SUPERIOR COURT OPENS

Justice Worster Sits On the Bench This Term—Many Divorce Cases Pending

The November term of Knox County Superior Court convened at 10 o'clock this morning, with Justice George H. Worster of Bangor on the bench, and Fred L. Wilson of Portland acting as his stenographer. Rev. George H. Welch of the Universalist Church officiated as chaplain.

Sheriff Harding's force this term comprises Granville N. Bachelder of St. George as crier, Stanley Poland of Friendship and Clarence Leonard of Union in charge of the jury, and C. Earle Ludwig as deputy at large. Ralph Tripp is messenger.

The new grand jury went into immediate session with County Attorney Burrows. The one traverse jury does not report until Wednesday morning.

Clerk of Courts Griffin is in his familiar position—the indispensable right hand man of Superior Court.

The divorce mill seems to be provided with a generous grist, these cases having been entered for hearing:

Tekla M. Erickson of South Thomaston from John E. Erickson of parts unknown, married at Boston, Sept. 5, 1925; cruel and abusive treatment and desertion. Libellant asks for custody of minor child, Eleanor F. Smalley for libellant.

Ruth A. Levy of South Thomaston from Samuel Levy of Rockland, married at Boston Sept. 14, 1928; cruel and abusive treatment and extreme cruelty. Libellant asks for permission to resume her former name Ruth Alteen Till. Roberts for libellant.

Newell L. Kenney from Marion E. Kenney of Rockland, married at Union April 21, 1926; cruel and abusive treatment. Libellant asks for custody of minor children, Walter Olen and Bertha May. Roberts for libellant.

Dorothea E. Gross from Stuart Lawrence Gross of Rockland, married at Deer Isle July 15, 1922; cruel and abusive treatment and extreme cruelty. Libellant asks for custody of minor children, Eleanor Lorraine and Paul Stuart. Roberts for libellant.

Dorothea C. Farley of Rockland from Leroy William Farley of Bowling Green, Ohio, married at Providence May 13, 1931; cruel and abusive treatment and non-support. Libellant asks to resume her maiden name, Dorothea Calista York. Gould for libellant.

Eva Lewis of St. George from Wilbur Lewis of parts unknown, married at Bingham, Maine, April 9, 1930; desertion. Tirrell for libellant.

Warren P. Eldridge of Rockland from Doris H. Eldridge of Brookline, Mass., married at Brookline June 20, 1923; cruel and abusive treatment. Roberts for libellant.

Rosetta E. Kirk from Charles R. Kirk of Seymour, Conn., married at Camden Sept. 8, 1927; desertion and non-support. Dwinall for libellant.

Clara Richards of Camden from Charles E. Richards of Belfast, married at Searsmont Sept. 14, 1913; cruel and abusive treatment and non-support. Libellant asks for custody of minor children, Lawrence and Robert. Dwinall for libellant.

MIDNIGHT SHOW

Legion Will Be Host At the Strand Theatre At 11 Friday Night

The Legion's annual Armistice Eve midnight picture show and frolic takes place at the Strand Friday night starting at 11 p. m. The feature is exceptionally good—"East o' Fifth Avenue" with Wallace Ford and Dorothy Tree.

A thumbnail sketch of the play shows that the Lawtons have just sold their brownstone boarding house and are about to return to England, but their doctor advises against it due to Mrs. Lawton's weak heart. They are fond of a chorus girl, Kitty Green, who confides to the old lady that though she is unmarried she is to have a baby. Her lover is Vic Howard, a race-track tout. The Lawtons offer to lend $1000 to Kitty, but she refuses. Vic returns home married to another girl, Edna. Edna is carrying on an affair with Paul Baxter, a poet. Vic promises Edna he will give up the horses for a good business and endeavors to borrow $10,000 with which to start, but fails. In desperation, he tells Kitty that with $1000 he can secure the rest. Kitty decides to help him. Finding Mrs. Lawton asleep, Kitty takes the $1000, leaving a note. The note is obscured and Mrs. Lawton dies of heart failure when she believes the money is stolen. Vic bets the money on a horse and wins. Edna steals it and runs away with Baxter. Old Mr. Lawton commits suicide on the death of his wife. When Vic learns that he is to be the father of Kitty's child, he finds solace in the fact that he really loves her.—adv.

Verita Stanley Edwards of St. George from Edward M. Edwards of St. George, married at St. George Dec. 6, 1930; cruel and abusive treatment and non-support. Libellant asks for custody of minor child, Dorothy Helen. Roberts for libellant.

Charles L. Robinson of Cushing from Olive Robinson of parts unknown, married at Detroit, Mich. April 18, 1917; cause of complaint, desertion. Thompson for libellant.

Ruby A. Bridges from Frank C. Bridges of Rockland, married at Rockland July 13, 1918; cause of complaint, desertion. Libellant asks for custody of minor child, Gloria Ruby Tirrell for libellant.

Virgie P. Studley from Flora Y. Studley of Rockland, married at Portland Oct. 26, 1927; cause of complaint, cruel and abusive treatment. Payson and Tirrell for libellant.

Harold W. Simmons of Boothbay Harbor from Kathleen M. Simmons of Rockland, married at Rockland Nov. 11, 1926; desertion. C. R. Tupper for libellant.

Ella M. Gross of Rockland from Amos L. Gross of Rockland, married at Rockland Aug. 3, 1921; cause of complaint, cruel and abusive treatment, gross and confirmed habits of intoxication and non-support. Libellant asks for custody of minor child, Edna Louise. Pike for libellant.

Flora Y. Studley of Rockland from Virgie P. Studley of Rockland, married at Portland Oct. 26, 1927; cruel and abusive treatment and adultery. Libellant asks to resume her former name, Flora Y. Kellock. Smalley for libellant.

There will be a football game at 2.15 p. m. at Community Park between the Camden and Rockland High Schools.

At noon Sunday State Commander Raymond E. Rendell of Alfred will meet all Legionnaires at the airport. Legionnaires will report at Legion hall, at 11 a. m. for the march to the airport, which will be headed by the Drum Corps.

The Legion ball will be held at the Ocean View ballroom opposite Rankin block at 8 p. m. On the night before Armistice Day, there will be a midnight motion picture in Strand Theatre given under the auspices and for the benefit of the Legion.

MAKES GREAT STRIDES OF PROGRESS

Fireproof Garage Has Doubled Its Business Volume In Spite Of Depression—A Glimpse Of Its Personnel and Equipment

A view of Fireproof Garage, progressive super-service station for all makes of automobiles and home for Ford Sales and Service in Knox County

A busy spot in these days of motor cars in Rockland is Fireproof Garage on Winter street, just off Main. The huge building, 170 feet by 80 feet makes an attractive picture in its new coat of paint. The outdoor canopy 60 feet long and two cars wide gives an added touch of color and has just been equipped with the latest type Tydol gasoline pumps, a new air tower and other requirements for rendering complete courtesy service.

The favorable impression created on the motorist by the pleasant exterior is further enhanced as he drives through the wide rolling doors and views the spotless interior, newly done in gleaming white, a great space 170x80 feet entirely free from posts or any obstructions. Much of this area is utilized for storage purposes and the car owner can be assured of uniform heat because the Fireproof is heated by a Sturtevant blower system, the most modern type heat for large areas which maintains uniform heat in every part of the building.

Great racks of new tires tell the motorist that his needs in that direction may be supplied here and the management specializes on the famous Firestone line which has made such great records in recent years in dependable service and public acceptance. Firestone batteries and accessories of every description are available. A special feature at this time is the tailor chain service, your car is individually fitted with chains at the Fireproof. This is heater time and the new Arvin is sponsored here, an improved, remarkably efficient hot water heater at a very reasonable price. Anti-freeze solutions of all the approved types are available. On the left of the main entrance is the lubricatorium, a department in which the management takes great pride. It is equipped with every modern device for efficient motor car lubrication. Guns of many types to fit the widely varied fittings of all makes, special greases for special jobs, special greases for particular spots on particular models. There must be many varieties of grease used if a grease job is to be entirely satisfactory and this lubricatorium has them all.

The man power is highly important in this lubrication business and the two Oliver boys who have charge of this work are entirely reliable and know every angle of the work. At the time the lubricatorium was installed Henry L. Bedard, service station supervisor and instructor for Tydol, spent two weeks here in an intensive instruction course for the Oliver boys and has made periodic visits since. The grease jobs at the Fireproof are done from manufacturers' charts of all makes of cars. It is an interesting and significant fact that the volume of business of the Fireproof Garage lubricatorium has increased over 300 per cent in nine months.

The mechanical department is in the capable hands of Guy Young, better known as "Brig." He is well equipped for the task and has in addition a library of manuals and reference sheets which keep him informed on every new quirk in automotive building. Washing of cars is done with a Harding high pressure washing machine, the only one in this section.

