The weird light which existed during the final phases of the eclipse changed to a semi-darkness, and the planet Jupiter on the right of the sun was almost as brilliant as at night.

Totally lasted about 40 seconds
and the effect was most striking when the tip of the sun emerged from the opposite side of the shadow.

Other pilgrims to Brunswick included Col. and Mrs. Basil H. Stinson and Miss Monira McIntosh.

Frank C. Pratt viewed the eclipse in Lewiston.

The Kennebec Bridge at Bath was thronged with eclipsers.
Those who made the trip via the Atlantic Highway hope the work there will be completed before the next total eclipse, which, as you may recall, will be in the Twenty-first century.

THROUGH THE AIR

Some Remarkable Government
Figures Showing Growth of Flying

Scheduled air transport services operating in the United States flew 22,201,395 miles and carried 217,274 passengers and 441,137 pounds of express during the first six months of 1932, according to the results from a preliminary survey made by the Aeronautics Branch of the Department of Commerce.

The number of passengers carried represented an increase of 47,458 over the number carried during the first six months of 1931. There was also an increase of 4,072,227 in the number of miles flown and 13,659,827 in the number of passenger miles flown, (a passenger mile being the equivalent of one passenger flown one mile). A total of 441,137 pounds of express was carried during the first months of 1932, as compared with the 247,422 pounds for the first six months of 1931. In both air express totals privately carried freight was excluded.

Mr. Martin pledged himself if elected to carry on the sound financial policies on which the State is now conducted, and specified five instances in which he believed economies could be effected, making possible a reduction of one mill in the tax rate. He favored 10 percent re-

THE SERIES IS ARRANGED

St. George and All-Stars Play Three Games For Hospital,
First In Camden Tomorrow Night

In behalf of the All-Star team selected from the Knox County Twilight League I hereby accept the proposition of the St. George manager to play three games for the benefit of the Knox County General Hospital, the first to take place Friday afternoon, Sept. 2, at 5.15 p. m. in Camden.

I cannot help feeling regretful that the terms do not include some form of recompense for the All-Stars, who in this period of depression stand in need of funds as many others do.
The St. George team, in addition to having had another successful season again wins the Curtis Bok prize of $250, making $750 along with its gate receipts in the past three years. I do not fail to take into account that this money was won because of the team's superiority, but it does not lessen the fact that here is one team

on Easy Street while the All-Stars have had lean picking. I am certain that the public sympathizes with our position.

Our team will be made up as follows:

REPUBLICANS HAPPY OVER "VICTORY TOUR"

Two United States Senators and a Representative In Yesterday's Drive, Which Was Everywhere Cordially Welcomed—Last Night's Rousing Meeting

Yesterday's victory tour of the Republican candidates was a success beyond the expectations of the most optimistic leaders, covering practically every precinct in Knox County, and culminating in last night's wonderful outdoor meeting at the Playground, where upward of 1000 persons were treated to three of the finest political speeches ever heard in Rockland.

This meeting was not scheduled to begin until 8.30, because of the Camden rally which preceded it, but the reduction in salaries of more than $1500, including his own, should he be elected. This step alone would save the State $145,000. In the various departments it seemed possible, he said,

to save half a million dollars.

One sentiment which evoked special applause was his declaration that Route No. 1 should be completed at the earliest possible moment. He feels a personal interest in this proposition as he spends much of his summer at Boothbay Harbor.

The speaker favored the development of the tourist business, only the surface of which has yet been scratched, and which would be of great benefit to Knox County. He expressed the belief that road work in tourist sections should be started in the fall and completed in the spring.

Congressman Nelson expressed the belief that the deepening of Rockland harbor would increase the city's chance of obtaining important industries, and announced his intention of seeing if some of the money to be expended on government projects
cannot be diverted here.

Mr. Nelson reviewed some of the principal events of his 10 years' experience in Congress, feeling that the voters of the county which has just been added to his district were entitled to know something of what he has done in Washington. As a member of the committee on Labor he had become interested in and familiar with the ideals and aspirations of the American laboring man. He took part in the fight against the abuse of the federal injunction bill and worked for the Wagner employment agency bill. His efforts have been commended in the official organ known as Labor. As a member of the committee on Postoffices and Post Roads he supported proper methods for improving the wages and conditions of men in the postal service.

Working in behalf of veterans legislation he had kept one man busy on compensation claims. He had been able to put through the House a bill for a $750,000 veterans' hospital in Maine. He had voted for all veterans' legislation except the emergency officers' retirement bill, which had made unjust discrimination.

Coming to the subject of soldiers' bonus Congressman Nelson told of the heroic efforts made by the last Congress to balance the budget when productive industry was prostrate and when banks were failing at the rate of 25 a day. With 30,000,000 on can afford to expend 50 percent of their budget in fighting each other they can afford to pay us what they owe us."

Mr. Nelson told of the efforts made by Maine's 4000 lobster fishermen, to remove Canadian competition which is destroying the industry, and how the Democrats, opposed by tradition to protection, had blocked every move.

A bill was introduced which would have shut out 40 percent of the lobsters coming from Canada. A delegation of Maine fishermen appeared at the hearing and made a splendid appearance. The Maine delegation

Judge Walter H. Butler, Whose Happy Presentation of Last Night's Speakers Added To Success of the Meeting

got the bill favorably before the House and it is in order for hearing before Congressman Nelson's committee on Interstate Commerce at the coming session. "The lobster industry must have tariff protection," said Mr. Nelson, "and this can come only through a Republican House and a Republican Ways and Means committee."

"Under a competitive tariff, such as is proposed by the Democrats, the mills of Warren and Camden would not be operating. We cannot compete with countries where the workmen are paid one-third what they receive in this country, and are paid with a 60-cent dollar."

The speaker derided the suggestion that foreign debts be paid with cheaply manufactured foreign goods.

Senator White said it was like a home-coming to get back to Rockland, where his mother was born. To Congressman Nelson's modest sketching of his own career in Congress, Senator White added words of personal praise. "I have served with him," said Mr. White, "and have seen him grow in influence, mounting the ladder round by round, until he ranks
among the half dozen men in Congress having the most influence. He is indefatigable, courageous and honest, called upon to serve on carefully selected committees."

