

The Courier-Gazette

THREE-TIMES-A-WEEK
Subscriptions $3.00 per year payable in advance; single copies three cents.
Advertising rates based upon circulation and very reasonable.
NEWSPAPER HISTORY
The Rockland Gazette was established in 1846. In 1874 the Courier was established and consolidated with the Gazette in 1882. The Free Press was established in 1885 and in 1891 changed its name to the Tribune. These papers consolidated March 17, 1897.

Honor and shame from no condition rise; act well your part, there all the honor lies.—Pope.

CONCERNING STAMPS

Editor of The Courier-Gazette—
In answer to "We Want to Know" of March 26 I will say that according to my album of United States stamps, which coincides with Scott's catalogue, the 6-cent U. S. Treasury stamp, with picture of Lincoln, color brown, was issued from 1873-1879. I can find no record of any other. The Washington 3-cent brown was the same date.

This set of stamps range from 1-cent to 90-cent; 1-cent, Franklin D. Roosevelt; 2-cent, Washington; 3-cent, Lincoln; 4-cent, Jefferson; 5-cent, George Washington; 6-cent, Abraham Lincoln; 7-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 8-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 9-cent, George Washington; 10-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 11-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 12-cent, George Washington; 13-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 14-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 15-cent, George Washington; 16-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 17-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 18-cent, George Washington; 19-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 20-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 21-cent, George Washington; 22-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 23-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 24-cent, George Washington; 25-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 26-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 27-cent, George Washington; 28-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 29-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 30-cent, George Washington; 31-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 32-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 33-cent, George Washington; 34-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 35-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 36-cent, George Washington; 37-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 38-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 39-cent, George Washington; 40-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 41-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 42-cent, George Washington; 43-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 44-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 45-cent, George Washington; 46-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 47-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 48-cent, George Washington; 49-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 50-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 51-cent, George Washington; 52-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 53-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 54-cent, George Washington; 55-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 56-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 57-cent, George Washington; 58-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 59-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 60-cent, George Washington; 61-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 62-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 63-cent, George Washington; 64-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 65-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 66-cent, George Washington; 67-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 68-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 69-cent, George Washington; 70-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 71-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 72-cent, George Washington; 73-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 74-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 75-cent, George Washington; 76-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 77-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 78-cent, George Washington; 79-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 80-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 81-cent, George Washington; 82-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 83-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 84-cent, George Washington; 85-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 86-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 87-cent, George Washington; 88-cent, Benjamin Franklin; 89-cent, Thomas Jefferson; 90-cent, George Washington.

A. M. F.
Mt. Vernon, N. Y., March 28

Americans eat more than 6,000,000 tons of sugar each year. 4,600,000 tons of which are imported.

NOTICE

TO HAIRDRESSERS

Tuesday, April 9, at 10:00 A. M., the State Board for the Regulation of the Practice of Hairdressing and Beauty Culture will hold an examination at the State House, Augusta, for Operators of Hairdressing and Beauty Culture Establishments.

Permanents At All Prices
REALISTIC $4.00 and $6.00
DUAT $5.00
BONAT $3.50

At The
LITTLE BEAUTY SHOP
398 MAIN ST., TEL. 1064-M
40-1t

EASTER NOVELTIES
CARDS, CANDIES, NOVELTIES
OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS
EVERYTHING FOR EASTER
CARINI'S
OPP. STRAND THEATRE, ROCKLAND, ME.

SWIFT & COMPANY

17 UNION STREET

Rockland, Me., April 2, 1935.

The Courier-Gazette,
Rockland, Me.
Gentlemen:

In regard to the rumor that Swift & Company is going to close their Rockland and Bath branch houses. Following is an extract from a letter received from the District Sales Manager of New England:

"Swift & Company have not given any consideration whatever to the closing of the Rockland branch house or to the closing of the Bath branch house, therefore any rumors in regard to this are false."

SWIFT & COMPANY,
ROCKLAND, MAINE.
H. B. Leeman, Sales Manager.

FOURTH ANNUAL INFORMAL MILITARY BALL

BATTERY "F"

WATTS HALL, THOMASTON

Friday, April 5

Music by LLOYD RAFFNEL and His GEORGIAN

Admission 40 Cents

Free Bus Leaves Camden at 8:30; Haven's Store, Rockland, 8:45

39-4t

CAMDEN-ROCKLAND WATER CO

OFFERS

Its Six Per Cent

Cumulative Preferred Stock

A HOME COMPANY AND LOCAL INVESTMENT

LEGAL FOR MAINE SAVINGS BANKS

TAX FREE TO HOLDERS IN MAINE

FREE FROM NORMAL FEDERAL INCOME TAX

Par value $100. Dividends payable quarterly, February, May, August and November 1st. Callable as a whole or in part at $105 a share.

This stock, issued under the approval of the Public Utilities Commission is offered to investors at a price of $98.00 per share and accrued interest, yielding a little more than 6% per annum.

Subscriptions for this stock will be received at the office of the company, 5 Lindsey Street, Rockland, Maine.

CAMDEN-ROCKLAND WATER CO.

78S-coT-tf

A HAPPY RECEPTION

Tendered Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Olds By Congregational Woman's Association

A delightful social event was the reception tendered to Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Olds Friday evening at the Congregational vestry under the management of the Woman's Association of that church, more than 125 persons presenting their respects to the new pastor and his wife who have so quickly won the goodwill of the city.

The vestry, through the medium of rugs, draperies, shaded lamps, easy chairs and other furnishings, had been transformed into a most attractive living room, with glimpses of the refreshment table spread beyond the folding doors, that table beautifully appointed in pale green and cream lace, bearing silver can-debra and flower bowls filled with spring flowers.

In the receiving line were Mr. and Mrs. Olds, J. C. Perry, Miss Helen D. Perry, Mayor and Mrs. L. A. Thurston, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy Crane, Mr. and Mrs. Carl H. Sonntag, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Hewett. Ushers were Homer E. Robinson, David S. Beach and Jesse E. Bradstreet. Mrs. Charles Emery and Mrs. Bradstreet poured, assisted in serving by Nancy Snow, Dorothy Frost, Elizabeth Till, Maizie Joy and Eleanor Look.

A pleasing musical program, largely arranged by Mrs. Nettie Bird Frost, was presented, featuring selections by the church quartet composed of Mrs. Esther Perry, Mrs. Frost, Harold Green and Charles A. Rose; piano solos by Miss Nathalie Jones; and a duet by Mrs. Perry and Mrs. Frost. Miss Jones played during serving. Mrs. E. F. Berry was at the piano as accompanist.

Mrs. Hewett as general chairman was assisted by these committees: Refreshments, Mrs. Crane, Mrs. H. A. Buffum, Mrs. Joseph Emery, Mrs. Oliver Hills; decorations, Mrs. Harriet Frost, Mrs. Cleveland Sleeper, Sr., Mrs. John O. Stevens, Mrs. H. B. Pales and J. C. Perry.

Salesman Wanted

If you are a good salesman and want a job that is paying over $50 a week now, get in touch with me before 6 o'clock today, Tuesday. Applicant must furnish best references and be over 23 and less than 40 years old.

GEORGE F. SPRAGUE

OWL'S HEAD, ME.

TEL. 837-11

40-1t

DION E. WOOLLEY

Summer Resident of Pleasant Beach and Writer For This Paper, Dies Suddenly

Mount Vernon, N. Y., March 30th. Dion Elliott Woolley, post-Civil War publisher of the Hammoniton, New Jersey "Hornet", one of the country's earliest amateur newspapers, later publisher of the Philadelphia Musical Journal, former president of the Philadelphia Piano Trade Association and former treasurer of the National Association of Piano Dealers of America, died suddenly at his home, 153 Chester street Mt. Vernon, N. Y., Saturday. He was 72 years old.

Mr. Woolley was born in Washington, Iowa, son of Elliott Joseph Woolley and Eleanor Pay Woolley. Shortly after the Civil War his parents decided to migrate to Hammoniton, N. J., then being extensively advertised in leading newspapers as "The health resort of the pine belt." At Mr. Woolley's graduation time from local schools, Gen. Joseph Barbieri of the Confederate Army came to Hammoniton to establish a Democratic weekly newspaper. Mr. Woolley joined the new enterprise. The Hammoniton Times, in the capacity of printer's devil. As financial difficulties beset the newspaper, Gen. Barbieri moved the plant to Atlantic City, so on $50 borrowed capital Mr. Woolley founded The Hornet in May, 1878. The bound copies of this amateur publication are cherished in the Library of Amateur Journalism maintained by "The Fossils" the National Society of Amateur Journalists of the Past, the society of which the late Cyrus H. K. Curtis was a prominent member.

In 1882 The Hornet was sold, and Mr. Woolley, then 20 years old started in the music publishing business in Pittsburgh, returning to Hammoniton to marry Minnie Kendall Thomas, in 1883.

Returning from Pittsburgh to Philadelphia in 1885 he edited and published The Philadelphia Musical Journal, Music and Drama, and The Household Correspondent, the latter being eventually merged with The Woman's Home Companion. In 1892 Mr. Woolley disposed of his musical publications and during that summer took the management of The Daily Union of Atlantic City, N. J. and the weekly edition. The Atlantic Times. He was the regular correspondent of the United Press Association, The Baltimore News, The Philadelphia North American and the New York World at the same time.

At the close of the season, he returned to Philadelphia, entering the piano and organ business, and for 20 years was manager for the Estey Organ and Piano Companies in Philadelphia and New York. Active in the various associations of the music trades, he was press representative and treasurer of the National Association of Piano Dealers of America, was President of the Philadelphia Piano Trade Association and a Charter member of the Poor Richard Club in Philadelphia. He was also a member of the University Lodge F.A.M. Philadelphia. During Mr. Woolley's musical period of his career, he developed an advertising and press agency as well as a concert management bureau.

Near the close of the World War, Mr. Woolley moved to Mount Vernon, N. Y. and engaged in the advertising business with Knill-Burke in New York City who represented a list of Eastern and Western newspapers.

In 1927 Mr. Woolley founded the Stores Awning Company, a service by which advertisers could display advertising messages on food store awnings. This company was liquidated in 1931 and Mr. Woolley retired from active business, but continued as a contributor to the Hammoniton, N. J. News. The Courier-Gazette and the musical trades press. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Minnie Kendall Thomas Woolley; two sisters, Mrs. Summer Albert Gould of Wellesley Hills, Mass. and Mrs. Alonzo Byron Davis of Hammoniton, New Jersey; a daughter, Mrs. Anita Woolley Spear; a son, Chandler Stewart Woolley; a granddaughter, Mrs. Frederick Fairfax Hufnagel; and a grandson, Stewart Day Woolley, all of Mount Vernon.

Services were held Monday, April 1st at 4 p.m., at the Burr Davis Mortuary, 15 Fourth Avenue, Mount Vernon, N. Y. Rev. Melford Loebe Brown, rector of the Church of the Ascension, Mount Vernon, N. Y., officiated. Burial will be at noon today, at Greenmount Cemetery, Hammoniton, N. J.

The news of Mr. Woolley's death, received in this city Saturday, occasioned profound sorrow. The deceased was one of the pioneer members of the summer colony at Pleasant Beach in South Thomaston and his annual visits to that resort were happy occasions for himself and family and always looked forward to by the other members of the colony.

THE AMERICAN'S CREED DAY

Members of the Daughters of the American Revolution:

April the third is The American's Creed Day. Let us use it for an analysis of our principles of government.

"A government of the people, by the people and for the people, whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed" offers rare privileges to the individual, but implies heavy responsibilities. How laden with responsibility is that one word "consent!"

Our forefathers sacrificed their lives and fortunes for the establishment of this government upon "principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity."

They expressed their purposes in the Preamble to the Constitution saying: "In order to form a more perfect union, to establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity we do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America."

The first ten amendments known as the Bill of Rights restate the liberties for which men had struggled for ages and to which they clung tenaciously. They vied with each other in service.

Liberties imply obligations. There are no rights without duties. It is difficult for us to place ourselves in a time when the average man knew only duties, and little of rights. The long struggle for freedom has set high value on human rights until today duties are little thought of.

Every good government depends upon a proper balance between rights and duties as the observance of duties depends either upon compulsion or upon conscience. In a democracy compulsion reaches its minimum and conscience needs ever to be prodded and aroused.

Faith in a Divine Being was the corner-stone of the doctrine of human liberty. It provided the conscience which led men to sacrifice personal interests for the establishment of an ideal.

Religious faith has not this compulsion today; unity is lost. Many see a continuance of democracy only through a reawakened religious sense.

We shirk our responsibilities and endanger all about us even as did Jonah in that ancient narrative of the "Odyssey of the Soul." The return to God and to duty brought newness of life. The family is the smallest unit of co-operation. We know what happens to the family in which each one demands his rights and recognizes no obligations. We know the child surrounded by.

We are training for citizenship. We may well ask citizenship in what? Citizenship for what? Only by a knowledge of the road traveled and the price paid can we value our blessings and dedicate ourselves to the preservation of Americanism.

"I believe it is my duty to my country to love it, to support its Constitution, to obey its laws, to respect its flag and to defend it against all enemies."

Florence Hague Becker,
Chairman of the Committee on National Defense Through Patriotic Education.

who found in Mr. Woolley that sunshine which emanates from the companionship with one who possessed the happy and congenial spirit which was so outstandingly his.

A few months ago Mr. Woolley became a contributor to The Courier-Gazette, and his department "Down New York Way," sprang into instant favor. He had a remarkable grasp of public issues and current events, and in addition he treated from an exceptionally interesting angle metropolitan happenings which escaped the eye of diligent reporters for the daily press. His final letter to this paper appeared in Saturday's edition. Bidding farewell to March his article opened with the sadly prophetic words—"One never feels quite certain what may happen." The Courier-Gazette is cognizant of having lost a valued contributor, whose frequent and friendly visits to this office will be greatly missed.

"A REPUBLICAN YEAR"

Following the example set by Waterville, Old Town and a number of other Maine cities, Calais yesterday swung back into the Republican column, Clarence B. Beckett being elected mayor by 33 majority. The Republicans also control the board of aldermen.

FOR SALE Engines For Boats

Ford Model A

Dodge

Chevrolet 6

Jewett

Miller's Garage

RANKIN ST., ROCKLAND, ME.

40-42

Katharine's Beauty Shop

All Branches of Beauty Culture

Phone 270-W 18 Gay Street

One Minute from Rankin Block

Katharine Small, Prop.

40-4t

DR. J. H. DAMON

Dentist

By Appointment

Over Newberry's 5c & 10c Store

ROCKLAND, ME.

Telephone 415-W

121Tt

HOGSHEADS FOR SALE

Clean, Hardwood, Olive Casks or Butts, used but once. Capacity about 160 gallons. Price whether for one cask or a carload, $1.00 each. F. O. B. cars at New York.

Henry A. Thorndike

BOX 43

NEWPORT, R. I.

30t

WE BUY OLD GOLD

Clarence E. Daniels

JEWELER

370 MAIN STREET, ROCKLAND

78-1t

THE EASTERN ZONE

Nancy Gardner Brown Tells What It Has Done For the "Movement"

The Courier-Gazette here publishes a symposium prepared for the Eastern Zone Conference of the Hard of Hearing held in Newark, N. J. Jan. 18-19 by Nancy Gardner Brown of this city. It tells what the Eastern Zone is doing for the Movement. The Movement, the writer explains is to be understood as that spiritual and abstract entity which transcends any organization. The symposium follows:

"Heart warming friendliness pervades our club meetings," says Nancy Gardner Brown.

After five and one-half years, the Speech Readers' Club of Rockland, Maine is still a small club in a small city, but there is nothing diminutive about the aspirations of our group. Inspired by the American Federation of Organizations for the Hard of Hearing, whose aims and ideals are our own, we have worked out a program that has brought returns, not in dollars and cents, it is true, but in a vast amount of human happiness to a group of people formerly denied club life.

Our club has brought a new thought and a new life to them. It has renewed social life from which many had more or less withdrawn, and it has established warm friendships. The contacts with those who have problems like our own have given us greater understanding of human nature and helped us to see ourselves as others see us. It has created tolerance, dwarfed self-pity and completely changed our viewpoint.

Lip reading, the foundation on which our club is built, has formed a common bond which has held us together. We have experienced the mental uplift and outlook that lip reading gives and we have delved deeply into Betty Wright's "by-products" of lip reading. Confidence, a new interest in life, the incentive to "carry-on" and the courage to meet and surmount difficulties are ours.

The far reaching influence of the Federation is responsible for the marked improvement in hearing aids and at the same time a very great change in our attitude toward them is apparent. The use of a hearing aid contributes largely to our mental well-being.

Someone has said, "The great essentials of happiness are something to do; something to love; and something to hope for." Our club provides all three and therein lies the measure of success we have achieved. It has given us active participation in life and made us feel a part of things again. We have known the joy of giving as well as receiving and it has given us a deeper appreciation of worth while things.

Our club motto is, "Together," inspired by Edward Everett Hale's "Coming together is a beginning; Keeping together is progress; Working together is success."

The spirit of cooperation and a heart warming friendliness pervades our club meetings. Perhaps our greatest contribution to the movement may be summed up in the intangible values that have helped us go out into the world—happy and healthy, mentally and morally—as ambassadors of the American Federation of Organizations for the Hard of Hearing.

Nancy Gardner Brown.

During 1934 the American people ate an average of 67 pounds of beef each, the highest rate in the last 20 years.

"PACKING THE MISSIONARY BARREL" Assisted by PINE TREE HILL BILLIES Auspices of Past President's Association. Edwin Libby Relief Corps. THURSDAY, APRIL 4-7-35 GRAND ARMY HALL Tickets, 15c

OVER $60,000 FOR ROCKLAND

Speakers At Legion's "Convention Conscious" Meeting Say Crowds Will Spend That Sum

A graphic picture of what the forthcoming State Convention of the American Legion will be, was last night presented to a keenly interested group of Rockland business men which comfortably filled Legion hall. State officials of the Legion collaborated with local men to aid this drive to make this city "convention conscious."

M. M. Griffin, head of the Convention committee, presided and presented Mayor Thurston who pledged to Winslow-Holbrook Post the entire cooperation of every city department. James Boyle of Waterville, State Adjutant, was the keynote speaker and painted a vivid picture of the colorful throngs bound to be here next June. He said it would be a joyous, good-natured, fun loving crowd of men and women, boys and girls, who had planned and saved a year to come to Rockland, and that they would eat and shop and spend and enjoy themselves. He stressed the fact that there was nothing to fear from the convention crowds and much to be gained in the present and future.

Capt. Joseph Young of the State Police, commander of the Augusta Post and familiar with convention problems through participation in several, stressed the necessity of keeping the streets entirely free of automobiles in order to care for the crowds coming to witness the spectacle which he did not hesitate to estimate at 35,000, providing fair weather prevails. He stated that not a single car could park on Main street because the marching hosts will stretch solidly from curb to curb. He urged that the Legionnaires be given ample room to play, and stressed the point that merchandise and food prices must be kept at normal levels to insure a feeling of fair treatment in the minds of the guests.

Adjutant General James W. Hanson of the State Police amplified the thought of Capt. Young and urged full co-operation by business men and citizens as the surest way of making the convention a success.

The final speaker was Rev. C. H. Olds, pastor of the Congregational Church, but previously a practical business man and always an enthusiastic Legionnaire. He prophesied from his Bangor experience that visitors would leave at least $60,000 in this city. He felt that the city would benefit in three ways—first from the cash left directly in the tills of the merchants, secondly from the follow-up income derived from the letting of hundreds of rooms in private homes and finally in later tourist return of the Legionnaires and their friends who learn of the beauties of this section.

A highly important part of the festivities and one which served to put the big crowd in high good spirits, was the excellent supper set forth by the ladies of the auxiliary headed by Mrs. Bernice Jackson. Mrs. Annie Alden was in her familiar role as chief cook and the committee included Mesdames Ella Hyland, Ada Roberts, Grace Kirk and Margaret Kelly.

MAY ADJOURN THIS WEEK

Legislators Would Be Prepared For Special Session—Pari-Mutuel Betting

Moving swiftly to dispose of all its business except two major measures in one more week, Maine's legislators yesterday prepared to finally adjourn April 6 and then stand ready to return for a possible special session later at the call of Gov. Brann.

The consensus of many was that the Legislature would not remain in session more than another week to mark time to act on a proposal for old age pensions and the Quoddy Tidal Power Project Authority Bill, but would adjourn Saturday to await action by Congress on old age pensions and the Quoddy matter.

A spokesman for the Republican members of the Legislature said Republican leaders, following a caucus Friday night, indicated they would attempt to have passed a resolution placing the Legislature on record as willing to return later for a special session at the call of Gov. Brann to dispose of old age pensions and the Quoddy proposals.

While unofficial reports indicated the majority of the Taxation and Education Committees would report favorably on a combination sales and income tax measure, the Republican spokesman said 90 percent of the Republican membership had agreed in caucus to kill all major tax bills pending before the Legislature. He also said the lawmakers would adjourn without having acted on the $1,200,000 educational improvement and equalization program designed primarily to assist rural schools.

The Old Age Pension Bill provided for the payment of $15 a month pensions to all persons more than 70 years old who were in "distress" at an estimated cost of $540,000 annually to the State.

Gov. Brann said last week he believed a "satisfactory plan" could be worked out "without seeking new sources of revenue," and maintained a part of the net income of the State Liquor Commission "could be utilized for setting up a fund for immediate payment of old age relief."

The several educational bills, which were recommended by a commission authorized by the previous Legislature to make a survey intended to

(Continued on Page Two)

YOUR FAVORITE POEM

If I had to live my life again I would have made a rule to read some poetry and listen to some music at least once a week. The loss of these tastes is a loss of happiness.—Charles Darwin.

Now
When should I speak a word of cheer
To those who under a burden bend?
Now!

Now
When should I do the work to do
And pay the duty I owe to you?
Now!

The Courier-Gazette
THREE-TIMES-A-WEEK

Honor the Lord with thy substance; and with the first fruits of thine increase.—Prov. 3:9.

The desire to have a postage stamp issued in honor of the late Major General Henry Knox has undoubtedly gained new impetus through the communication which recently appeared in these columns from the pen of Hiram P. Farrow, the veteran civil engineer who has quarters in the county building.

