HAD HARD FIGHTS

Senator Wallace H. White, Jr., Has Been In Political Scraps From the Start

With his 4928 margin over Gov. Louis J. Brann, in Monday's election, United States Senator Wallace H. White Jr. added another victory to his long list of tough, close fights.

Starting with his defeat of Congressman Daniel J. McGillicuddy in the old Second District in 1916, White has won each successive election, whether primary or regular election, to the present and in no instance has this been an easy victory.

His closest battle since entering the arena of district and State wide politics was his first in 1916, when he defeated McGillicuddy by the narrow margin of 549 in a total vote of 38,129 in the district. Two years later he again defeated McGillicuddy, who attempted a comeback. That time the margin was a substantial one.

On the basis of size of vote the victory of Monday was about as close as that of 20 years ago.

In this fight, as in that of 1916, he had as an adversary, a candidate who was popular. Gov. Brann unquestionably has enjoyed the greatest popularity of any Governor in a good many years. It was this popularity, not the fact that he was a candidate on the Democratic ticket, which gave the Governor the tremendous vote he piled up in his effort to unseat Senator White. This is shown by the size of the Barrows majority and that of the three Republican candidates for Congress. Had any other Democrat in the State been White's opponent there is every reason to believe that Senator White would have swamped him by a majority larger than that by which Barrows has defeated Dubord.—Lewiston Journal.

MARVELOUS MEMORY

Colorado Man Pulls Off Unusual Stunts At the Lions Meeting

The Rockland Lions extended their meeting some minutes beyond the customary hour yesterday so interested were they in the remarkable memory performance given by W. R. Buckner of Denver, Colo. Mr. Buckner, who is summing in Maine and New Hampshire, is president of the Buckner School of Memory which has a large clientele of correspondence students all over the country.

Yesterday he asked some 30 members of the club to give their family names, and when this had been done he repeated all of them, in the order given, hesitating only momentarily when the name happened to be somewhat out of the usual.

Names of ten objects were then written on a blackboard, and these he repeated from memory, giving the correct number in each instance. This he also did when ten numbers, each containing two figures were written, and five letters, and capped the climax by correctly giving all 25 in accordance with the numbers on the board.

Later he asked the 30 Lions to exchange seats, and in only one instance was he baffled in giving the correct name of the member.

A question period followed in the course of which Mr. Buckner gave a most interesting talk on the psychology of names.

District Governor George W. Dyer was a visitor yesterday and U. A. Winter of South Portland was a guest. "Daniel" Boone, who has just returned from a vacation, was warmly greeted.

Four entertainments are to be presented during the fall—the King Ambassador Quartet, Oct. 14, the Model Merry-makers, Oct. 21, Bob Fitzsimmons, deep sea diver, Oct. 28, and the three-act comedy "Cricket," Nov. 4.

It was voted to omit the meeting of Sept. 30 as it is the "big day" at Union Fair.

THE FIRST COMMANDMENT

A biblical drama of extraordinary high order, "The First Commandment," will be presented tonight and tomorrow night at the Methodist Church. "A superb performance by a cast unexcelled in local drama supported by one of the finest groups of singers ever gathered in Rockland" is the way the drama is described by one critic. The costumes are authentic and the whole admirably coached by Miss Blanche Harris.

BRANNITES WANT RECOUNT

U. S. Senator Wallace H. White, Jr., who has everybody's best wishes now.

An Associated Press despatch from New York says:

"Declaring they had evidence indicating violation of federal election laws in Maine Monday, Democratic leaders announced Tuesday they would demand a recount in the state's close senatorial race."

"The charges were made by Senator Guffey of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Democratic senatorial committee, after a conference with Gov. Brann of Maine, defeated candidate for the Senate, and Democratic Chairman James A. Farley.

"Guffey said that if the evidence justifies it there also will be a contest when Senator Wallace H. White, Jr., Brann's Republican opponent, attempts to take his seat in the Senate in January."

"Immediately after Guffey issued his statement, Representative Martin, manager of the Republican campaign in the East, said the charges were ridiculous and were merely politics."

AFTERMATH OF ELECTION

Barrows' Plurality For Governor Was 42,981—White's Majority Was 5,031

Final unofficial tabulation of returns gave Senator White a majority of 5,031 votes over Gov. Brann. With but three small precincts missing from the State's 633, the vote was:

For U. S. Senator: Brann (D) 152,950; White (R) 157,981.

For Governor: Dubord (D) 129,132; Barrows (R) (elected) 172,113.

Bubar (Independent), 5,232.

The missing towns were Woodville in Penobscot County, Willimantic in Piscataquis County, and Lexington in Somerset County. The former two towns were unreported in the last election.

In the Second Congressional District the vote was:

McLean (D) 38,241; Smith (R) (elected) 52,972; Leckemby (I) 7,518; Rogers (Union) 3154.