Touching upon the tariff, Senator White said that the Democrats have never stood for protection, and that practically every product of the farm has some degree of protection—placed there by the Republican party. The voters are now offered their choice of two doctrines, the lowered tariff wall of the Democrats or the protective policy of the Republicans.

"We have been living through troubled times," said Senator White
—"a cataclysm which has engulfed
the entire world. We have stopped the raids on 4100 banks. And why are we interested in banks? Because in them were the savings of 15,000-000 American people. We have loaned to railroads because their securities are to be found in many homes, and because millions of men are dependent upon them. We have loaned to insurance companies for the protection of your policies; we have made 500,000 loans to individual farmers; we have passed the home loan bill."

Senator White cited other achievements of the Republican party—formulated in the mind of that much tried patriot—President Hoover.

OLD SCHOOLDAYS

List of Teachers and Pupils
At Head of the Lake in the Sixties

Under the heading of "Memories," R. L. Jones of The Highlands has submitted a list of teachers and pupils who attended school in the "little red schoolhouse" at the Head of the Lake, Appleton, in the year 1863-64, and would appreciate knowing if the list is complete:

Teachers: Drucilla Metcalf and Harriet Robbins, summer terms of 1863 and 1864; George Stoddard and Simon A. Fish, winter terms. Pupils: Mike Rawley, Joe Rawley, Lillian Rawley, Mary Ann Rawley, Jesse Wentworth, Augusta Wentworth, Alberta Wentworth, Austin Wentworth, Melvina Wentworth, Merilda Wentworth, Albert Wentworth, Georgianna Wentworth, Frances Wentworth, Ernest Wellman, Lillian Wellman, Ernest Thompson, Melvin Jones, G. Dudley Gould, Hattie Simmons, J. J. Simmons, Riley Simmons, Llewellyn Jones, Chester Jones, Menelva Jones, Rockland Jones, Adelbert Jones, Eugene Jones, Harriet Jones, Celeste Jones, Clifford Jones, Celeste Jones, Metcalf, Genevieve Metcalf, Nell Metcalf, Aldevard Metcalf, Lizzie Noyes, Link Hooper, Vick Noyes, Fred Noyes, Emma Snow, Hannah Robbins, Nat Wellman, Oscar Gould, Kim Gould, Jud Gould. If Mr. Jones' memory serves him right, only 9 of these are living—G. Dudley Gould, Riley Simmons, Hattie Simmons, Burgess, Eugene Jones, Chester Jones, Menelva Jones Smith, Rockland Jones, Genevieve Metcalf Robbins and Nat Wellman.

Among the three new teachers upon the faculty of Nason Institute, Springvale, Maine's vocational school for young women, patterned after Simmons College, is Miss Lena Wyman, teacher of foods. Miss Wyman comes from Gorham but was born in India, where she lived for 15 years. She is a graduate of Northfield Seminary, Nason 1928, and the University of Maine 1931. At Orono she took the B. S. course and was on the Dean's list. She was a member of the Omicron Nu, and the Home Economics Society. From Orono she came last June. After graduating from Nason she taught two years in Rockland. The other two teachers secured by Dean Wallace for Nason are Miss Ruth Paisley, Boston University, 1929; and Miss Louise Austin, Wheaton College 1930, B. S. from Simmons College 1931. In the summer of 1929 she studied social and economic conditions in the northern and western part of Europe. Dean Wallace of Nason is one of the most progressive women educators in New England. Under her leadership Nason is doing exceptionally fine work for young women. A class of 40 graduated last year. The enrollment of 125 represented some 80 towns in Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, and other States. Many Rockland girls have attended Nason. Miss Edna LeGrand of the Rockland High faculty is a graduate of Nason.

The Steamship Black Falcon is due for trial on the Rockland route tomorrow. Lieut. Commanders T. P. Wynkoop and A. S. Pitre, E. D. Kern of the U. S. Shipping Board, D. A. Lundquist of the Board of Inspection and K. E. Schoenherr and Charles Tilling of the Experimental Model Basin arrive tonight to conduct the tests and will be quartered at the Thorndike.

ST. GEORGE CATCHES TARTAR

Driven To Cover On Own Diamond By Long Suffering
Rockland—Second Place In Doubt

Coming Games
Tonight (5:45)—Rockland at Camden (League)
Friday (5:15)—St. George vs. Twilight League All-Stars. Opening game in the great challenge series. Others to be announced.

The League Standing
Waldoboro defeated Camden 3 to 2 last night, and the standing now is:
St. George 20 3 869
Waldoboro 13 11 542
Rockland 11 12 478
Camden 9 15 375
Thomaston 6 16 273

Rockland 10, St. George 7

The hour which Rockland fans had so long awaited came Tuesday night on the St. George grounds when they had the satisfaction of seeing their team sweat Simmons to all corners of the field, and win a pronounced victory. The triumph was all the more emphatic for the reason that St. George had its full strength on the field, while Rockland was dependent upon a substitute catcher, who is an excellent third baseman but manifestly out of his element behind the bat. With all due respect to Mr. Everett Oney.

It is something of a coincidence that Rockland opened the season by defeating St. George and that its closing game of the series should also be a victory. St. George it will be remembered has lost only one other game in the League this year.

The opening inning Tuesday night was such a grand affair for Rockland that the team's followers had to pinch themselves to make sure that it was true. Dimick led off with a smashing double. Charles fanned. Mealey, Wotton and Cottrell followed with successive singles. Oney flied to Monaghan. This left the bases choked, with two down, and the home fans thought the danger was over. One man who didn't think so was Captain McPhee who pounced out a most beautiful hit, sending three runs over the pan. Stewart walked, but Middleton's sharp grounder was nicely cared for by Davidson.

Rockland made a most amazing catch of Cottrell's long fly, a one-hand, back-hand catch while running full tilt toward the waterfront.

For two innings Rockland maintained the lead and then in the third when St. George scored five runs and set the stands into a frenzy of excitement. Singles by Davidson, M. Simmons, Morrissey and Monaghan.

LABOR DAY AT HOME
Outboard Races At Chickawaukie—Sparring At the Empire Theatre

Pine Tree Outboard championships at Chickawaukie Lake on Labor Day promise to have many entries and to be among the season's best races. The events are Lockwood Ace, Special 1st heat; Lockwood Ace, Special 2d heat; Class A Open, 1st heat; Class A Open, 2d heat; Class B Open, 1st heat; Class B Open, 2d heat; Class C Open, 1st heat; Class C Open, 2d heat and Free-for all.