It was no new idea which Mr. Farrow advanced for twice there had been made systematic campaigns in behalf of such recognition, and both failed because the Post-office Department was proceeding along the lines that special stamps should recognize events rather than persons. Mr. Farrow swept away those objections with a line of argument that appears to be unassailable and so effective was it that the press of New England has cocked up its ears, and the movement for a Knox stamp has undoubtedly taken on a new lease of life. Such editorials as the one here quoted from the Boston Transcript can scarcely fail to carry weight:

The Patriot's Postage Stamp

The patriot is worthy of his postage stamp, in the opinion of Hiram P. Farrow, who writes to the editor of the Rockland (Me.) Courier-Gazette to say that the Government neglects the patriot while issuing "lah-de-dah" stamps. The immediate cause of the complaint is that the Post-office Department refuses "to accord fitting recognition to that revolutionary hero whose life was so closely intertwined with our early history." It was at Thomaston, near Rockland, that General Henry Knox, after the Revolution, built his manor house, Montpelier, a duplicate of which has recently been erected as a memorial to him.

In urging that as a patriot General Knox is entitled to his postage stamp, Mr. Farrow makes further plea in behalf of Lafayette, Kosciuszko, Baron Steuben and Count Pulaski, "liberty-loving sons of a foreign soil who chose to cast their lot with a people struggling for an independent national existence." Nor should the martyrdom of Nathan Hale be lost to sight. He, too, should have his stamp.

The prospect is not to delight the heart of the philatelist. But there would seem to be an obstacle in the way. There are so many patriots, and so clear a limit to the varieties of postage stamps that Uncle Sam needs in carrying on the postal business.

Were another patriot to have his postage stamp, the Boston bookseller who won fame as an artillery officer might well be chosen. It was Knox who was responsible for dragging cannon from abandoned Fort Ticonderoga to Boston to drive out the British. He it was who fought the war through, rising to the rank of major general, and is said to have been described by Napoleon Bonaparte as without a superior in the art of handling artillery. He was the country's first Secretary of War. To those of his own generation he was known as the friend of Washington.

His picture on a postage stamp might well be the first to appear were that postal portrait gallery to be enlarged.

The "lah-de-dah" stamps to which objection is made are the stamps issued to commemorate events which the correspondent of the Rockland paper does not regard as important. He mentions the stamp which showed a young man in the act of hurling a plate. "I believe the mechanical designation of this feat is 'throwing the discus.'" And there was that other "momentous event in the history of the North American continent" which was "duly commemorated" by emblazoning on the postal insignia of the United States the figure of a young man of athletic build sailing through the air with a couple of slabs tied under his feet.

Our letter writer wields a trenchant pen, or punches a pungent typewriter, but these occasional stamps, soon to be forgotten, are not in the class of those he has in mind when he sets forth the idea that every patriot is entitled to his postage stamp. It would be a poor tribute to Henry Knox to have his portrait so soon relegated to obscurity in the album of the stamp collector.

THE KNOX STAMP

Appleton Writer Suggests That Picture of "Montpelier" Appear On It
Appleton, March 28
Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—

The very interesting letter of Hiram P. Farrow, in your paper of March 16 was very much to the point. It would seem that the Postoffice Department is willing to commemorate many occasions and honor many people who are not more worthy of acknowledgment than Gen. Knox. A representation of the beautiful "Montpelier" would make a fitting tribute if the Department does not desire to use the portrait of Gen. Knox himself.

Some may object, saying we have already a sufficient number of new stamps.

Perhaps our Congressman, Moran, who seems interested in keeping Maine in the limelight, might become instrumental in persuading the "powers that be" to issue such a stamp—not for the glorification and advertisement of the State of Maine, but as a lasting tribute, long since due, to a son of the United States of a whole.

Another thing in which I am sure many would be interested, is a column in this paper devoted to stamp collecting, or Philately, as it is called. There is a "Philatelic Corner" in a great many of the progressive newspapers of today. Stamp collecting is one of the most popular hobbies of the present age. Helen W. Gushue

THE CITY FATHERS' BUDGET

To Spend Same As Last Year—$1000 For Legion Convention—Two "Cops" Reappointed

The City Government passed the appropriation resolve last night, and came astonishingly close to the figures of last year, the difference being only $128. The budget is headed by an unusual appropriation—$1000 to cover all expenses of the American Legion convention in June, and an investment which will be richly returned. The list of appropriations follows:

American Legion (to cover all expenses of convention)	$1,000
Board of Health	100
City Lighting	12,250
City Dump	1,000
School Fund	57,000
Contingent and ERA Expenses	6,550
Cemetery	100
Community Park	150
Election and Registration	850
Fire Department	9,000
Fire Alarm	125
Highway Department	19,200
Insurance	300
Interest	22,000
Memorial Day	120
Mothers' Aid	5,000
New Equipment	2,800
National Guard	850
Pauper Department	30,000
Police Department	1,500
Public Landing	400
Public Library	150
Red Cross	700

Removing Snow	4,300
Repairs Public Buildings	1,000
Repairs Schoolhouses	3,000
Salaries	30,386
Sewers	1,200
Sidewalks	800
State Aid Road	1,599
State Road Patrolting	150
Temporary Loans	2,000
Third Class Roads	573
Traffic Lights	300
Vital Statistics	150
Water Supply	125

$224,558

In connection with the Legion convention the City Fathers were waited upon last night by Adjutant General J. W. Hanson, chief of the State Highway Police and Capt. Joseph Young, deputy chief, discusses the matter of traffic arrangements, and 40 special policemen were appointed.

Peddlers and hawkers must pay a license fee of $10 to operate on the streets. An ordinance to this effect was referred to the City Solicitor.

Fred E. Achorn and Carl Christoferson were reappointed to the police force for terms of three years.

MAY ADJOURN THIS WEEK

(Continued from Page One)

improve the Maine public school system, would require $1,200,000 beyond the current state budget estimates. Under the bill an equalization fund to provide for setting a definite minimum of educational standards in all Maine communities would be established.

Measures proposing to permit the Federal government to establish national forests in Maine, regulating registration fees of motor trucks and trailers and providing compulsory insurance for motor vehicle owners were among the bills which had not been reported out of committees.

Gov. Brann Saturday afternoon signed nearly 60 bills and resolves, the output of the past week's session of the Maine legislature. Among the measures signed by the Chief Executive were: general appropriations bill for State expenditures during the ensuing biennium, based on budget estimates, $8,858,232 for 1935-36 and $9,081,407 for 1936-37.

A bill to authorize issuance of State highway bonds in the amount of $500,000 for each of the next two years.

Taxing games of skill $10 each. Slot machines would come under this act and its sponsors believed it would bring to the State $100,000 annually.

Authorizing the State Agriculture Commissioner to engage in co-operative arrangements for the advertising of Maine Agricultural Products.

Providing for inspection and regulation of steam boilers.

Providing for appointment of two jury commissioners in each county to prepare jury lists and summon jurors.

Prohibiting reissuance of motor vehicle operator's licenses for two years after first conviction for driving while intoxicated and three years on second conviction.

Requiring out of state dentists to pay a fee of $100 to practice in Maine and restricting certain forms of dental advertising.

Providing that all women sentenced to State Prison shall be confined at the Reformatory for Women, Skowhegan.

Increasing from three to six months the required residence to become a legal voter.

Proposing an amendment to the constitution to permit issuance of $5,000,000 in highway and bridge bonds.

Both houses concurred in killing a bill proposing a constitutional amendment to abolish the Governor's council.

The House asked the Supreme Judicial court to rule on the constitutionality of a bill to increase hunting and fishing licenses from 65 cents each to $1.15.

A bill to permit pari-mutuel betting on harness racing was passed to be engrossed by both branches of the legislature and was slated to come up for enactment in the house today.

Both branches killed a bill authorizing municipalities to operate electric lighting systems, and took similar action on bills providing for the State to discontinue buying fire insurance and insure its own property.

Among the new measures signed yesterday was an emergency resolve appropriating $30,000 from the general highway fund for construction of a road and terminal approach in Lincolnville or Northport to Penobscot Bay and a road and terminal approach in Islesboro to Penobscot Bay.

The Constitutionality of an increase in the resident hunting and fishing licenses will be considered by the Supreme Judicial Court. Associate Justice Hudson said the court would convene Wednesday. An increase in the resident hunting and fishing licenses is contained in a bill now before the Legislature and its constitutionality was questioned by Clark of Cooper, who said the measure was introduced in the Senate. All revenue measures must originate in the House.

"DEEP IN MY HEART"

Admiration For Mrs. Overlock's Poem Inspires Happy Home Farm's Rhymester.

Happy Hope Farm, March 25.
Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—

With reference to Mrs. Clara Overlock's beautiful poem which appeared in a recent issue of The Courier-Gazette, I, as an old acquaintance of her husband, wish to express my sentiments in verse of the fact that the trend of modern times can not erase from our memories the treasured past.

DEEP IN MY HEART

Dear friend, as I read your eloquent poem,
It took me back to my childhood home—
My dear mother's face in the twilight glow,
And the loving friends I used to know.

"Oh, times are better," they may be right;
But give me a place in the glowing light
At that old fireplace, and its heat to cheer,
On a winter's evening dark and drear.

Oh, friends, where has our childhood gone?
When we were youngsters hale and strong,
We'd drive the cattle to the spring,
And active we were in many a thing.

And then we'd hear our parents say,
"Now children, run along and play."
Oh friends, what joy there used to be—
Those winter evenings for you and me!

Be not dismayed at fleeting years,
For memories rays shed shining cheer;
And I love you now as I loved you then,
As bravely we enter life's sunset gleam.
Ezra I. Savage, Jr.

YOUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALLEN G. IRELAND
Director, Physical and Mental Education
New Jersey State Department of Public Instruction

Learning Health For A Purpose

The idea is not new, but it took an ingenious teacher to put it into effect.

The place was a small high school. To make up standard teams nearly every student had to participate.

Their opponents, the larger schools, had the advantage in numbers and facilities. But the spirit was there, so they set out to make up for their shortcomings. And they did it by making a thorough study of healthful living.

The principal of that school told me that every pupil knew and observed the rules of nutrition. Smoking was taboo. Dances and parties were shortened, more study was done at school, and the radio was turned off at a stated hour when the importance of sleep was learned. Candy and sodas were definitely out. Colds received early care. In brief, it was just a case of common sense application, with out overemphasis. Anyway, it worked.

Next week Dr. Ireland will discuss the large subject of playground accidents and how to avoid them.

LOST FAT

Fooled Gossipers

Mrs. J. R. McCausland of Pittsburgh writes: "I took off 8 lbs. in two weeks with Kruschen. I ate as usual and felt fine. You, too, can safely reduce as Mrs. McCausland did if you'll only have a mind of your own. Pay no attention to gossipers who wouldn't want to see you the slender woman you can be if you only take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a cup of hot water every morning. (Tastes fine with juice of half lemon added.)"

Kruschen is SAFE—it's a health treatment and when your body abounds with Kruschen fitness—excess fat leaves far faster 4 weeks and costs but a trifle—any drug store.

This Easter, trade in your old body for a new.

You know how you've been feeling... you're irritable... flabby... dyspeptic... but you're not sick.

It's merely that you need a change of clothes with your change of climate. You need to step out of that model T complex and sit behind the wheel of a brand new model U.

Here are the new Easter clothes you need... they're more necessary than sulphur and molasses... and almost as reasonable.

Gregory
Easter Suits and Topcoats
$20 to $35

Easter Neckwear
Easter Hats
Easter Shoes

GREGORY'S
416 MAIN ST., ROCKLAND, ME.

TENANT'S HARBOR

The card parties sponsored by the Puritan Rebekah Lodge have been well attended.

Clayton Hunnewell recently passed a vacation here with his parents.

W. E. Sherer has been ill with a cold.

Margaret Reid, on a vacation from Ballard Business School, is visiting friends in Boston.

Naomi Chapter, O.E.S., will hold its regular meeting April 5. Following the business session, the meeting will be in charge of Sisters Gladys Hocking and Margaret Reid.

Mrs. William Clayton of Lincolnville is guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Andrews.

Robert Reid of Southwest Harbor CCC Camp spent the weekend with his parents here.

Mrs. Alice Murphy visited Saturday with friends in Rockland.

There will be a practice meeting tonight, Tuesday, at St. George I.O. O. F. hall following the regular session.

Rev. Perley Miller is supplying the pulpit at the Baptist Church.

Several townspeople are employed on the government project.

Miss Madeline Sprague is substituting at the telephone office.

Mrs. Mabel Wilson has employment in a Thomaston factory.

The high school reopened Monday and other schools will begin in two weeks.

Theodore Johnson is supplying claims for a factory.

Willis Wilson has employment at Cribhaven.

Harry Patterson and Ernest Rawley attended the Fish and Game Association meeting held Friday evening in Rockland.

William Pratt, Jr., plans to open a barber shop soon at Port Clyde.

Officer On Huge Freighter
Austin "Weithworth," son of Mrs. Clarence Freeman, is third officer on the Paul Luckenbach concerning which a Stockton paper recently printed this item:

"Second largest among ships calling here, the 490-foot Paul Luckenbach, was recently in port for a fourth call to discharge freight from the North and to load for the Atlantic side. The Paul, like her sister ship, the William Luckenbach, was a member of the German merchant fleet and one of the handsomest freighters afloat when she was interned by the U. S. Government during the World War. Capt. Frank A. Snow is top man on the coast to coast."

Of the nearly 25,000,000 motor vehicles registered in the United States more than 5,000,000 are on farms.

CAMDEN

Capt. Frank Harty and son Granville of Deer Isle are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Wilbur.

Mrs. Jennie Stearns and family are moving from the Alden rent on Main street to the Huse house on Chestnut street.

Mrs. Maude Wolcott has returned from Norfolk, Va., where she spent the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Churchill have moved into the Alden rent on Chestnut street.

Fred Gilchrist arrived Saturday from Portland and will be employed in the Warren Pharmacy. Mrs. Gilchrist will arrive today. Local people are glad to greet this popular couple who were residents here for many years. Mr. Gilchrist having been in the employ of the L. M. Chandler Pharmacy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fowler of Madison were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Howarth.

Miss Mary E. Bartlett of South Thomaston was a caller Saturday on friends in town.

Gift From Scotland

An unusual cake was recently received by Andrew Dowie from his brothers and sisters in Bridge Terrace, North Queens Ferry, Scotland. It has been displayed in several store windows and has attracted much attention. Beautifully frosted in colors, it resembles a picture and is truly a work of art.

At Christmas Mr. Dowie received a loaf of bread from his old home and this too was exhibited and greatly admired. Certainly the ladies of Bonnie Scotland are artists in the culinary line and no doubt Mr. Dowie will enjoy the gift from thoughtful relatives in his old home.

Sarah W. Page

The remains of Mrs. Sarah Waterman Page arrived Monday from Boston and funeral services will be held today at 3:30 o'clock from the Good funeral home, Rev. Winfield Witham officiating. The body will be placed in the receiving tomb until spring when burial will be in Appleton, her native town.

Besides her husband, she leaves one sister, Miss Hittie Waterman of Boston, who accompanied the body to this town; and her mother, Mrs. Jennie Waterman of Appleton. The deceased was a former resident of this place.

Andrew Cotta

Andrew Cotta, 49, died Sunday morning at his home on Mt. Battle street, following a short illness of pneumonia. He had been a resident of this town for 30 years. Mr. Cotta is survived by his wife, one son, Frederick; five brothers, Elmer Cotta and Arthur Cotta of Camden, Carlton Cotta of Westbrook, Alfred Cotta of Haverhill, Mass., George Cotta of Harmony; and four sisters, Mrs. Mabel Lemieux of Central Falls, R. I.; Mrs. Michael Boulette, Mrs. Frances Croteau and Mrs. Archie Cote of Skowhegan. Deceased was born in Skowhegan, son of Fred and Elizabeth (Bernard) Cotta.

The funeral will be held from the residence today at 2 o'clock. Rev. W. F. Brown officiating. Interment will be in Mountain cemetery.

WALDOBORO

Waldoboro High School commenced the spring term Monday after a recess of two weeks.

The Button Factory has closed for an indefinite time owing to lack of orders.

Paul Davis has been visiting relatives in Searsport.

Earle Spear and John Grant were Augusta visitors last week.

Miss Faye M. Keene has been at home from New York for the spring recess.

Prof. Allen Rogers Benner has returned to Andover, Mass.

Miss Margaret Ashworth of St. Johnsbury, Vt., passed the weekend with Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Ashworth. She was accompanied by her nieces, Anne and Sara Ashworth, who have been her guests for two weeks.

William C. Labe was in charge of Guy A. Levensaler's store while the former was in Boston.

Mrs. Carrie Wallace, who has passed the week with her niece, Mrs. Ralph Morse, returned Saturday to Rockland.

"Neighbors' Night at Winslow's Mills Friday was attended by 24 members of Meenanga Grange.

A new general delivery window has been installed at the postoffice by J. H. Hobbs Company, Camden.

The new arrangement will greatly facilitate the handling of mail and affords much more space for delivery. An odd incident in connection with the change concerns the finding of a postal card that had become hidden in the old delivery box. It was addressed to Miss Mildred Richardson (now Mrs. T. C. Ashworth) and was mailed May 4, 1908. Mrs. Ashworth received her 17-year-old epistle March 26, 1935.

SOUTH HOPE.

R. E. Robbins General Store now sells The Courier-Gazette. 1214

BURPEE FURNITURE COMPANY
CALL YOUR ATTENTION TO A FEW OF THE BARGAINS IN THE GREAT
... CUT PRICE SALE ...

That is being held at this great store. Whatever you may need for your home now is the time to buy and SAVE. Every piece of merchandise in this great stock is reduced to the lowest price ever named. And you know what the quality is when you buy at BURPEE'S.

9x12 FELT BASE RUGS
Handsome patterns and your choice of Gold Seal, Bird's or any other make.
$5.65

9x12 AXMINSTER RUGS
Some very pretty designs and colorings. All seamless and splendid quality.
$18.95

STUDIO COUCH
Here is a reduction to notice. Regular $35. and $30 quality. Makes into a full size bed if you wish.
$17.95

CEDAR WARDROBES
A big roomy size that will positively protect from moths, made of genuine red cedar. Regular value $35.00.
$16.98

LOOK AT THIS BARGAIN—A handsome Walnut Suite, all 4 pieces, dresser, vanity, chiffonier and bed. Excellent construction and finish. A suite you will be proud to put in your home. And we will sell the complete suite for

$49.00

WINDOW SHADES
If you need some new shades, buy now and save. Complete with fixtures.
39c

REFRIGERATORS
A White Mountain three-door, inside enameled. Here's a bargain.
$9.98

BURPEE FURNITURE COMPANY

NORTH HAVEN

Mrs. Carol Burns arrived March 30 from Massachusetts for a visit with her mother Mrs. Russell Crabtree.

Mrs. G. L. Quinn was in Rockland as guest of her son Albert Quinn.

North Haven Grange Sewing Club met Saturday afternoon, its members partaking of supper at 6:30. The regular meeting was held in the evening.

Arthur Hopkins was in Rockland Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Emerson of Augusta who have been visiting Mrs. Emerson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Crockett, returned Sunday accompanied by Miss Beulah M. Crockett who will be their guest for a week.

Mrs. Nora Waterman and daughter Phyllis visited in Camden recently.

North Haven Grange held a card social March 27.

Mrs. H. T. Crockett was a Rockland visitor Saturday.

A company of friends gathered Thursday in Union hall for a shower and reception tendered Mr. and Mrs. Franz Mills. A program consisting of music and readings preceded remarks by Rev. H. F. Huse, Honson T. Crockett, Lloyd Crockett and others, expressing for them every good wish. After opening the many packages, Mr. and Mrs. Mills expressed their gratitude to the friends who so kindly remembered them. Ices and cake were served. The reception was under the auspices of the Grange, and was presided over by Mrs. Julia Beverage.

At a special town meeting in Union hall Friday night Joel Wooster was elected second selectman to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of George L. Young.

Winfield Ames was a Rockland visitor Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Morrison returned Saturday from an extended visit with Mrs. Morrison's parents in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Robert Butman and Mrs. Callahan of Newton Highlands are visiting for a few days at the home of Mrs. Utman's parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Calderwood.

The social at Library hall Thursday night was well attended despite the storm. Selections by the new orchestra were greatly enjoyed and appreciated. Those in the make-up were Mrs. Leroy Pierce at the piano; Frances Lipovsky, violin; Raymond Stone, trumpet; Burdus Brown and Ronald Gillis, saxophones and Ira Curtis, traps. There was a reading by Mrs. Herman Cooper, and selections by Marjorie Huse, piano and Francis Lipovsky, violin; Raymond

Games were played and refreshments served.

The first Floridaites to return to the island are Mr. and Mrs. Goldie McDonald and young daughter, and Mrs. James McDonald. They arrived Friday and report a wonderful time.

LONG COVE
Mr. and Mrs. Wilho Eglund were Rockland visitors Saturday and also called to see Mrs. William Hill who is a patient at Knox Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. William Polky are receiving congratulations on the birth of twin daughters March 30.

Miss Gertrude Makinen and Mrs. Charles McAuliffe of Rockland visited their parents here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Stein and daughter Kathleen were overnight guests Wednesday of Mr. Stein's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Pasanen have returned to New York after an extended visit with his brother Emil Pasanen. Early in the summer they expect to go to Finland where they bought a farm two years ago.

Mrs. Sainia Autio called on friends at Georges River recently.

Mrs. Toico Makinen was hostess Wednesday evening to the Sewing Circle of the Finnish Church.

William Hill has moved to Georges River.

Mrs. Maud Conway was dinner guest Thursday of Mrs. Harold Solberg.

There will be devotions and question box tomorrow night at 7 p. m. at St. George's Church.

WATER PIPES
REPAIRED & RELAI
Inside and out, digging included. Pipes wired out. Sewers dug, laid out and cleaned when plugged. Cesspools dug and soaked, and septic tanks. Shallow cellars dug deeper. Floors cemented and walls repaired. Cellars whitewashed. Lawn work, etc.

S. E. Eaton
TEL. 1187-Y ROCKLAND, ME. 14716

Turn That Vacant Room Into Cash With a "To Rent" Advertisement in The Courier-Gazette Telephone 770

APRIL
S	M	T	W	T	F	S
	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30

TALK OF THE TOWN

COMING NEIGHBORHOOD EVENTS

April 4—"Packing the Home Missionary Barrel," presented by Past Presidents' Association of Edwin Libby Relief Corps.

April 5—Thomaston—Fourth annual ball of Battery F in Watts hall.

April 5—New England Fellowship Regional Conference at Pratt Memorial Methodist Church.

April 3—Owls' Head—Benefit supper and dance at town hall.

April 5—Gentlemen's Guest Night and public supper of Educational Club.

April 8—Thomaston—"Cynthia's Candlesticks," at Watts hall.