With the arrival Tuesday afternoon of the Isle au Haut vote it was possible to give the complete unofficial list of totals for Knox County. They follow:

U. S. Senator—Brann, D., 4666; White, R., 6226. White's majority, 1560.

Governor—Dubord, D., 3660; Barrows, R., 6697; Bubar, I., 324. Barrows' plurality, 3037.

Congress—McLean, D., 3174; Smith, R., 6045; Leckemby, I., 1036; Rogers, U., 96. Smith's plurality, 2871.

State Senator—Wheeler, D., 3656; Burkett, R., 6307. Burkett's majority, 2651.

Judge of Probate—Pike, D., 3230; Wilbur, R., 6987. Wilbur's majority, 3757.

Clerk of Courts—Poole, D., 2979; Griffin, R., 7268. Griffin's majority, 4289.

Sheriff—Comery, D., 2846; Ludwick, R., 7290; Hamlin, I., 490. Ludwick's plurality, 4444.

County Attorney—Roberts, D., 3176; Burrows, R., 7034. Burrows' majority, 3858.

Commissioner—Tibbitts, D., 3205; Hopkins, R., 6800. Hopkins' majority, 3595.

Besides endorsing the three victorious Congressional candidates, Mudgett had approved Senator White's candidacy.

NOTABLE THOMASTON EVENT

Many Friends Present To Celebrate Creighton Golden Wedding Anniversary

Numbered among the important social events in Thomaston's history was the celebration Tuesday night of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Creighton at their home on Gleason street. Scores of friends from Thomaston and out-side towns gathered to honor the man who has achieved so much prominence in business and political affairs and the woman who has been at the head of one of the State's leading patriotic organizations.

Within this home, famed half a century for hospitality dispensed at hundreds of social occasions, was a scene of festivity augmented by the attractive decorations which had been fashioned by loving hands.

In the reception room the bay window was banked with evergreen and flanked on each side with tall vases of eucalyptus. Throughout the room there were bouquets of goldenrod, yellow daisies, yellow marigolds and chrysanthemums, yellow being the predominating color throughout the house.

In the receiving line with Mr. and Mrs. Creighton was Mrs. Edwin U. Curtis, widow of a former Boston mayor. The ushers were Myles S. Weston, Lee W. Walker, Douglas Walker, Malcolm Creighton, Bowdoin L. Grafton, Donald P. George, of this town, and Nathan Farwell, of Wal-oboro and Ensign Otis of Rockland. Mrs. Creighton was gowned in a black velvet evening dress with black velvet slippers to match. She wore a corsage of American Beauty roses. Mrs. Curtis wore a Princess dress of Cloth of Gold and Coral, with slippers to match.

The dining room was a vision of beauty. The table was covered with an embroidered linen cloth with inserts of Point de Venise, and edged with cluny lace. The centerpiece was of yellow roses and linnaria in a gold bowl, and there was also a bride's cake with the bride and groom on top, and the wedding cake. Dainty sandwiches, cakes and punch were served.

Mrs. Donald Hanly, of Rockland, and Mrs. Charles W. Creighton presided over the punch and those who assisted in serving were Mrs. W. B. D. Gray, Mrs. William T. Flint, Mrs. Donald P. George, Mrs. Lee W. Walker, Mrs. Bowdoin L. Grafton, Mrs. Lewis C. Sturtevant, Miss Letitia Creighton, Miss Clara Spear, Miss Elizabeth Creighton and Miss Jane R. Miller, of this town, Miss Margaret Copeland of Newton Centre, Massachusetts and Thomaston, Mrs. Ensign Otis of Rockland.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hanly, of Rockland, Mrs. Albert T. Gould of Marblehead, Mass., Miss Letitia Creighton, of Ridgefield, Conn., and Mrs. John Creighton arranged the flowers and other decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. Creighton received several gifts of money and other presents. Telegrams and telephone messages of congratulations were sent.

Singing was enjoyed with Miss Elizabeth Creighton and her brother, Malcolm Creighton, accompanying at the piano.

The Thomaston guests were: Mr. and Mrs. John Creighton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Shorey, Mr. and Mrs. John Hewitt, Mr. and Mrs. Percy E. Demmons, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Starrett, Rev. and Mrs. Hubert F. Leach, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Overlock, Mr. and Mrs. William Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence H. Dunn, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis G. Copeland, Capt. and Mrs. John Brown, Capt. and Mrs. James E. Creighton, Mrs. George E. Cross, Mrs. Edward G. Weston, Mrs. Charles Benner, Mrs. Walter B. Willey, Mrs. Richard E. Dunn, Mrs. Amos S. Mills, Mrs. Herbert R. Linnell, Mrs. Eben O. Alden, Mrs. William J. Tobey, Mrs. George V. Hanly, Mrs. Helen Smith.