Ford sales and service has been a recent addition to the Fireproof program and has proven happily successful. A line of the beautiful new cars is stocked and several models shown. At one time recently 16 new Fords were on the display floor. In connection with the Ford sales the garage has established a service and stock room. With characteristic thoroughness, the stock room has been made very complete and all Ford parts are obtainable. This department, conveniently located in the western end of the plant is in charge of Robert McFarland.

The office at the center of the plant on the northern face controls the whole plant at a glance. Cedric French is in charge of the desk. Manager A. E. Hunt, a veteran in the automotive game, keeps everything moving in all parts of the busy plant for he is always on the job and always full of pep.

The Fireproof was one of the first local business houses to adopt the full spirit of the NRA adding help and shortening working hours as the NRA meant it should be done. The staff now includes Charles H. Berry, owner and president, A. E. Hunt, general manager, Maynard Brennan, outside salesman, Hurley and Wesley Oliver, Guy Young, Bob McFarland, Cedric French, Vito Leo, Harold Emery, Maxwell Oliver, John Holstrom and Bernard Cohen.

NATIONAL GUARD

News Concerning The Local Batteries—The 1929 Drill Again In Vogue

Members of Battery F at Thomaston attended church services Sunday at St. John's Church, and members of Battery E, Rockland, attended services at St. Peter's Church. There was a large attendance at both services. The organizations attended in uniform, in accordance with the National Guard custom on the Sunday before Armistice Day.

The annual ordnance inspection will take place this week. Inspectors will look over the big gun of Battery E from the 9th to 13th, and will be in Thomaston from the 14th to 18th. This inspection is for the purpose of checking up on the care and upkeep of the pistols, rifles and other ordnance so that the weapons of the National Guard will be in proper shape for active service at all times.

Corporal Robert N. Robinson of Battery F has been placed on the National Guard Reserve, and is a member of the Bar Harbor Camp with the Civilian Conservation Corps. In town over the weekend he said that he was well pleased with the camp life. He reported that the winter construction of the camp buildings was about completed; that the job looks like a good one, and that the camp would be a fine place during the cold weather.

Orders received from the War Department discontinued the use of the new Infantry drill regulations (1932 issue) and return the army to the 1929 drill. This means that the war time "Squads Right" and "Squads Left" will be heard again. For the past eight months the local batteries have used the new drill and it is with some regrets that they will return to the older method of close order.

PROMINENT MEN INJURED

Ex-Sheriff Bond Of Jefferson and Dr. Hahn Of Friendship Fared Badly When Tire Blew

An Associated Press despatch from Jefferson says:

Forrest H. Bond of this town, member of the Executive Council, received a fractured collar bone and multiple cuts and bruises as the result of an automobile accident Monday morning on the Liberty and Belfast highway, when he and two companions were started for Haynesville on a hunting trip.

Dr. William H. Hahn of Friendship and John Miller of Waldoboro were the other members of the party. The former was injured so seriously that he was taken to a hospital in Portland. He sustained several fractured ribs, a broken wrist and lacerations and bruises. He was the driver of the car.

Mr. Miller was also badly cut and bruised and it is feared that he suffered a slight concussion of the brain. He is at his home at Waldoboro.

The accident occurred about 8.30 a. m., when the left front tire of the car blew out, sending it off the highway. It rolled over several times.

Dr. Hahn was described as in fair condition in the State Street Hospital, Portland, early this morning.

GRATEFUL TO "THE KICK"

One of the NRA Day Passengers Has Nice Word For Coast Guard Crew

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—Just a little tribute to the sailors of the U. S. S. Kickapoo. On the recent trips of the ship carrying passengers back and forth to the NRA parade in Rockland, they showed every possible courtesy and hospitality. Their good humor and clowning greatly shortened the long, cold hours and kept up the spirits of the passengers. They were on the watch at all times to do anything they could for the comfort of everyone, which was some job, considering the facilities of a ship of that type which is inadequate to comfortably handle a crowd of that size. I'll bet they were glad when the last trip was ended, but you have got to hand it to them; they sure can "take it." Good luck to the Kickapoo crew, and their quadruped pets.

THE LANDLADY'S DAUGHTER

Three students were traveling over the Rhine. They stopped when they came to the landlady's sign. "Good landlady, have you good beer and wine?" And where is that dear little daughter of thine?"

"My beer and wine are fresh and clear; My daughter she lies on the cold death-bed!" And when to the chamber they made their way, There, dead, in a coal-black shrine, she lay.

The first he drew near, and the veil gently raised, And on her pale face he mournfully gazed. "Ah! wert thou but living yet," he said, "I'd love thee from this time forth, fair maid!"

The second he slowly put back the shroud, And turned him away and wept aloud: "Ah! that thou liest in the cold death-bed! Alas! I have loved thee for many a year!"

The third he once more uplifted the veil, And kissed her upon her mouth so pale: "Thee I loved I always; I love still but thee, And there will I love through eternity!" —From the German of Uhland. Translation of J. S. Dwight.

THREE-TIMES-A-WEEK

Wait on the Lord; be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart; wait, I say, on the Lord.—Psalm 27:14.

THE CITY ELECTION

Interest shown in last week's Republican caucuses was a favorable augury for the success of that party in the biennial municipal election, which takes place the first Monday in December. Two years ago the Republicans elected their ticket in five of the seven wards, and had endorsed an aldermanic candidate who was elected in another ward. A more vigorous fight waged against the mayoralty nominee resulted in the defeat of the Republican candidate by a vote, which while sufficient, could not be termed an impressive Democratic victory.

This year there appears to be an effectual elimination of some of the party differences which operated against the success of the Republican ticket in 1931. This does not mean that there will not be Republicans supporting Mr. Thurston, the Democratic nominee, any more than it means that there will not be Democrats voting for Mr. Snow. Party lines are by no means as taut as they have been in former years, and the coming election will doubtless see a break from both sides. From the standpoint of Republicanism there has come to the fore an element of younger voters, which will doubtless result in the formation of a Young Republican Club. Vigorous leaders are in sight, and they mean business. In other years the party has been rather too content to let the new voters follow in the footsteps of their fathers, or go in accordance with an inclination which may not have been as carefully considered as though somebody had taken the pains to shed upon them the light of experience. This year the young Republicans are coming forward on their own hook, desiring that they may have their place in the sun, and nowise content to be merely pawns on the political chessboard. Needless to say that this movement is looked upon with high favor by the older men of the party, who not only desire to have fresh shoulders help bear the burden, but who feel that younger blood should have due recognition.

As to the character and ability of Carleton F. Snow, the Republican nominee no voice has been raised, even by political opponents who are sometimes not over scrupulous as to the adoption of means to an end. He is a son of the late Rear Admiral A. S. Snow (retired) who reflected fame upon Rockland by his distinguished career in the United States Navy—a career which the present candidate so successfully emulated in a long naval career which embraced two wars as well as important peacetime service.

Mr. Snow, who rose to the rank of lieutenant-commander is not waging a political contest upon his naval record, however brilliant it may have been, but upon his willingness and ability to give his city full-time service on the basis that has been rendered so vitally different by the stress of the hazardous times which we are now facing.

Opponents of the Republican cause, balked by inability to lay the finger of criticism upon Mr. Snow's fine character have adopted other tactics, and in a vague manner are spreading the report that he was guilty of extravagance in his previous administration as mayor. The answer is clear, honest and undebatable. Mr. Snow's administration was called upon to make heavy payments upon the new High School building which had been authorized by the preceding administration and which was constructed, if we remember rightly by a non-partisan citizens' committee. Of course it was expensive, but the pinch of hard times was then not even remotely suggested and the institution was one for which there had long been a crying need, and which has been fully justified by the growth of the local school system. Mr. Snow favored, as did every other thinking citizen, but it was authorized by his predecessor, and the Snow administration was left no other alternative than to pay. If that constituted extravagance on Mayor Snow's part there must be some misconception of fairness, and if there is a continuation of this cry in the course of the campaign it is being raised by somebody who is determined not to learn the facts and certainly not to state them. Such a bugbear will not be abetted by fair-minded voters.

Miss Winola Richan enters upon her duties of teaching music in Union High School this week, spending two days of each week in this activity.

APPLETON RIDGE

C. Johnson Pitman arrived home Saturday from a 12 days' stay at Fox Hospital, where he underwent an appendectomy operation.

"ON MY SET"

It is quite safe to say that hundreds of fans tuned in on WLBZ Sunday afternoon to hear the program of the Knox County Men's Chorus, and that every last listener was very proud of the fine showing made by Director Constantine's organization. The soloists were: Harold W. Greene, "If With All Your Hearts" from the oratorio of Elijah; Roscoe McKinney, "Rocked In the Cradle of the Deep"; and Charles Wilson, "Beneath the Cross of Jesus." The choral numbers were "Gloria in Excelsis" from Mozart's Twelfth Mass; "In the Morning," "The Bugles Blow," "Holding On" and "The Last Chord." Mrs. Constantine was accompanist. The announcer said that "public demand made it imperative that another concert be given," referring to the success of the preceding Sunday's broadcast.