April 9—Rockport—Annual meeting of Garden Club.

April 11-12—High School Minstrels.

April 12—Annual meeting of Rubenstein Club.

April 14—Palm Sunday.

April 15-17—Portland—Annual State G.A.R. Encampment.

April 18-20—Accident and Health Week.

April 17—Congregational Missionary Society meets with Mrs. C. H. Sonntag.

April 19—Good Friday.

April 21—Easter.

April 22—Scriven-Carey Co. Pratt Memorial M. E. Church.

April 22—Easter ball at Temple hall, benefit of Knox Hospital.

April 26—City hall—Ocean View ballroom, City Band.

May 6—James E. Van Zandt National Commander-in-Chief of V.F.W., visits Rockland.

May 12—Mothers' Day.

May 18—Knox and Lincoln interscholastic track meet at Community Park.

May 30—Memorial Day.

King Solomon's Temple Chapter meets Thursday night.

Fred Morang, who has been looking after the interests of his Rockland territory for a few weeks, left Saturday for Upper Aroostook County.

Bad places can be found in almost any highway at this season of the year, and Rockland has its reasonable share. Mayor Thurston will appreciate it if you notify him, or the highway department of any defect needing early treatment.

Mayor Leforest A. Thurston has taken over from the Rockland Loan and Building Association eight tenement houses, two each on Grove and Grace streets, and one each on Masonic, Main and Fulton, North Main and Elm streets. He will use them for renting purposes.

New members admitted at the annual meeting of the Knox County Fish and Game Association last Friday night Miss Corie L. Thomas, Thomas H. Chisholm, Bertram Gardner and Henry Thompson, Rockland; Naomi Felton and Clifford Felton, Camden; W. B. D. Gray, Thomaston.

Piloting the freight steamer Isabel to Searsport and back last week, Capt. John G. Snow saw welcome signs of activity on the Penobscot. The collier Coastwise was at Searsport discharging coal, and going and coming he saw several other steam craft bound for various destinations—among them the Gean Weems, Transportation and the Malaga.

Miss Ruth Cluff of Auburn, a graduate of Nason Institute '34, who was supervisor last fall of the canning project sponsored by the Federal Government has been engaged as assistant to Miss Carrie J. Williams home service worker for the Central Maine Power Company. Miss Cluff has been home economist under a FERA project since November. She comes here highly recommended.

E.R.A. work in progress in this city at the present time is in reality a continuation of work which had been begun. The grading and beautifying of the Public Landing property is one of the tasks. The walling of the brook at the rear of the Masonic building is in prospect. A new blacksmith shop for the city is in process of construction on Tilson avenue and public buildings come in for consideration.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Scarlott motored to Lewiston Monday to attend the meeting of the Maine Osteopathic Association at Hotel DeWitt. Dr. George J. Conley of Kansas City, Mo., president of the American Osteopathic Association, was guest of honor and principal speaker. This was the first visit to Maine by Dr. Conley who is on a country-wide tour. He was one of the founders of the Kansas City College of Osteopathy and Surgery in 1916 and remains its president and professor of the principles and practice of surgery. He is a past president of the American College of Osteopathic Surgeons.

Gold Seal Congoleum, a nation's standard of floor coverings—9x12 only $4.95 and $5.95 at Stonington Furniture Co., 313-325 Main street, Rockland.

"Cynthia's Candlesticks," Watts Hall, Thomaston, Monday, April 8 at 8.15. Tickets 25 cents.

The American Legion Auxiliary will sponsor a bridge and beano party at Legion hall Wednesday, at 8, with Mrs. Adah Roberts in charge.

Burpee Furniture Co. has the contract for installing an Armstrong Linotile flooring at the new Perry market on Park street, an area of 2180 square feet.

A staff from past noble grands will confer the degree at the meeting of Miriam Rebekah Lodge tonight. Circle supper at 6.15 will precede, and the usual afternoon card party will take place, with Mrs. Cora Davis as hostess.

Mrs. Celia Morse of Westbrook, department president, will inspect the Auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans tomorrow night. Visitors from Both camps and auxiliaries of Warren and Bath are expected. There will be a beano game in the afternoon, and circle supper at 6.

"Cynthia's Candlesticks," which has won such high favor in its local presentations, is to be given at Watts hall, Thomaston, Monday, April 8, under the auspices of the Federated Church. Mrs. Grace Rollins coaches the production which has in its cast members of Miriam Rebekah Lodge and Odd Fellows.

"Song writers of the gay old 90's," a very interesting short subject, bringing back the old time songs such as "Has anybody here seen Kelly," "Sweet Adeline," "There's a hot time in the old town tonight," sung by their composers or descendants. This subject will be shown for the last time today at Strand Theatre.

At the midweek Lenten service at the Universalist vestry Thursday at 7.45 Dr. John Smith Lowe will give a talk on "Testing the Christian Way of Life." These services based on an hour of meditation, devotion, and singing are designed to afford the privilege of making a special effort to deepen and enrich spiritual life. Interested friends are invited.

Miss Lenore W. Benner, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, is in receipt of a letter from S. E. Woodman, chairman of the State Liquor Commission, stating that a State liquor store will be established in this city within the next few weeks. "It will be either No. 1 or No. 2 in our next set-up," writes Chairman Woodman.

From far away Missoula, Mont., comes a cheery message from Mrs. A. H. Buker, who reveals in her Courier-Gazette scrapbook and tells of the enjoyment she derives from various departments of the paper, not forgetting music and W. A. Holman's Sermonettes. With the renewal of her subscription Mrs. Buker includes a remembrance for the Knox Arboretum fund.

Mr. Leonard has planted peas, beets, carrots at the City Farm. There are 23 inmates at the City Farm at the present time—Visitors there last Wednesday were Mrs. Mabel Porter and daughter Geraldine, and on Friday, Edward Reed and Mr. Studley of Waldoboro. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright of Clark's Island were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Leonard.

Manager Lincoln E. McRae of the Lions basketball team has made a ten stroke by signing up the Manhattan Co-Eds, a team made up of college girls, who have been winning consistently since they began their Maine invasion recently. They play under men's rules, and will be under no handicap when they tackle the Lions team Thursday night at 8 o'clock in the High School gymnasium. If you go to this game, as many of you will, you will afterward concede that you never saw the like of it.

Postoffice "Park" the little strip of granite bordered land lying to the eastward of the Federal building, has been denuded of its shrubbery and the plants have been reset at the Public Landing and the Rockland Garden Club's tract at the corner of Limerock and White streets. The shrubs were planted on the government lot during the administration of Postmaster W. O. Fuller, and thrived so successfully as to make of that locality a beauty spot in the heart of the city. They are uprooted to make way for the proposed annex to the Postoffice, ground for which will be procured very soon.

The W.C.T.U. met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Etta Stoddard, with honorary members as special guests. An interesting program included a playlet called "Friendly Home," dramatizing some of the work of the department of Americanization, under direction of Miss Mabel Seavey. Those taking part were Mrs. Josephine Grover, Mrs. May Gray, Mrs. Carrie Lothrop, Mrs. Sidney Munro and Miss Seavey. A talk on "Our Five Year, Five Pointed Centenary Program" as outlined by National, was given by Mrs. Clara Emery, followed by a discussion on World Relations, Armaments, etc. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Margaret Hudson, Miss Ada Young, Mrs. Amelia Johnson, Miss Alena Young. A social time was enjoyed.

Senter Crane Company

We Present To Knitters

The Famous TIOGA Yarns
at 25% Discountand Free Knitting Class by
One of Tioga's Teachers

MISS HELEN PRESCOTT

(Direct from Tioga Yarn)

Knitting is all the vogue right now... everywhere the needles are clicking. Miss Prescott welcomes beginners in knitting, as well as the more experienced, to visit her at Senter Crane's during her stay in Rockland. Under Miss Prescott's expert and helpful instruction there are no problems in this interesting work that she cannot answer. We invite you to the classes.

Join the Classes This Week
Finished Models On Display

To see the beauty, the style, and the smart way in which Tioga Yarns fashion beautiful, up to the minute styles, we have many models in finished dresses, etc., on display. Tioga Yarns are in the front rank, and the choice of discriminating knitters. Come in this week, consult with Miss Prescott, and view this presentation. Incidentally learn NEW ways to improve your knitting.

A New Shipment

SILK STOCKINGS

- New Spring Colors
- Service or Chiffon
- Full Fashioned
- Pure Silk, 42 Gauge
- A 75c value for 55c
- Inspected Irregulars

55
Cents

SENDER CRANE COMPANY

Kennedy Crane is in Boston on business.

There will be public supper at the Undercroft, St. Peter's Church, Saturday, 5 to 7, with Mrs. Mary Dinsmore in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cunningham who recently sold their house on Traverse street have moved to Brunswick.

Dr. John Smith Lowe was guest speaker before the Friday Club at Camden at its annual banquet at Green Gables.

William Tait was in Portland for the weekend to visit his son, William, who is a patient at the Children's Hospital.

An Easter ball is to be given at Temple hall April 22 for the benefit of Knox Hospital. A worthy cause which merits whole hearted patronage.

Those attending the annual paint convention of Maine and New Hampshire dealers of Talbot, Brooks & Ayer Co., Friday at Palmouth Hotel, Portland, were Henry Ellwell of St. George and Fred E. Burkett of Union.

It may have been April Fools Day yesterday but certainly the "fooling" was absent from the three hot basketball struggles at the High School Gym last night when after much tackling and many forward passes of note the Lions Varsity trampled down the Forty Club Varsity 26-18. The Lions Ageds laid to rest the Forty Club Townsendsites 18-14 and the Knox County Coaches flunked the Rockland Faculty 38-30.

ALFREDA
PERRYTHE
BETTER
SHOP
OF ROCKLAND
LIMEROCK STREET
SEVENNEW SPRING
COATS

$19.50, $25.00

Harris Tweeds

Worumbo Cloth

Attractive New Undies

Satin and Crepes

Westbury Frocks

$3.95

Ray Holt hands us a souvenir of other days in the form of a bunch of Portland Star matches.

The steamer Vinalhaven, which spent a very comfortable winter at Snow's yard, high and dry on the ways, was launched Sunday to make way for William Underwood Co.'s sardine boat Kingfisher which will undergo a spring overhauling.

A rumor gained some ground last week to the effect that Swift & Company were to discontinue their branch houses in Rockland and Bath. "Any rumors in regard to this are false," is the prompt denial coming from H. B. Leman, district sales manager of New England. Good!

There will be a public card party at Pleasant Valley Grange hall Friday evening, with Miss Sue Spear in charge. This will be the third party in a series of six, at that close of which a capital prize will be awarded. Reservations may be arranged with Miss Spear. Public supper precedes the party.

Mrs. Celia Morse of Westbrook, department president, Auxiliary of Sons of Union Veterans, who arrives tomorrow to make her official visit to the E. A. Starrett Camp Auxiliary of Warren and to inspect Anderson Camp Auxiliary of this city, will be overnight guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. Leslie Cross.

Edwin Libby Relief Corps Thursday will have beano in the afternoon with Mrs. Millie Thomas in charge. Circle supper will be under the direction of Mrs. Bertha Higgins, Mrs. Thomas, and Mrs. Florence Young. In place of the usual evening session, the comedy "Packing the Missionary Barrel" will be presented under the auspices of Past Presidents' Association, and will be open to the public at a small fee. The hour will be 7.30. In the cast will be Mrs. Nellie Higgins, Mrs. Eliza Plummer, Mrs. Lena Rollins, Mrs. Helen Perry, Mrs. Ada Brewster, Mrs. Maude Cabes, Miss Annie Mullen, Mrs. Margaret Rackliffe, and Mrs. Clara Curtis. One of the chief attractions of the evening will be the Pine Tree Hill Billies.

Attending the 13-Class meeting in Portland Sunday morning from Rockland were Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Ingraham, Mrs. E. H. Cameron, Miss Crystal Cameron, Mrs. Evelyn Kusiek, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fish, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Young, Walter Staples, Sr., Osmond A. Palmer, Otto C. Diesel, Ernest Simmons, Clifford Witham, Earl Blackmore, Burton Blackmore, Horace Vail; also from Glen Cove, W. C. Lufkin, C. Clifton Lufkin, Bert S. Gregory, and son Robert and Everett W. Humphrey. The gathering at Keith's Theatre numbered 2098 men and 806 women, the largest ever to meet there. An attendance contest is being waged between the Everyman's Class of Newark, N. J., and the 13 Class, the former now only a scant 352 ahead.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett L. Spear have returned from Florida.

Wilbur Frohock is home from Brown University until tomorrow.

County Attorney Burrows will speak on "Parliamentary Law" before the Lions tomorrow.

The Educational Club members who have not been solicited for the supper Friday, are asked to take sweets.

An interesting communication from Dr. B. Lake Noyes of Stonington, received too late for this issue, will be published Thursday.

Col. Basil H. Stinson is in Indianapolis, attending a special meeting of the executive committee of the National Department of the American Legion. He is expected home Saturday.

Claremont Commandery, K. T., held sessions yesterday afternoon and evening, conferring the Order of the Temple upon Robert A. Webster, Dr. Herman J. Wiseman and George C. Sandner. Ninety Sires gave hearty endorsement to the roast beef supper.

James Flanagan—much to the satisfaction of all concerned—has signed up for another season as golf pro at the Rockland Country Club. With the disappearance of ice and snow the "addicts" are beginning to cast longing eyes on the course.

Frederick M. Hall has returned to Orono after a week's trip with the College of Technology of U. of M. on their annual inspection of industrial plants in Massachusetts. From Boston he continued his journey to Rochester and Brooklyn, where he was the guest of relatives for a week.

BORN

POLKY—At Long Cove, March 30, to Mr. and Mrs. William Polky, twin daughters.

THOMPSON—At Knox Hospital, Rockland, March 21, to Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson, Jr. of Friendship, a son, John Percy, 2nd.

BUTLER—At Knox Hospital, Rockland, March 21, to Mr. and Mrs. George Butler of Rockport, a son, Royce Arnold.

TALBOT—At Camden, March 31, to Mr. and Mrs. Hartford Talbot, a daughter, Caroline Dee.

MARRIED

HUNT-MESERVE—At Rockland, March 30, by E. R. Keene, N. P. Roy C. Hunt and Georgiana Meserve, both of Camden.

HINDS-SHAW—At Fourth Presbyterian Church, New York, March 30, Claude E. Hinds of New York and Wynne Alice Shaw of East Orange, N. J.

DIED

SMITH—At Vinalhaven, March 30, Daisy M. wife of Alex Smith, aged 51 years, 7 months. Funeral Tuesday at 2 o'clock. Interment in Ocean View cemetery.

HILL—At Vinalhaven, March 28, Thomas Hill, aged 68 years. Interment in Cummings cemetery.

RICHARDSON—At Rockland, March 30, Charles R. Richardson, aged 76 years, 3 months, 17 days. Funeral this afternoon at 2 o'clock from residence 81 Park street.

WOOLLEY—At Mt. Vernon, N. Y., March 30, Dion E. Woolley, aged 72 years. Burial today in Hamamont, N. Y.

GARDNER—At Rockville, March 30, Edna H. Gardner, aged 70 years, 1 month, 5 days. Funeral today at 2 o'clock.

PAGE—At Boston, March 29, Mrs. Sarah Waterman Page, aged 59 years, 3 months, 4 days. Funeral Tuesday at 3.30 from Good funeral home. Burial in Appleton.

COTTA—At Camden, March 31, Andrew Cotta, aged 49 years, 3 months, 7 days. Funeral Tuesday at 2 o'clock from the residence on Mt. Battle street.

GODING—At Hope, April 2, Mrs. Adella Goding, aged 59 years, 3 months, 7 days. Funeral Thursday at 1 o'clock.

PACKARD—At Rockville, March 30, Arathusa M. widow of Jason O. Packard, aged 74 years, 3 months, 7 days. Funeral Tuesday at 3.30 o'clock. Interment in Rockville.

BROWN—At Milford, Mass., March 17, Alfred E. Brown, former resident of South Thomaston, aged 55 years. Burial in Milford.

ABBOTT—At Camden, April 2, Chester Abbott, aged 41 years. Funeral Friday at 2 o'clock from Good funeral home.

HANDREN—At Camden, April 2, Henry H. Handren, aged 73 years. Funeral Thursday at 2 o'clock from Good funeral home.

MEMORIAL

Eunice T. Brown
In the passing of one of Brimble T. widow of John H. Brown, we have lost one of its oldest and best known residents. To know Mrs. Brown was to know a woman of noble character and her unflinching loyalty to the cause of right. Her courage in her somewhat lonely life and her great kindness to friends and neighbors will live in the memory of all.
Friends.

In loving memory of our dear mother, Mrs. Hannah Mackie, who passed away April 2, 1932.

As we loved her, so we miss her
Her memory is ever dear
Loved, remembered, longed for always,
Bringing many a silent tear.
Her Children.

IN MEMORIAM

April 3, 1933—April 3, 1935
For our loving daughter, wife and sister, Faustina Brown Meserve.
"Grief and pain were left behind
When with God you went to rest
Thou' regrett'st best our minds
We understand that He knows best."
Frank J. Meserve, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Brown, Julia Brown.

In sad and loving memory of my dear mother, Margaret A. Ellis, who passed away April 4, 1924.
It is eleven years since my darling mamma went from me
Living close to her during all the happy years of our life together
I still find myself living in close touch with her spirit.
Her memory is ever with me
Her teachings are my guide
When in doubt I am guided by what I know she would have me do.
You love, mamma, now as then
Is my dearest and tenderest possession.
The ever loving daughter, Nellie Balano Merrill.

IN MEMORIAM

We wish to express our deep appreciation of the kindness and whole hearted support of the many friends of Pleasant Valley Grange which helped to make "Wise Guy" such a pronounced success. Ever, we wish to thank Robert Gardner, Burpee Furniture Co. and Rockland Amusement Co. Pleasant Valley Players, Rockland, April 2.

CARD OF APPRECIATION

We wish to express our deep appreciation of the kindness and whole hearted support of the many friends of Pleasant Valley Grange which helped to make "Wise Guy" such a pronounced success. Ever, we wish to thank Robert Gardner, Burpee Furniture Co. and Rockland Amusement Co. Pleasant Valley Players, Rockland, April 2.

LOOK!
BOWL
FULL
OF BARGAINSGENUINE 2-COLOR
FEDERALWARE
BOWL
worth 59c anywhere.Large Heavy Enamel MIXING BOWL filled with This Assortment of PROCTER & GAMBLE QUALITY SOAPS1 Large Package CHIPSO FLAKES or GRANULES $1.00 Value
1 Medium Cake IVORY SOAP Only
2 CAKES CAMAY
2 CAKES P. & G. WHITE NAPHTHA SOAP
69cOUTSTANDING VALUE for only
A SOAP FOR EVERY HOUSEHOLD NEED AT ANY OF THESE STORES:

ROCKLAND	NORTH CUSHING
W. F. BRITTO MARKET	H. E. SMITH
O. S. DUNCAN	CUSHING
FLINT'S MARKET	A. S. FALES & SON
GILLEY & DUNCAN	C. L. FALES
GLENNING'S MARKET	FRIENDSHIP
J. A. JAMESON CO.	B. B. JAMESON
KNIGHT BROS. MARKET	J. T. GAY
NORTHEAST MARKET	WALDOBORO
V. L. PACKARD	NORTH WALDOBORO
PERRY'S MARKET	BURNHEIMER BROS.
CAMDEN	JEFFERSON
CARLETON-FRENCH & CO.	BOND BROS.
R. E. HOPKINS	WARREN
SANITARY MARKET	P. D. STARRETT
THE KRONOMY MARKET	UNION
F. J. WILEY	J. C. CREIGHTON CO.
THOMASTON	GORDEN, LOVEJOY CO.
A. W. DEMUTH	APPLETON
A. J. LINEKEN	BROWN & SPROWL
SOUTH THOMASTON	EAST UNION
F. J. BAUM	PAYSON & ROBBINS
ST. GEORGE	WASHINGTON
J. A. EWELL	H. L. LINSOTT
	FRED L. LUDWIG

One of the outstanding musical events of the school year to be given by students of the Music Department of Gorham Normal School will be presented Thursday evening, in the form of an effective and colorful pageant entitled "In An Antique Shop." Among the students in the cast appear Marian Shuman and Helen Stone, Camden; Mary Stockbridge, Stanley Gay, Rockland; Earle Achorn and Bertha Bridges, Rockport. In the orchestra members is Bernice Nutt of Rockport.

At the meeting of the Speech Readers' Club Thursday afternoon Mrs. Frank Hewitt had charge of the lesson, with Mrs. Marguerite MacAlman giving the story. An interesting report was given by Miss Helen Fuller on her return from Boston and Portland, visiting in the former city the Speech Readers Guild, and in Portland the Speech Readers' Club. A receipt letter from Mrs. Jennie Hill, a former member who now makes her home in Joplin, Mo., gave a graphic description of the western tornado, and a letter from Miss Elizabeth Porter of Camden told delightfully of her winter's sojourn in Orlando, Fla. The meeting Thursday will be devoted to business and a social afternoon.

The Girl Scout State Conference to be held Saturday in City Hall, Portland, is to stress the international theme at both morning and afternoon sessions. The speaker is to be Miss Alice Hampton Medary of Taunton, Mass., who lately returned from abroad where she has been a visitor at the Swiss Chalet, the Girl Scout house in Adelboden, Switzerland. Accompanying Miss Medary's talk will be folk dances presented in national costume, also folk songs, and playlets. Over 1,000 Scouts are expected. Several from Rockland plan to attend, provided cars and drivers are forthcoming to transport the girls. Miss Irene Lundén or Mrs. Reuel Soule will appreciate hearing from public spirited citizens who will help out in this matter. Expenses of gas and oil will be taken care of.

WANTED: MEN'S SHOES

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—The overser of the poor is wondering why shoes for women and girls come in so much more plentifully than for boys and men. Probably, he concludes, it is because the former come from women and girls.

Now girls, won't you please dig up dad's and brother's old shoes for me and just ring 693-W with the good news.
Thanking you and the co-operative ladies, I am yours for service,
Louis A. Walker.

CHARLES R. RICHARDSON

Shoveling snow in front of his residence at 81 Park street Saturday afternoon, Charles R. Richardson suddenly succumbed to a heart attack, dying instantly.

The deceased was born in this city Nov. 13, 1856, son of the late Jesse Richardson, with whom he learned the mason's trade. More than 50 years ago he entered the employ of W. H. Glover & Co. and was on its payroll the day of his death. In that long period of service his handiwork has been seen in the construction of many scores of Rockland houses. He was a skilled workman, always working faithfully in the interest of his employers and the clientele which they served. A sunny smile and pleasant word always marked his presence, and these attributes tended to make him universally liked.