Miss C. Helen Russell, Miss Lizzie Levensaler, Miss Harriet Dunn, Miss Lucy A. Rokes, Miss Jessie Crawford, Miss Nellie Gardiner, Miss Helen L. Carr, Miss Ardele Maxcy, Miss Leila M. Clark, Miss Gladys Doherty, Miss Dorothy L. Starrett, Miss Martha Hanley, Miss Margaret Jordan, Miss Kay Turner, Miss Mary E. McPhail, Lewis C. Sturtevant, Edward O'Brien Burgess, Levi Seavey, Capt. Arthur J. Elliot, Stanley R. Cushing, Harry S. Stewart, William T. Flint, W. B. D. Gray and Richard O. Elliot.

From out of town came Prof. Wilbert Snow, of Middletown, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. George B. Mathews of New Britain, Conn.; Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Goldsmith, of Los Angeles; Mrs. L. Bliss Gilchrist, of New York and Thomaston; Miss Anna Dillingham, of Boston and Thomaston; Miss Ruth Blodgett, of Beach Bluff, Mass.; Norman W. Lermond, of Warren; Mrs. Edward Levensaler and Alwood Levensaler of Rockland; Mrs. Walter Andrews, of Hyannis, Mass.; Miss Stonie W. Jameson of Camden; Miss Matilda Burgess of New York and Thomaston; Herbert Thompson, of Boston and Thomaston; Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Copeland, of Newton Center, and Thomaston.

Mr. and Mrs. Creighton were married at Thomaston, Sept. 15, 1886, by the late Rev. Joseph W. Strout, who was pastor of the Congregational church in Thomaston for a great many years. Both were born in Thomaston and have always made their home there.

In 1907 Mrs. Creighton was regent of the State of Maine, Daughters of the American Revolution. She is an honorary president of the Knox Memorial Association and an ex-regent of Gen. Knox Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. She was very active on the State Democratic Committee and at one time was chairman of that committee.

In 1919 Mr. Creighton was a State Senator and for 50 years has been a member of the firm of J. A. Creighton Company. Both are very active in public affairs and enjoy wide popularity.

To them four children were born, James A., of Hamburg, N. Y., who is connected with the Bethlehem Steel; Robert, of the Worcester Telegram, in Worcester, Mass., and Letitia M., of Ridgefield, Conn. Another son, Charles W., is deceased. Five grandchildren, Miss Elizabeth and Malcolm Creighton, of Thomaston and James A., Jr., Lois M., and Joanna J., of Hamburg, N. Y.

PATROLMAN PRICE INJURED

Knocked Down, On Duty—Harland Simmons Gets Six Months, Drunken Driving

Edwin U. Price, dean of the Rockland police force, while standing guard at the Maverick street cave-in last night was knocked down and seriously injured by a car driven by Harland Simmons of Rockland.

In Municipal Court this forenoon Simmons pleaded guilty to the charge of driving while intoxicated, and Judge Z. M. Dwinall sentenced him to six months in jail, after County Attorney J. C. Burrows had asked for a stiff sentence because of the nature of the crime.

Several cars had come to a standstill on the Rockland Highlands side when Simmons put in appearance, and disregarding the red lantern which Officer Price was waving is said to have run deliberately into the officer.

Patrolman Price's injuries were listed thus: Laceration of head, left hand and elbow, contusions and abrasions on right elbow, left hip sprained, and multiple contusions of chest and abdomen.

Simmons was arrested by Patrolman John D. Chapman.

THE CASE OF GOV. BRANN

Of the hundreds of Knox County Republicans who voted Monday for Gov. Brann, purely on the ground of personal liking, many would today doubtless reverse their action because of the sorry figure he is cutting in the attempt to overturn White's majority of 5134, through the medium of a recount. Recounts are common enough in snug elections and losers are justified in asking for them, though rarely winners as the result of that recourse.

The particular antipathy which many voters now feel toward Gov. Brann arises from his slurring remark in New York that "if they had given me the money spent by the Republican State Committee I could have elected a Chinaman Governor of Maine."

The remark is one which will detract sadly from the high estimate which many voters had placed upon the Governor. In the first place it was not original, as a similar statement had been made by Jim Farley or some other Democrat in the early stages of the campaign; in the second place it is a gratuitous insult to a nationality which has little political influence in this State; in the third place it insults the intelligence of Maine people through the brazen declaration that they can be bought by the wholesale; and finally it overlooks the fact that hundreds of W.P.A. workers would have voted the Republican ticket Monday but for undoubted intimidation.

Gov. Brann in his first defeat bears a striking resemblance to certain potter players who fail to win the pot.

QUESTION NO. FIVE

Maine A. A. Delighted With the Voters' Response Last Monday

Believing the overwhelming approval given the AAA Anti-Diversion Bill, Question No. 5, shown in the voting results of the first cities and towns to report figures, as representative of what transpired in all parts of the State, Arlyn E. Barnard, General Manager, Maine Automobile Association, was most jubilant over the results.

Ranging from 2-1/2 to 3-1 in favor of this measure to prevent any diversion of the highway fund and with most of the towns reporting advantageous decision on the measure it is in his opinion, "A mandate from the people which is going to stand for many years to come." Portland had registered the biggest majority in favor of the measure according to reports received thus far with the sizeable margin of 13,997 votes.