The Mountain Top Hour, presented by the Providence Bible Institute over WNAO Sunday mornings, finds many pleased listeners.

Yes, you hear it everywhere, the newest song hit "The Last Roundup." The bands play it and the orchestras play it and the soloists sing it. "Little doggie" has come to be a very well known animal.

Portland clergymen co-operated Sunday in helping Rev. Howard O. Hough celebrate the 15th anniversary of the "First Radio Parish of America." It constituted a memorable service.

JOHN H. THOMAS

Death of Civil War Veteran, Who Was Deputy Sheriff Ulmer's Staff

The remains of John H. Thomas, Civil War veteran, who died last week in Waltham, Mass., were brought to Rockland and received with customary honors by Edwin Libby Post and Relief Corps and Anderson Camp, Sons of Union Veterans. Interment was in Achorn cemetery, the bearers being Judge E. K. Gould, I. Leslie Cross, Charles Gould and Edward Cross. Funeral services had been held in Waltham.

John Henry Thomas was born in Warren April 21, 1843, son of Joshua and Mary (Dockham) Thomas. He was following the vocation of farmer in Warren when the Civil War broke out, and enlisted as a private in Co. H, Fourth Maine Regiment. That unit saw bloody service on many battlefields, among them Antietam, the Wilderness, and Gettysburg, and Mr. Thomas was mustered out with the rank of sergeant.

He came home from the war to enter the employ of Cobb, Wight & Co., being with that well known concern for 30 years, first with a delivery team, and later as clerk.

In 1886 he moved to South Union, where he was engaged in farming until the early Nineties, when the late Sheriff William Nelson Ulmer appointed him as deputy sheriff and turnkey. He served eight years in that capacity, then moved back to Union. Later he resided in Rockland for a number of years before locating in Waltham, Mass., where the last days of his long life were spent. He had served several times as commander of Edwin Libby Post and as secretary of the Fourth Maine Regiment and Second Maine Battery Association. He attended unfailingly the annual reunions of the latter organization, even after his removal to Massachusetts. While a resident of Union he had served as selectman. He was very conscientious in the discharge of all duties and at all of the Grand Army gatherings contributed much to the joy of the occasion. Those who had known him over a long period of years found in him a most loyal friend.

Mr. Thomas was twice married. His first wife, Caroline A. Wiley of Hope, died in 1907. He is survived by his second wife, who was Elizabeth Morse; one son, Albert W. Thomas of Rockland; a grandson, Donald W. Thomas, and a great grandson, Donald, Jr., both of Cambridge, Mass.

PURSUIT OF THE PIGSKIN

Rockland High Upsets Gardiner's Fruit Wagon—Rockland Shells Blow Up Bangor

The Rockland Shells won sweet revenge at Community Park Sunday afternoon by defeating Bangor A. A. 13 to 6. The home team did all of its scoring in the second period, while the visitors did not get going until it was nearly time to turn on the lights.

Nash was the touchdown kid for Rockland, scoring the first one on a long run through right tackle, and the second in virtually the same manner. Short passes brought the Bangor team into scoring position in the last period, and with the ball only a few yards from the Rockland line it was pushed over by MacDonald on a power play.

The Shells showed decided improvement in its style of attack, and was very strong on the defensive with Glover, Frye and Larabee winning special praise.

In spite of the rugged weather there was a good sized crowd on the field. The summary:

Rockland	Bangor
Fowler, lb	re, Crowley
Glover, lt	rt, Hewes
Moulaison, Olson, lg	rg, I. Graves
Larabee, c	c, Goodin
Monaghan, Pales, rg	lg, Rubin
Frye, rt	lt, Winchell
Mazzeo, re	le, Blanchard
Olson, Nash, qb	qb, Miles
Nash, Knight, lhb	rhb, Maroon
Black, Plaisted, rlb	lb, MacDonald
Valenta, Hamlin, Hooper, fb	fb, Korsky

Touchdowns—Nash 2. Point after touchdown, Hamlin (rush). Referee, Sezak (Maine). Umpire, Wotton (Bowdoin). Linesman, Durrell (Maine). Time, four 12-min. periods.

The list of contenders for the mythical National football championship has dwindled to a mere handful headed by Michigan and Nebraska in the Midwest, Army, Princeton and Duquesne in the East, Georgia and Duke in the South, and Oregon, Oregon State and Southern California in the Far West.

It is all over but the rah-rahing in the State series. Colby was defeated 18 to 7 by Maine Saturday, but remains the only team which could tie Maine for the championship and to bring this about it would be necessary for Colby to win the Armistice Day game from Bates, while Bowdoin was beating Maine. Not much in that proposition to excite optimism over Waterville way. Bowdoin and Bates have no chance to even tie Maine.

Rockland 6, Gardiner 0

The football prophet in Saturday's Kennebec Journal said that Gardiner High School "appears to be two touchdowns better than Rockland." To that audacious and ill-informed writer the sports editor of The Courier-Gazette respectfully refers the actual result of Saturday's game at Community Park, which found the Kennebec Valley boys on the goose-eggs end of a 6 to 0 score.

The locals were addicted to considerable fumbling in the early part of the contest, with the result that there were four times when the visitors were assaulting the Rockland citadel. That Rockland had not been given defensive instruction in vain was proven by the fact that Mr. Sezak's charges stood firmly in the breach, and the landscapers from the Kennebec did not pass. Later the visitors made a desperate attempt to win via the overhead route, but always there was somebody clad in an orange and black uniform ready to bat the pigskin earthward.

The Rockland player whose name was added to the hall of fame in this classic was Captain Thomas who carried the ball half the length of the field on an off tackle play and made the solitary touchdown of the game. This happened in the third period. Thomas had splendid interference, and his broken field running gave the crowd a thrill it will not soon forget. The summary:

Rockland	Gardiner

A STATE LOTTERY

Gov. Brann Bids Attentive Ear To Plan To Wipe Out State Debt

A proposal by Senator Frank H. Robie of Cumberland County that the State of Maine operate a $1,000,000 monthly lottery for revenue producing purposes, was said by Gov. Brann Saturday to be "very interesting."

Senator Robie said that if there are indications of sufficient support he will introduce such a plan at the forthcoming special session of the Legislature.

Asserting no opposition to the proposal when asked what he thought of it, the Chief Executive very carefully weighed his answer and then said, "The Senators' plan is very interesting."

"With the State now $2,500,000 in the hole something has to be done and done quickly," Robie said. "A State lottery would do it."

He said he believed it would be "easy" to sell $1,000,000 worth of tickets a month, "which, after payment of prizes, should give the state a profit of approximately $600,000 a year."

He pointed out that Nevada has legalized gambling and that in the neighboring state of New Hampshire betting on horse races is permitted, the latter "having produced $750,000 for the state the past year."

No private lotteries would be allowed, under Robie's plan, the State to have the monopoly. Provision should be made, he said, to bar a major prize winner from ever again receiving that prize.

UNION

Stalba, third assistant engineer; E. H. Reynolds, Louis H. Kelly, quartermasters.

Milton Weymouth Jr., son of Milton W. Weymouth formerly of Rockland, has been elected president of the class of 1936 at Potter Academy in Sebago, Me. The youngest member of the sophomore class, he is substitute on the first basketball team at the Academy and officiates as referee for the basketball team at Longfellow school, Sebago. A member of the Dramatic Club, he has a leading part in a drama to be presented at Thanksgiving and has the position of drummer for the Academy Orchestra, which takes a prominent place in the social activities of the town of Sebago, and surrounding towns.

A Castine despatch in the Bangor News has this to say about Principal William D. Hall of the Normal School who attended the State teachers convention: "Mr. Hall, who is a member of the committee on Necrology and a member of the University of Maine Teachers' Association, was also vice chairman of the teacher-training section during the recent Lewiston conference. Principal Hall has been appointed on the committee on legislation for the ensuing year, and will also serve as chairman of the teacher-training department when the convention meets in Portland in 1934. By virtue of his office as principal of one of the State normal schools, Mr. Hall, in addition, a member of the representative assembly of the Maine Teachers' Association."

3-YEAR HONEYMOON GLOBE TRIP MAPPED

Couple Will Take Ushers as Ship's Crew.

Chicago. — An around-the-world honeymoon cruise in a 50-foot schooner, to last three years, is being planned by two young society people. They will take their wedding ushers along as a crew.

Mary Jane Falcon, a Northwestern coed, and Robert G. Leflingwell, well-known commercial artist, will be married at the bride's home in Evanston in the fall. Then, accompanied by three companions, they will leave for Tarpon Springs, Fla., to outfit their boat, and obtain practical experience in salt water navigation. On January 1 they will begin their three-year trip of following the sun around the world.