In his younger days he ran with a local fire company, and prior to the abolishment of that office often served as the city's building inspector. He had given no indication of failing health, and was looking forward to the observance of his golden wedding the present year.

Mr. Richardson is survived by his wife formerly Frances Barlow; two sons—Arthur B. Richardson, assistant vice president of the Chesebrough Manufacturing Co., and its foreign manager, now located in London; and Austin R. Richardson, who resided at home. There are also four surviving grandchildren—Albert, Frederick, Charles and Margaret.

Funeral services will be held at the family residence at 2 o'clock this afternoon, Rev. Dr. John Smith Lowe officiating.

JAMES B. HIGGINS

James Brown Higgins, 82, a lifelong resident of this city, died March 26 after a brief illness at the home of his niece, Mrs. John W. Burns, 15 North Main street.

Mr. Higgins was born March 25, 1853, the son of Capt. James and Elizabeth (French) Higgins, of Rockland. For many years he was employed as truckman by Farrand, Spear & Co., and continued in such work until in recent years. He was a friendly figure, fondly called "Uncle Jimmie" by all who knew him, and held in high esteem.

In his last illness he was cared for by Mr. and Mrs. Albra Perry, his niece returning from Florida to be with him when the seriousness of his condition was realized. He leaves no other immediate survivors.

Private funeral services were held March 28, with Rev. J. C. MacDonald of the First Baptist Church officiating. Bearers were Albra Perry, Benjamin Philbrook, Kenneth Spear, and Hilton Ames. Interment was in Sea View cemetery.

EAST APPLETON

Fine weather prevails here now after the recent snow flurry. Bluebirds, robins and other birds have been seen, also a pheasant—a rare sight.

Robie Robbins was stricken with illness Thursday.

Edna Morang Griffin was recent guest at Meadowbrook.

Mrs. Cassie Paul and sister Agnes Robbins have returned home from a fortnight's visit with their brother, Clarence Robbins.

The children hereabouts are busy tapping the maple trees, carrying sap, and making the highly prized maple syrup.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ames would be pleased to hear from their friends at their present home, 3692 North High street, Columbus, Ohio.</

THE STORY

CHAPTER I.—Ruined, financially, by the stock market crash, James Nelson, Boston merchant, breaks the news to his household. Nance is on the verge of her introduction to society, the date of her debut having been set. A short time before, an elderly cousin of Nelson's, Cousin Columbine, had written suggesting that Nance come to her at Pine Ridge, Colo., as a paid companion. The offer had been regarded by the family as a joke.

CHAPTER II.—Jack urges Nance to accept Cousin Columbine's proposition, thus relieving her father of a certain financial burden, and offering to go with her so that she will not feel too lonely. The girl is at first appalled by the idea, but as she reads the letter from Cousin Columbine, and they will wait her answer, she begins to see the wisdom of the plan. She writes to her father, explaining the situation and the offer, and the two shall go.

CHAPTER III.—At the railroad station the youngsters are welcomed by Cousin Columbine. They are somewhat dismayed by her unconventional attire and mannerisms, but realize she has character and a certain charm. The driver of the car is a young man, Mark Adams, son of a close friend of the old lady. The old lady (to Nance's surprise) of Pine Ridge appeals the girl.

CHAPTER IV.—The newcomers meet Aurora Tubbs, Cousin Columbine's cook and housekeeper, and Matthew Adams, Mark's older brother. The old-fashioned furnishings of her bedroom further depress Nance. Cousin Columbine explains her reasons for desiring Nance to come to her, and tells some experiences of her 75 years of life on the plains.

CHAPTER V.—Nance gets better acquainted with Matthew Adams, and is impressed despite the handicap of his bashfulness, by his evident good sense and his good looks. Jack finds a temporary job.

CHAPTER VI.—The fascination of new country wears off, and time begins to hang heavily on Nance's hands. An absence of interesting reading, both in the house and in the community, gives her an inspiration.

CHAPTER VII

NANCE's letter to her Aunt Louise arrived on a Saturday, and she carried it out to Edgemore to read aloud. The young people had been gone more than a month, and as the strangeness of their absence wore away, life was settling down into its new routine. Despite financial worry, Margaret Nelson was conscious of a sense of restfulness which had been lost to her during the last few years. Found as she was of her husband's sister, Louise's almost daily comments on the children often annoyed her; but now the weekend visit was something to look forward to. Today she arrived on the train with her brother, and said before she had taken off her hat:

"I've a letter from Nance. It's rather surprising on the whole. Shall I read it now?" "Let's wait till I get supper on the table," suggested Margaret, with a glance at her husband's tired face. "Phil says he's famished, and no wonder! He's dug out every path since 6 o'clock. I don't know what I'd do without that boy, here in the country. He's a real worker."

"And in town there were no chores to occupy him," observed his aunt. "This more has been an splendid thing for Phil, Margaret. He looks and acts like a different boy. And I'm not sure but that the visit to Colorado has done something for Nance, even if I did oppose it. Just wait till I drop my things and I'll help with supper. I'll be down in a moment."

Watching his sister run lightly up the stairs, John Nelson wondered if the change in environment hadn't benefited her as well as Phil. Possibly Louise appreciated this taste of family life the better, because of her absence during the week. As she disappeared, he bent to kiss his wife for the second time since his arrival. It was, Margaret comprehended, an effort on his part to make up for the lack of cheering news, and tactfully refrained from asking how the day had gone.

"This is wonderful brown bread," declared Louise when they assembled at supper. "In our days of affluence, Margaret, I'd completely forgotten that you could cook! I'll take two bites and then read the letter. Have you heard from Colorado yourself today?"

"A note from Jack. He says—" "It was addressed to me," broke in Phil impatiently. "He's learned to milk; and is riding horseback every day. He says those Adam people are awfully nice, and that Mr. Adams does a lot of cooking because his wife doesn't like to and he does. He hadn't seen Nance for more'n a week, but one of the Adam boys was there to dinner—at Cousin Columbine's, I mean; and there's been a blizzard; and Cousin Columbine and Nance are going to eat Christmas dinner at the ranch 'cause they can't spare Jack; and Mr. Adams is going to cook the turkey all himself. I wish I could go to Colorado and get a job. Just feel my muscle."

Aunt Louise complied obligingly, and having satisfied her first hunger, opened the letter from Pine Ridge.

"Read it all," said Dad. "We haven't heard for several days." "No doubt Nance counted on my bringing this out tonight. It should have reached me sooner. Those storms in the Middle West delayed it, and she's in a hurry for an answer, too. She says:

"Dear useful Aunt Louise: A blizzard is raging and I can't see Pike's Peak from my tower, and have to hop up every five minutes to drop a log into the stove. I could write in the warm kitchen, but Aurora Tubbs would insist on talking, and I've simply got to get this down on paper. It came of my trying to find something to read this stormy morning. All Cousin Columbine has is Scott and Dickens—"

"I love Dickens, and Scott, too," Phil interrupted. "I can read those when I visit Cousin Columbine. Go on, Aunt Lou."

"Your sister does not share your admiration of the classics," observed his aunt. "She says: '... and they look so dull (especially Scott), and the volumes are so heavy that I gave it up. I asked Aurora if there was a library here, and she said nobody in Pine Ridge has time to read, though the drug store does a thriving business in the sort of magazines that make you shudder and look schoolmarmy. Aunt Louise! Anyway, that gave me the idea. When I talked with Cousin Columbine she said that there was no Aladdin in Pine Ridge to rub his wonderful lamp, you know, and wish for a library; and while I was thinking what I'd do to this awful little place if I were Aladdin, I got an inspiration."

"It's this; and I'm rushing my letter so you'll have it before Christmas vacation. I want to start a library here, Aunt Lou. If I got the books, I'm sure I'd find a place to keep them. There's a schoolhouse here that isn't used now the children are carried to a county school in buses, which would be wonderful. I'd open the place two or three afternoons a week, and no matter what Aurora says, I'm sure the young people and old ones, too, would be glad to take out books if they had the chance."

"And here's where you come in: Wouldn't each girl at school donate a volume or two if you told them about the scheme? And haven't you and Mother got a lot you'd like to get rid of? No matter if they're shabby. Juanita Tubbs will help me cover them with paper. I'm sure the Adams will give some, too; and if you have any friends with books to part with, just grab them for my Aladdin library. That's what I'll call it if I can get somebody to paint a sign without being paid for the work. The Aladdin Library! Won't that look swell over the door?"

"I shan't say a word to anyone until I hear from you, but do write soon or I'm likely to explode. With the exception of the Adam boys and Mary Taylor, the postmaster's daughter, this population looks as if it needed to be shaken up, and I'm sure a library will be a step in the right direction."

Louise paused a moment, and then went on, with a smile of amusement lighting her eyes: "Do not misunderstand, however. I have not become a missionary, or anything like that; but when you see people who have so little, it makes you think. Besides, I haven't enough to do. And Jack said Cousin Columbine wanted a slave! All the poor dear did want was to see some one belonging to her, before she died. And she's a long way from dying. If you ask me—the briskest (if there's no such word it doesn't matter) old lady I ever saw, and the most interesting."

"There's no time for more. The fire is almost out and the wind is howling, and snow is sifting through the cracks in my tower windows. Cousin Columbine says it'll be dry as dust in a week, but I wonder. Love to every one at home, and do, do help."

Louise laid down the letter, and looked up.

"What are you grinning for, Phil Nelson?"

"I was thinking that Nance'd make a real swell missionary," said the little boy. "I've got a lot of old books that she can have, just as well as not; and maybe some of the kids at school have got some, too. Do you s'pose if I got a lot of books for the Pine Ridge library, that Cousin Columbine would pay my fare to Colorado?"

Dad smiled, and said: "Some one will have to pay expressage on those books! But we'll manage that if we go without our Christmas dinner. I'm proud of our girl, thinking this up all by herself; and we've got to help her put it through. It's fortunate we stored the books out here, Margaret. We'll spend tomorrow going over them."

"And I'll pay the expressage," promised his sister. "It won't be necessary to go hungry Christmas day."

Phil drew a deep sigh of relief. "That's the stuff! It'll be a funny enough Christmas anyway, with Jack and Nance gone. What are you thinking about, Mother? You look awful solemn and far-away."

His mother started, pulling herself together and smiling a bit wistfully.

"Do you know," she told her family in surprise, "I've been so busy I only just remembered that—that Nance was to have made her debut tonight!"

Two thousand miles away in Pine Ridge, Colo., there had been no such forgetfulness. Nance's first thought on waking was that this was to have been the day of her debut. This was the day she had looked forward to so long! Nance snuggled down under the patchwork quilt and gave herself to the luxury of introspection. What thrills she and Mother had had over their plans! How exciting to indulge in all those evening gowns! And what would be happening to her now if that miserable stock market hadn't crashed, and Dad crashed with it?

Nance glanced at her watch. It was seven o'clock—nine in Boston; and before long the flowers would have come pouring in: flowers from family friends, boy friends, girl friends, too. She could almost see Aunt Judy's eyes shining with delight and pride as each fragrant tribute was brought in—dear Aunt Judy, who'd never done anything but look after other people! Mother would be a whirl of efficient excitement, enjoying every thrilling moment, and—

Oh, what was the use of these imaginings? Nance asked herself. Even if Dad accumulated another fortune there would be no debut for her; and the chances were against his doing that—at his age. Fifty-six! Nance wondered how it would seem to be fifty-six—shuddered—and then realized that Dad didn't seem old at all, and often acted younger than she did! This was a cheering thought, and the girl kicked off her quilt and ran to close the windows.

At any rate, it was a glorious day, and all that snow had vanished, sinking into the ground and leaving everything quite dry again. Nance opened her door, to be greeted by the aroma of frying bacon. After all, the day might not be so bad. She was going to the Springs with Mrs. Adams (whom she had not yet met), to purchase the sport hose as well as some ten cent "jokes" for Christmas; something to make laughter at the dinner table, though Cousin Columbine assured her that there would be laughter at the Adam dinner table, jokes or no jokes.

Nance was late to breakfast. Cousin Columbine pretended to be provoked, but the girl grinned at her.

"I was too comfortable to move; and besides, I—well, I started day-dreaming."

"About what?" asked the old lady crisply.

Nance consumed two bites of muffin, and then said: "Of all sad words of tongue or pen, Cousin Columbine, the saddest are these: 'It might have been.' I'll admit it was pitying myself a little. This happens to be the day when Nance Nelson expected to launch her bark on the—social sea."

She laughed, but it wasn't a natural laugh, and Cousin Columbine observed her gravely.

"Was giving up all that fuss and feathers a disappointment?"

"It was some jolt," said Nance. "Could I have two eggs, please? And what time did Mrs. Adams say she'd come?"

"At nine o'clock. I wish you'd run down to the store before you leave, Nance, and get some baking powder. Aurora's going to make a cake."

"Do you want chocolate or coconut?" questioned Aurora, poking her head in at the door. "If it's to be coconut, you better get another box; but considerin'—"

"Get the coconut anyway," broke in Miss Columbine, and motioned Aurora to go away. "I'm glad you're to have this trip today, child. You won't have time to be regretting what can't be helped. I want you to get a pretty scarf to give Eve Adams, something good, since we're going there for Christmas dinner. Eve never spends a penny on herself, and she likes nice things, and knows 'em, too. That's all, except a book for John."

"You mean the old Adam?" asked Nance, dimpling.

Cousin Columbine nodded.

"You bring a couple of pounds of powdered sugar," called Aurora as Nance started off. "And" (as she reached the gate) "a cake of chocolate."

When Nance returned laden with paper bags of various sizes, the Adam car was standing before the door; and as she laid her burdens on the kitchen table, Aurora said: "Well, here you are! And Matthew Adams waiting six minutes. His mother couldn't go; and I hope to goodness that boy don't keep his mouth shut all the way. He's in the sittin' room with Miss Columbine right now; but if you was to ask me, his brother Mark would have give you a more exciting time."

Nance whirled about, laughing as she saw Matthew in the doorway. He said, apologetically: "I know, Aurora, but Mark couldn't be spared this morning. Don't kill yourself to hurry, Na-Nance. I've got to put some water in the radiator. Just ta-take your time."

"Is Mrs. Adams sick?" questioned the girl as he went out.

"No, my dear," responded Cousin Columbine, "but Luke comes home tomorrow anyway, and Matthew had some errands he wished to do. Now run and get your things together, child; and don't hurry through your shopping for Matthew Adams or any

Spring Sunday Breakfasts

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
Director, Heinz Food Institute

WEEK-DAY breakfasts are often hurried meals with each member of the family hustling through to get to office, school or household tasks. Some families cannot even breakfast together, but must be served in relays to suit their different working hours. There is little use to plan a very special menu with which to start the week-day. But Sunday mornings are more leisurely, and the whole family can afford to linger over the breakfast table for a bit of pleasant conversation. It is a time for which to plan particularly nice menus—menus that will encourage the family to make a habit of breakfasting together on Sunday mornings. And with spring on our doorstep offering the first fresh fruits of the season, these meals can be especially attractive. The following menus and recipes will make your Sunday morning breakfasts popular events with the family:

- Fruit Cup of Pineapple, Orange and Crushed Strawberries
Fluffy Omelet with Rice Flakes*
Quick Tomato Sauce*
Bacon Toast
Coffee
Chilled Tomato Juice
Honeydew Melon Garnished with a Slice of Lemon or Lime
Rice Flakes Waffles*
Bacon
Coffee
Fresh Strawberries with Rice Flakes and Cream
Creamed Eggs on Toast
Breakfast Wheat Muffins*
Coffee
Currant Jelly

(*) Indicates recipes given below

Fluffy Omelet with Rice Flakes—Add 6 tablespoons hot water to 6 beaten egg yolks, then add 1 teaspoon salt. Beat 6 egg whites until stiff. Fold egg yolks into egg whites, then fold in 2 cups Rice Flakes. Turn into pan and cook over slow fire until light brown underneath. Place in oven until top is dry. Fold one-half over the other half. Serve at once. (Serves 6.)

Quick Tomato Sauce—Melt 2 tablespoons butter in a saucepan, add 2 tablespoons flour and stir until blended. Add 1/2 teaspoon salt, a dash of pepper, 1/4 to 1 teaspoon onion juice and 1 cup milk, and cook, stirring constantly, until thick. Add 1/2 cup Tomato Ketchup slowly, stirring constantly.

Rice Flakes Waffles—Mix and sift 1 1/2 cups flour, 4 teaspoons baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt and 2 tablespoons sugar. To 1 well beaten egg yolk, add 1 1/2 cups milk, then add to dry ingredients, beating thoroughly. Add 1 tablespoon melted butter, then fold in 1 stiffly beaten egg white. Add 2/3 cup Rice Flakes and bake in a hot waffle iron.

Breakfast Wheat Muffins—Sift together 1 cup Breakfast Wheat, 1 cup flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 4 tablespoons sugar. Add 2 well beaten eggs and 4 tablespoons melted butter to dry ingredients, then add enough milk to make a stiff batter (about 1/2 cup), beating thoroughly. Bake in heated and buttered muffin pans in a hot oven for 20 minutes.

body else. If you're back by supper time it's soon enough."

The early winter darkness had fallen when they returned. Nance had had a wonderful day. She had lunched at a delightful tea room, done her own Christmas errands, Aurora's Cousin Columbine's, and even Matthew Adams! For when she met her escort at the appointed time, the young man confessed that he had delayed his own holiday shopping in order to profit by her advice. Would Dot Meredith, the cousin who was in college at Denver and was to spend her vacation at the ranch, approve of silk stockings as a gift? And what size must he get? What color? Darned if he knew! And would Nance look at a luncheon set he wanted for his mother, and see if it were really any good?

So Nance stored her parcels in the old car, and fared forth again, this time with Matthew. But it was all fun, and after weeks of comparative solitude in Pine Ridge, the Christmas crowds seemed thrilling. Their errands accomplished, Matt took her to a place where they had hot chocolate and delicious sandwiches; and on the way home he drove with exceeding slowness, even after the dangerous pass was left behind.

The stars were out when they bumped over the railroad track and started up the straggling, familiar street. Dusk hid its shabbiness, and Nance turned as she always did, for that matchless view of the white-crested Peak.

"Mark Would Have Give You a More Exciting Time."

"Well, we're home," she said, and added, laughing: "That sounds exactly like Aurora, doesn't it? I've had a great time, Matt, and I do

ROCKPORT

Harold Cookson left Sunday for Calais where he has employment with the Trafford Motor Sales Co.

Mrs. Eva Moon will serve as chairman of the committee in charge of the Easter supper to be served by the Trytohelp Club at the Baptist vestry Wednesday from 5.30 to 7 p. m.

Fred A. Norwood, W.R.C., will observe Grand Army Day at its meeting next Friday evening, with the Edwin Libby Post G.A.R. of Rockland as special guest. Members of other allied bodies will also be welcome and each member of Fred A. Norwood Corps may invite a guest. An interesting program will be followed by the annual campfire. Those not solicited are asked to furnish fancy cookies, crackers, doughnuts, or cheese.

Mrs. Helena Upham, a senior at High School, is confined to her home by illness.

The annual business meeting of the Twentieth Century Club was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Minetta A. Paul. These officers and committees were elected: President, Mrs. Mildred Putnam; vice president, Mrs. Christine Currier; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Alice Gardner; executive committee, Mrs. Nellie Ballard, Mrs. Blanche Steward, Miss Elsie Lane; entertainment committee, Miss Mabel Pottle, Mrs. Nellie Maguire, Mrs. Amy Miller; picnic committee, Mrs. Linthe Lane, Mrs. Mildred Rhodes, Miss Marion Weidman. This was the last meeting of the season, a vacation being declared until October.

Mrs. Nellie R. Ballard, principal of the Ballard Business School, spent the weekend with relatives at Winterport.

Mrs. Josephine Payson, who has been ill for several months at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. W. Spear, is reported as in a serious condition.

Chester Pascal went to Bath Saturday, called by the serious illness of his cousin, Mrs. Frances Andrews. Mrs. Adelaide Morrill, who has been staying at The Thorndike in Rockland since her return from Wilkes Barre, Pa., is now at her home on Russell avenue.

The Rockport carnival-regatta committee will hold its adjourned meeting Wednesday at 7.45 at the High School building. Following the election of officers, plans will be made for this summer.

Mrs. Nellie Everett, Miss Della Everett and Paul Everett of Waltham, Mass., were overnight guests Friday of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard C. Ingraham.

An invitation has been extended members of the Baptist parish to attend the evangelistic services at the Littlefield Memorial Church in Rockland Wednesday evening conducted by the Taylor Brothers. Those desiring transportation are asked to notify Rev. G. F. Currier. Cars will leave the church at 7 o'clock.

Tickets are selling rapidly for the public card party to be held the evening of April 10 at Masonic banquet hall under the auspices of Harbor Light Club.

Miss Vera Turner entertained at bridge Friday evening. Honors were won by Anna Zoppina and Millicent Roberts. At midnight a dainty lunch was served by the hostess.

Regular meeting of Harbor Light Chapter O.E.S. will be held this evening after which a social hour with beano will be enjoyed.

George W. Crockett and Raymond Perkins motored to Portland Saturday night to attend a dance at Ricker Gardens at which music was furnished by Eddy Duchin Orchestra.

White Oak Grange entertained several Granges March 23 at an all-day session, largely attended.

Mrs. Laura Daniels of East Union was overnight guest recently at Mable Crawford's.

Erland Jones is engaged in painting for parties in Union.

The 13 Class of Portland is a participant in a contest with one of the largest Bible classes in the country. As stated in the National Grange Monthly, April 7 will be known as Grange Day in the contest and it is hoped that White Oak may have representatives to respond to the roll call.

STICKNEY CORNER

The Simonton Farm Bureau will hold an all day meeting April 5 at the Community hall, the subject to be "Raising and preserving food at home."