The prizes are:
Lockwood Ace, 1st prize, Pine Tree Outboard Club Trophy; Class A open, 1st prize, Camden Yacht Club, Perpetual Trophy; Class B open, 1st prize, Rockland American Legion Trophy; Class C open, 1st prize, Maine Outboard Association Trophy; free-for-all, 1st Prize, Pine Tree Outboard Handicappers Trophy.

The night attraction in Rockland will be the sparring exhibition in Empire Theatre. The main bout offers two of the best known boxers in Maine—Cyclone Sawyer of Bath and Bud Fisher of Rockland—a match that will severely test the ambitions of both boxers. The semi-final bout will be between another Bath pugilist, Johnny Wilson, and our own Al Wilson of Rockland. There will be three prelims—Young Hooper of Rockland vs. Young Garnett of Bath; K. O. Raye of Rockland vs. Tete Whittier of Rockport and Young Dow of Rockland vs. Young Cavanaugh of Rockland.

HOPE CORNER SCHOOL
Weekday Bible Classes Observe Successful Completion Of Season's Work

The weekday Bible School at Hope Corner, under direction of Miss McKnight, recently completed its program with an evening session in the Grange hall before a large audience of parents and friends.

Greetings from the Bible school were extended by Miss McKnight who expressed appreciation for the services of Mrs. Herrick, who has attended all sessions to help with the music, and for the volunteer services of Miss Varnum which had made it possible to divide the work into junior and primary groups. This program was presented.

Devotionals, "O Come Let Us Worship," a Jewish house, made in miniature by the children, explained by John Pierce; a Jewish school, explained by William Pierce; exercise, "The Greatest Rock" by Dana Herrick. Elroy Beverage, Frederick Brownell, Robert Hall and Clarence Thurlow; pageant, "The Children's King."

Eleven children who had not missed any sessions were Dana Herrick, Mel Herrick, Lawrence Thurlow, Sunday School, William Hall; Love, Vinal Hardy; Faith, Lawrence Curitt; son of the Capurlian pobleman, Gerald ghan and an infield error were the contributing factors in the deluge. Rockland scored three runs in its half of the fourth, when singles by Charles and Oney and a double by Mealey figured in the attack.

An epidemic of battery errors, a walk and Dwyer's single gave St. George a pair of runs in the same inning, and the only thing that stopped the rally was the brilliant work of Carl Cottrell who threw out two men at the plate from right field. One of these plays following a one-hand running catch.

Rockland scored three more runs in the sixth inning, when singles were made by Mealey, Wotton and McPhee. St. George never saw home plate again, and the game was called at the end of the sixth on account of darkness.

If the crowd had expected to heckle challenger Mealey it did not get much opportunity for he made four hits in four times at bat, one being a double. He also made a brilliant running catch of Westberg's fly in the third. Another Rockland hero was McPhee who made two singles and a double in four times at bat. I. Simmons made a very nice catch of Dimick's fly, with two on.

SAVE 1/4 YOUR FUEL BILL

Hundreds of owners of Glenwood Furnaces throughout Knox County will testify that a Glenwood Furnace will save one-quarter the fuel cost for a season's use.

The cost of a Glenwood Furnace is now lower than any time during the past twenty years. We have every size in stock. We give you a price completely installed by expert Glenwood workmen.

Terms can be arranged so you can buy and take the whole year to pay. It is surprising to know the low price of a Glenwood completely installed.

You can have the single pipe style or a size furnace that carries heat to every room in the house. A Glenwood is almost a permanent investment as they wear for many years.

SIMONTON'S FAIR

Saturday Will See Extra
Fine Show In Neighboring Town

Simonton's popular Community Fair will be held Saturday at Simonton Community hall. This is the tenth annual fair of this association and promises to far outstrip in attractions its successful predecessors. There will be a cattle and poultry show in the forenoon, conducted by County Agent R. C. Wentworth and Mrs. Wentworth will be in charge of the baby show which will be held in the afternoon. In connection with the baby show which is always a chief attraction there will be a "kiddie parade." The committee suggests that all the ladies from Rockport who desire to enter kiddies report at the Rockport Postoffice at 1 p. m. (daylight) and Crockett's bus will provide those who have no other means of transportation to Community Hall. The committee also urges all mothers who desire to enter their babies in the show to do so. There is no charge for their admittance and some very special prizes are to be awarded the winning babies in each of the three classes under one, two and three years.

The management has been fortunate in securing the services of Madame Zara Koskinni of North Conway, N. H., and formerly of India, the world's greatest palmist, who is to be brought here by special arrangements of the committee. Horse pulling will be the feature attraction of the afternoon with cash prizes awarded the winning teams. In addition to the usual food, candy and grab, apron and fancy work booths there will be a 4-H booth, a community vegetable booth and a beautiful exhibit of flowers by Mrs. Lottie Start, proprietor of the Grassy Pond Floral Gardens.

Ice cream, cold drinks and hotdogs will be dispensed at booths in the vestibule and on the grounds; there will be several novelty booths including the ever popular Beano game. A new feature this year will be a public address system installed through the courtesy and kindness of Mont Head of Camden who will also have a radio exhibit.

To climax the whole affair there will be a grand confetti ball in the evening.

THOSE ROCKPORT TICKETS

Holders of certain tickets bought by patrons of the Rockport Carnival should communicate at once with Mrs. Dora Packard, Bay View street, Camden. The numbers of the tickets appeared in Tuesday's issue of this paper.

WEATHER
The sky is overcast this morning and cloudy or showers is predicted for tomorrow—but now that the great show is over, the weather becomes of minor concern. Of course, everybody wants the weather man to spruce up again in time for the Labor Day weekend—days just like yesterday would be fine. It was 73 at noon, wind south and though there were some clouds about in the afternoon, they did not interfere with observing the eclipse. This morning temperature 63 at 8 o'clock, wind southwest.

American Legion meeting tonight.
There will be a meeting of the L.T.L. Friday at 2:30.

Last Oakland Park dance of the season Labor Day night. Lloyd Ruffell's Georgians.

Miss Katherine Snow has entered St. Barnabas Hospital, Portland, for a three-year training course.