To Seek Shark Fight.

Among the many purposes of the trip is research work, to be done for the Field Museum. Deep sea diving apparatus will be taken along, and Mr. Leflingwell has arranged to photograph a South Sea shark fight under water. This sport of sharks is similar in nature to a Spanish bull fight. Sharks are starved for several weeks previous to the spectacle, and then a native boy is thrown into the water. Sometimes the boy is destroyed.

Among the important letters of introduction which these young people have obtained, is one to the king of the Fiji Islands. Through Washington they are getting other good messages from the ambassadors of the many countries which they will touch.

The itinerary, as planned, goes from Florida to Jamaica, from there through the Panama canal to the Galapagos Islands and other South sea spots, where they expect to spend a year in writing, photographing, painting and deep sea diving.

Will Visit Australia.

From the South Sea Islands they are routed by way of the Fiji Islands to Australia, where they contemplate a trip to the interior. From there they will sail to Singapore, Siam and India. They will touch on the east coast of Africa and from there sail to Capetown. They will visit the St. Helen Islands and pass some time in Rio de Janeiro. On the way home they will cover the east coast of South America and the West Indies and eventually sail up the Mississippi to Chicago.

Because this is primarily an aesthetic cruise the funnel of the boat is to be decorated in various Malayesian, Fijian, Chinese and Malayan designs. The sails of the boat will be painted in a rainbow of blending colors.

Aside from the honeymoon aspect of the cruise, its chief purpose is educational. All of the members are college students and three of the boys are artists. An exhibit will be held upon their return of water colors and oils made in out-of-the-way places.

Locomotive, War "Hero," Scrapped by the British

London.—A battle-scarred British war veteran and ex-German prisoner of war, with a travel record of more than 1,220,000 miles, has just passed away.

This "hero" was Locomotive No. 2717, believed to have been the only British railway engine to have been captured by the Germans. It has just been withdrawn from service and broken up.

While in use on the British front at Cambrai in 1917, No. 2717 was captured by the enemy and for five months was used as a machine-gun post in "No Man's Land." Following the March retreat the Germans removed the engine, patched up the bullet and shrapnel holes, and used her for railway service until she was recaptured by the British in 1918.

On return to home duties after the war the engine was decorated with a plate recording its war service.

Huge Skull Unearthed

Orvieto, Spain.—A huge skull, apparently that of a prehistoric animal, was found in an excavation here. Four teeth still remained in the jaw, each almost three inches long and almost two inches wide at the base.

Junk Shop Removed From Man's Stomach

St. Gallen, Switzerland.—A miniature junk shop has been extracted from the stomach of a man arrested here recently for theft.

When taken into custody he was so ill he was taken to a hospital.

"My stomach," the man moaned, "pains me."

A doctor operated. He found: Two broken silver spoons. A safety pin. A wood screw 1½ inches long. Two sash window fastenings. Five pieces of iron 2 inches long.

Two nails.

An X-ray, taken after the operation showed several other metal objects remaining.

SOLD SPURIOUS TABLETS

Paroled Convict Who Traded On Bayer's Reputation Gets Year in Prison

A 3500-mile trail of counterfeit aspirin tablets, extending from Los Angeles to Atlanta and winding its deceptive way through the Middle West, came to an abrupt end in Meridian, Miss., last week with the arrest of L. B. Stein, a paroled convict.

Details of the amazing hoax were revealed in New York by Harvey M. Mans, manager of the Bayer Company, in a warning against the fake product of Stein, which analysis has disclosed contains no aspirin.

Stein operated as a one-man medicine company. Since last June he has put out thousands of spurious tablets in small glassine packets pasted on display cards. He sold these cards to operators of pool-rooms, cigar stores, hot-dog stands and similar outlets in more than a dozen states under the name of "Bayer's Asperine". His undoing came about through "the public's acquaintance with the fact that Bayer Aspirin was sold only in tins and bottles and that each tablet bears the Bayer cross. Stein's fake product bore no cross.

Stein was arrested by Chief of Police Yarbrough at Meridian, who notified officials of The Bayer Company. A special investigator was sent by plane to the Mississippi City.

Following a confession, Stein was convicted of counterfeiting and sentenced to serve a year in prison. Through Bertillon records it was discovered that Stein was on parole from a three-year sentence for automobile theft in Tennessee. He will complete this sentence before beginning his Mississippi term.

According to his confession, Stein began his counterfeiting operations last June in Los Angeles, where he had bought a printing press and other equipment. Each of Stein's display cards contained 48 packages. There were four white tablets in each. Stein found no difficulty disposing of the cards at 98 cents each. The tablets were sold to the consumer at five cents per package.

Stein's activities first came to light last June when the Bayer Company was notified that the spurious tablets were on sale in Long Beach, Calif. Later, special investigators on the trail of Stein traced him to Atlanta, Ga. He operated from a small truck peddling his wares in the communities through which he passed.

RACKET PICKS COIN OFF FAMILY TREES

Despite Warnings Hundreds Fall for Swindle.

London.—Americans in search of a family tree should take warning from the latest of many statements about bogus genealogists issued by the United States consulate general in London.

For, according to the consulate general's office, these fly-by-night gentry this year are reaping a richer harvest than ever from the United States at the expense of those people who believe they are missing heirs to vast fortunes or have claims to noble birth.

Sixty letters a week are being received at the consulate general from Americans who believe they are missing heirs. As usual, most of them have no legitimate claim to any fortune and are told so by return mail, but for those who write to the consulate general there are hundreds of others who place their claims—and their dollars—in the hands of bogus genealogists.

At the consulate general's office there are hundreds of cases on record of people who have been defrauded of their hard-earned coin by these men.

Only recently a trickster living in London started—or claimed to have started—to compile the history of the Bennett family. Hundreds of Bennetts in America and Britain were circled by this man, who said he thought they were associated with this "noble family." He promised to have a record of all the Bennetts privately printed. The dollars rolled in, but the subscribers are waiting for their book.

The Ancient Society of Genealogists is up in arms at this traffic, which, they contend, is dimming the fair name of all latent genealogists, but the authorities have a hard time in catching the swindlers, who move from one address to another with great rapidity.

Total Ages of London Family Thousand Years

London.—That he has the biggest family in London is the claim of Frederick Henden. Henden has had 21 children, 10 of whom are still living, 61 grandchildren (as far as he can remember), and 10 great-grandchildren.

Himself one of twins, Henden had 23 brothers and sisters, and as far back as the family history can be traced the Hendens have always had large families. His children are carrying on the tradition, for one daughter has 15 children and another 12.

Next year the total ages of the family will reach 1,000 years, and Henden, who will be seventy-three, has only had one ambition—to give a party and invite all his family, so that they could all be together. The Hendens have the distinction of being the biggest family mentioned in the London Roll of Honor, for 47 sons and grandsons are mentioned as having fought in the World war.

Police Keep Spendthrift From Wasting His Money

Omaha, Neb.—The first person James Kinney, Clydes, Neb., met when he arrived here to paint the town red with $855 he had accumulated, was a detective, who took him to the station and impounded the money. The desk sergeant allowed Kinney $5 per day for red paint work and he thanked the entire department upon leaving several days later with his bank roll intact.

Copper Roofs Used

Miami, Ariz.—Roofs of copper sheeting are being built here, formerly the site of some of the state's largest copper-producing mines. The sheets are said to be as durable as any other roofing material.

Farley's Name Costs Taxpayers $10,000

By W. S. BRUCKART

Washington.—Post Master General James A. Farley's name is going to cost the taxpayers of the country some $10,000, about which there was no advance planning or codes or something. It comes about in this fashion: The new building that is to house the Post Office department will have a couple of gigantic blocks of stone near its entrance on which are engraved the names of all postmasters general since the first. The contract for these two engraved stones, was let during the administration of President Hoover, so that the last name on the list was Walter F. Brown of Ohio. But along came a change in administration and also a new head of the Post Office department, and his name had to be included.

The two great stones carried an equal number of names when they were shipped from the Indiana quarry. To include the name of Mr. Farley, the names on one stone have had to be shaved off because they exactly filled the space. They are now being relocated in somewhat closer proximity to each other so that Mr. Farley's name may be placed in the list. The contractors said that the cost was approximately $10,000.

IT TAKES HEALTHY NERVES

TO BE AMERICA'S GREATEST STUNT GIRL

A SUDDEN NERVE-RACKING swing upward from a racing auto into a hurtling plane... It's all in the day's work for Mary Wiggins, famous stunt girl who also dives on fire into fire and does the suspension glide in mid-air while hanging only by her teeth. It means something when she says, "Camels never give me edgy nerves even when I smoke a lot."