NO TRAFFIC OR TAXI!

to Your hotel in BOSTON

500 Rooms
EQUIPPED WITH—RADIO
SERVIDOR
TUB & SHOWER
HOTEL MANGER
AT NORTH STATION
"A STEP—From your TRAIN—to your ROOM"

700 ROOMS
700 BATHS from $2.50 daily

HOTEL CHARLES L. ORNSTEIN, Manager

PARAMOUNT
46th Street, West of Broadway, NEW YORK

COURIER-GAZETTE CROSS-WORD PUZZLE

- HORIZONTAL (Cont.)
1—Male hog
5—Untrue
10—A Greek letter
14—Cares
16—Hebrew measure
17—Ecclesiastical
18—Underground part of a plant
19—Ridge
20—Drunkards
22—Those who treat
24—Birds
26—Male singing voice
27—Gifts
31—A day (abbr.)
32—A weight measure (abbr.)
34—Narrow thoroughfares
35—Consumed
37—A beverage
38—Greedy
39—Floated
40—A fuel
41—Boy's name (short)
42—A fruit
43—To cut up, as cooked
44—North central State of U. S. (abbr.)
45—King (Fr.)
- HORIZONTAL (Cont.)
46—Conveyed back
48—Cask stoppers
50—Fatigue
51—Charm
54—Equalized
58—Ireland (word)
59—Large lake
61—Growing out of a plant
62—Stake in cards
63—Personates
65—Long grass stem
66—Sugary
67—Hungarian statesman
- VERTICAL (Cont.)
11—High Turkish official
12—Rend
13—Ammunition
15—Bonds
21—Japanese coin
23—Soon
25—Hot vapor
27—Plots
28—Raged
29—Girl's name
30—Relish
32—Depart
33—Made into bales
36—Dogma
37—Lacerated
39—Those who weigh
40—Heeled over
42—Wish for 43—Demolished
47—Bind
48—An herb
49—Scatter
51—Darling
52—Eagle
53—Deep (Prov.)
55—None (Scott.)
56—Girl's name
57—Place for writing
60—Before
64—And (Latin)

(Solution to Previous Puzzle)

HAUL PLOT
FENS JONES
SIN ENT BAR NOT IN ISAR ENDS DO
NEED PALES CLEAR
MELT A LAPS
BATTLES
POOR H ATOM
E RAW LES ERE S
BEET HARPS ANEW
BE SLED OPAL LI
SLY ARE TAN RI
SENT TEAS
TOES PERT

NORTH WARREN

The March lion roared a bit Thursday, but not for long.

White Oak Grange entertained several Granges March 23 at an all-day session, largely attended.

Mrs. Laura Daniels of East Union was overnight guest recently at Mable Crawford's.

Erland Jones is engaged in painting for parties in Union.

The 13 Class of Portland is a participant in a contest with one of the largest Bible classes in the country. As stated in the National Grange Monthly, April 7 will be known as Grange Day in the contest and it is hoped that White Oak may have representatives to respond to the roll call.

STICKNEY CORNER

The Simonton Farm Bureau will hold an all day meeting April 5 at the Community hall, the subject to be "Raising and preserving food at home."

NO TRAFFIC OR TAXI!

to Your hotel in BOSTON

500 Rooms
EQUIPPED WITH—RADIO
SERVIDOR
TUB & SHOWER
HOTEL MANGER
AT NORTH STATION
"A STEP—From your TRAIN—to your ROOM"

700 ROOMS
700 BATHS from $2.50 daily

HOTEL CHARLES L. ORNSTEIN, Manager

PARAMOUNT
46th Street, West of Broadway, NEW YORK

Right in the Center of the TIMES SQUARE DISTRICT

... A MODERN HOTEL "ON ITS TOES" EVERY MINUTE TO MAKE YOUR VISIT MOST PLEASANT

700 ROOMS
700 BATHS from $2.50 daily

HOTEL CHARLES L. ORNSTEIN, Manager

PARAMOUNT
46th Street, West of Broadway, NEW YORK

Right in the Center of the TIMES SQUARE DISTRICT

... A MODERN HOTEL "ON ITS TOES" EVERY MINUTE TO MAKE YOUR VISIT MOST PLEASANT

700 ROOMS
700 BATHS from $2.50 daily

HOTEL CHARLES L. ORNSTEIN, Manager

PARAMOUNT
46th Street, West of Broadway, NEW YORK

Right in the Center of the TIMES SQUARE DISTRICT

... A MODERN HOTEL "ON ITS TOES" EVERY MINUTE TO MAKE YOUR VISIT MOST PLEASANT

700 ROOMS
700 BATHS from $2.50 daily

HOTEL CHARLES L. ORNSTEIN, Manager

PARAMOUNT
46th Street, West of Broadway, NEW YORK

Right in the Center of the TIMES SQUARE DISTRICT

... A MODERN HOTEL "ON ITS TOES" EVERY MINUTE TO MAKE YOUR VISIT MOST PLEASANT

700 ROOMS
700 BATHS from $2.50 daily

HOTEL CHARLES L. ORNSTEIN, Manager

PARAMOUNT
46th Street, West of Broadway, NEW YORK

Right in the Center of the TIMES SQUARE DISTRICT

... A MODERN HOTEL "ON ITS TOES" EVERY MINUTE TO MAKE YOUR VISIT MOST PLEASANT

700 ROOMS
700 BATHS from $2.50 daily

HOTEL CHARLES L. ORNSTEIN, Manager

PARAMOUNT
46th Street, West of Broadway, NEW YORK

Right in the Center of the TIMES SQUARE DISTRICT

... A MODERN HOTEL "ON ITS TOES" EVERY MINUTE TO MAKE YOUR VISIT MOST PLEASANT

700 ROOMS
700 BATHS from $2.50 daily

HOTEL CHARLES L. ORNSTEIN, Manager

PARAMOUNT
46th Street, West of Broadway, NEW YORK

Right in the Center of the TIMES SQUARE DISTRICT

... A MODERN HOTEL "ON ITS TOES" EVERY MINUTE TO MAKE YOUR VISIT MOST PLEASANT

700 ROOMS
700 BATHS from $2.50 daily

HOTEL CHARLES L. ORNSTEIN, Manager

PARAMOUNT
46th Street, West of Broadway, NEW YORK

Right in the Center of the TIMES SQUARE DISTRICT

... A MODERN HOTEL "ON ITS TOES" EVERY MINUTE TO MAKE YOUR VISIT MOST PLEASANT

700 ROOMS
700 BATHS from $2.50 daily

HOTEL CHARLES L. ORNSTEIN, Manager

PARAMOUNT
46th Street, West of Broadway, NEW YORK

Right in the Center of the TIMES SQUARE DISTRICT

... A MODERN HOTEL "ON ITS TOES" EVERY MINUTE TO MAKE YOUR VISIT MOST PLEASANT

DROUTH DISCLOSES OLD DROWNED CITY

Discovery in China Recalls Fate of Other Places.

Washington.—A drouth near Tai lake in northeastern China recently caused discovery of an ancient Chinese city. As the lake waters shrank, fishermen pulling their boats through shallows, sighted a submerged wall, streets, and house. Chinese legend identifies them as the remains of Sanyang, a commercial center which was inundated by the flood which formed Tai lake.

"Discovery of Sanyang adds still another member to the league of drowned cities," says the National Geographic society. "Such realities bolster up the traditions of an Atlantis or lost Lyonesse."

"Tai is not the first lake fabled to contain a sunken metropolis. Celtic tradition places a great populous city at the bottom of Lake Killarney. The town supposedly beneath Lake Neagh, also in Ireland, has been celebrated in verse by Tom Moore."

Islands Submerged.

"When the Aswan dam was built in 1902, in southern Egypt, it converted part of the upper Nile into a vast lake, submerging several islands completely or partially. Although the islet of Philae was flooded, tops of most of its buildings, pillars of the Temple of Isis, and palm trees towered above the water like masts of wrecked ships. When the dam was built 25 feet higher, these were engulfed completely, and now emerge, encrusted with aquatic growths, only during summer months, when opened sluices cause the lake waters to subside."

"About 1282, a great tempest drove the North sea over the north-west shores of the Netherlands, flooding lowlands, and tradition adds, many villages. Combining with Lake Flevo, the waters formed a large inland sea, the Zuider Zee. An immense reclamation project, including a 20-mile dyke, reclaimed in 1932 about 550,000 fertile acres. All that was left of the Zuider Zee was a mere inland lake, the IJsselmeer. Under its green waters, skinned by red-sailed fishing boats, the drowned cities are said to still sleep. Tradition has it that fishes swim down the chimneys of their steep roofed houses, and that from bellies of churches, faint ringing of chimes floats up through the water."

"Cities are submerged not only by floods, but by subsidence of the earth's crust, often caused by volcanic action. An upward movement of the crust raised part of the coast of Alaska near Mount St. Elias, 47 feet in September, 1900. A downward movement ducked Greenland Eskimo houses into the sea. At Puzos, on the Bay of Naples, stands the ruins of an ancient temple, its columns peculiarly marked. The ground on which the columns were erected, sank with them beneath the bay, where they were scarred by sea growth, and later raised to their present position."

"Germany tells legends of a city of Vineta lying off its coast under the Baltic sea. The Bay of Douarnenez on the coast of northwestern France is said to cover the site of a once wealthy city named Ys. Breton peasants on Sein island, point out at low tide huge submerged blocks which they declare are the drowned city's foundations. Most famous of all submarine cities, Ys has been celebrated in verse and prose. Debussy set its legend to music in his composition entitled, 'The Submerged Cathedral.'"

Undependable Islands.
"Near the site of ancient Carthage, on the Gulf of Tunis in northern Africa, photographs taken from airplanes show that there are long walls under 30 feet of water, 100 yards from shore. These walls probably helped form the roadstead which harbored Punic galleys when Carthage was 'mistress of the Mediterranean.'"

"From Land's End, Cornwall, the southwest tip of England, mariners on a clear day can peer across 25 miles of sparkling water to the wild, picturesque Scilly Isles. Tradition, and some geologists, assert that these islands were once joined to Cornwall, and that under the dividing waves lies the sunken country of Lyonesse, trod by King Arthur, and Tristan and Isolde."

"Most famous of the legendary founded islands is Atlantis, reputed to be under the Atlantic ocean west of the Strait of Gibraltar. It appeared on mariners' maps as late as the Fourteenth and Fifteenth centuries, and it was not until after the Renaissance that people tried to verify it. It has been variously identified with America, Scandinavia, and the Canary islands."

"Ireland has legends of nine magic islands which once every seven years arise dripping out of the sea off its coasts. Enchanted, they may be seen, but never reached."

Silver Dollars in Bell
Powhatan, Ohio.—A 900-pound bell, one hundred years old, made partly of iron and of silver dollars, is owned by Aaron Ramsey. At the time the bell was fabricated, the pioneer Ramsey family gathered up 100 silver dollars and had them added to the materials to give a "silver tone" to the bell.

HOPE

Mrs. Adella F. Goding, 89, died this morning, Tuesday, at the home of her niece, Mrs. Robbins. Funeral at the home Thursday at 1 p. m. Rev. Forrest F. Fowle will officiate.

WARREN

G. Dudley Gould was honor guest at a dinner party Thursday at his home, given by Mrs. Gould in observance of his 81st birthday anniversary. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stevenson, sister and brother-in-law of Mr. Gould from Camden, and Charles Webb of this town. Mr. Gould is serving his 34th year as town clerk.

Mrs. Keziah C. Libby was 91 years old Sunday. She is in good health, active, and interested in current events.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Robinson and Eileen Kimball were overnight guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield Robinson, enroute from Boston to Harrington where they visited Mrs. Calista Leighton and Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Leighton.

Mrs. Evelyn Vining returned Sunday to South Hope after spending the winter with her uncle, George Teague.

Mrs. Frank Stahl who has been ill, received Sunday a "sunshine box" from White Oak Grange, of which she is a member.

Members of Ivy Chapter, O.E.S., will enjoy a beano party Friday following the stated meeting. The refreshment committee will be W. H. Robinson, Josiah Jameson, Elbert Starrett and Albert E. MacPhail.

Vernon Packard of U. of M. has been guest of his sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Oxtom, for a few days.

The Gamma Beta boys and guests, a total of 40, together with their leader Chester Wyllie, were partakers Friday evening of a banquet at the Montgomery rooms. Those who served were Mrs. Bessie Mills, Mrs. Laura Seavey, Mrs. Susie Oxtom, Mrs. Grace Wyllie and Mrs. Martha Welch. Rev. John Quigg, pastor of Littlefield Memorial Church, Rockland, was guest speaker, his address "The Red Mark." The lesson of the talk was to persevere in a life of usefulness and service. During the supper, cheers and songs were enjoyed and later games supplied diversion.

The April meeting of the Women's Club will be Thursday evening. Miss Edna F. Boggs who attended the Farm and Home week in Orono last week, will give a report and Miss Beulah Starrett will read a paper on birds. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Alice Watts and Mrs. Olive Peabody.

Hjalmar Lindgren has returned from a visit with his sister Mrs. Alexander Halonen in Peabody, Mass., and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sadie Lundgren in Boston.

Earl Hopkins has been ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Mills and Mrs. Martha Kallach attended the performance of "The Wise Guy" Friday evening at Penobscot Valley Grange, Rockland.

Frank Delano of Milo was guest overnight Friday of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Sawyer.

Mrs. Ethel Griffin resumed her duties Friday as teacher at the Intermediate school.

Mrs. Emma Norwood was guest at a dinner held Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ada Lucas at Union. Five tables were in play.

Mrs. Flora Kallach has been spending several days in Thomaston with her mother, Mrs. Emma Seavey.

Mrs. Carrie Teague and Mrs. Lillian Simmons entertained the Umbrella Club Thursday at the home of the former.

Earl Hopkins has moved from Mt. Pleasant to Warren Highlands.

Rev. H. L. Kilborn of Thomaston officiated at funeral services Sunday for Dana Stewart at the Sawyer funeral parlors at Thomaston. The body was placed in the tomb and will be buried at Sterling. David Stewart of Lubec, father of the deceased, was present, also a sister from Kenduskeag, and two brothers from Boston.

Warren High will take its play "The Florist's Shop" to Bath to compete with Morse and Rockland High Schools in the State contest of school plays April 5. The event will take place in the Morse High School auditorium at 8 o'clock. The performance to be given under the auspices of the Woman's Club will be Wednesday at 8 o'clock in the Town hall. To round out the evening's entertainment the club is also presenting a one-act play "Meddlin'" with Herbert Thomas, Miss Ida Stevens, Miss Christine Starrett and Mrs. Alzada Simmons. There will be musical numbers. Tickets are on sale by club members. Proceeds will be used to pay the royalty on the High School play, the remainder to be given to the Woman's Club.

Variety in Benefit Program

The play, program and ice cream sale recently held at the Methodist Church under the direction of Llewellyn Oliver resulted most profitably, $24 being netted. The excellent program consisted of these attractions: Ensemble, Hawaiian trios, by Sevon, Tabbutt and Sevon; play, "Mrs. Mitcham is Dead"—cast: Mrs. Susan Wotton, Mrs. Adella Jameson, Mrs. Helen Simmons, Miss Marjorie Simmons, Miss Violet Vose, Miss Madeline Bradford, Miss Phyllis Felker, Guy Bessey, Arthur MacFarland, Kenneth Lewis and Albert Morton. One-minute play "Ignorance was Bliss"; piano solo, Geneva Simmons; reading, Clarice Jameson; one-minute play, "Revenge"; freak violin solo, Arthur MacFarland.

Play, "Around the Table"; song, Albert Morton, Kenneth Lewis, Marjorie Simmons, Violet Vose, Madeline Bradford, Phyllis Felker, with Llewellyn Oliver accompanist; reading, Mrs. Guy Bessey; banjo solo, Guy Bessey; reading, Mrs. Hattie Wotton; Spanish number, Llewellyn Oliver, Arthur MacFarland, and Phyllis Felker; play "School Days"; reading, Llewellyn Oliver. Mr. Oliver is appreciative of the courtesies and assistance given in the presentation of this benefit.

The Couriers-Gazette is now on sale at the Postoffice.—adv. 1317

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

IF YOU FEEL "USED UP"...

MILLIONS MORE PAID FOR CHOICE TOBACCOS

"Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic—than any other popular brand."

(Signed) R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO COMPANY Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Camel's Costlier Tobaccos never get on your Nerves!

GET A LIFT WITH A CAMEL!

"FIRE FIGHTING IS MY JOB," says Stanley Adams, fireman. "It's exciting, yes—but it's difficult, exhausting work, too. There's a lot of pleasure in a Camel, especially when you're tired out. When I feel 'all in,' I like a Camel to freshen me up. Camels give me new 'pep' and energy. Camels have more flavor—and yet they're mild, for I've found I can smoke them steadily and they never upset my nerves. I'm ready any time to 'walk a mile for a Camel!'" (Signed) STANLEY ADAMS

FROM THE BUSY COLLEGE WORLD comes this comment, John L. Filson, class of '36, says: "It's a great relief to smoke a Camel any time I'm tired and quickly experience a delightful return in energy. And boy! do Camels taste good!" (Signed) JOHN L. FILSON, '36

"RUNNING A HOME involves details that use up energy," says Mrs. Ross Kelley. "When things irritate me, I smoke a Camel. Soon I have renewed energy and can go on to the next task. Camels have such a mild flavor, I've become quite a steady smoker." (Signed) MRS. ROSS KELLEY ©1935 R. J. Reynolds Tob. Co.

"THE MOST ENJOYABLE WAY of easing strain is smoking Camels," says this newspaper man. "When I feel 'all in,' I can restore my energy with a Camel." (Signed) RAY BAKER

"CAMELS BRING BACK a feeling of vigor," says F. W. Evans, electrical engineer. "They're mild, but have a rich, appealing taste." (Signed) F. W. EVANS, E. E.

CAMEL'S ALL-STAR RADIO TREAT!
THE CAMEL CARAVAN
featuring Walter O'Keefe, Annette Hanshaw, and Glen Gray's Casa Loma Orchestra—over the WABC, Columbia coast-to-coast network.
TUESDAY 10:00 p.m. E.S.T. 9:00 p.m. E.S.T.
9:00 p.m. C.S.T. 8:00 p.m. C.S.T.
8:00 p.m. M.S.T. 7:00 p.m. M.S.T.
THURSDAY 10:00 p.m. E.S.T. 9:00 p.m. E.S.T.
9:00 p.m. C.S.T. 8:00 p.m. C.S.T.
8:00 p.m. M.S.T. 7:00 p.m. M.S.T.

FRIENDSHIP

A Congenial Assembly

At the Methodist vestry March 26 a supper was served to 40 officers, members and friends of the parish. Choir members were special guests, as was also Rev. A. I. Oliver. On the committee were Gertrude Oliver, Helen Simmons, Hattie Lawry, Ella Cook, Mrs. Lewis and Susan Wotton. Others who assisted were Nellie Davis, Adella Jameson and Mamie Wotton.

Following the supper and social hour, the company gathered in the auditorium where music was provided by the choir with Llewellyn Oliver, organist and Arthur MacFarland, violinist. An absorbing talk by the district superintendent received the keen attention of the group. He also presided at the business session during which favorable reports were given by the church officers. It was unanimously voted to have the pastor, Rev. Mr. Lewis, return to this parish for another year. The pleasant and profitable evening was a delight to all.

WEST ROCKPORT

The Couriers-Gazette is now on sale at the Postoffice.—adv. 1317

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

THE OLD BANGOR

Steamer Which Once Plied the Penobscot Removed As an "Eyesore"

Bids were recently asked for the floating of the wooden hulled sidewheel steamer City of Bangor, at one time the pride of the entire New England coastal region. She has been lying half submerged since Dec. 6, 1933, at the Federal street wharf, East Boston. Her removal is part of the move to free Boston harbor from the old hulks that have been eyesores for so long.

The Bangor was built for the Penobscot river route of the Eastern Steamship Company 42 years ago and at the time was proudly declared to be the last word in marine construction for speed, comfort and safety of the passengers. Soon after she was launched, she was so badly damaged by fire that she did not reach here until June 20, 1894, under command of Captain Otis Ingraham.

She took the place of the steamer Katahdin, which had done such faithful service on the route ever since she was built in 1863. Sturdy construction and consummate skill in handling had enabled the "Old Katy" to survive many a storm that would have proved disastrous to younger craft. The next year, however, the Katahdin went the way of all navigation; she was surveyed, pronounced unseaworthy, condemned and broken up.

Fred W. Pote of Belfast was steward of the Bangor and built up the cuisine and service to a remarkable extent. He introduced the custom of serving a dinner "from soup to nuts" for a dollar. It was the talk of the traveling public and attracted many passengers traveling to and from Boston. Mrs. Pote was matron.

The Bangor continued on the route until the advent of twin screw propellers and steel construction rendered the wooden side-wheelers obsolete, when she and her sister boats were replaced by the Camden and Belfast in 1907 and 1909 respectively. Since then she has been used as a spare boat on various routes of the corporation and during the World War was for a time on the river route again. At one time it was thought that she had been sold to run on the Hudson river, but the deal falling to go through, she was laid tied to the wharf until she sank, nearly two years ago.

There were many things to consider in this fascinating hobby of candid photography and it takes practice and patience if you want to get the fullest enjoyment out of it. Next week we will discuss personal and mechanical requirements for the candid enthusiasts.

JOHN VAN GUILDER.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

PLEASANT POINT

Miss Ruth Olney of Searsmont

spent last Tuesday as guest of Mrs. Evelyn Pitman.

Harrie C. Stanley who has been with his family this winter, left Sunday to join the yacht, Starling, of which he is steward, at City Island, N. Y.

Bert Thurston of Liberty was recently a visitor at L. N. Moody's and W. M. Newbert's.

KEEP YOUR HUSBAND'S LOVE

The best of men Tired of irritable, complaining wives. If you are weak, nervous and rundown you cannot do your share to make a happy home. Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Barbara Spears of Akron, Ohio, says, "I had no pep, and was in poor spirits. Your Vegetable Compound eliminated that awful tired feeling. My husband says I am my old self again."

Try Lydia E. Pinkham's VEGETABLE COMPOUND

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

APPLETON RIDGE

Miss Ruth Olney of Searsmont

spent last Tuesday as guest of Mrs. Evelyn Pitman.

Harrie C. Stanley who has been with his family this winter, left Sunday to join the yacht, Starling, of which he is steward, at City Island, N. Y.

Bert Thurston of Liberty was recently a visitor at L. N. Moody's and W. M. Newbert's.

KEEP YOUR HUSBAND'S LOVE

The best of men Tired of irritable, complaining wives. If you are weak, nervous and rundown you cannot do your share to make a happy home. Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Barbara Spears of Akron, Ohio, says, "I had no pep, and was in poor spirits. Your Vegetable Compound eliminated that awful tired feeling. My husband says I am my old self again."

Try Lydia E. Pinkham's VEGETABLE COMPOUND

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

JOB PRINTING

We Print Everything Printable!

STATIONERY SPECIAL

$1.25 a box

Your personal Stationery printed with your name and address in blue or black ink. Ladies' size, 6x7 inches, 150 sheets, 100 envelopes. Men's size, 6x9 inches, 150 sheets, 100 envelopes. Printed on high grade white bond paper in plain or laid finish. A good size for all kinds of everyday notes and letters.