"A study of the results so far," stated Mr. Barnard, "is conclusive proof that the voters of Maine understood this measure and are in sympathy with it. In some localities where the measure won with very sizeable majorities other referenda on the same ballot lost. There was considerable difference of opinion of the various referenda which required much split of 'Yes' and 'No' vote, but in spite of this, a large majority of the voters registered their approval of the measure by their 'yes' votes.

"Maine can well be proud of the stand she has taken regarding her highway fund. The result here should prove helpful in certain other states where there are intensive fights to prevent misuse of highway money. We are happy to have assumed the leadership in bringing this matter to the attention of the voters, for in so doing we believe we have proper safeguard of the huge sums the motorists of Maine are paying annually in gasoline and motor taxes."

One ounce of Paris green mixed with one pound of brown sugar makes a good poison bait to kill ants which have invaded farm lawns and are building ant hills. Sprinkle the material lightly over the infected areas and beware that birds and domestic animals do not get it.

A NEW CONGRESSMAN

Clyde Smith Began His Busy Political Career At The Age of Twenty-three

Clyde H. Smith (R), Skowhegan, elected Monday to represent the Second District in the National House, is known as the "father" of the old-age pension plan to Maine. He never had any use however, for the Townsend plan, objecting strenuously to its transaction tax provisions.

In 1923, Smith introduced the first old-age pension bill to the Maine Legislature, and had worked ardently since for old-age assistance "founded on a budgetary basis."

A figure in Maine politics 40 years, Smith has been a member of the all Republican council which has advised Gov. Brann the past four years. Smith has been a member of State Highway Commission, a State Senator, and, at the age of 22, the youngest man ever elected to the Maine House.

When this year's primary campaign began, Smith was one of four aspirants to the Republican gubernatorial nomination. In midseason, he swapped horses, entering and winning the Second District Congressional nomination from seven other candidates.

Among them were Rev. J. Clarence Leckemby and A. Raymond Rogers, also unsuccessful in yesterday's State election as independent and union party candidates, respectively.

Smith devoted much of his election campaign to his old-age pension record and promised that if elected he would introduce a bill into Congress providing for Federal pensions of $50 a month. Under the social security act's provisions, the Federal Government pays up to $30 a month providing States pay the same amount.

Smith also joined other Republican candidates in attacks on the Roosevelt administration. Business, he said, was "sick" because of "governmental interference and taxation."

He also assailed the New Deal's tariff policies, and advanced tariffs "high enough so that not a dollar's worth of foreign goods, goods that can be produced in this country, can be brought to our shores."

THE COMMENTATOR

By Kerns Oliver

The journalistic clairvoyants are hard-taxed these days trying to see system in Bedlam.

Reports of war come distorted and unreliable from censors in Europe. To believe that the Fascists have the Government at the wall, with their possession of the north coastal towns on the Bay of Biscay; or that the Leftists continue in the advantage. Blood runs both ways.

Political reports too are confusing and partisan. The Democrats shout that the DuPonts are paying to assure Republican success, while the Republicans scream that the country is going head-over-heels into the hole. We are assured that we must not show partiality to the graft and waste of the New Deal. Both deals are American. With an average endowment of imagination one can believe what ever one wishes until the final decision, when there are always excuses enough for the losers.

We poor fortunates entering colleges and universities this fall would probably be paying a sublime percentage to Lloyd's on our chances of emerging into the adult state, alive and untouched by war, riot or depression.

Even so we look with pity, not envy as it is perhaps intended for us to do, on the spectacle of youngsters marching proudly into the Campo Mussolini, its pylon decorated grandly with miniature war-tanks. Ignorance is brave, but was knowledge ever valiant?

And instead of being degraded, they will emerge resplendent under tin hats, running circles around us in their knowledge of military tactics. Yet it's death they're teaching them. So we shall all lose a few pounds, or grow hoarse a few times before election.

But when the Universe is considered we should worry. Politics will always have its pound of flesh, this party or that. And we may be fairly certain, whatever the outcome, that the rest of the world will seeth and steam in the smell of gunpowder without America.

ardent New Dealer, in the First district.

The Second District battle saw Smith, an executive councillor and advocate of an old age pension plan of his own, defeat Ernest L. McLean (D), former Augusta mayor; Rev. J. Clarence Leckemby, independent, and A. Raymond Rogers, Union party nominee.

Brewster walked away rapidly with the Third District election from Congressman-Elect Clyde H. Smith, whose splendid victory over three opponents makes him a commanding figure youthful Wallace F. Mabee D., former Eastport mayor and personal friend of President Roosevelt.

Nearly complete returns in the Congressional contests gave: Oliver R., 60,512; Hamlin D., 44,032; Smith R., 32,972; McLean, D., 38,241; Leckemby I., 7,518; Rogers U., 3,154; Brewster R., 54,971; Mabee D., 35,410.