Steady Smokers turn to Camels

LISTEN TO MARY WIGGINS, greatest of all girl stunt performers. She says: "I have to be sure my nerves are healthy to do my stunts, changing from a speeding auto to a plane, the high dive on fire into fire, wing walking while up in a plane, and the high-altitude parachute jump. As to smoking, I've found that Camels don't interfere with healthy nerves. I've tried all the brands. Camels are milder and better in flavor. They do not give me edgy nerves even when I am smoking a lot."

You'll like that rich Camel flavor and mildness. And your nerves will tell you the difference there is in Camel's costlier tobaccos.

JOE: Am so glad to see you, Sue. Were you nervous during your first flight?
SUE: Not a bit. I smoked Camels all the way, and I never felt better! I haven't worried about nerves since I took your advice and changed to Camels.

Mrs. L. R. Smith returned Friday from Union and Rockland.

Mr. and Mrs. Rideout of Atkinson are guests of their daughter Mrs. Biley Lyford.

Capt. Edward Greenleaf and Meredith Trefrey arrived Saturday from Miami, Fla.

Rev. N. F. A'wood's text Sunday morning at Union Church was "Birds of a Feather." Organ selections were played by Mrs. Elliott Halk prelude, The Last Chord, by Sullivan; offertory, LeCygne, Saint Saens; and postlude, Coronation

March, Meyerbeer. The choir rendered, "Trust in the Lord," by Gage Andrew Wiegand was at the organ in the evening, and Mrs. E. A. Smalley was accompanist. A vocal duet was sung by Mrs. Leroy Ames and Miss Flaviola Arey.

Thursday evening at her home Miss Frances McIntosh gave a shower party for Mrs. Irving Stone of North Haven, who has been the guest of her mother Mrs. Jeanie Gilchrist the past week. Mrs. Stone was invited to what she thought was a bridge party, until about 9.30 a huge "express box" was delivered at the house, addressed to Mrs. Stone, who opened it and much to her surprise, found it contained beautiful gifts from the friends who were present: Gertrude Vinal, Louise Libby, Lily Anderson, Ruby McHanan, Elizabeth Guilford, Dorothy Casse, Annie Gross and Mary Nelson. Besides cards, games were played and refreshments served.

Armistice Day will be observed by the American Legion and Auxiliary, holding a dance in Memorial hall preceded by a concert by the Vinalhaven Band at 7.30 followed by a short comedy sketch, "Sarah Perkins' Hat Shop" by members of Auxiliary: Hazel Roberts, Gwendolyn Greene, Cora Peterson, Elva Teale, Marion Sholes, Hazel Dyer, Ada Creed and Ida Libby. Prizes will be awarded at the dance. The committee is H. L. Coombs, L. B. Dyer, A. E. Libby, W. F. Coombs, C. B. Teale, N. C. Sholes.

Mrs. Lafayette Smith entertained the Washington Club at her home Saturday night.

Mrs. Lawrence Ames entertained at bridge Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Patrick have moved into Mrs. Fred Brown's house on High street.

Mrs. E. L. Glidden will entertain the Sewing Club at her home tonight.

STOMACH UPSET

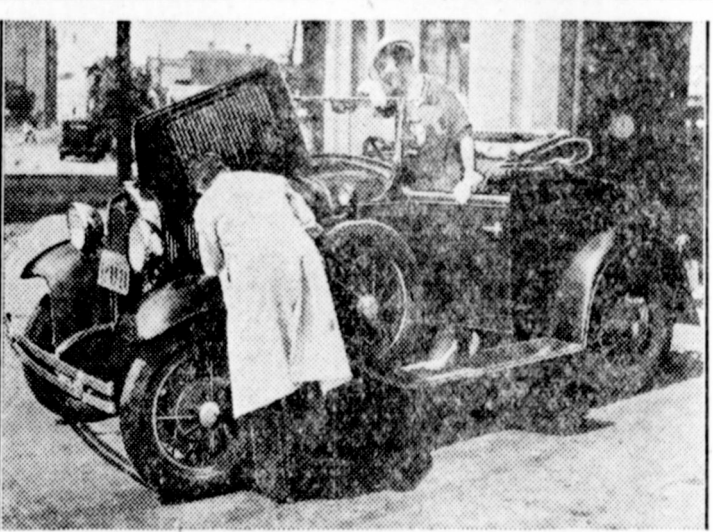

Get at the real cause. That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets help arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, people rarely suffer from indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Try Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound. Know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain. All druggists, 15c, 30c and 60c. Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like.

Fair Drivers Should Watch Motor Up-Keep

Miss Verna Burke, singer and stage star, finds new economies possible through use of quality products for car lubrication.

If women motorists would pay more attention to lubrication of their cars during the hot summer months, it would be possible in numerous cases to save money enough on repair bills in one season to buy a new fall wardrobe, according to J. M. Koch, oil expert.

"The rapid increase in the number of feminine drivers is naturally gratifying to the automotive trades," said Mr. Koch, "but I am convinced from careful study of many women are inclined to be forgetful about car lubrication."

"This may be due to the bargain instinct and the great surge of price cutting prevalent in almost every industry which we all hope will cease

THOMASTON

There will be an important meeting of the Guild of St John Baptist tomorrow evening in the parish hall. It is hoped that all women of the parish will be present. The day being the Octave of All Saints, the meeting will begin with evensong in the church at 7 p. m.

Following his recent sermon on "The Charm of the English Bible," Mr. Leach, minister of the Federated Church, Sunday morning preached the first in a series to be given at intervals this winter on various books of the Bible. The Acts of the Apostles was the book chosen, a timely choice for November which is being observed as Loyalty month; touching on the early history of the Christian Church with vivid word-pictures from the narrative and suggested questions and lines of thought for individual reading of the entire book. The anthem was "Why Shouldst Thou Fear?" Mr. Strout, minister emeritus of the Congregational Church, was present, and Miss Thelma Linscott of Lewiston sang with the vested choir of which she was a valued member during her residence here. Morning worship closed with the sacrament of the Lord's Supper. In the evening this church joined in the Armistice Day union service at the Baptist Church.

The Nurse Association held its regular meeting Friday evening in the selectmen's office, with Mrs.

Frank Elliot presiding and a good attendance. Mrs. Edward Newcomb was unanimously chosen a member of the executive committee, succeeding Mrs. W. H. Brackett recently resigned. Mrs. Flint's reports for the last two months show the resuming of work in the schools, which is a large and very important field, and the thoroughness of this work in this town is frequently noted by visitors. It is of interest that at the recent teachers' convention in Lewiston, which Mrs. Flint attended, the speakers on public health nursing stressed the very activities which are being very carefully attended to here. As already announced, Miss Bushnell and Mr. Bradford with an excellent cast will on Nov. 14 and 15 present "The Vinegar Tree," a delightful comedy, for the benefit of this Association.

The Y.P.S. of C.E. is to give an entertainment in the Baptist vestry Wednesday evening. They will present this program: Raymond Greene, soloist; recitation, Mom's Party, Richard Moore; Spirit of Halloween, Elsie Rowell; song, Misses Marian Felt, Cleora Condon; skit, Adame, Eve and Apple, Pauline and Florine Burnham; Everell Elwell, Maxine Chapman, Virginia Foster, Donald Day, Basil Day, Miss Carleen Davis, teacher; recitation, Funny Folks, Glenice Leonard; skit, A Neighborly Call, Everell Elwell, Pauline Burnham.

Sanford B. Comery, son Franklin and a teacher friend of Belmont

Mass., were weekend occupants of Mr. Comery's house on Dwight street. At the Sunday meeting of the Y.P.S. of C.E. at the Baptist Church three new members were taken in.

Armistice Day service was held at the Baptist Church Sunday evening. Rev. H. S. Kilborn, Rev. J. W. Strout, Rev. H. P. Leach, Comrade Fred Morse and the preacher of the evening, Rev. Walter S. Rounds were on the platform. Mr. Rounds delivered a very stirring address. The signs of the times are ominous, affairs as viewed by the speaker are in an uncertain condition. Present remedies are experimental. The churches are looked to as the agency to solve the problems confronting the nation. The program: Organ, Mrs. Tripp; doxology; invocation, Mr. Kilborn; anthem "Onward Christian Soldiers," choir; scripture, Mr. Leach; hymn, "God Save Our Native Land," congregation; prayer, Mr. Strout; anthem, "A Thousand Shall Fall," choir; address, Mr. Rounds; singing of America, congregation; benediction; postlude.

Mrs. John Hanley has returned from a visit to her daughter, Mrs. John Mason, in North Easton, Mass.

Mrs. Wilbur Strong spent the weekend in Waterville with relatives. She was brought home Monday by her son Wilbur and his friend Brainerd Coverly of Rhode Island, who are attending Colby College.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ames were dinner guests of friends in Camden Sunday.