THE COURIER-GAZETTE

Rockland, Maine

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

It is the unusual, "candid" picture that attracts attention.

THOMASTON

The funeral of Dana Stewart who was accidentally killed Thursday at Warren Highlands, was held Sunday at H. D. Sawyer's funeral home. Rev. H. S. Kilborn of the Baptist Church officiating. The remains were taken to Warren and placed in the vault.

Letters from Edward O.B. Burgess that he is soon to leave North Carolina on a homeward trip, but will make stops enroute.

The Williams-Brazier Post Auxiliary will hold a beano party Friday evening in the Legion rooms.

Mrs. Luther Clark, Mrs. Levi Jones, Mrs. Rosie Roundy, Mrs. Etta Benner and Mrs. Buker, a guest of Mrs. Clark, motored Sunday to Belfast where they visited with Mrs. Clark's father O. H. Gould.

Woodrow Verge of Lawrence, Mass., was at home over the weekend. He is driving a new car.

Harold Watts and daughter who have spent a few days with Mrs. Watts' sister, have returned to Waltham, Mass.

Mrs. George Ludwig is somewhat improved in health.

Miss Barbara Elliot returned Monday to Wellesley College, motoring through with her parents, Capt. and Mrs. A. J. Elliot.

Harold Dana and family spent the weekend with relatives in Auburn.

Henry Fales and Richard Feyler returned Sunday to the U. of M., after a vacation passed at home. They were joined at Camden by schoolmates.

The freight train on arrival here Monday had 23 freight cars and was drawn by three engines. It moved heavily.

First Lieutenant Chester H. Slader of Battery F went Sunday to Portland where he took examination for promotion to captain; second Lieut. William Russell Hoffses for first lieutenant; Private William Manning for second lieutenant. Philip Newbert is a captain in the Battery.

The Woman's Mission Circle will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. A. D. Davis.

Miss Angela Upham of Augusta passed the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. John Upham.

The Thursday Club was entertained recently by Mrs. Earl Risteen. Prizes were won by Mrs. Edward Dornan, Mrs. W. B. D. Gray, Mrs. Harold Dana and consolation by Mrs. Earl Woodcock.

Mrs. Albert Robinson has returned from a visit with her daughter Mrs. Arthur Johnson in Buckfield.

Maynard Linscott who has been at home for a short time, has resumed work on the main line of the Maine Central Railroad.

Mrs. Minnie Savage of Washington is visiting at the home of her son Leroy Clark.

Bernard Clark was host to several young friends recently in honor of his eighth birthday. Party games were played after which sandwiches, ices, lemonade and cakes were served by Mrs. Clark. Those present were Gwendolyn Jackson, Katherine O. Connell, Barbara Carney, Herbert Sprague, Philip Kallioch, Harold Simmons, Bernard and Richard Clark.

Mrs. Loring Orr entertained the West End Beano Club Tuesday evening at her home, Mrs. William Belasco winning the highest score. There were present Mrs. Albert Collamore, Mrs. William J. Brasler, Mrs. Alpheus Jones, Mrs. Clarence Robinson, Mrs. Bessie Rowell, Mrs. Ann Day, Mrs. Ada Chadwick, Mrs. Inez Libby, Mrs. Etta Benner, Mrs. Fannie Brown, and Miss Eliza Whitney.

Mrs. Luther Clark, Mrs. Eleanor Clark, and Mrs. Era Clark motored Friday to Bangor for the day, making the trip in Mrs. Clark's new car.

Miss Elizabeth Creighton who has been spending a vacation with relatives here has returned to school.

Capt. Arthur J. Elliot furnished this interesting item from his perpetual calendar: March 29, 1923, Georges River frozen to the Narrows, ten degrees below zero.

Miss Barbara Elliot has returned to Wellesley College to complete her course. A member of the faculty accompanied her.

William Cole of Prospect Harbor was overnight guest Thursday of Capt. and Mrs. James T. Fales.

Capt. Albert T. Gould of Boston spent Thursday night with Elmus Morse, and made arrangements to have his yacht taken from winter quarters at Pleasant Point and brought here to be made ready for servicing at Marblehead.

St. John's Church Notes

The Woman's Auxiliary meets tonight with Mrs. Joseph B. Crittenden. Members are requested to meet at the church at 7:15 sharp.

Fr. Franklin and members of the congregation leave Wednesday morning for Newcastle to attend the ordination to the Sacred Priesthood of Rev. Eric M. Robinson. Rev. Mr. Robinson for several years a Congregational minister in this State, recently concluded his priestly studies at Bishop Berkeley College of Theology, New Haven, Conn. The new priest will be assigned to St. Andrew's Church, Newcastle.

The service, usually held at 5 p. m. on Wednesdays, will be omitted tomorrow due to the absence of the pastor. At 6:30 p. m. Fr. Franklin leaves for Long Cove where he conducts the Lenten Question Box and devotions.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary will meet in the parish hall at 2:30 p. m. for special work. At 7 o'clock there will be the usual devotions and Question Box.

Girl Scout Notes

Pine Cone Troop of Girl Scouts observed its ninth anniversary by holding a party in the Methodist vestry Saturday evening, members to the number of 22 attending. A program consisting of the registration ceremony, awarding proficiency badges, games and music, was followed by Scout-made ices and cakes.

A birthday cake, containing 12 favors and decorated in white and green with candles and a miniature Girl Scout in correct uniform, was the work and gift of Mrs. Helen Hahn.

The awards were: Silver attendance stars to Pauline Burnham, Evelyn Hahn, Alice Henry, Jane Miller and Estelle Moore; artist badge, Pauline Burnham, Everol Elwell and Evelyn Hahn; housekeeper badge, Alice Henry; housekeeper, Marie Clark; Estelle Moore and Harriet Tillson; insect finder, Alice Henry and Estelle Moore; laundress, Pauline Burnham; Marie Clark, Everol Elwell, Evelyn Hahn, Alice Henry and Estelle Moore; scholarship, Pauline Burnham, Marie Clark, Everol Elwell, Evelyn Hahn, Estelle Moore and Harriet Tillson; treefinder, Alice Henry.

Two Scouts, Blanche Henry and Jane Miller, have been active in the troop since the Troop was organized in 1926 and are now serving as lieutenants. The Troop has been under the guidance of Mrs. Richard O. Elliot who organized it and has served as captain.

Junior Choir Will Entertain

An entertainment will be given by the Baptist Junior choir following the public supper Wednesday at 7:15. The mission play "The Song they Sang" will have these characters: Jane, Pauline Burnham; Sue, Maxine Chapman; Ono San, Japanese; Esther Achorn; Chundra Singh, Leona Frisbee; Ming, Chinese; Everol Elwell; Mohammedan girl, Eloise Law; Ceylonese, Florine Burnham; Burmese, Beverly Kirkpatrick; Korean, Glenice Lermond; Syrian, Maxine Foster.

An act from H.M.S. Pinafore: Capt. Corcoran, Richard Moore; sailors, Walter Chapman, Louis Johnson, Basil Day, Lawrence Chapman, Everett Condon; Buttercup, Bertha Condon; piano solos, Phyllis Kallioch, Glenice Lermond, Marie Jordan; violin solo, Virginia Foster; piano duet, Glenice Lermond, Everol Elwell; piano trio, Olive Rowell, Olive Leach, Elonia Woodcock; final chorus, "Grumbles," junior choir.

New P. T. A. Organized

A Parent-Teacher Association was organized Monday at the High School assembly hall this board of officers being elected: Edwin Lynch, president; Mrs. Blanche Lermond, vice president; Mrs. Lura Libby, secretary; Miss Rebecca Robertson, treasurer.

The second Thursday of each month has been chosen as the date for meetings, the next of which will be April 11 at 7:30. There will be a question box, and questions may be left at McDonald's drug store. Mrs. John Flanagan, who was president of the Rockland Association for six years, assisted in the formation of plans and arrangements, and Supt. Charles E. Lord of Camden delivered an interesting address.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilson of Gray were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Overlock, and on return were accompanied by Miss Marjorie Dailz enroute to Bridgton Academy.

Ross Wilson of Gray is spending a week's vacation with his aunt, Mrs. F. J. Overlock.

Mrs. Lee W. Walker went to Boston Monday for several days' stay.

The Methuen Club of Rockland will have dinner at the Knox Hotel Friday evening. This club has four members from this town.

Mrs. Charles H. Washburn is confined to the house by illness.

PARTING "SIAM TWINS"

Mother Nature with her great ability which enables her to create human life can make some pretty horrible mistakes when she allows that ability to go amiss. This happened in Russia recently. Twins were born of a normal father and mother, but instead of being normal they were joined together, and only one of them could be considered a human creature. This one was perfectly normal aside from its being attached to the other. The second one, however, was nothing more than a parasite. It had no head, no heart, and only a few independent functions of its own. At the age of one month the normal child was separated from its parasitic body by a Moscow surgeon, and latest reports are that she is expected to grow to normal maturity. — The Pathfinder.

VINALHAVEN

A surprise party was given Thursday evening at the home of Miss Nathalie Smith, to Miss Elizabeth Gray, who left Monday for Portland, where she will enter St. Barnabas Hospital, as a student nurse. Cards and beano featured the evening's entertainment. Lunch was served which included a decorated good luck cake made by Miss Cleo Drew, and bearing as ornament, a small doll, costumed as a nurse. Those present were Elizabeth Gray, Cleo Drew, Nathalie Smith, Mary Neilson, Pauline Hopkins, Elsie Holmquist, Phyllis Nelson, Mabel Erickson, Miona Loyde.

Mr. and Mrs. Daggett and friends of the Bay State Fishing Company were in town recently for a few days. They will return at an early date to operate the fish plant. Mr. and Mrs. Daggett will occupy the Greenlaw house on Chestnut street.

Mary Osgood is spending the vacation in Thomaston with relatives.

Frank Thomas of Cambridge, Mass., was in town over the weekend, called by illness of his brother Arthur Thomas.

Ruth Clark is passing the vacation in Rockland guest of relatives.

Ernest Vinal of Boston, who has been guest of his father, W. S. Vinal, returned Friday.

Maurice Teale returned Tuesday to Northeastern College.

Mr. and Mrs. William Chilles entertained at bridge and 63 Friday evening at their home. Lunch was served.

Friends of Miss Avis Johnson, soprano, were delighted with her singing, when heard March 25 in broadcast on WEEK.

W. A. Smith left Monday on a trip to Lewiston.

The Washington Club was entertained Saturday evening by Mrs. William Benner at her home.

Under the auspices of Union Church choir "The Old District School," a farce in two acts, will be presented in Union Church, April 12. The cast: Ezekiel Simpkins, teacher, O. V. Drew; Ben Butler, W. A. Smith; Brigham Young, Clinton Teale; Daniel Webster, David Duncan; John Jacob Astor, H. A. Townsend; Jesse James, Walter Ingerson; Cornelius Vanderbilt, Alfred Headley; Christopher Columbus, Harry Coombs; Buster Brown, Thomas Baum; Jim Blaine, G. Ernest Arey; Deacon Tidd, L. B. Dyer; P. T. Barnum, E. A. Smalley; Mrs. Quackenbush, Cora Peterson; Lydia Pinkham, Ruth Brown; Patience Puddifoot, Gladys Coombs; Pruna Jones, Dorothy Cobb; Tooty Frooty, Eleanor Conway; Eliza Ann Snodgrass, May Tolman; Mehtable Honswole, Flavilla Arey; Samantha Small, Evelyn Patrick.

Mrs. Daisy M. Smith

Daisy M. Smith, 51, wife of Alex. Smith, died Saturday at her home. She was born in this town, the daughter of the late Wellington and Matilda Stratton. Mrs. Smith was a member of Marguerite Chapter, O.E.S., Ocean Bound Rebekah Lodge, L. Carver Relief Corps, Union Church Circle and was active in church and Red Cross work.

Of genial disposition, she was a kind friend and neighbor as well as devoted wife and mother. Besides her husband she leaves three sons, Malcolm, Neil and George; a sister, Mrs. William Hunt of New York; a brother, George Stratton of Miami, Fla., and step-son James Smith of this town.

Funeral services will be held at the home today at 2 p. m. Rev. N. P. Atwood officiating. Interment will be in Ocean View cemetery.

Thomas Hill

Funeral services for Thomas Hill, who died March 28, aged 68 years, son of Joseph and Annie (Tibbets) Hill, were held Saturday at the W. Y. Fossett undertaking rooms. Deceased was a native of England, but had lived many years here, where he worked at his trade of paving cutting. He is survived by a daughter and sister in England. Rev. N. P. Atwood pastor of Union Church officiated at the funeral. Burial was in Cummings' cemetery.

Dr. R. H. Thompson will open his dental office in Vinalhaven, Monday, April 22—adv.

UNION

Mrs. Hattie Norwood is in ill health. Earl Boynton of Washington was a caller here Wednesday.

Amy Powell is visiting Miss Frances Marr at Razoville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Esancy who passed the winter at Burketville returned home Sunday.

Mrs. Etta Luce of Washington is guest of her son Ralph Luce.

Mrs. George Hills and Marguerite Robbins were visitors Wednesday at Merle Robbins'.

VINALHAVEN & ROCKLAND STR. CO. Service to Vinalhaven, North Haven, Island and Frenchboro Effective Sept. 15, 1934

(Subject to change without Notice)

P. M. 1:30 Lv. Rockland A. M. 8:15 Ar. 9:30 2:45 Lv. Vinalhaven 8:15 Ar. 9:30 3:30 Lv. North Haven 6:25 Ar. 7:45 4:40 Lv. Stonington 6:25 Ar. 7:45 6:00 Ar. Swans Island Lv. 5:30 Ar. 7:25

A CACKLING GOOSE

Won't Have To Wash the Dishes or Lay That Golden Egg

It was a cackling and not a cackling Goose that stepped off the boards at the Cascade Alleys last Wednesday night, for his teammates, the Flying Ganders, had just harpooned the Skippers, sticking 16 pins into their tough old hides and thereby winning the fourth and deciding match of a seven game series. The Goose was cackling because he had not laid his golden egg and the chances look good that he will never have to make good on the promise.

The Big Goose was the big noise in his team's attack on the sticks, his first string of 122 and his total of 308 being in a great measure responsible for their blowing up the Skippers, while "Link" Sanborn was close behind lending active aid as well as his chewing tobacco. Even Frank Grimes did better than usual and was very (2) sympathetic toward Postmaster Drew who seemed to have acquired the Grimes technique of bowling off spares, viz., one pin to a spare. Three times the Postmaster put the ball down the center of the alley and three times picked out a single pin, and three times his comrades held their breath for fear he was going to have an apoplectic stroke.

The Ganders had piled up a margin of 45 pins in the first two strings and it looked (and was) just too bad for the Skippers, but they gritted their teeth, took a reef in their belts and did their best. Their best fell a little short, however, for while they won the last string by 29 pins, due mostly to Captain Skip's string of 116, that left 16 pins good for the Ganders and made it a series apiece.

It seems nobody has any great desire to wash dishes so to get rid of all work and soapbuds plans are afoot for another attack on one of Captain Kent's famous stews Wednesday night when things will be talked over and the necessary alibis made, to establish which team is actually the better team. The Skippers have won a five game series and the Ganders a seven game series, so honors are even as far as figures go, but not as far as claims go. Probably no amount of bowling could ever even up the claims made by both sides, and they may just decide to let 'er go at best two out of three.

Following is the chronicle of ye scribe. Score:

Ganders—L. Arey 305, Grimes 260, Sanborn 279, Young 243, Littlefield 248, total 1335.

Skippers—Drew 278, Dyer 242, Skip Arey 294, Peterson 253, Hall 252, total 1319.

FRIENDSHIP

At the Baptist Church Wednesday evening a play will be given with a cast of ten, entitled "The Minister's New Car." There will also be readings and music, and home-made candy will be on sale. Admission will be charged.

Mrs. Gertrude Oliver was entertained Thursday at the home of Mrs. Blanche Wallace.

A large gathering of relatives and friends assembled Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wotton, and tendered them a surprise party. Refreshments and a program were features of the pleasant occasion, and the guests of honor received several attractive and useful gifts.

Austin Corbett of Belmont, Mass., was recent guest of Mr. and Mrs. Owen Simmons.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wilson of East Waldboro were visitors Sunday at Bessey.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Brown have returned to Bath, Mrs. Brown has been caring for her mother who is seriously ill.

MINTURN

Miss Lillian Sprague, a senior at Stonington High School, passed the recent vacation at her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Tinker have moved to Swan's Island, where they Want to save time and money?

Then let your Nation-Wide Grocer take care of your entire list of food requirements

APRIL 1-6

PUFFED WHEAT 2 Pkgs 17c

PUFFED RICE 2 Pkgs 25c

SILVER SLICE BRAND GRAPEFRUIT 2 20-oz cans 29c

CLICQUOT CLUB - PALE OR GOLDEN GINGER ALE 2 Bot's (Contents only) 25c

GOLDEN HARVEST JELLY PURE APPLE FLAVOR 2 16-oz Jars 29c

SPLENDID BRAND - FANCY CUT GREEN STRING BEANS 2 1-Lb Cans 23c

SPLENDID BRAND - FANCY PEAS TENDER SWEET 2 No. 2 Cans 35c

COLUMBIA BRAND TOMATO SOUP 3 Cans 20c

HERSHEY'S SALE

BAKING CHOCOLATE 2 1/2 Lb Cakes 27c

COCOA 2 1/2 Lb Cans 17c

LILY WHITE COD FISH 1 Lb Pkg 23c

PRUDENCE CORNED BEEF HASH 15c 23c

NATION-WIDE MACARONI or SPAGHETTI 3 8-oz Pkgs 25c

SHARP - WHOLE MILK CHEESE 1 Lb 25c

NORMAN-"R" FLOUR 5 Lb Bag 29c

STRONGHEART - PURE BEEF DOG FOOD 3 Cans 23c

OLD TRUSTY DOG FOOD FLAKES 2 Lb Bag 19c

GENUINE BRIAR PIPES NEW ASSORTMENTS Each 21c

WHITE HOUSE COFFEE ECONOMY PKG 1 POUND 27c

NATION-WIDE COFFEE NEW REGULAR PRICE POUND PKG 25c

Sunshine CREAM LUNCH 1-lb. pkg. 21c 2-lb. pkg. 38c

PEANUT WAFERS 1-lb. 27c just covered with peanuts

NATION-WIDE SERVICE GROCERS

In Everybody's Column

Advertisements in this column not to exceed three lines inserted once for 25 cents, three times for 50 cents. Additional lines five cents each for one time, 10 cents for three times. Six words make a line.

LOST AND FOUND

BULOVA wrist watch lost Tuesday. Finder please call at 20 Orange St. Reward. MRS. J. P. KELLEY. 39-41

SUM of money, a V and five ones lost at Fish and Game meeting Friday night or on way to it. Loss is especially severe to this individual. Finder please phone CLASSIFIED EDITOR at The Courier-Gazette and do a good turn. 40-42

NOTICE—The owner of Deposit Book No. A 729 issued by the Rockland Loan & Building Association has notified the Association that said Deposit Book has been lost, and that he requests a duplicate of the same. ROCKLAND LOAN & BUILDING ASSOCIATION By H. O. GURDY, Secretary, Rockland, Maine, March 23, 1935. 37-42

NOTICE is hereby given of the loss of deposit book numbered 36150 and the owner of said book asks for duplicate in accordance with the provision of the State Law. ROCKLAND SAVINGS BANK, BY EDWARD J. HELLIER, Treas. Rockland, Me. April 2, 1935. 40-7-46 recently bought a house.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Brown who lived in this community during the winter, have returned to Vinalhaven.

Mrs. Myrtle Staples was able to attend her classes Monday despite the ball she sustained a few days previous.

Friends regret the death of Abbie Rich which occurred March 25 at Stonington. "Aunt Abbie," as she was generally known, was a loved and respected member of this community for 30 years. Her kindly assistance in time of adversity or illness will long be remembered by residents here. She was a member of the local church and actively engaged in its work as long as health permitted. During the past year she had made her home with her daughter in Stonington. Several from here attended the funeral services. Interment was in Frenchboro.

ROCKPORT

Mrs. Frances Andrews, 82, widow of Capt. George Adelbert Andrews, died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Carrie Whittier in Bath, after a long illness. Funeral services will be held in that city Thursday at 11 a. m. The remains will be brought here where prayers will be held on arrival at Amesbury Hill cemetery about 1:30 p. m.

Congratulations are extended Mr. and Mrs. George Butler on the birth of son Royce Arnold at Knox Hospital March 31.