Miss Corice Thomas has resumed her duties at the Rockland National Bank after two weeks' vacation.

Edwin Libby Relief Corps holds its first meeting of the fall season tonight, when important business will come before members.

Louis J. Soucier of Warren is serving 60 days in jail for drunken driving. The warrant for reckless driving was filed. Officer Harry Thompson made the arrest.

THIS SOUNDS GOOD
The J. B. Pearson Co. advises that their plants in Thomaston, Brooks, and Cornish, will be opened early this month. Volume business is being booked and the outlook is very encouraging for a busy fall season.

The Republican women of Appleton will serve supper tomorrow night. It may be mentioned incidentally that those Republican pies are unbeatable.

A Limerick "Special" from Jameson's Market will be the prompt prize for the first entry received in the Hospital Limerick Contest on Saturday, Sept. 3.

The Universalist Church resumes services Sunday after two months' vacation. Original plans to have an outdoor service at Lucia Beach have been changed, and the service will take place in the church auditorium at the usual hour of 10:45.

Miriam Rebekah Lodge held a jolly picnic Sunday at Meganticook Lake with a good attendance of Rebekahs and members of Knox Lodge I.O.O.F. Sports of various kinds were enjoyed, including swimming matches and quoits. Basket lunch was served on the shore.

INDUSTRIAL CHEER
Renewed activities on the part of the Central Maine Power Company serve to brighten the industrial situation in this section. District Manager H. P. Blodgett yesterday stated that the company is building a short extension in Appleton, and has a four-mile power line to build in Lincolnville, together with a five-mile line in Bremen—work which will extend well into the winter. Ten additional men have been taken on, and some local men will also be used in the several undertakings.

The great challenge baseball series between St. George and the League All-Stars opens in Camden tomorrow afternoon at 5:15, and will be the big sporting of the week, to be followed after Labor Day by a game in Rockland and one in St. George. The fans are keyed up to a high pitch, and no two agree as to what may happen.

Ray Olson of Union who graduated from Bowdoin College last year has been engaged as football coach for Rockland High School and has called for first practice next Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Members of the squad should wear their old duds. Olson played on the Bowdoin varsity two years, guard and end, and is said to be one of the best men Bowdoin ever had. The school will bear the expense—not a cent to the city.

Dr. Irving Tuttle who has been spending several weeks with his mother, Mrs. Elona Tuttle, Broadway, went to Parkersburg, W. Va., last week to bring to a close the successful practice of osteopathy he has conducted there for some time. Yesterday Dr. Tuttle left for Chula Vista, Calif., where in company with another doctor he will establish a clinic and the foundation of a hospital. Dr. Tuttle has specialized in rectal diseases, and has become extremely expert in his line.

The Copper Kettle Lending Library has a Garden Section. In this section may be found Bailey's Encyclopedia of Horticulture, $25 edition—which may be studied at the Library and notes taken for 10 cents an afternoon. Other Garden books may be looked over at the same time—no extra charge.—adv. 1t

PRIZE HEREFORDS

Stock Owned Hereabouts Won Many Prizes At the Bangor Fair

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—
Through columns of your most excellent publication we desire to express our appreciation for courtesy shown us by the associated breeders of prize Hereford stock. Thomas Burleigh of Vassalboro, E. E. Giles, of Fayette, Dr. Ernest Bubler of Wilton and Wilbert Mank of Waldoboro, at the Eastern Maine State Exposition in Bangor.

H. M. Tucker of the department of Animal Industry of Augusta judged Hereford stock Aug. 23. Mr. Burleigh was the first breeder to import his stock from England, his present herd numbering the largest in New England.

To "Texas Bill" Luce credit is due for excellent management of Mr. Burleigh's tiny beves which secured three firsts and one second prize. E. E. Giles, having judged stock over 40 years and having four times attended the International Livestock show in Chicago, has a herd of 32 head at present. His strains comprise Ingleside, Fairfax, Beau Donald and Royal Woodford. He is the owner of grand champion Halcyon Hill.

Dr. Ernest Bubler needs no introduction, having some of the finest stock in the states. At the Bangor Fair his entrants were awarded nine firsts, two seconds and third and three grand champion rosettes.

Mr. Mank is a lifelong breeder, not simply an exhibitor, of Ingleside, Fairfax and Royal Woodford strains. His present herd numbers 56 head.

For the past 25 years Mr. Mank has been awarded nearly all firsts. Among his prizes at Bangor Mr. Mank's yearling, Miss Woodford, repeated her performance at Lewiston last year, bringing home the championship.

In addition to other fairs some of this stock will be shown at Union and Damariscotta.

Addie E. Jackson
Waldoboro, R. 2, Box 93.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Philip was a visitor in the city yesterday and looked in upon Uncle Sam's boys at the Federal building.

Writing from the upper balcony of the tallest structure in the world Errol W. Trauer qualifies as one of the "high fliers" correspondents of this newspaper.

Next Sunday will mark the 93rd birthday of Mrs. Mary Etta Jameson, widow of Capt. Oliver Jameson, formerly of Rockland, and at her home on South Ave., Natick, Mass., she will undoubtedly be the recipient of many remembrances and letters of congratulation.

Mrs. Susie Lamb was tendered a delightful surprise party Monday evening at her home on Bankin street by members of the auxiliary of Winslow-Holbrook Post, A. L. A. purse of money was presented to Mrs. Lamb who leaves tomorrow for Portland, Oregon, to attend the National convention of the American Legion and Auxiliaries, convening there Sept. 12-15.

Mrs. Lamb joins the Maine delegation in Portland and the trip out will be over the Canadian Rockies via Grand Trunk, arriving in Portland Sept. 11. Mrs. Lamb goes as delegate from the second district of Maine, of which she is vice president, and will also represent Maine as chairman of the rehabilitation committee where her work has been particularly significant.

DONALD PERKINS FIELDS
The young life of Donald Perkins Fields, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fields of this city, was brought to an untimely close Aug. 21 after an illness of several weeks, due to blood poisoning which developed from an injury to one of his knees received while swimming.

Donald was born in Rockland, Aug. 24, 1918. He was a member of the senior class of Rockland High School, to have graduated with the class of 1933. He was also a member of the High School orchestra, the Boys' Band, the Rockland City Band, and the Maestro's Orchestra, an organization which he was instrumental in forming to play at the weekly Country Club dances given by high school pupils. He played the cornet and was very proficient on this instrument.