Hiram Labe of Thomaston and Waldoboro had for guests from Thomaston Sunday at dinner in Waldoboro, Mr. and Mrs. William Gilchrist, children Barbara and William, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Chapman and son, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Smalley and son, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Maxey and Mrs. Minnie Beckett and son Lloyd. Mr. Labe gave all a warm reception, throwing his house wide open to them. Thomaston cooks helped put up a fine dinner. Games and moving pictures made the time pass swiftly. Mr. Labe's farewell word was, "Come again."

Mr. and Mrs. George York were down last week for a couple of days. Upon their return Sunday they were accompanied by their aunt Miss Eliza Whitney. Thomaston friends are pleased to know that Mr. York is at work again.

Keep in mind the play "Vinegar Tree" to be staged by Adelyn Bushnell and Marshall Bradford Nov. 14-15 for the benefit of the Nursing Association.

Harold F. Dana, the newly elected cashier of The Thomaston National Bank, assumed his duties Nov. 1. Mr. Dana was born in Lewiston but received his education in Auburn graduating from the Edward Little High School. His first banking experience was with the First Auburn Trust Co. From 1924 to 1927 he served as a State bank examiner leaving that position to become treasurer of the Maine Trust & Banking Co. of Gardiner. From that city he comes to Thomaston, where he will soon take up his residence. He is married and has two young sons. The community welcomes Mr. Dana and wishes him success in his new position.

The retirement of Miss Lizzie S. Levensaler as cashier marks a period of long and successful banking service in this town. She was associated with her father, J. C. Levensaler, in the Georges National Bank, and upon his death, was made cashier of that bank. This position she filled until the consolidation of the Georges National and the Thomaston National in 1931 at which time she became cashier of the consolidated bank. Miss Levensaler's banking record has been distinguished by remarkable ability and unselfish service. She will be missed by depositors and business associates alike and on all sides there is an unanimously voiced appreciation of her worth.

The Girl's Club which has been meeting every two weeks in St. John Baptist parish rooms since school opened, held a Halloween party in the K. of P. hall last week at which there were approximately 100 young people present, besides the chaperones, who were the Girl Guides and officers also some of the mothers. The hall was decorated with orange and black festoons, black cats, pumpkins, etc. The young people came costumed and there were many amusing outfits. The evening was spent in dancing and games. An orchestra composed of musicians from Rockland and Thomaston furnished music. During intermission doughnuts, fruit punch and apples were served. At 11 o'clock the party disbanded with a unanimous vote that they had spent a delightful evening.

A card party sponsored by St. John's parish will be held in the Knox Hotel Thursday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock.

SOLVES A PROBLEM
Rifle Clubs Doing Good Work In Maine—Thomaston Has Fine One

With the coming of crisp autumn days and the falling of the leaves the hunting desire stirs the hearts of every boy large enough to shoot. To all mothers this brings thoughts of accidents, many of which are fatal caused by unwise handling of weapons and the impulse to shoot at anything that moves before making sure what the object is.

The local rifle and pistol clubs are a solution to this problem writes a Thomaston correspondent. In many places the clubs have an expert junior instructor as in the case of Edward Little High School, Auburn, where Ralph A. Wags, president of the Maine State Rifle and Pistol Club Association teaches the boys the proper use of weapons and good marksmanship. It was under his training that a team of juniors from Auburn won second place in the national competition of rifle clubs in 1932. A five-man team of the same juniors on the state team in 1932 beat picked teams from Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut.

What does it actually do for a boy except make for more perfect marksmanship is another question. It teaches better sportsmanship, self discipline, proper and careful handling of fire arms, the preservation and protection of all forms of animal life, to observe the game laws, to be humane toward animal life. With the skill of marksmanship comes the knowledge of shooting to kill instead of maiming animal or bird. One of the best things learned is the coordination between nerve and muscle. Through this training, a quiet, steady nerve can be acquired always a necessity with accurate aim.

The Junior code contains 13 rules which have to be thoroughly learned before a boy is permitted to shoot at the target. Each boy is drilled to look carefully into the bolt or breech of a rifle and even into the barrel to see if loaded before handling. When the gun is put away in the rack, the breech is left wide open, this to prevent accidents and the useless words that "I was too late," "I did not know it was loaded."

W. B. D. Gray of Thomaston, secretary-treasurer of the Maine State Rifle and Pistol Club, a director of marksmanship in the American Legion, Department of Maine, and secretary of the Thomaston Rifle Club says, "It is the clean living boys who are the best shots—those who do not smoke excel those who do." He remarked on the quiet self control of Kendall Cross of North Anson, a member of the Kennebec Rifle Club at present the State champion.

The senior division of the rifle club is composed of men as the name implies. They meet at stated time for practice, later many compete at State and inter-state tournaments. The association now has perpetual trophies for marksmanship for members to compete for. In order to become a member of the state association one needs only to be a member in good standing with a local rifle club which is affiliated with the state association. Throughout the State there are about 17 of these clubs with an average membership of 35.

The officers of the Maine Rifle Club association are as follows: President, Ralph A. Wags, Auburn; vice president, Fred Cash, Bridgton; secretary-treasurer, W. B. D. Gray, Thomaston, formerly of Newton Centre, Mass.

The Thomaston Rifle Club, has 35 members, and embraces membership in Warren, Appleton, Tenant's Harbor, Waldoboro as well as Thomaston. The club was started in 1930 by Mr. Gray and in 1932 a very adequate club house was built at Thomaston in the rear of the MacDonald Drug Store. It is equipped with an indoor range with four firing points. It has a steel backboard which is lighted by 655-watt lights. Not far away is the U. S. Government range for out-of-door work, with facilities to shoot 200, 300, 500 and 600 yards with four target carriers. Twenty-two calibre rifles are used for indoors, while out-of-doors, the government Springfield rifle is used.

The best shots in the local club are Harold D. Sawyer, Warren; C. A. Winchenbaugh, Rockland; W. A. Young, Thomaston and Edward Chisholm, Rockland.

The club officers are: President, W. T. Tabbutt, Thomaston, vice president, W. A. Young, Thomaston; secretary, W. B. D. Gray, Thomaston; treasurer, Albert Elliot, Thomaston; executive officer, Orville Williams, Thomaston.

school buses driven by their owners, Alfred Morton and J. C. Simmons, was kindly donated. Warren T. Delano and Charles H. Stenger also gave the use of their trucks and time, both of which were much appreciated by the school children. The four large conveyances were filled to capacity, necessitating the use of a few private cars, kindly supplied by Luther Wotton, Granville T. Brow, Sidney Prior, Everett Murphy, B. E. Jameson and Francis B. Winchenbaugh. The fine spirit shown by the local citizens and pupils and the way in which they responded to any call for assistance has been very inspiring and doubtless was responsible largely for the success of the demonstration. The children of the village school turned out nearly 100 per cent. All children in the grades supposed to go, were in the line of march with the exception of about a half dozen who were unable to attend. The children were headed by the local troop of Boy Scouts, with their leader and teacher Charles Grant. By courtesy of Alfred H. Morton they were given flags to carry in the parade.

Mrs. LaForest Burns and Miss Alma Johnson returned Wednesday from a motor trip to Boston and Newton, where they visited relatives and friends.

Mrs. Daniel Coogan (Elizabeth W. Hartel) is convalescing from a recent operation at Newton Hospital, Newton, Mass.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE Whereas, Isaac Berlewsky of Rockland, in the County of Knox and State of Maine, by his mortgage deed dated August 12th, 1926, and recorded in Knox Registry of Deeds, Book 208, Page 506, under the name and name of Isaac Berlewsky, of said Rockland, in said County and State, a certain lot or parcel of land situated in said Rockland, together with the buildings thereon, bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at a stake and stones on the East side of Kelley's Lane and at the southwest corner of the Orberton lot (formerly), so called; thence Easterly along said Orberton lot (formerly) seventy-five (75) feet to a stake and stones at land of William S. Petree; thence South and parallel with Kelley's Lane sixty-five (65) feet to a stake and stones at land of Frank E. Moorlan; thence West along said Moorlan's land seventy-five (75) feet to a stake and stones on the East side of Kelley's Lane; thence North along Kelley's Lane sixty-five (65) feet to the place of beginning.

(Two lots are covered by this mortgage, but the first lot has been released from said mortgage, and the lot herein described is the second lot mentioned in said mortgage.)

And whereas the condition of said mortgage has been broken, and now, therefore, by reason of the breach of the condition thereof, I claim a foreclosure of said mortgage.

Dated at Rockland, Maine, October 30th, 1933.

GILFORD B. BUTLER, Rockland, October 30th, 1933. Personally appeared the above named Gilford B. Butler, and made oath that the foregoing foreclosure notice, by him signed, is true.

Before me, SUSAN M. SPEAR, Justice of the Peace. 130-T-136

Commandments For Schoolchildren

A Gift From Czechoslovakia

These beautiful ideals for children originated in Czechoslovakia. They have been taken up in other countries and are on the bulletin boards of countless schools.