U. S. Branch SUN INS. OFFICE, LTD. New York, N. Y. ASSETS DEC. 31, 1934

Stocks and Bonds $5,547,658.83
Cash in Office and Bank $6,454,922.00
Agents' Balances 684,415.80
Interest and Rents 40,121.45
All other Assets 32,159.63

Gross Assets $6,974,420.63
Deduct items not admitted 485,769.76
Admitted $6,488,650.87

LIABILITIES DEC. 31, 1934
Net Unpaid Losses $861,451.00
Unearned Premiums 3,113,624.64
All other Liabilities 307,244.21
Statutory Deposit 400,000.00
Surplus over all Liabilities 2,006,331.02

LIABILITIES and Surplus $6,488,650.87
40-7-46

LOYAL PROTECTIVE INS. CO. Boston, Massachusetts ASSETS DEC. 31, 1934

Stocks and Bonds $1,207,253.32
Cash in Office and Bank $1,821.33
Interest and Rents 8,742.51
All other Assets 14,671.50

Gross Assets $1,414,488.85
Items not admitted 160,237.86
Admitted $1,254,250.99

LIABILITIES, DEC. 31, 1934
Net Unpaid Losses $280,308.63
Unearned Premiums 146,508.00
All other Liabilities 234,828.08
Cash Capital 1,000,000.00
Surplus over all Liabilities 392,585.20

LIABILITIES and Surplus $1,254,250.99
37-4-40

HOME FIRE & MARINE INSURANCE CO. OF CALIFORNIA San Francisco, California ASSETS DEC. 31, 1934

Real Estate $14,601.66
Mortgage Loans 282,636.75
Collateral Loans 9,000.00
Stocks and Bonds 4,542.52
Cash in Office and Bank 255,315.78
Agents' Balances 385,412.38
Interest and Rents 174,182.12
All other Assets 5,249.53

Gross Assets $5,925,601.21
Deduct items not admitted 410,805.21
Admitted $5,514,795.00

LIABILITIES DEC. 31, 1934
Net Unpaid Losses $319,533.82
Unearned Premiums 2,051,335.17
All other Liabilities 174,182.12
Cash Capital 1,000,000.00
Surplus over all Liabilities 1,976,723.89

Total Liabilities and Surplus $5,514,795.00
37-4-43

BERKSHIRE MUTUAL FIRE INS. CO. Pittsfield, Massachusetts ASSETS DEC. 31, 1934

Real Estate $65,000.00
Mortgage Loans 18,720.00
Collateral Loans 18,000.00
Stocks and Bonds 586,453.84
Cash in Office and Bank 128,842.61
Agents' Balances 76,472.57
Interest and Rents 5,249.53
All other Assets 5,249.53

Gross Assets $900,309.99
Deduct items not admitted 151,104.14
Admitted 758,205.75

LIABILITIES DEC. 31, 1934
Net Unpaid Losses $29,056.34
Unearned Premiums 524,213.17
All other Liabilities 15,468.43
Cash Capital 1,000,000.00
Surplus over all Liabilities 189,457.94

Total Liabilities and Surplus $758,205.75
37-4-43

COMMERCIAL INSURANCE CO. Glens Falls, N. Y. ASSETS DEC. 31, 1934

Mortgage Loans $291,427.40
Collateral Loans 28,451.49
Stocks and Bonds 2,778,149.71
Cash in Office and Bank 105,345.93
Agents' Balances 136,692.63
Interest and Rents 8,332.17
All other Assets 22,540.17

Gross Assets $3,320,939.50
Deduct items not admitted 21,668.17
Admitted $3,299,271.33

LIABILITIES DEC. 31, 1934
Net Unpaid Losses $141,052.00
Unearned Premiums 1,080,055.00
All other Liabilities 67,420.93
Cash Capital 1,000,000.00
Surplus over all Liabilities 1,010,742.80

Total Liabilities and Surplus $3,299,271.33
37-4-43

WANTED

SMALL HOUSE wanted by three adults. Cheap rent, refined surroundings in country town. Write FENN, care The Courier-Gazette. 38-43

STEADY WORK—Good Pay. Reliable man wanted to call on farmers in Knox County. No experience or capital needed. Write today. MCNESS CO. Dept. M. Preppert, Illinois. 40-11

GRADUATE nurse desires work, attendant or companion for elderly person. MRS. E. R. DUPRE, 147 Camden St. 40-42

TRUCKING—All light trucking promptly done, reasonable price, reliable service. Go anywhere. WILBUR STRONG, JR. Tel. Thomaston

SOCIETY

In addition to personal notes regarding departures and arrivals, this department especially desires information of social happenings, parties, musicals, etc. Notes sent by mail or telephone will be gladly received.

TELEPHONE 770 or 794

L. E. Tripp, who has been at home from Providence on a visit with relatives in Rockland, Thomaston and Rockport, returned Sunday.

The Woman's Association of the Congregational Church meets Wednesday at 5 in the vestry.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Freeman had as dinner guests Sunday Miss Esther Murray and John Egan of Waterville.

Browne Club met Friday evening at the home of Miss Edna Gregory, the time being devoted to White Cross work. There were 14 members present. There will be a special meeting Friday evening at the Home for Aged Women, with Mrs. Alice Karl in charge of an entertainment program.

Mrs. C. F. Simmons who has been with Mrs. E. S. Bird for the winter has returned to her home at 21 Tolbot avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Ingraham who have been in Boston for a few days combining business with attendance on the Flower Show were in Portland over Saturday night, and were present at the 13-Class meeting in that city Sunday morning, returning home with others of the Rockland delegation.

Miss Gwendolyn MacDonald who is to have 10 days' vacation from her studies at Wheaton (Ill.) College, goes Friday to be with her sister who is a student at the Eastern Theological Seminary in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Charles Schofield entertained W.I.N. Club at cards and late lunch Thursday evening, the occasion observing the birthday of Mrs. Carl E. Freeman. A birthday cake appropriately decorated was featured. Honors went to Mrs. Gardner French, Mrs. Ralph Glendenning, and Mrs. Herbert Curtis.

Miss Carrie Sheriffs who has been in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., for the winter leaves today for Middletown, Conn., where she will be with William Fisher's family until her return to Rockland in the early summer.

Mrs. George Avery returned Sunday from Boston where she attended the Flower Show. She was guest of Mrs. F. J. Baker, Back Bay.

Mrs. George W. Smith who has been with her sister, Mrs. Arthur L. Orne for several weeks, has returned to her home, Summer and Lincoln streets.

Elmer Larrabee returned to Belfast Sunday after a week's visit with his niece, Mrs. Edward Gonia.

Miss Rose Adams and brother, George Adams, are having the annual spring vacation from their teaching duties at the Wassookeag School, Dexter, and will be at home until Sunday.

Miss Grace Knowlton is visiting in Sharon, Mass., for several weeks.

Miss Alice Sonntag and Miss Helen Matson have returned to Miss Wheelock's School of Kindergarten Training, Boston, after the spring recess.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Knox Hospital meets Tuesday at 2 at the Bok Home for Nurses. Tea will be served after sewing.

Mrs. Adelaide Morrill who has been at The Thorndike since returning from Wilkes-Barre, Pa., where she spent the winter, has opened her home at Rockport for the summer season.

Mrs. George L. St. Clair was hostess to Thimble Club last evening.

Mr. and Mr. Parker Worrey and son Parker spent the weekend with relatives in Bath.

Arlene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fickett, celebrated her ninth birthday on Saturday afternoon by entertaining several young friends at her home on Granite street. Games were played, and the guests presented an impromptu musical program that displayed to advantage the marked talent in the group. The refreshment table was gay in a color scheme of yellow, and each guest was presented with a cap and other dainty favors. A birthday cake occupied a prominent place. Arlene, who received many gifts, had as guests Louise Veazie, Martha Leeman, Barbara Cunningham, Nathalie Spear, Christine Newhall, Esther Munroe, Mary Ludwick and Ruth Emery.

Gold Seal Congoleum, a nation's standard of floor coverings—9x12 only $4.95 and $5.95 at Stonington Furniture Co., 313-325 Main street, Rockland.

Alexander Witherspoon of North Haven has been a visitor in Camden and Rockland for a few days.

Donald Witherspoon, Gerald Beverage, and Jasper Beverage of North Haven, students at U. of M., returning to Orono after spending a vacation at their home, visited friends in this city.

Mrs. Alice Sampson and Mrs. Leigh Witherspoon of North Haven were in the city yesterday calling on friends.

Mrs. Nettie Witherspoon of North Haven was a weekend guest of her niece, Mrs. Faustina Crockett, Camden street.

John Stahl and daughter Jeannette of Camden were visitors Saturday at Mrs. Fausina Crockett's, Camden street.

Tonlan Circle has a picnic supper Wednesday at 6:30 in the Universalist vestry for members only, to be followed by the class meeting.

Mrs. Howard Waltz and son Fred motored to Damariscotta Sunday.

David Mann of Owls' Head has entered a Portland hospital for surgical treatment.

Miss Daphne Winslow who has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. Grace Rollins, Broadway, returns to Fryeburg Academy this morning to resume teaching.

The Freeman S. Youngs who have been spending the winter in Sarasota, Fla., left for home the last of the week. Mr. Young has combined business with pleasure by working for a real estate firm while enjoying the salubrious Sarasota.

Mrs. H. I. Hix and Miss Carrie Brainerd are homeward bound from St. Petersburg, Fla., where they spent the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Wotton are home from Florida, delighted with their winter's sojourn, but finding the chill of our early spring preferable to the temperature of 90 in the shade, which they left.

Lawrence Crane is home from Williams College for the Easter recess.

Miss Mabel Spring arrived Sunday from Fall River, called by the sudden death of her cousin, Charles R. Richardson. She is the guest of the Misses Erskine, Beech street, and plans to return to Fall River tonight.

Mrs. A. B. Huntley returned from Boston Friday, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Margaret O'Brien, who is to make her home here.

T Club met Friday evening with Mrs. Veda Brown in Rockport.

Stanley Conway of Vinahaven has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. Merle Hutchinson.

The directors of the Home for Aged Women meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. F. W. Fuller.

Opportunity Class meets Thursday at the First Baptist parlors. There will be a special program, and special guests.

Ralph Beverage who has been guest of Mayor and Mrs. L. A. Thurston for several days returned to North Haven Monday.

Miss Lillian Roberts returned to Boston Sunday after visiting her father for two weeks.

Mrs. Oliver Ingraham and Mrs. Osgood Gilbert entertained Friday evening at the former's home, complimenting Miss Lillian Roberts of Boston. In cards honors were won by Mrs. George Clark and Miss Adelaide E. Cross, with a guest prize going to Miss Roberts.

John H. McLoon and Marcus Chandler of Camden motored to Portland for the weekend joining their wives, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. McDougall. Mrs. Chandler attended the annual meeting Saturday of the Western Maine Wellesley Club at the Purpooduck Club.

Mary Stockbridge and Anita Gatti were home from Gorham Normal School for the weekend.

Mrs. A. W. Gregory will be chairman of circle supper at the Methodist vestry Wednesday.

The final card party in the series at the Elks Home took place Friday night with Richard Reed bearing off the large basket of assorted groceries awarded as the capital prize. This final party was marked by the same success that has fallen to the others. Awards went to Mrs. John Thompson, Miss Anne Povich, Mrs. Fred Achorn, C. S. Roberts, Mrs. Kate Hall, Mrs. Olive Sylvester, Mrs. M. S. Dick, Clarence Upham, Mrs. E. C. Boody, Mrs. Joseph Coughlin, Joseph Soffayer, Sumner Perry, Mrs. Clara Curtis.

HINDS-SHAW

Claude Everett Hinds and Miss Wynne Alice Shaw of East Orange, N. J., were married at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the Fourth Presbyterian Church, West End avenue, New York city. The officiating clergyman was Dr. Benjamin Farber of that church.

The bride's gown was a blue crepe afternoon frock with matching wide brimmed blue felt hat, and wore a corsage of white roses. She was given in marriage by her father and was attended by Miss Ellen Leinonen of East Orange as maid of honor. Miss Leinonen wore a navy blue crepe afternoon frock with navy blue hat, and wore a corsage of spring flowers. John A. Boman, 4th, of East Orange was groomsmen.

The ceremony was followed by a small reception, for the families only, at Hotel Windmere, New York city. The couple will be "at home" at 376 Park avenue, East Orange after April 15.

The bride, who is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Eaton Shaw of 179 North Orator Parkway, East Orange, (former residents of Rockland) graduated from East Orange High School and New York School of Fine and Applied Arts. She studied painting abroad with Henry Snell. The bridegroom graduated from Cornell University, class of 1928, and is associated with the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. New York.

Miss Freda Searles goes to Boston today to attend the Wednesday matinee of the opera, "Lohengrin," with Kirsten Flagstad and Lauritz Melchior singing the roles of Elsa and Lohengrin. Miss Searles will have as her guest Mrs. Gladys S. Morgan.

Mrs. Dorothy B. Lawrence who has been spending an early spring vacation with her mother, Mrs. G. H. Blethen, returned Monday to Aurora, N. Y., where she is dietitian at Wells College. She was accompanied as far as Portland by Mrs. William Tait.

Mrs. Elizabeth Richards and sister, Mrs. Jennie Wright have returned from Fall River, where they spent the winter.

Mrs. George Blaney, Mrs. G. A. Lawrence, and Miss Helen D. Perry motored to Portland Saturday to attend the annual meeting of the Western Maine Wellesley Club at the Purpooduck Club.

Mrs. C. F. Snow will be chairman of circle supper at the Congregational vestry Wednesday, her helpers being Mrs. Ralph L. Smith, Mrs. Eugene Lamb, Mrs. Rhama Philbrick, Mrs. C. F. Joy, Mrs. A. H. Jones, Mrs. N. F. Cobb, Mrs. W. W. Spear, Mrs. C. D. North, Mrs. C. W. Proctor, Mrs. Milton M. Griffin, Mrs. Harriette Levensaler, and Miss Caroline Littlefield. This will be the last regular circle supper of the season.

IN "THE RIVALS"

Miss Annie Russell Reappears On the Stage At Rollins College, Fla.

One of the most interesting news features which appeared in the columns of The Courier-Gazette last summer was an extended interview with Miss Annie Russell, who in former days was one of America's best known actresses, and who had the distinction of being the best dressed woman on the stage.

At her beautiful summer home on Russell avenue, Rockport, where Miss Russell so graciously received the reporter she recalled the day when she played children's roles at seven and then reviewed modestly some of the outstanding incidents of the long theatrical career during which she starred so brilliantly.

She had retired while the World War was at its height—not that the public was worshipping a new star but for the very stern reason that the government was husbanding its resources, and that rolling stock used in the transportation of theatrical paraphernalia was urgently used in the art of making the world safe for democracy.

But Miss Russell had no thought of permanent retirement; the lure of the footlights still held her firmly in its grip. She told the reporter in that interview of last summer that she was going to make her re-appearance on the stage this year in that famous drama "The Rivals"—not this time in the feminine lead, but in that delightful and appealing role of "Mrs. Malaprop."

The interview published by this paper also told the story of the delightful friendship which had sprung up between Miss Russell and Mrs. Louise Curtis Bok, and of the latter's presentation to Rollins College at Winter Park, Fla., of a theatre costing $135,000 and known as "The Annie Russell Theatre."

And now there comes to the editorial desk a copy of the Orlando (Fla.) Sentinel, in the society columns of which contained an article headed: "Miss Russell is Marvelous in Play." It reads:

"Triumphant acclaim greeted Miss Russell Thursday and Friday nights in her theatre at Rollins College when she led her strong supporting company through the polished brilliance of Sheridan's comedy 'The Rivals.' Every seat in the theatre was taken, standees stood in the side aisles and in the foyer back of the logs.

"Time and again the audience broke in upon the performance to applaud the distinguished playing of Miss Russell. Not before has the college theatre seen such charm of manner, such finish, such elegance of repose as was brought to it last night by this fine and great lady, one of the leading actresses of our day.

"To witness the royal manner Miss Russell has at her command is to realize once again that something profoundly significant has departed from the modern theatre—graciousness, intelligence, magnetism. But all these three—inalienable attributes of the great actress—were again enthroned last night, together with a low beautiful voice whose tones filled the theatre like the perfectly controlled tones of some musical instrument.

"If only the young actors and actresses about Miss Russell could take to themselves something of her beautiful quality of voice, diction and enunciation."

Among those who received a special invitation to this notable performance were Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Fuller, who are nearing the close of their winter sojourn in Miami, and who with extreme regret who were obliged to forego that pleasure.

Methebesec Club will hold its annual banquet and meeting Friday at the Knox House, Thomaston, at 6:30. Many delightful features are being planned, including music, and a contest, "A Past Presidents Parade" arranged by Mrs. Angelica Glover will also be presented. Officers will be elected and other business attendant upon an annual meeting transacted. Members are asked to take scrap-books and to be prepared to consider a study subject for voting.

Mrs. George E. Blaney goes to Boston tomorrow to attend the opera "Lakme" Wednesday night, with Lily Pons singing the title role. Mrs. Blaney will visit relatives in Brookline for the remainder of the week.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Peter's Church meets in the Undercroft Thursday at 2.

J. Murray Forbes of Boston, one of Dark Harbor's most prominent summer residents, is seriously ill at his home on Commonwealth avenue. Mr. Forbes who will be 90 years old next June has missed few seasons at Dark Harbor since first taking up his summer residence there almost a half century ago. He and his daughter, Miss Dorothy Forbes, have done much for the betterment of the town by their numerous philanthropies among its people.

The Matinee Club was entertained Friday afternoon by Miss Ruth Crouse. Prizes in bagatelle were won

LEACH'S

NEW SPRING HATS

In all the wanted colors. Sailors, Bretons, off the face and wide brims. Individuality is the keynote as you will see, in this collection. Prices ranging from—

$1.29 to $3.98

VESPER A. LEACH
WOMEN'S & CHILDREN'S WEARING APPAREL
366 Main St., Rockland

by Mrs. Roger Jameson and Mrs. J. E. Passon.

Your Choice

OCCASIONAL FURNITURE

$4.95 EACH

Every home needs small occasional furniture to make each nook and corner attractive and cozy.

Your choice of these well made solid Birch pieces. Each one hand-rubbed to a rich Maple, Mahogany or Walnut Finish

No. 620 Pier Cabinet	No. 20 Coffee Table	No. 133 Radio Magazine Table	No. 136 Butterfly Table
No. 132 Butterfly Table	No. 116 Two Top Drum Table	No. 117 Drum Table	No. 113 Book Trough
No. 112 End Table	No. 131 Magazine Rack End Table	No. 114 Book Rack End Table	No. 118 Drop Leaf Table
No. 135 Chairside Table	No. 124 End Table with Drawer	No. 502 Night Table	No. 110 Lamp or Radio Table

MIRACLE DAYS SALES SPECIALS

Our Great Sale Continues With Hundreds of Notable Values—MATTRESSES, $4.95; Congoleums and Felt Base Floor Coverings, 9x12, $4.95 and $5.95; Armstrong Yard Floor Covering, 35c yard. Special group price of $59 on Living Room, Dining Room and Bed Room Suites.

LIBERAL ALLOWANCE ON OLD PIECES

Stonington Furniture Company

313-325 MAIN STREET

TEL. 980

ROCKLAND, MAINE

WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY

More Amazing than the Royle Dazzle World He Created!

... is the thrill-packed story that he actually lived!

JOSEPH M. SCHENCK presents

WALLACE BEERY

THE MIGHTY BARNUM

WITH ADOLPHE MENJOU
VIRGINIA BRUCE-ROCHELLE HUDSON
JANET BEECHER

"MISSISSIPPI" with BING CROSBY

NOW PLAYING

STRAND

SHOWS 2.00, 6.30, 8.30 Cont. Sat. 2.00 to 10.30

Phone 892

Washington Digest

National Topics Interpreted
by William Bruckart
National Press Building Washington, D. C.

Richberg's Job

Washington—The President has placed Donald R. Richberg, his closest adviser, in the job as head of the National Recovery administration. Mr. Richberg will be chairman of the national industrial recovery board which has now been enlarged to the number of seven, and it is proposed that this group, divided between labor and capital representation, will guide the policies and programs as well as the enforcement of NRA.

It may be that Mr. Richberg's appointment should be given only passing notice. Political appointments in Washington are many and the addition of one more normally would not attract attention. It appears, however, that in this particular instance considerable significance should be attached to the appointment. It will have repercussions in more ways than one.

This brings us to the question of the future NRA. As we all know NRA legislation in the house and senate is encountering rough sailing. There are so many different ideas being put forward about the principle of NRA that thus far it has been exceedingly difficult to reconcile them. Since the present national industrial recovery act expires by limitation of law on June 16, congress faces the necessity of enactment of new legislation or allowing the present law to die and the codes under it to fall apart.

Selection of Mr. Richberg on the basis of these facts then would seem to indicate that Mr. Roosevelt had picked his best soldier to fight the battle; that Mr. Richberg, being eyes and ears for Mr. Roosevelt, would be the individual to guide the President in choice of policy and that his most trusted adviser would be the man to put forward details of the proposed NRA extension legislation. The undercurrent of gossip around Washington, however, indicates something else.

In the first instance, Mr. Richberg is in bad with organized labor, and he has shown no disposition lately to make peace despite the fact that he was for years the representative of railway labor unions.

It will not be forgotten, either, that such valiant campaigners as Senator Carter Glass and Senator Borah, not to mention the alleged progressive, Senator Nye, are waiting for the NRA legislation in the senate. Mr. Richberg's hide will look to them the same as any other hide. It is just possible, therefore, as some observers have suggested, that Mr. Richberg may have been put out as a lamb on the sacrificial altar.

Indeed, color is lent to the supposition by the fact that Mr. Roosevelt has taken little direct interest in promoting legislation extending the life of NRA. Thus far he has said that he desires to have the extension granted, but he has not turned on the steam as he is equipped to do, and as he has done for bills that were personal hobbies with him. It is made to appear, therefore, that perhaps there will be a disintegration of NRA as such and that the functions desired by the administration to be retained will be parceled out, some to the federal trade commission, some to the Labor department, and others of lesser consequence scattered elsewhere.

Credit for Home Owners

While we are discussing legislation, it may be well to consider what is being done about the program of extending credit to home owners in cities and towns through the machinery of the home loan board. The house has passed a bill which will increase by two billion, eight hundred million dollars the amount of funds available for loans of this type by the Home Owners' Loan corporation. This sum was approximately a billion dollars more than the home loan board thought was necessary, but the sight or thought of so much money started the members of the house on something like a riot, so they made ample funds available.

From reports filtering through to Washington, I think there can be no question but what the home loan system has been of help in thousands of cases. Undoubtedly availability of government money in this matter has saved unnumbered home owners from loss of their property where short-sighted mortgage holders have insisted upon undue curtailment or absolute repayment of the borrowed money. Extension of the system probably has resulted also in reduction of general interest rates by private lenders of capital. If they wanted their money to work at all, they had to meet the government competition. Whether the principle of government loans is sound in normal times is another horse. Time alone can tell. The activity of congress, especially in the house, indicates that there is a demand of some kind or other for these loans in preference to private capital and that necessarily must be considered as an influential factor. As the legislation increasing the lending power of the Home Owners Loan corporation has progressed, however, I have taken occasion to inquire into operations of the corporation which is wholly government owned. From all I can learn it stands out as the finest illustration of what politicians can do in the way of building political machines that I have seen in a score of years in the National Capital.

It will be remembered that upon creation of the board former Representative "Seaboard Bill" Stephenson of South Carolina was named chairman. Mr. Stephenson, being more honest about politics than many others, announced unequivocally that appointments were going to be made on a political basis. He created quite a furore and finally found himself side-tracked.

For a time we here in Washington have heard little about politics in the home loan system. It has developed, however, that politics was not dead, but sleeping.

Peculiar Doings?

The loan corporation in carrying out the idea or policy of decentralization did some very peculiar things, according to authenticated reports. Actually, I am told, some young men without previous practical experience or training were supplied with copies of the home loan act, given a ticket and ordered to the hinterland to open designated regional offices. Shortly thereafter out of the thousands of employees in the home office of the loan corporation individuals were called into the office of the directing heads and were ordered to go to one or the other of the newly opened establishments. They were told at the same time that their salaries would be reduced. In addition, I am reliably informed, hundreds of them have suffered further salary reductions since they have been on their new jobs.