He was a popular caddy at the Samoset Golf for some time. His manliness, quietness and good sportsmanship endeared him to everyone. He was a favorite in school, and his death has cast a gloom over his classmates not soon to be dispelled.

He is survived by his parents and one sister, Mrs. Fields, and a good number of friends. Funeral services, held Wednesday afternoon, on his birthday, from the family residence had a large attendance. Bearers were members of the senior class, Sam Small, Herman Rubenstein, Maurice Shepherd, Frank Pietroski, Libyale Paladino and Bernard Freeman. The remains were sadly borne to the hearse between two rows of classmates. The floral tributes were of great beauty. Interment was in the family lot at Achorn cemetery.

The Ladies' Aid will have a food sale at Senter Cranes Friday afternoon.—adv. 1t

LOOKING TO WINTER

Estimated That 25,000,000 Will Require Charity Or Some Form Of Relief

Whether or not business has turned the corner, it is conservative to estimate that next winter's relief problem will involve caring for 25,000,000 souls whose income has been totally cut off by the depression. This statement is made and substantiated by a nation-wide survey of unemployment relief which appears in the September issue of Fortune magazine.

Fortune declares that the number of totally unemployed in the United States will be 11,000,000 next winter at the present rate of increase. With their dependents, this will mean 27,500,000 whose income will have stopped. Some of these 27,500,000 still have savings and other resources, but at least 25,000,000 will require charity or other relief, the magazine says.

The Federal allowance of $300,000,000 for loans to the States for employment relief works out to only $12 apiece for those who must be supported by public or private charity through the winter, Fortune points out.

ABOUT WATER MAINS

One Mile For Every Thousand Inhabitants, According To Statistics
There are 125,000 miles of water mains in the United States—one mile for every 1,000 inhabitants, according to a survey made by the research department of Swart, Brent & Co., New York city, specialists in waterworks securities. New York City has 4050 miles; Chicago, 3439; San Francisco, 750; New Orleans, 721; St. Louis, 2000.

Most of this water pipe, which forms a great unbroken network under our American cities, is of cast-iron, and it represents about 60 percent of the total investment of billions of dollars expended to give American cities an adequate supply of pure water. These mains range in size from a few inches up to eight feet or more, and daily carry billions of gallons of water to the American people. New York City, with a population of 6,107,000, consumes 867,000,000 gallons of water daily, or 142 gallons per capita. Chicago uses 916,775,000 gallons daily, or 270 gallons per person; San Francisco, 50,000,000 gallons, or 72 per capita; New Orleans, 48,000,000 gallons, or 110 gallons per person; St. Louis, 120,000,000, or 141 gallons per capita.

Ada R. Rokes

Ada R., wife of Levi L. Rokes was born Nov. 4, 1862 at Waldoboro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Black (Mary Demuth) and was one of a family of eight children, three girls and five boys. She received her education in the public schools of Waldoboro. Oct. 13, 1878, she was united in marriage with Charles Emery Easley at Dutch Neck and made her home in Waldoboro. Of this union four children were born—Austin Easley, Mrs. Nellie Keizer of Rockland; Mrs. Lester Young of Bath; and Mrs. Hazel Overlook of Warren. Upon the death of Mr. Easley the little family came to Warren to live Feb. 24, 1907. The following July 4th Mrs. Easley was united in marriage with Levi Rokes and up to the time of her death Aug. 24, made Warren her home. She was always a kind and loving wife and mother, had a very pleasant disposition and was beloved by all who knew her.

Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon from the last home, Rev. Howard A. Welch officiating. Interment was made at Comery cemetery, Waldoboro. Among those who attended from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Lester Young of Bath; Mrs. Sarah L. Fay, Lincolnville; Mr. and Mrs. Orrin Black, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Black, Mrs. William Black, Mr. and Mrs. Carrie Day and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Black of Waldoboro; Mr. and Mrs. Levi

ROCKVILLE

Fred L. Keene

Again within a few weeks the neighborhood has been saddened by the passing of one of its lifelong residents. Early Friday morning Fred L. Keene died following an illness of several months. Mr. Keene was born in Rockville, Oct. 11, 1871, son of Winslow and Juliette (Cranford) Keene and throughout his life-time was a resident here.

His pleasing personality and kindly disposition won him many friends and his death leaves a void that will be felt by a host of friends. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rev. Mr. Rounds of the Congregational Church officiating. Interment was in the Rockville cemetery. Dana Sherer, Vesper Hall, Sylvester Barrows and Percy Fiske were the bearers. The only relatives surviving are a sister, Mrs. Maude Bradley, who devotedly cared for her brother during his illness and an aunt, Mrs. Lenora Fores.

Mrs. Gladys Morgan, Mrs. Helen Wentworth and Mrs. Esther Rogers as program committee of the Rubenstein Club met Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Wentworth's home and outlined the season's work. The club year officially opens Friday afternoon, Oct. 14.

Mr. and Mrs. John Storer and daughter Luella of Union are visitors in the city.

Miss Annie York of Monro was a visitor in the city Tuesday.

Mrs. Carrie Waltz has returned from a visit in Boston.

Mrs. R. E. Estes, Summer street, has as guests her father, G. C. Webster, and her nephew, Robert Chase, of Swampscott, Mass.

Grant Davis, who has been ill at his home on Rankin street for five weeks is slowly gaining, going out on the veranda a little each day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Vogel (Evelyn Jean) of New York were in the city the latter part of the week calling on Miss Kitty McLaughlin and other friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Baskam of Germantown, Penn., arrive today to be over night guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Moran Jr., Chestnut street.

The Scribblers Club held an interesting meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jessie Carswell, Camden, with eight present. It was voted to have an all-day picnic Sept. 9, at Northport, with Mrs. Marguerite MacAlman as hostess at the Gregory cottage. Mrs. E. M. Lawrence gave a resume of a recent book by Walter D. Pitkin, and a round table was conducted on questions compiled by George Pierce Baker of Yale University on how to determine whether one's writing is acceptable or not. Prof. Baker was formerly head of the English department at Harvard University where he conducted a "little theatre" of renown. Several members of the Club are represented in the fall issue of L'Alouette. Mrs. Blanche Ellsworth's poem "Qualms" is to appear in the September issue of the Poet's Forum, edited by Marcia Taylor. Mrs. Marguerite MacAlman and Mrs. Irene S. Moran are represented in the new George Washington Anthology just off the press. Mrs. Carswell served tea and a delightful social hour was enjoyed.