1. Love your schoolmates; they will be your companions for life and work.
2. Love instruction, the food of the spirit. Be thankful to your teachers as to your own parents.
3. Consecrate every day by one good useful deed and kindness.
4. Honor all honest people; esteem men but humble yourself before no man.
5. Suppress all hatred and beware of insulting your neighbor; be not revengeful but protect your own rights and those of others. Love justice and bear pain and misfortune courageously.
6. Observe carefully and reflect well in order to get at truth. Deceive not yourself or others and beware of lying, for lies destroy the heart, the soul, and the character. Suppress passions and radiate love and peace.
7. Consider that animals also have a right to your sympathy and do not harm them or tease.
8. Think that all good is the result of work; he who enjoys without working is stealing bread from the mouth of the worker.
9. Call no man a patriot who hates or has contempt for other nations, or who wishes and approves wars. War is the remains of barbarism.
10. Love your country and your nation but be co-workers in the high task that shall make all men live together like brothers in peace and happiness.

.. A Lovely Skin ..

If you want cheeks like velvet, sparkling eyes, a fair skin, free from pimples and boils, don't let food wastes and poisons accumulate. Take the advice of Miss Mildred Babinger of 333 No. Sixth St., Olean, who says: "About six months ago my health failed, my appetite was poor, I lost weight, my blood was impoverished and I had many pimples. I began to improve on the first bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. My appetite was soon normal, my complexion clear and I felt strong and well after I had completed the fourth bottle."

Write to Dr. Pierce's Clinic, Buffalo, N. Y., for free medical advice.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Ladd were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. McDougall in Portland.

C. Alton Palmer was in Boston on business for a few days last week.

STRAND THEATRE

A beautiful chorus of 50 girls recruited from the "Follies" and the stage version of "Take a Chance" embellishes the Paramount film, playing Wednesday. "Take a Chance" tells the story of four carnival side-show entertainers who win fame and fortune on the Broadway stage through the good offices of a producer, played by Charles "Buddy" Rogers. It is by no means another back-stage romance, since the locale ranges from the side show to a splendid (though crooked) gambling club, out among the society folk of Long Island and finally to the front of a stage at a Broadway theater.

"The Man Who Dared," based on colorful incidents in the life of the late Mayor Anton Cermak shows Thursday. The story of the picture traces the development of a young immigrant from his humble beginnings as a miner through one of the most turbulent periods of recent times. It reveals the perseverance and the unswerving devotion of a young man for the righteous principles of his adopted country. Against odds that are large enough to have beaten the ordinary mortal, this young man conquers others as he conquers his own small weaknesses to attain his ultimate goal. The axis around which the plot of "The Man Who Dared" revolves is a romance between the young immigrant and a beautiful girl of his own nationality. Brusque and fearless as his life is, he reveals himself the tenderest of lovers and the most considerate of companions.—adv.

STUDYING RUSSIA

Methebesec Club Hears Some Interesting Papers — Exchange Program Next

The Methebesec Club held a most interesting meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mildred Putnam, Rockport, with 33 members and three guests present. Mrs. Angelica Glover presiding read a letter from Rev. Mr. Huse of North Haven commenting favorably on the club's study subject, "Russia," and submitting a list of books which might be of interest in that connection. Mr. Huse's thought was much appreciated and it is hoped that he will be able to attend a meeting later in the season. Mrs. Mary Cooper reporting for the hospitality committee said that Mrs. Ava Jackson is much improved and expects to attend the next meeting. Mrs. Minnie Rogers reported for the benevolence committee and Miss Ellen Daly for the ways and means.

Prefacing the formal program, Mrs. Gladys Morgan gave an account of the recent concert in Bangor by the Don Cossack Russian Male Chorus which she was privileged to hear, telling not only of the singing and stage appearance but much of the background of the men forming this unique organization. Miss Adelaide E. Cross as guest artist sang "He Truly Loved Me So" by Tschakowsky, and "The Snowdrop" by Gretchaninoff, her fresh soprano voice charming her hearers. She had as an accompanist Mrs. Faith G. Berry.

Current events were presented by Miss Caroline Stanley, news gleaned from the four corners of the globe and given with many touches of her own individual humor. Mrs. Irene Moran as leader gave a paper on "Russia Under the Czars" and Mrs. Etta Stoddard one on "Why Did Kerevsky Fall and Lenin and Trotsky Succeed?" Both papers showed much thought in preparation.

The next meeting will be an exchange program with the Damariscotta-Newcastle Women's Club at the home of Mrs. Ruth Ellingwood.

Gregory's Picture & Framing Shop at 406 Main street over Crie's Hardware Co. will have a new lot of swing frames. Come in and see them. Tel. 254—adv.

Traveling Around America

CARTAGENA, COLOMBIA

ONE of the most fascinating cities in the Western Hemisphere is Cartagena, Colombia, the oldest city in South America now in existence—a place with more of the atmosphere of old Spain than Castle itself can boast. Guarding the city are the same grim fortresses and tower-topped walls that met the attacks of Drake and Pizarro, ramparts constructed in the exciting days of Philip II—with walls now draped in creeping moss and moats half-filled with jungle.

An ever-increasing number of travelers is visiting this little town—particularly since it has been included in the route of the fortnightly cruises which visit the Central America on the voyage between New York and California. These visitors to Cartagena see much that recalls the thrilling days of the conquistadores who paved the way, by their early conquests, for a civilization we today enjoy.

The ancient, colonnaded plaza where the Spanish nobles and their ladies once held court may still be seen—though now it is crowded with little shops, crooked, cobble streets lead between old Moorish houses, with portaled and barred windows, to old cream-colored monasteries built back in the sixteenth century. In the shadow of dungeons where prisoners once languished in chains, the natives may be seen laundering their clothes, cooking their food—going about their daily tasks as contentedly as kings.

NEWS OF THE PRISON

As Told By "Vox," Newspaper Published By Inmates of the Institution

The current issue of Vox, published by the inmates of the State Prison, is not unkind of the fact that it is the Thanksgiving month, for Editor L. Italian has adorned the cover page with a turkey, and certain it is that the 257 inmates of the penitentiary will have something extra good for their noonday meal Nov. 30.

Here are some of the Vox local items:

Movies are to start Nov. 5th and we are to have them for six months. We haven't as yet seen the list of pictures, but they are to be Paramount, and this speaks for itself.

Through the kindness of the warden, the special privilege of receiving Thanksgiving Day boxes of home-cooked food, along with that which is regularly allowed, has been granted.

Our thanks are extended to Mrs. L. M. Littlefield of Rockland, for the four sets of radio ear-phones which she so kindly sent in. Same to be given to inmates who have none.

We are informed of the case of a former inmate who asserts that he'll be glad to get back where he knows he'll have a warm place to sleep and three meals a day. We'd like to be the Judge, he'd be sure to both for so long as the statutes permits.

"Doc" Smith inmate nurse was quite severely shaken up in football practice. Rather unwise of Doc to engage in football so soon after appendix operation. Doc will be needed on the pitcher's mound next year far more than on the football team. Incidentally, our eighteen year old pitcher, Murray Strout, is keeping in trim for next season. In the few games he pitched this year, he showed that he is a pitcher that will have to be reckoned with next year.

Old-timers here, read with genuine regret of the coming retirement of Ex-Warden Ham, as Collector of Internal Revenue for Maine. Warden Ham was one of the first Wardens in Maine to give a "new deal" to prisoners.

Muzzall, inmate overseer of the tin shop fell on steps and fractured his left knee.

APPLETON RIDGE

The W.C.T.U. held a very interesting meeting at the home of Adna Pitman Friday afternoon with 11 members and three visitors present. The visitors were Mrs. Lais Meservey of North Appleton, Mrs. Carolyn Gushue Page of Owl's Head and Mrs. Phene Ripley. The organization is glad to have as guests any who care to attend. Mrs. Blanche Davidson extended an invitation for the December meeting.

Norman Perry has gone to Winter Harbor where he has employment on the road.

SIX HUNDRED PRESENT

County Contest Of 4-H Clubs A Revelation To Waldoboro Where It Was Held

The Knox and Lincoln 4-H Clubs were well represented at the County Contest in Medomak hall, Waldoboro, Saturday. Fifty of the 52 clubs were present with their respective leaders and 18 assistant leaders. The program:

Songs, led by John Taylor, Camden; address of welcome, Mrs. John Gay, Waldoboro; response, Harbeth Hobbs, Hope; songs, flag drill, Busy Bees 4-H Club of Newcastle; Club Work, Ralph Wentworth, County Agent; piano solo, Margaret Farrin, South Bristol; best girl's story, "My Season's Work," Katherine True, Hope; best story of boys' project, Catherine Goudy, Damariscotta; songs, recitation, Barbara Pinkham, South Bristol; cracker eating contest, Damariscotta boys vs. Union boys; club song, Helpful Handy Home Hustlers, South Bristol; play, "The Tailor Made Suit," Union senior girls; Trip to State 4-H Camp, Charlotte Bragdon, Damariscotta.