All-Republican Waldo

Waldo County officers elected Monday were all Republicans: Marion E. Brown, register of probate; Hiram O. Burgess, sheriff; Hillard H. Buzzell, County attorney, all of Belfast. Harvey A. Shibles of Knox, county commissioner. State Representatives are: Charles A. Bruce of Belfast, Albert B. Payson of Brooks, James L. Woodbury of Morrill and Miss Grace U. Church of Stockton Springs, Senator Roy L. Fernald of Winterport was reelected.

Brann's City Strength

Brann captured 12 of the State's 20 municipalities. Lewiston, his own home town, by more than 8,000 votes, and two other Democratic centers, Biddeford and Waterville, by 4,000 and 1,300, respectively. Portland, Maine's largest city, which turned out the heaviest vote in its history, gave but a 95-vote margin for Brann. The Democratic Governor also carried Auburn, Augusta, Bath, Calais Eastport, Gardiner, Old Town and Westbrook.

White's city strength appeared in Bangor, Belfast, Brewer, Ellsworth, Hallowell, Rockland, Saco and South Portland.

Our Neighbor Lincoln

Lincoln County elected all Republican officers Monday. State Senator, Elton H. Lewis of Boothbay; Judge of probate, John W. Brackett of Boothbay Harbor; clerk of courts, Clarence R. Richards of Damariscotta; Sheriff, Arthur R. Greenleaf of Boothbay Harbor; county attorney

Weston M. Hilton of Damariscotta; county commissioner, E. Ashley Walters, Jr. of Waldoboro; Representatives, Alden C. Stilphen of Dresden, Earl Haley of South Bristol, and Daniel Carlton of Alna.

An analysis of the Hancock County vote shows some interesting figures. The Democrats had expected much from Deer Isle, where the bridge issue had been so dramatically brought to the front on the eve of election, but the figures show that Wallace White had 275 votes and Brann 195.

In the gubernatorial contest the Republican victory was even more pronounced, Barrows having 320 votes to Dubord's 121. On the other hand Stonington gave Brann 369 and White only 124. For Governor Dubord had 292 votes and Barrows 158. Swan's Island was overwhelmingly Republican giving Brann 38 votes and White 138; Dubord 23 and Barrows 149.

Waldoboro Republican

The tabulated local vote at Monday's election follows: U. S. Senator, Brann, 448; White, 659; Governor, Dubord, 389; Barrows, 698; Benjamin C. Bubart, 2; Congress, McLean, 348; Smith, 632; Leckemby 71; Rogers, 11; State Senator John A. Sproul, Bristol, 382; Elton H. Lewis, Boothbay, 661; Judge of Probate, John W. Brackett, Boothbay Harbor, 713; Clerk of Courts, John L. Blagdon, Wiscasset, 379; Clarence A. Richards, Damariscotta, 675; Sheriff, Bryant C. Wade, Newcastle, 375; Arthur R. Greenleaf, Boothbay Harbor, 688; County Attorney, Bradford C. Redonnett, Wiscasset, 436; Weston M. Hilton, Damariscotta, 638; County Commissioner, Franklin L. Pitcher, Waldoboro, 374; E. Ashley Walters, Jr. 729; Representative to Legislature, William M. Ford, Whitefield, 450; Daniel Carlton, Alna, 670.

On the referendum question, No. 1 received, Yes, 378; No. 469; No. 2 Yes, 377; No. 486; No. 3, Yes, 473; No. 472; No. 4, Yes, 349; No. 433; No. 5, Yes, 534; No. 193.

BANK GROUPS MAKE NATIONWIDE SURVEY

American and State Banking Associations Collaborate in Investigation

LOAN SERVICES STUDIED

Activities of the Government in the Banking Field Are Reviewed and Position of Banks Analyzed

NEW YORK.—Detailed bank researches, covering all phases of practical operating and economic facts and conditions related to banking, are being made by the American Bankers Association. The resulting material is being placed at the disposal of all state banking associations, which in many instances are extending the researches of the national association in their own states. These activities are said to be a part of the general program of banking development which is being carried on by the organized banking business.

Among the most extensive researches being conducted by the American Bankers Association is that of its Committee on Banking Studies, which is making a detailed survey of Federal Government lending agencies and policies. The basic material, which is kept up to date by continuing studies, shows where the Government agencies get the money they lend, what liability the Government assumes, what subsidy it extends, what return it gets, for what and to whom the money goes and on what terms it is loaned.

The Government in Banking

"It is not the intention of the committee to express its viewpoint about any agency," says the foreword to this material. "Its intention is only to determine the facts. These facts properly assembled and presented should help banks to meet Government competition if and where it exists. The committee believes the Government entered the lending field at a critical period in order to aid banks and financial institutions. If the time has come for the Government to withdraw, it is the duty of bankers to demonstrate their readiness to take care of all sound credit needs."

It adds that the banks must be equipped with full factual material as to the Government's emergency lending activities and practices, and that full cooperation has been given the committee by Government agencies in obtaining facts. Builders of the material gathered have been placed by the committee in the hands of state association officers and committees of three members appointed to cooperate with it in carrying on banking research.