Miss Ada Perry, head of the millinery department at the Senter Crane store, returning Sunday from New York reports that the early winter styles in hats are most intriguing, and to prove this statement brings back a wide variety of examples. The Victorian period reigns—small hats, off the face and showing the hair, low crowns, narrow brims if any. Some turbans are shown. Hats are developed chiefly in felts. While black is a favorite, such colors as brown, blue, green and wine in their various shades lead.

William P. Kelley and family are doing Cape Cod way, combining business with pleasure, and daily battling with the sea waves, which register 70 degrees. They will be away two weeks.

Mrs. Harrison MacAlman and children are occupying the Gregory cottage at Northport for two weeks.

Stevens was hostess to the Breakfast Bridge Club Monday at Blue Bird Terrace, Belfast, having as special guests Mrs. Helen Fales of Belmont, Mass., and Cresent Beach, Mrs. Philip Howard of New York, Mrs. Earl McIntosh, Mrs. Elizabeth Hahn and Mrs. Leola Rose. Misses Esther Nickerson and Elizabeth Snow were luncheon guests. Honors were won by Mrs. Frank L. Weeks and Mrs. Harrison P. Hicks, and a souvenir was presented to each of the special guests.

Miss Elizabeth Hagar and mother Mrs. Ernest Hagar, motored to Bar Harbor Tuesday for the trip over Cadillac Mountain. On their return they were accompanied by Miss Lena Miller and her guest, Miss Ellen Coffin of Melrose, Mass., who had been visiting in Bar Harbor for a week.

One of the most charming parties of the summer season was given by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Allen at their home at Melvin Heights, Camden, Monday evening, the occasion serving as birthday observances for Mrs. Ralph C. Wentworth, Mrs. Harold Burgess and Dr. E. W. Peaslee, and also as wedding anniversaries for Mr. and Mrs. Wentworth and Dr. and Mrs. Blake Annis. The affair was held on the grounds, which were gaily lighted with Japanese lanterns and colored lights, a big bonfire adding further glamour. Supper featured birthday and wedding cakes, festively decorated with appropriate ornaments. The radio which Mr. Burgess has in his car furnished music for dancing and singing. Corn was roasted, and all in all it was a wonderful party, the unanimous declaration of everyone present. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. E. W. Peaslee, Mrs. R. C. Wentworth, Dr. and Mrs. Blake Annis, Dr. and Mrs. James Kent, Miss Corinne White of Boston, Dr. B. E. Flanders, Mrs. Beulah Blakeley of Rockport, Mrs. Rita Crozier of New York and Mrs. Florence Ellis.

Republican campaigners upon their departure for the Northern tier of Knox County towns proved a happy omen for the cordial greeting everywhere accorded the candidates.

Details of the tour had been worked out to a nicety by the diligent chairman of the Republican County Committee C. Earle Ludwick.

The principal participants of the trip were U. S. Senator Frederick Hale, Congressman John E. Nelson, Burleigh Martin, candidate for governor; Daniel T. Field, chairman of the Republican State Committee; Mrs. Eva Mason, vice chairman of the Republican State Committee and State Committeeman Z. M. Dwinall.

The Republican County candidates—Milton M. Griffin for clerk of courts, Melzer T. Crawford for judge of probate, Frank F. Harding for sheriff; Jerome C. Burrows for county attorney and Foy W. Brown for county commissioner, met many voters, as did Albert C. McLoon, candidate for State Senator and the candidates for representative to Legislature—Mrs. Inez Crosby of Camden, Arthur K. Walker of Rockport, E. S. Vose of Cushing and Dr. Neil A. Fogg and Louis A. Walker of Rockland.

The good morning words were spoken at Hope Corner where Deputy Sheriff Jethro D. Pease and Mrs. Carrie Hardy headed an enthusiastic group of voters. Among the veterans who called to meet the candidates was L. P. True, long connected with the town's principal industry, and who found added pleasure in a chat with Burleigh Martin who is an intimate friend of his son. Mr. Martin spoke briefly.

Women figured prominently in the stop at Appleton including one Miss not yet a voter, but certainly a worker. The Republican women of the town urged a reminder of the fact that they are serving supper Friday night and all voters are invited.

It would have been strange not to have seen O. W. Currier, and indeed he was the first person to greet this expeditionary force.

Mr. Martin prefaced his remarks here with the statement that the visit was one of peculiar pleasure to him as his wife's mother was born in that town.

"I have been traveling through the State three weeks," said Mr. Martin, "and everywhere have been pleased with indications of a substantial Republican victory in September."

A brief stop in Burketville gave opportunity to greet a small but cordially inclined group of voters, among whom was the village's good looking postmaster, Charles Miller.

In Washington a good-sized number of voters soon assembled, and it scarcely needed the "apology" of Harold Kaler that there would have been many more but for the fact that every man in that town was either working on his farm or on road projects. The campaigners were only too glad to have a report of that sort.

Congressman Nelson referred to the fact that the fortunes of politics had added Knox County to his district, and informed the voters that the coming election is one of the most important for many years. "The Republicans have reorganized the State departments and are undertaking to do so in the nation," he said. "Economy is the policy. President Hoover has worked out a well considered program of relief, and the renewed confidence now being shown is based on the belief that he will succeed."

Mr. Martin spoke of his familiarity with the section, and told how the physical and moral well being of his sons had been fostered at Medomak Camp. His reference to the splendid ability and long experience of Congressman Nelson was rewarded by applause.

Among the workers conspicuous at this meeting were Harold Kaler, Horace Moore and Benjamin Lincoln.

In Union the delegation was greeted by a number of prominent Republicans, among them Representative Fred H. Burkett, with whom Mr. Martin had been intimately connected in Legislation.

"The administration in Maine is sound financially," said Mr. Martin "and in every way adapted to practice further economies, with a prospect of reducing the tax one mill which would mean a saving of $21,000 for Knox County."

From Union the drive swept across the county to St. George. At Long Cove, where Alfred C. Hocking presided there was a mild attempt to heckle candidate Martin.