Charters were awarded to 16 clubs, and seals of achievement to 42 clubs. The honor of being the winning garden club in the county went to the Orr's Corner boys' club, and the winning canning club to the Golden Rule 4-H Club of Hope. These clubs will compete with the other 13 counties for the $25 prize offered each by the State Farm Bureau Federation.

The Hazel Atlas Glass Co. award of $250 went to Louise Eugley of Hope, county champion in canning; one dozen quart jars to the next highest ranking senior to Annie Rhodes of Union; one dozen pints to the highest ranking junior to Besse York of Damariscotta Mills and one dozen pints to Mellic Boudway of Boothbay as the next highest ranking junior.

The H. K. Webster prize of $250 presented by the "Poultry Food Co." went to Catherine Goudy of Damariscotta, the county champion in chick raising, and $250 to Warner Howard of Union, the highest ranking junior in chick raising.

Falena Hilton of North Whitefield is the winner of the ball contest for having the best pint jars of a canned vegetable and a fruit. These two jars will be sent to State Seed Show at Lewiston to compete with those in the other 13 counties.

Other exhibits for the State Seed Show were: Beans, Edward Palmer of Aina, John Pearce of Hope, Quentin Barrett of Hope, J. Wilfred Hobbs of Hope; canning, Falena Hilton of North Whitefield, Annie Rhodes of Union, Helen Odis of Waldoboro; potato, Kenneth Elwell of Orr's Corner, Leonard Brann of North Whitefield.

4-H Club pins were awarded to every member who finished a project. Louise Nash, of Camden and Charlotte Bragdon of Damariscotta were two club members who received ninth year pins for having been in club work for nine years and completing their projects each year.

Leaders' pins were awarded to each leader. Those were presented by Mrs. John Gay of Waldoboro.

Helen Odis of Waldoboro presented John Taylor, song leader, a basket of fruit given by the 4-H Club members.

For 1933, 36 of the 52 clubs finished 100 per cent. There were 631 projects enrolled and 574 projects are completed making a 91 per cent finishing of all projects. The actual club member enrollment is 546—404 girls and 142 boys.

The prize list will appear in Thursday's issue.

NEW YORK STYLES

Belts and Handbags in Smart Alliance—Cellophane Fabrics and Lamps

(Released by New York-Paris Fashions)

Highlighted in the mode are the new belts and handbag sets—often in suede finish fabrics with metal or composition trims. Some feature initials. Buckles for the belts, which match bag clasp or ornament, feature clever shapes—sometimes geometric. It's none too early to be making out Christmas lists. And a set of these would please most any girl.

Cellophane Fabrics

In keeping with the trend for the practical yet simple luxurious fabrics in the modern interior mode is a new fabric known as Luvet made of Cellophane woven with rayon which fashions the window drapes of a modern card room on display in New York. The fabric soft, pliable and yet with body desirable for the straightline styling employed—has a glistering sheen that catches the light in a most flattering manner.

The versatility of Cellophane for room furnishings is further evidenced in this same room exhibit, which features a woven Cellophane fabric wall covering in oyster white, matching a metal chair which is upholstered in the same material. There is also a charming floor lamp with a shade in the same oyster white Cellophane, designed by William Van Cleave, and contributing to this modern practical ensemble.

New Interest In Lamps

Lamp shades are varied and interesting this season. New York shops fabrics including velvets, satins, cottons, linens, pigskin, parchment and Cellophane. For more formal interiors, white transparent velvet is used with smart effect as shades for the chrome metal floor lamp, as are also some of the new rayon satins and some of the lacquered fabrics. While pleated and frilled effects are noted in some cases, the very plain shade is favored.

Some Style Flashes

Tunics are worn for day and evening—for any and all occasions. For dressy wear, they are noted in velvets, satins, the new striped lames, failles, rayon crepes and soft woolsens shot with metal. They are important in long as well as hip-length styling.

Whether hats are high or low, with brims or without, they are nothing this season unless set on a smart cuffure, which, particularly for the evening mode, is usually set off with a smart clip, comb or bandeau. Hair ornaments are important also in the daytime mode.

Gloves are certainly taking a hand in smart fashions this season. For sports, there are new corduroys with flared cuffs; for afternoon, velvet slippers shirred at the wrist, and, for evening, there are velvets and satins. The latter, in a 12-button ribbed version, is the demier cri for evening just now.

There's nothing smarter this season for the cocktail hour or any after-noon dressy occasion than the black velvet suit with short jacket. It is very chic with a white satin blouse.

Gold is prominent in many of the smartest new fabrics, including the black lacquered looking fabrics with gold threads running through. These gold threads are seen also in some of the new velvets, mossy crepes, blistered weaves and in crinkled patterns.

Among the new color combinations noted now are tobacco brown with pansy purple, bright blue with beetroot, and eel grey combined with coral, moss green and bright orange. Buttons, bows and belts are doing lots for dresses this season.

In Victorian Mode

HERE is one of the newest of the fall and winter gowns with a distinct touch of Lady Lou and the Victorian manner. The gown reflects a certain elegance, with its sheath-like silhouette and tiny train, and has a dash of modern simplicity in the lovely severity of its fabric, Lucia, one of the transparent velvets. The hat brings an added charm to the costume with its soft flurry of ostrich plumes.

GORHAM NORMAL

(By Edna Delaney)

The final program for Superintendent's Day has been announced. Following this program there are to be group meetings, round table conferences and the faculty tea.

Members of the editorial board of the Green and White, were entertained recently at a "Murder" party held at the home of Miss Caroline Tullison in Gorham. Games were played and refreshments were served. Earle Achorn, business manager of the board, was present.

The Y.W.C.A. recently held an association meeting. Groups were appointed to carry out the work for the year and a budget was planned. Anita Gatti and Mary Stockbridge of Rockland are among the members of the association.

Robie Hall Center was the scene Saturday night of a very gay Halloween party given by the house committee.

Monday night all the members of the Girls Glee Club were entertained at a party held in the music room of Corthell hall. A short program was presented and then games and cards were played. Mary Stockbridge and Helen Stone of Camden were among those present.

The National Honor Society, of which Mildred Turner of Jefferson is vice president, met recently with Miss Nellie Jordan, dean. Dr. Russell spoke about his trip to Europe.

Plans for a banquet were discussed at the last Out-of-Door Club meeting. The club has been very active this year and its members have taken several hikes. Mary Stockbridge, Anita Gatti, Helen Stone, and Katherine True, are members.

The civic committee met recently in Dr. Russell's Room. Keith Jordan, president, Ernest Libby announced his complete staff of ushers for Superintendent's Day. Earle Achorn is to act in this capacity.

Miss Jessie L. Keene of Waldoboro has announced that the first issue of the Oracle, the school paper, will be on sale next week. Miss Keene is one of the faculty advisors. Others on the staff are Mildred Turner of Jefferson and Helen Stone.

A fine program was enjoyed at the weekly meeting of the Dramatic Club. Readings and musical selections made up the program. Mary Stockbridge is a member. Miss Jeanette S. Johnson of Appleton is faculty advisor.

Miss Arlene Marshall of Blue Hill was guest of honor at a birthday party given recently. Among those present were Florence Benson of Jefferson and Margaret McIntyre of Blue Hill.

Miss Harriet E. Trask of Rockland; Ethel Holbrook of South Thomaston; Helen Stone and Katherine True were among those who spent the weekend at home.

The Poetry Club, under the direction of Miss Bess Lewis, teacher of literature is getting under way. Among those at the first meeting were Helen Stone.

HOME-AG-FAX

Frank Merrill, 80, Dover-Foxcroft, acted as one of two team captains that helped Piscataquis County obtain a perfect score in the recent solicitation for Farm Bureau membership.

Nine hundred Maine apple growers top-worked 62,000 apple trees of inferior varieties to McIntosh and a few other superior varieties in the ten-year period, 1922 to 1931.

Agents for the Extension Service in Maine held 6147 meetings during the last fiscal year. These meetings were attended by 170,389 Maine residents.

Exactly 400 seals of achievement were awarded among the 465 4-H Clubs organized in Maine last year.

One Happy Boy

YOUNG WARREN WILLIAMS of 101 Magnolia Avenue, Floral Park, Long Island, wins a brand new car and shakes hands with his idol, Babe Ruth—all on the same day. Enough excitement for one ten-year old youngster.

Thousands of people all over the country competed in the nationwide Feen-a-mint contest. And young Warren was awarded first prize. Here you see Babe Ruth in front of his New York City residence presenting Warren with the handsome gray automobile which his entry won for him. And it's big enough to take Warren, his mother, father and brother sight-seeing in comfort.