The Committee on Banking Studies has also made a survey of the Postal Savings System throughout the United States to ascertain to what extent it is competing with chartered banks. Questionnaires were sent to banks in all places where Postal Savings depositories are operated and over 93 per cent returned answers which will be analyzed as a basis for the committee's findings.

The Bank Management Commission of the American Bankers Association has made a nationwide survey covering the movement among banks to increase their earning abilities "through fair and legitimate rates for services they render their depositors." The commission has developed a uniform plan of account analysis as a basis of sound charges.

Personal Income Loans

The Bank Management Commission has also formulated methods for installing and operating personal income loan departments in banks. "This plan contemplates making loans primarily to individuals and small business concerns, based upon the character and assured incomes of the borrowers, as distinguished from the usual basis for 'commercial loans,' the commission says.

It points out that a large part of the population is not now making use of available bank credit and that "to these people the personal loan department extends a valuable service which at the same time is profitable to the bank." It adds that it is "the duty of the banks to educate the public to come to the bank for all financial services. Small borrowers should be informed that the local bank is ready and willing to take care of their demands."

Other Researches

Other researches are being made by the Economic Policy Commission of the association dealing with shrinkages in liquid commercial loans caused by the economic changes in the nation's business methods, while the National Bank Division has made studies of the lending and investment powers of this class of bank, the present status of the real estate investment field and of detailed data by states on earnings and expenses.

The Savings Division has gathered the facts showing savings in banks of all types, the number of savings depositors, the per capita savings for the country as a whole and the effects of current economic and social changes upon the savings habits of the American people.

The association's State Bank Division has issued the most recent figures available as to the detailed conditions of state banks, showing steady improvement in the position of the state banks, with marked expansion in their aggregate resources, while the Trust Division has compiled a guide to fees with a recommended cost accounting system.

More than 500 boys and girls' 4-H clubs in Maine will hold achievement days in September and October to show friends and neighbors what they have accomplished in club work during the past year.

A HAPPY WINTER

Seems To Be In Store For Deer Isle People—There's a Reason

In 14 months Deer Islanders will be driving their cars over a fine new bridge to the mainland at Sedgwick and the world in general may go to the island. The old ferry will be a thing of the past for work has actually commenced and the long wished for bridge is a reality.

Representatives of Stetpin & Robinson, engineers who designed the Waldo-Hancock bridge, which took the prize for the best of its class in the country, have been there.

Test borings for the pier foundations began Thursday, a very important preliminary, having much to do with plans for the construction. This work is by Philip J. Healy, Inc., of New York.

As soon as this is accomplished, work will proceed with gradually increased crews and it is stated that 650 to 700 men will be employed by December, solving the usual problem of winter employment in this section to a great extent, and a big help to the business of the island.

WEST HOPE

George W. Leadbetter Gets Word At Augusta—October the Time

George W. Leadbetter, Commissioner of Maine Health and Welfare Department, said Tuesday he had been assigned by the Federal Department of Labor to enroll members of CCC camps in the state. The next enrollment, Leadbetter said, was scheduled to be made the first of October.

Leadbetter previously had charge of the CCC enrollments in 1933, for several weeks prior to the work being assumed by the E.R.A. He said his department had been designated as state selecting agency in Maine.

The CCC camps in Maine and other sections of the country are scheduled to continue until March of next year under provisions provided by Congress.

AT CASTINE NORMAL

Saturday the school traveled to the Sandy Point Alumni camps for the annual picnic usually held on these grounds. Although the camp is officially closed for the season, the buildings were reopened to accommodate the group. Members of the faculty, including Miss Mary Bills, served the luncheon, the rest of the day being spent in games, cards and dancing. A few students braved the temperature and went swimming in the Penobscot River on the beach below the camp.

Pupils registration on the Monday of the second week shows a 21% increase over the figures for the same period a year ago. Later registrants will heighten the increase figures considerably.

New movable furniture for the recently completed 7-8 Grade room in the school annex, which now places all of the town children employed for training purposes on the campus, has arrived and is being put into position.

Mrs. Arlene Pendleton '19 and daughter were on campus during the past week. Mrs. Pendleton was in town on personal business and returned to her Isleboro home shortly.

Principal W. D. Hall was in Orono Sunday on business. Miss Margaret Hall left for Simmons College Monday where she is registering for special work in library science after receiving her degree from the University of Maine in June.

Mrs. Ethel Leg Wardwell spent the weekend with her parents in Dark Harbor.

THE SAUNTERER

A. B. Crocker

Spider: The common name of the animals of the family Araneidae, of the class Arachnida, some of which are remarkable for spinning webs for taking their prey and forming a convenient habitation, and for the deposit of their food.—Webster.