"What are you going to do about the unemployed?" he was asked.

"The last Democratic administration expended $1,000,000 on roads, and the last Republican administration spent $17,000,000," was the reply. "And," Mr. Martin added, "we will use Maine men and Maine products."

There was also an attempt to heckle Congressman Nelson on the eviction of the bonus army from Washington.

"What do you know about it?" asked Mr. Nelson.

"Oh, we know," was the answer.

"Yes," said Mr. Nelson, "what you know was what you heard; what I know is what I saw, because I was there."

At Clark Island Mr. Martin and Senator Hale addressed a gathering of 75, and at Wildcat there was an audience of 25.

Nat Andrews presided in Thomaston where the candidates were greeted by about 50. Here the members of the tour ate a very nice dinner at the Knox House.

At Warren the woolen mill shut down and an audience of 125 was addressed by Mr. Martin and Congressman Nelson.

In Friendship the schedule was found to coincide with a largely attended church funeral and the party promptly withdrew.

As had been expected Cushing, South Thomaston and Owl's Head were absorbed with the eclipse. At Owl's Head there was interesting diversion when members of the party shot the partly hidden sun through a sextant at Borgerson's store.

Away the candidates now flew to North Haven and Vinalhaven. H. T. Crockett presided over a gathering of 60 at the former place, and Foy W. Brown was given a big hand by his fellow townsmen. Leslie B. Dyer presided over a fine rally at the Vinalhaven Memorial hall, with 150 present. A band was on hand, and speeches were made by Mr. Martin and Mr. Nelson.

Back to the mainland by plane for a meeting at Camden where there was a band and audience of 125. Mr. Dwinall presided, and the speakers were Mr. Martin and Senator Hale. "The American dollar cannot be broken down," said Senator Hale, who voiced the emphatic opinion that the country will come back to its own.

In Rockport Mr. Walker, representative candidate presided over a group of about 60, and Mr. Martin was the speaker.

Careful tabs on the victory tour showed that 868 attended the day's meetings this total being exclusive of the many residents visited by the candidates in places of business, and the big Rockland meeting in the evening.

WEST ROCKPORT

Several from here attended Bangor fair last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Heal in company with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rhodes, Jr. and Mrs. C. E. Rhodes, Sr., motored Sunday to Castine where they visited Steward Rhodes, who is attending the all-State band school there for two weeks. They also called on friends in Sullivan.

Mr. Rhodes of Massachusetts who is driving one of the blueberry trucks making trips to Boston and New York, with his wife and young daughter Ruth is boarding with Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Keller and daughter Glenice of Milton, Mass., have been guests of Mr. Keller's father D. M. Keller and other relatives here at intervals during the past two weeks.

Miss Dorothy Nutt left Wednesday night for Augusta expecting to start from that city Thursday by motor for Indiana where she will attend college. She will accompany a girl friend who teaches in Cincinnati.

Mrs. E. Stewart Orbeton entertained the Tuesday Club this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heald and family attended the Simmons reunion at Union Saturday.

Mrs. M. A. Fogler was happily surprised recently by a call from W. T. Grant, head of the W. T. Grant chain stores, by whom her son Raymond has been employed as director of personnel until he resigned recently to become vice president of Montgomery-Ward Co. Mr. Grant was accompanied by his wife.

Simmons Reunion

The 47th annual reunion of the Simmons family was held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Bryant at Union Common, Aug. 27. The early hours were spent in a social way until dinner time when all gathered in the dining room, where a picnic lunch was augmented by baked beans, brown bread, green corn, cucumbers and lettuce. After the dinner hour the business meeting was called to order by the president Robert S. Simmons of East Warren, and prayer was offered by Mrs. Cora Mank by invitation of the chaplain, Mrs. Bryant. Next came the reading of records and election of officers: President, Robert Simmons, East Warren; vice presidents, Fred H. Simmons, East Union, James MacLaughlin, Rockland; secretary, Mrs. Mabel Heald, West Rockport; treasurer, Fred L. Simmons, East Warren; chaplain, Mrs. W. J. Bryant; entertainment, Mrs. Susie Lamb, W. J. Bryant; time and place, Mrs. Nora Benner, Mrs. Chloe Mills.

The meeting was then given over to the entertainment committee who presented this program: Recitation, Theresa MacLaughlin; duet, Ruth and Valie MacLaughlin; recitation, Sylvia Heald. A brief historical sketch of the Simmons family in this section was read by Robert Simmons which proved interesting and amusing. The group then repaired to the living room where solos by Mrs. Cora Mank and Mrs. Ethel Griffin were enjoyed. Mrs. Bryant invited the company to meet with her next year and it was decided to hold the 1933 reunion there the third Wednesday in August.

HAS STRONG POINTS

Road Program Espoused By Bangor Chamber of Commerce Would Aid Summer Travel

Under the caption "Gaining Strong Support," the Bangor Commercial recently published this timely editorial:

The support, which has been expressed in various parts of the State for the proposal by a Bangor Chamber of Commerce committee for a readjustment of the construction program by the State Highway Commission in order to avoid travel interference during the tourist season, indicates the thought that is general that conditions obtaining, particularly in this locality during the present summer, must be avoided to prevent serious loss to Maine's important tourist business, and detriment of general business.

The main idea expressed in the suggestion by the Bangor Chamber of Commerce committee is that much work admittedly feasible in the fall and early winter should be gotten out of the way to make resurfacing operations possible in the spring. The fact that this proposal is meeting with the approval of business organizations and service clubs reflects the state of mind of the public. Also, the suggestion is pronounced entirely practicable by engineering experts who fail to recognize the arguments from inspired quarters that a change in the State's construction program is inadvisable.

It is interesting, and also encouraging for the proposers of a change in the construction program, that the Bangor Chamber of Commerce committee suggestions have been strongly endorsed by Hon. Lewis O. Barrows of Newport, a member of the Governor's Council, who has been so active in the interests of Eastern and Northern Maine in highway matters, and by Hon. Guy E. Torrey, of Bar Harbor, a former member of the Governor's council. Both Messrs. Barrows and Torrey have had the valuable experience of close contact and familiarity with highway matters, so their approval bears the mark of authoritative endorsement.