While all of this has been going on, the corporation set up a board of four members in the headquarters before which remaining employees in the Washington office have been called for examination. This board was announced as for the purpose of determining which of the employees should be retained. They wanted to be fair about it and wanted to keep on the payroll such of the employees as were unable to get along without the jobs they were holding. It seems, however, that that board has become an inquisitorial body absolutely without precedent in the character of examination to which it subjects the employees. The result is that few, if any, of the employees of the loan corporation entertain any belief that they can stay on their jobs with any feeling of safety.

For example, one man's experience is quoted. He was asked whether he had money in the bank and he had none. He was asked whether any of his people were on the relief rolls, and they were not. Numerous other questions, such as the rate he paid for his board and room and the cost of his laundry were put to him. He then was asked if he carried life insurance, and his answer that he did apparently was wrong. Although he was not told directly, the inference of questions put to him was that he could live two months if he cashed in his life insurance policy. At any rate he was dismissed.

Courage Needed

Senator Gore of Oklahoma placed in the Congressional Record recently a telegram he had received and his reply to it that illustrates better than any recent incident how much courage is required by a national legislator to withstand the pressure from home. The occasion was consideration in the senate of the public works bill. The telegram received by the senator was signed by Joe A. Brown, the mayor of Hartshorn, Okla., and C. B. Lind, say, mayor of Halesville, Okla. It follows:

"Several thousand Pittsburg county unemployed people assembled in convention demand you support President Roosevelt's four billion dollar relief measure. If you vote against measure, sentiment is, you stay out of this county next senatorial race."

The following is the senator's reply:

"This will acknowledge your exceedingly diplomatic and hospitable telegram. It shows how the dole spoils the soul. Your telegram intimates that your votes are for sale. Much as I value votes I am not in the market. I cannot consent to buy votes with the people's money. I owe a debt to the taxpayer as well as the unemployed. I shall discharge both. None but the bully resorts to threats and none but the coward yields to them."

© Western Newspaper Union.

ON "LIGHT OPERA"

Interesting Program by the Rubinstein Club—Joan Berman Makes a Hit

Rubinstein Club meeting Friday afternoon at the Universalist vestry opened with a silent tribute for the late William Rogers Chapman, many members of the club having sung under his baton at the Maine Music Festivals. Mr. Chapman's picture was prominently displayed. The program arranged by Mrs. Helen Wentworth on "Light Opera" was presented by Mrs. Blanche Morton in Mrs. Wentworth's absence. Brief descriptions of various prominent light operas were given, and illustrative numbers were:

Chorus—Love Is Like a Firefly
When a Maid Comes Knocking
Club Chorus
Mrs. Faith Berry, director
Piano—March of the Toys from "Babes in Toyland" Victor Herbert
Miss Nathalie Jones
Soprano—Villia from "The Merry Widow"
Mrs. Esther Berman
Contralto—Im Called Little Buttercup from "H. M. S. Pinafore"
Mrs. Kathleen Marston
Musical reading—Three Trees from "The Spring Maid"
Joan Berman
presented by her teacher, Adelyn Bushnell

Soprano—Sympathy from the "Firefly"
Mrs. Evelyn White
Soprano—Dream I Dwell in Marble Halls from "The Bohemian Girl"
Belle
Soprano—Little Man, You've Had a Busy Day
Mrs. Ruth Hoch
(substituting for Mrs. Nettie Frost)
Soprano—Serenade from "Student Prince"
Mrs. Hazel Eaton of Waldoboro
Chorus—Good-night from "Eminie"
Club Chorus Jakobowski

Accompanists were Mrs. Nettie Averill, Mrs. Berry and Mrs. Edna Browne.

Little Joan was much enjoyed, her work displaying much promise. She responded to the applause by presenting a jingle expressing the hope that some day, she, too, might be a member of the Rubinstein Club.

Mrs. Coppington, president, announced the banquet at 6 on Friday, April 12, following the annual meeting at 4. Tickets for the banquet may be procured from Mrs. Grace Crie, chairman, at 50 cents each, and patronesses of the banquet, whether members of the club or not, may remain for the evening program; otherwise, non-members will be charged the usual 25 cents fee for the program. At the annual meeting officers will be elected and other business transacted.

Mrs. Dora Bird, director of the Rockland—Augusta District, announced her committee chairmen, as follows:

Extension, Mrs. Kathleen Marston; course of study, Miss Alcada Hall of Thomaston; public school music, Mrs. Esther Rogers; college music, Mrs. Edith Blaney; philanthropy and education, Mrs. Faith G. Berry; library extension, Mrs. Gladys Morgan, assisted by Miss Hazel Marshall; National music week, Mrs. Doris Scarlott; young artists and student contests, Mrs. Ruth George of Thomaston; junior magazine, Miss Margaret Stahl; radio publicity, Mrs. Nettie Frost; ways and means, Mrs. Emily Stevens; music in religious education, Mrs. Ruth Ellingwood; junior extension, Mrs. Ruth E. Sanborn; junior contest, Miss Edna Gregory; music in industry, Mrs. Antonio Landry of Augusta; choral music, Mrs. Zilphaetta Potter of Augusta; National music magazine extension, Mrs. Charles Brown of Augusta; who is also chairman of endowment and special memberships.

COLBY COLLEGE

(By J. Warren Bishop)

Sixteen New England secondary schools have announced that they intend to send representatives to the Montgomery Interscholastic Prize Speaking Contest, to be held at Colby May 3. Applications should be sent in by April 3. Last year 95 speakers competed, representing 57 schools. Job H. Montgomery of Camden, sponsor of the contest will award the prizes.

A slight attack of the measles prevented Ruth C. Keller from leaving for her home in Camden as early as she had planned.

A Wendell Anderson, a summer resident of North Haven, was awarded freshman numerals for his work this winter in the freshman track team.

ALWAYS DEAD TIRED?

How sad! Sallow complexion, coated tongue, poor appetite, bad breath, pimply skin and always tired. What's wrong? Chances are you're poisoned by clogged bowels or constipation. Take this famous prescription used constantly in place of calomel by men and women for 20 years—Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets. They are harmless yet very effective. A compound of vegetable ingredients. They act easily upon the bowels, help free the system of poison caused by faulty elimination. Rosy cheeks, clear eyes and youthful energy make a success of life. Take one or two Dr. Edwards Olive Tablets at bedtime for a week. Know them by their olive color. 15c, 30c and 60c. All druggists.

Tenants Harbor Days

The following may be of interest to the members of Eureka Lodge F.A.M. and members of the families of Brothers James H. Davis and George K. Davis. It goes back to 1877 when the schooner Fred Fish was lost on the Shoals and Brother George K. Davis died from exposure on the beach at Nantucket, Mass. In 1877 Eureka Lodge No. 5 extended a vote of thanks to Union Lodge Nantucket, Mass., for its kindness shown Eureka members and especially to caring for body of Brother Davis.

As Massachusetts has not numbered its lodges, since 1792, I was curious to know why Union Lodge should use a number, so I wrote the secretary of that lodge stating the facts as above and asking if their records showed them, and received this reply:

"We have your letter of Dec. 10, but delayed, answering it until such time as we could look up our records concerning Brother Davis. We find that this lodge took charge of the body and held a service before it was sent to Maine, and a brother was delegated to accompany it. We also find that the following January Eureka Lodge sent a letter of appreciation to Union Lodge. Regarding the use of the number five, while numbers were officially dropped in 1792, Union Lodge apparently used the numbers for several years after, as many of our old jewels and diplomas carry it. Its use in 1877 was very likely due to the lack of knowledge of the secretary that Massachusetts lodge did not have numbers. Union Lodge was chartered by St. John's Grand Lodge in 1771 and held its charter through the troublesome times of 1830-40. While only an annual meeting was held in some of these years, the lodge remained intact and we now have the unbroken set of records covering 163 years." Signed, William C. Brook, secretary.

The secretary very kindly enclosed a notice of the March meeting of 1935, the 1782 regular communication. It has listed 73 past masters, William Brook, 1771; William C. Brook, 1922. Organization for 1935: Right Worthy Alfred E. Smith, chaplain. If any members of the fraternity who happen to be in Boston will step into the Masonic Temple No. 51 on Boylston street, and go to the fraternity parlor on the second floor, which is also a Masonic museum, and ask Brother Watts, the custodian reared in the Masonic Lodge in Ellsworth, Maine, more than 50 years ago, he will show you a diploma given to a member of Union Lodge, 1775. I think also many other ancient diplomas, jewels, etc.

Somerville, Mass., March 23

A "SAVAGE" OBJECTOR To Compulsory Insurance Bill—How One Writer Figures It

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—It is with much interest that I am following the Legislature's so called compulsory insurance bills, and I wonder if there are as many as 50 percent who favor such a bill. I do not. Here is one industry that will be greatly affected by such a bill, the motor express. For a five-ton truck to be registered in Massachusetts costs in the neighborhood of $125. If it has a Maine registration and such a bill is passed it will cost about the same as in Massachusetts. Considering his overhead expenses and, say $50 in addition, where does the owner get off?

The small business man who must observe the various codes, if the compulsory insurance goes into effect, will be obliged to pay about $40 more on his car, which may result in his having to take it off the road, where as if he had a cheap car and found work out of town he might be able to get by with care and good management, if this added expense were not inflicted.

Also, it increases carelessness as many a driver would remark, "What do I care? I am insured." A prosperous man can burn up the road and run over the poor person whose taxes, as well as his own, assisted in the building and upkeep of the highway.

Any person who favors such legislation is directly or indirectly interested in the insurance business. I lived 11 years in States carrying such a law. Read your papers and study the reports from sections where it is in force. Let us hope good old Maine keeps sane.

E. I. Savage, Jr.
Waldoboro, March 27

WILL BE A BUSY DAY

Educational Club Has Crowded Program For Friday Afternoon and Evening

Masculine friends of the Woman's Educational Club are invited to attend its regular meeting Friday night at 7.15 in G.A.R. hall as this is gentlemen's guest night, to be preceded by a public supper, Mrs. Aiden Ulmer, Sr., chairman.

The 2 p.m. session will feature discussions on the family purse and budget, the three radio orators, Huey Long, Father Coughlin and Gen. Hugh Johnson, as to which road leads to real Social Justice. Roll call, memory gems, current items, club papers on "Marie Antoinette," among "Immortal Women" series; Blondel, Jean Valjean and Washington's Hatchet among "Immortal Stories" series. Valor roll and key women reports for 1936 are due.

"How the church should function under modern conditions" is the puzzle to be answered by Rev. C. H. Olds, new Congregational pastor, with usual forum, as afternoon speaker.

At the evening session, music by the Harvie family; trumpet solo, "The Lost Chord," but Dudley Harvie; piano solo by Rita Robinson.

The moving picture showing is one of striking beauty, presented by G. A. Harrison of Portland, general agent of the great Canadian National Railway.

Two reels of Yellowstone National Park, one showing its unparalleled scenic beauties, the other dealing with Bird and Animal Life there. Also two reels on the trip to Vancouver, B. C., to Alaska and the Yukon, showing the marvelous scenery during the trip through the famous Inside Passage. Then the reel on fishing in British Columbia waters, entitled "Leapin' Rainbows," will make the men stand up in their seats. Mr. Harrison writes:

No women as guests are eligible to the evening session, only club members in good standing.

The Mexican Hat Dance will be presented by Miss Barbara Murray, and Nettie Stewart will read.

The club project to place a bronze marker on the Edna St. Vincent Millay birthplace is the beneficiary of the supper proceeds, which it is hoped may be liberally patronized, as the date of the unveiling is not fixed, but probably will be early in summer.

A speaker on city affairs is probable.

Whooping cough is the most contagious of all the diseases of childhood except measles.

MUSIC PUPILS SANG

Federal Class Conducted By Mrs. Nettie Frost Gives Excellent Concert

A concert was held by the pupils of Mrs. Nettie Frost Tuesday evening at the high school with 25 members of the class and several guests present. This program was presented, with Mrs. Edna Brown accompanist.

Rose Marie — Victor Herbert
The Gypsy Love Song — Victor Herbert
Little Man, You've Had a Busy Day — Wayne
Mrs. Ruth Hoch — Homer Metcalf
Until You Came — Bond
A Perfect Day — Ambrose
A Song of Gladness — Ambrose
A Song of Yesterday — Ambrose
Red Buds — Marsh
When You're Away — Herbert
Oh Dry Those Tears — Del Riego
Love's Sweet Whisper — Del Riego
As in Old Garden — Risher
In the Garden of Tomorrow — Deppen
One Fine Day, from Madam Butterfly — Mrs. Myron Young
Madcap Marjorie — MacDowell
Readings—St. Valentine's Day — Adelyn Bushnell
It — Miss Anna Green
The Living God — O'Hara
Hold Thou My Hand — Van Eyken
John I Must Go — Van Eyken
Miss Gladys Grant
I Dare Not Believe It — Schuman
Ashes of Roses — Schuman
Miss Marjorie Gilden
The Sweetest Story Ever Told — Stultz
I'll Take You Home Again, Kathleen — Westendorf
Upheld — Myron Young
Sonny Boy — Curran
One More Day — Ball
Mrs. Eva Green
Duet—Sing, Sing, Birds on the Wing — Nattin
Mrs. Marjorie Gilden, Miss Gladys Grant
Invictus — Lloyd Daniels

A picnic lunch of sandwiches, cakes, brownies and candy was served. The latter part of the evening was devoted to popular music, with Forrest Bridges soloist and Albert Dodge at the piano.

The evening's entertainment was so successful that a similar concert may be presented during Music Week, the first week of May, by other members of the class. There are 43 pupils registered now, and any person who is over 16 years of age and not studying with any other teacher is eligible to join the Federal class.

Classes meet at the high school Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9.

THE SEVEN WONDERES

Those of the ancient world were: Pyramids of Egypt; Pharos of Alexandria; Hanging Gardens at Babylon; Temple of Diana at Ephesus; Statue of Zeus by Phidias; Tomb of Mausolus at Halicarnassus; Colossus of Rhodes.

STRAND THEATRE

P. T. Barnum, self-styled "Prince of Humbugs," comes back to a hearty life Wednesday and Thursday in the person of Wallace Berry, who plays the matchless showman in Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "The Mighty Barnum," for 20th Century Pictures.

The story opens with Barnum's entrance into the sideshow business exactly a hundred years ago when, having acquired a few reptile monstrosities and an aged negress named Joice Heth, purported to be 160 years old and erstwhile nurse of the infant George Washington, he left his failing Bowery grocery, rented a lively stable and opened Barnum's American Museum. The famous midget, General Tom Thumb and his bride Lavinia, the Cardiff Giant, the Bearded Lady, the Fiji Mermaid, the Woolly Horse and all the rest of the "natural oddities" with which Barnum staggered New York a century ago are also seen. His splurge from the grotesque to the sublime with the sponsoring of the American debut of Jenny Lind, the lovely Swedish nightingale, at Castle Garden, plays a big part in the picture, with Virginia Bruce charmingly interpreting the golden-voiced Jenny. Adolphe Menjou, Rochelle Hudson and Janet Beecher are also importantly cast—adv.

WHAT WOULD THE FLOWERS SAY?

If the silent flowers could speak, I wonder what they would have to say. And if crimson Ramblers in our garden would salute Pink Roses across the way?

Would Newport's Purple Lilacs, Growing near the Old Stone Mill, Associate with "Little Reddy's Dahlias," And the English Brides on the hill?

Would Bar Harbor's fair Easter Lilies, Pass the "Spotted Tiger Lilies" by, Disclaiming all family relation, And leaving them alone to die?

Would King Humbert spend the summer hours Boasting of proud "ancestral trees," Fighting for "increase of kingdom," Serving exclusive "evening teas?"

Would Canas speak kindly of their neighbors, As God wills that all his creatures do? Would they share each other's burdens—Scorning not the plot where Nasturtiums grow?

Oh, I am sure if flowers had sense of feeling, And could be given a voice to speak, Their message to pride-filled mortals Would be, "My friends let us be meek!"

—John M. Kelley in Daily Kennebec Journal.

ENROLLING FAST

New Squadron, Sons of American Legion, To Elect Officers Saturday

Fifty-four enthusiastic youngsters gathered in the Legion hall Saturday morning to enroll in the Sons of the American Legion Squadron.

Applications were distributed and each boy left the hall determined to get more prospective members to attend next Saturday at 10 o'clock, at which time the election of officers will take place.

The charter has been received and will be kept open for a few weeks to give everyone a chance to be included on the charter membership roll.

The committee of Legionnaires in charge consists of Gerald Margeson, chairman; A. Huntley, F. Havener, Mr. Olds, Gerald McPhee, H. Staples, S. Porbus, Earl Alden, Ervin Curtis and Everett Philbrook.

Judging from the enthusiasm and interest shown by these sons of Legionnaires it is expected that Winslow-Holbrook Post will soon be able to boast of having one of the finest squadrons of boys in the State.

All male descendants, adopted sons and step-sons of members of the American Legion, and such descendants of men and women veterans who died in service during the World War, or who died subsequent to the honorable discharge from such service, shall be eligible for membership in "The Sons of the American Legion."

ADVICE TO WOMEN

ALL women at some period of their lives need a strengthening tonic like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The young woman who suffers from monthly pains, the expectant mother who has nausea and other disagreeable symptoms, or the middle-aged woman should try this dependable tonic. Mrs. Alvah Morse of 45 West Ave., Lockport, N. Y., said: "I had no energy, felt tired and weary all the while and had frequent headaches. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription relieved me of the headaches and I felt stronger and better in every way."

New size, tablets 50 cts., liquid $1.00. Large size, tabs. or liquid, $3.35. All druggists.

NOW I EAT HOT DOGS

Upset Stomach Goes Nifty with Bell-an

BELL-AN FOR INDIGESTION

THE AMERICAN INSURANCE COMPANY

Newark, N. J.

ASSETS DEC. 31, 1934
Real Estate $4,500,000.00
Mortgage Loans 1,596,940.00
Stocks and Bonds 1,347,252.00
Cash in Office and Bank 1,290,752.31
Agents' Balances 1,537,778.77
Bills Receivable 121,349.64
Interest and Rents 130,589.39
Cash Capital 3,343,440.00
All other Assets 378,305.80
Gross Assets $33,245,913.39
Deduct items not admitted 6,649,122.48
Admitted $26,596,800.91

LIABILITIES DEC. 31, 1934
Net Unpaid Losses $2,010,484.30
Unearned Premiums 11,588,878.41
All other Liabilities 1,714,470.47
Cash Capital 3,343,440.00
Surplus over all Liabilities 7,941,215.73
Total Liabilities and Surplus $26,596,800.91

On the basis of Dec. 31, 1934 market quotations for all bonds owned this Company's total admitted assets would be increased to $26,639,649.72 and the net surplus to $7,984,056.54.

NIAGARA FIRE INSURANCE CO.

80 Maiden Lane, New York

ASSETS DEC. 31, 1934
Mortgage Loans $5,000.00
Stocks and Bonds 17,971,005.00
Cash in Office and Bank 1,175,841.50
Agents' Balances 1,109,211.25
Bills Receivable 1,334.54
Interest and Rents 79,228.85
Gross Assets $20,342,021.14
Deduct items not admitted 37,474.13
Admitted $20,304,547.01

LIABILITIES DEC. 31, 1934
Net Unpaid Losses $653,154.32
Unearned Premiums 5,586,120.24
All other Liabilities 885,690.00
Cash Capital 2,000,000.00
Surplus over all Liabilities 11,138,672.54
Total Liabilities and Surplus $20,304,547.01

INSURANCE CO. OF NORTH AMERICA

1600 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

ASSETS DEC. 31, 1934
Real Estate $5,512,769.78
Mortgage Loans 24,425.00
Stocks and Bonds 68,046,269.19
Cash in Office and Bank 5,427,164.79
Agents' Balances 3,267,793.18
Bills Receivable 57,841.13
Interest and Rents 1,092,017.25
All other Assets 2,220,077.12
Gross Assets $84,913,437.54
Deduct items not admitted 834,830.42
Admitted $84,078,607.12

LIABILITIES DEC. 31, 1934
Net Unpaid Losses $5,512,712.00
Unearned Premiums 20,542,205.39
All other Liabilities 1,587,504.46
Cash Capital 12,000,000.00
Surplus over all Liabilities 42,435,685.27
Total Liabilities and Surplus $84,078,607.12

U. S. Branch

NORTH BRITISH & MERCANTILE INSURANCE CO. LTD.

150 William Street, New York, New York
ASSETS DEC. 31, 1934
Stocks and Bonds $13,020,602.08
Cash in Office and Bank 1,248,734.75
Agents' Balances 1,232,951.69
Bills Receivable 22,137.57
Interest and Rents 1,135,481.63
All other Assets 1,318,528.31
Gross Assets $15,269,813.35
Deduct items not admitted 83,082.98
Admitted $15,186,730.37

LIABILITIES DEC. 31, 1934
Net Unpaid Losses $744,588.00
Unearned Premiums $6,831,658.07
All other Liabilities 1,510,859.09
Cash Capital $1,000,000.00
Surplus over all Liabilities 6,656,625.21
(see note)

On the basis of Dec. 31, 1934, market quotations of all bonds and stocks owned, the total admitted assets would be increased to $16,244,968.93 and the surplus to Policyholders to $8,157,863.77.

SPRINGFIELD FIRE & MARINE INSURANCE CO.

Springfield, Mass.

ASSETS DEC. 31, 1934
Real Estate $576,462.13
Mortgage Loans (first lien) 1,346,762.53
Bonds (Amortized Values) 10,112,697.49
Stocks (Market Values) 10,087,600.00
Cash in Office and Bank 1,984,847.99
Agents' Balances 2,174,435.26
Bills Receivable 14,958.44
Interest and Rents 204,730.39
All other Assets 90,998.52
Total Assets $26,593,491.98

LIABILITIES DEC. 31, 1934
Net Unpaid Losses $1,259,225.62
Unearned Premiums 10,916,263.66
All other Liabilities 267,000.00
Cash Capital 5,000,000.00
Surplus over all Liabilities 8,461,002.70
Total Liabilities and Surplus $26,593,491.98

THE PHOENIX INSURANCE COMPANY

Hartford, Conn.

ASSETS DEC. 31, 1934
Real Estate $565,121.04
Mortgage Loans 697,988.50
Stocks and Bonds 30,990,989.95
Cash in Office and Bank 3,946,108.61
Agents' Balances 1,608,211.54
Bills Receivable 1,448.79
Interest and Rents 205,523.09
All other Assets 180,576.50
Gross Assets $38,199,057.02
Deduct items not admitted 419,834.92
Admitted $37,779,222.10

LIABILITIES DEC. 31, 1934
Net Unpaid Losses $1,02