To go back 30 centuries and read what was said about the spider: "There be four things which are little upon earth, but are exceeding wise. The spider taketh hold with her hands and is in kings' palaces. Man thinks he is a wonderful animal. He lifts up his voice and says, 'See what I have done, I have built a suspension bridge across this river so that trains and street traffic can travel over it. Of course you furnished the material?' 'Oh, no, Nature and man furnished the material, other men furnished the labor, and I directed the work'."

Some years ago, a spider was not in our palace, but outside of it, by the front porch. We called him Charlie, and had a wonderful time that summer watching him. We have not entertained one since, until very lately. After a stormy spell, we found that Charlie, Jr., had built for himself an habitation on the bushes which come up to our front porch. I took measurements of the web. From bush to bush, the upper cable is 15 inches in length and anchored to a leaf on each bush, with guy cables to the main cable. The lower main cable is about the same length and build, with the intricate web built between those cables. Charlie, with leg outstretched, is one-half inch long. I held a conversation with him one morning, something like this: "Good morning, Charlie."

"Good morning, big boy. What's on your mind this morning?"

"I want to ask you a question. I know something about how men build bridges. Just how do you build yours?"

"Those human animals make me laugh. They think they are so smart. Nature gives them granite, marble, and other stone, limerock, sand, rock for cement, clay for brick and lumber for their buildings. Then they dig iron ore and make steel of it, fabricate it and build bridges, steel for frame buildings and for his many other activities. I carry my own material with me and do my own building. I select a place to build, then I make some cement and put it on a branch or leaf, then I spin some cable and imbed it in the cement, let the cable swing in the wind until it catches something, after which I build my house. I don't have to depend on any WPA to build me a bridge and have it cave in before it is finished. Not for Charlie! Excuse me, I see a fly coming this way and I need him for my dinner."

AT THE STRAND FRIDAY-SATURDAY

In the new romantic comedy "Walking On Air," Gene Raymond's job is to pose as a French count and insult the father of an heiress, so he will let her marry another man she thinks she loves. But both the young people run into difficulties. Ann Southern, center, plays the girl, and Jessie Ralph, right, has a comedy role as the aunt. Henry Stephenson is featured with Miss Ralph in a cast including Gordon Jones, Maxine Jennings, Alan Curtis, Anita Colby, Patricia Wilder and others. Kalmar-Ruby and Sid Silvers wrote the film's three song numbers.—adv.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY AT THE PARK

The tense drama of a wayward son who keeps his family in complete ignorance of his criminal activities is offered in "Don't Turn 'Em Loose." Here Bruce Cabot, the gangster, returns home from an ostensible engineering assignment, bearing a gift for Louise Latimer, who depicts his fiancée. Lewis Stone, James Gleason and Betty Grable have other roles.—adv.

were held from the residence Tuesday with Rev. H. S. Kilborn officiating.

Deceased was born at Bluehill, Oct. 1, 1862, son of Capt. Ira and Lois (Cousins) Webber. When 16 he went to Ellsworth where he learned the tin-smith's trade and after eight years was employed in Bar Harbor and Rockland. In 1889 he engaged in the hardware business in this town, first in partnership with Winfield Hinckley and later alone. After the big fire, in which his store was among others burned, he carried on plumbing business until 1921, at which time he retired, and had been in failing health since. Mr. Webber was a member of Ellsworth Lejok Lodge for 52 years, retaining his membership up to his death.

WITH EXTENSION AGENTS AND THE KNOX-LINCOLN FARM BUREAU

Agriculture

Applications for testing hens for pullorum disease are now being received at the College of Agriculture, University of Maine. Already the following poultrymen in Knox and Lincoln counties have sent in applications:

Poster Jameson, Waldoboro; S. T. Jameson, Friendship; W. W. Cochran, North Edgcomb; Mrs. Charles Hendrickson, West Alna; Arthur Paquet, North Edgcomb; George Hodson, Camden; A. K. Chisam, North Whitefield; A. F. Currie, Waldoboro; Austin Sproul, South Bristol; G. E. Coleman, Jr., Wiscasset; Maynard Kinney, Thomaston; Albert Frederickson, Tenant's Harbor; and Francis Reed, Waldoboro. Testing will start in a short time.

The demand has been very good for Maine chicks and eggs this past year from out of state hatcheries and poultrymen. They insist on either pullorum clean or passed flocks.

Willard Brown of Hope has built a cement septic tank under the direction of the Extension Service.

Plans are being made to hold an organization meeting of the Knox-Lincoln Cow Test Association, Oct. 15 in the evening at North Newcastle Grange hall. Donald Corbett, assistant dairy specialist of the Extension Service, will be present to assist in completing the plans.

Howard Coose of Hope has a very good crop of Northern Spy apples this year. It is not as large as normal but is much better than he expected a month ago. Allie Dunton of Hope also has a good crop. Many of his are McIntosh and Cortland.

The apple crop for New England is 47% less than last year and 39% less than the five-year average. For the country as a whole the prospects are for a very small crop. This should help the man who has a crop of clean fruit this year.