The Kennebec Journal, in an editorial, suggests that fall and spring work will mean greater expense. This is directly opposite to the viewpoint of capable engineers who point out that during the seasons of light travel, jobs can be speeded up to a point impossible in the summer months. In the case of the construction at Orland, which has been such a serious hindrance to tourist business at Hancock county resorts, it is commonly reported that the contractor who had begun the job last fall urged the continuance of operations as late as possible in order to avoid the very conditions that have existed throughout the summer. Further, the report is that this contractor pointed out the saving which would be effected if the work were continued.

It is apparent that the Bangor Chamber of Commerce committee, which is receiving such general support, put forth its suggestion for the sole purpose of protecting the important tourist business. Bangor and all points in this section of the State have taken a big loss because of travel conditions this summer, and unless the work goes out next season that highways are passable, Eastern and Northern Maine will continue to feel the effects of the experience which they are having now. What has happened here this year may operate against communities elsewhere unless different methods are adopted. Obviously road construction means inconvenience but if it is possible—and it appears to be entirely so—to reduce the travel interruptions in tourist season it will be a big step forward for Maine.

Speaking for ourselves, the Commercial feels that the Bangor Chamber of Commerce committee program is sound and feasible, and we are certain that the suggestions submitted by the committee to the State Highway Commission will be carefully considered in view of the widespread support which they are receiving.

PARK THEATRE

"The Riding Tornado," Tim McCoy's newest western showing Friday and Saturday again finds Wallace McDonald cast in a prominent role. MacDonald has played important parts in several McCoy features, his last being "Daring Danger," in which he played the loveable role of Jug Handle. In "The Riding Tornado" he plays a part that has a surprise twist. Others in the cast of "The Riding Tornado" include Shirley Grey, Wheeler Oakman, Montagu Love and Lafe McKee.—adv.

THE FIRST AND ONLY 5-STAR MOTOR OIL

Essolube

FREE BOOKLET—"Essolube, A Five-Star Motor Oil," gives you the story of the great hydrofining invention which makes Essolube possible. Ask for it at your Colonial station.

The perfect motor oil must excel in five essential qualities—low carbon content—long life—low consumption—winter fluidity—ability to keep its body.

The best Paraffinic oils rate well in three of these qualities. They lack two.

Naphthenic (Asphaltic) oils are excellent in two of these qualities. They lack three.

Hydrofined Essolube is the only oil ever produced to excel in all five essential qualities.

Hydrofining made this possible—for the first time.

Essolube is so superior to all other oils that it has been named after its quality companion—Esso, world's leading motor fuel, "more powerful than any gasoline." Hydrofined Essolube, however, sells at no extra cost.

Essolube is sold at all stations and dealers of the following companies: the Colonial Beacon Oil Company, Inc., the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, the Standard Oil Company of Pennsylvania, the Standard Oil Company of Louisiana, and the Standard Oil Company, Incorporated in Kentucky.

THE LAKEWOOD PLAYERS

"Riddle Me This" Is Popular—Next Week's Offering Is "The Perfect Husband"

For the fourth world premiere of the season at Lakewood, the Lakewood Players will present next week "The Perfect Husband," a comedy by Anne Rowe, well known magazine writer and dramatist. There will be a special Labor Day matinee which the Saturday matinee will be omitted for the one week only.

"The Perfect Husband" has an interesting and unusual story. Jill, a beautiful young woman, divorces her happy-go-lucky, devil-may-care husband, Jack Anthony, and weds Frank Thorne, a careful and conservative business man. They return after spending a year or more in the Ukraine and Russia and establish themselves in New York. Frank wants Jill to live in the suburbs of Beechwood near his employer's home but she wants a penthouse apartment. At the time of the divorce Jack had promised to pay Jill $50,000, but when she remarried she decided she did not want the money. Imagine her astonishment when she learns Frank has summoned Jack to the apartment to insist that he pay over the money. This results in a rift that widens when Jill discovers that she is falling in love all over again with Jack. Affairs come to a climax at a gay penthouse party.

Leona Maricle will play the leading feminine role of Jill and Harland Tucker will be seen as Jack Anthony. The current offering "Riddle Me This" is proving one of the most popular offerings of the season. It is a murder mystery comedy with plenty of excitement.

For the week of Sept. 12, the Lakewood Players will present "Naughty Cinderella" a comedy by Avery Hopwood. Its production will mark the return for the week only of Suzanne Caubaye, the captivating French actress who appeared as guest star earlier in the season and who is being brought back for this special engagement by popular demand.

FROM PARIS TO COLEY

From the boulevards of Paris to the campus walks of Colby College will come M. Guy Raviart, French university student, who has been chosen as the recipient of the Colby College Foreign Exchange Fellowship for the year 1932-33. Raviart is 23 years of age and already holds baccalaureate degrees from the University of Paris in philosophy and the classics, as well as a license in laws and a certificate in French literature. He is looking towards a degree of Doctor of Laws, but first wishes to receive the experience of a year in the United States in order to familiarize himself with the language and customs of this country. Raviart was selected for the Colby fellowship by the Institute of International Education, an organization promoting the exchange of students among the various countries of the world in the interests of international understanding and good will.

IT RAINED FISH

Jasper Rawley's Frog Shower Has Plenty Of Established Precedents

Appropos of the now famous frog shower is the following story:

"Seventy accounts are on record of storms during the last 1700 years in which it rained fish, according to Augustus Post, aviation expert, writing on meteorology in the September issue of Boy's Life, the monthly publication of the Boy Scouts of America. The last to occur in the United States was four years ago, when a farmer in Edgecombe County, N. C.,

"saw small fishes falling thick as snowflakes over three acres of his land," and demanded an explanation from the fish department of the American Museum of Natural History.

"The reason for the phenomenon is 'waterspouts,' says Mr. Post. 'Whirling winds, spinning at great speed, suck up whole ponds—water, fish and everything—and carry them far away, to let them down again like the quality of mercy. In a gentle rain from heaven upon the place beneath.'"

"One such fish storm, the largest one on record, occurred in Singapore in 1861, and covered 50 acres with fish. Fortunately a famous French scientist was close by to verify it."

BECOMES BIG INDUSTRY

The oil burner has developed into one of the country's leading industries, with one billion dollars worth of equipment sold during the past 12 years, and annual sales volume in fuel oil and equipment of $400,000,000. Morgan J. Hammers, president of the American Oil Burner Association, asserted at a meeting in New York City.