A three-day short course in poultry breeding is being given this year Oct. 1-3 at the College of Agriculture, Orono. Fred Loring, director of agricultural short courses is in charge. The speakers include Dr. F. H. Steinmetz, professor of genetics; J. R. Smyth, professor of poultry husbandry; H. L. Richardson, Extension Poultry Specialist—all of the College of Agriculture, Orono. There will also be other speakers connected with the College.

The membership campaign of the Knox-Lincoln Farm Bureau starts this week with meetings in Rockland, Washington and West Rockport. The meetings scheduled for next week are: Monday, Hope at 1:30 p. m., Camden at 7:30 p. m.; Sept. 22, Appleton at 10 a. m., Union at 1:30 p. m.; Sept. 24, Damariscotta, 10 a. m., Alna at 1:30 p. m.; Sept. 25, Nobleboro at 10 a. m.; Boothbay at 1:30 p. m., Whitefield at 7:30 p. m.; Sept. 26, Bunker Hill at 10 a. m., Jefferson at 1:30 p. m.; Sept. 28, Friendship at 10 a. m., Orr's Corner at 1:30 p. m.; Sept. 29, Waldoboro at 10 a. m., Warren at 1:30 p. m.

4-H Club Notes

Local contests have been held by five clubs—Sunny Side Up and Rainbow Workers, Waldoboro; Project Pushers, Walpole; Boothbay Gainers, Boothbay; and Lincoln 4-H of New Harbor. The Project Pushers, Boothbay Gainers and Lincoln 4-H finished up their club projects 100%. Blue ribbons were awarded the following girls for receiving first honors on their exhibits. Boothbay: Beryl and Mina Butler, Priscilla Reed; New Harbor: Anita Hanna, June Reilly, Martha Thompson, Edna Boynton, Joyce Munsey, Ruth Sykes, Marilyn Gifford and Virginia Sykes; Waldoboro: Lois Hilton, Alfreda Ellis, Isabel Kaler, Grace Castner, Maxine Achorn and Inez Hilton; Walpole: Arlene Brown, Virginia Brown, Virginia Goudy, Phyllis Kelsey, Phyllis Mank and Phyllis Hatch.

4-H Club sweater emblems have been awarded to eight girls for enrolling in club work for 1937 and completing their club projects at Local Contest. These club members are: Lois Hilton, Grace Castner and Helen Oldis of Waldoboro; Phyllis Mank of Walpole; Hattie Stover, Josephine Stover, Mellie Boudway and Norma Leavitt of Boothbay.

At local contest each club member taking canning is eligible to enter the Ball Brothers' canning contest for exhibiting two jars—one of a fruit and one of a non-acid vegetable. The first club to exhibit in this contest is the Boothbay Gainers. Mina Butler and Beryl Butler exhibited a jar of carrots and a jar of raspberries each. Mina Butler's exhibit was selected for the County Contest exhibit on October 31. The county winner will receive a dozen Ball Brothers jars besides having a chance to exhibit at the State Seed Show for a cash prize.

Knox County 4-H Club members will exhibit at North Knox Fair in Union Sept. 29, 30 and Oct. 31. First, second, and third premiums will be awarded each club member who displays a correct exhibit according to the project in which he or she is enrolled. Last year 153 club boys and girls received premiums on their exhibits. A larger exhibit is expected this year because of the new clubs organized in North Haven, Vinalhaven and Rockport.

Club tours have just been held by the Jolly Trollers of South Thomaston, Merry Maids of South Bristol and Ayrshire Dairy 4-H of Simonton's Corner.

The Jolly Trollers started their club tour at the home of Helen Johnson where they tested some sandwiches made from her own raised bread; then to Ina Anderson's who served cream puffs and Kool-aid that she had made; Ida Harjula's home was the next stop. Cornstarch pudding decorated with whipped cream and cherries served with small cakes were ready for the girls to judge for her cooking. Calls were then made on Arlene Nelson and Ina Mahonen who displayed the work accomplished in their sewing projects. The last stop was at Edna Ranta's who served the club with some of her well-known muffins.

Ayrshire dairy tour took in the following projects with all club boys attending with Mr. Cecil Annis, leader, Mr. Wentworth, County Agent, and Miss Clark, County Club Agent: Five dairy projects of Walter Annis, Donald Simonton, Edgar Simonton, Robert Pendleton, and John Annis; four Chick Raising projects by Carlton Wood, William Annis, Robert Marcello and Walter Annis; Garden by George Wamsley and Robert Marcello; and Pig by Philip Pendleton.

MANY NEVER SUSPECT CAUSE OF BACKACHES

This Old Treatment Often Brings Happy Relief

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, lumbago, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

MODERNIZE YOUR LAUNDRY

Minimize Your Work!

The three logical steps in acquiring a modern home laundry are the electric washer, ironer, and water heater. It's their job to do the scrubbing, lifting, pushing, pressing—not yours. Your clothes will look better, last longer, and be handled more gently when done at home.

You can have the three superior electric appliances all at once on the budget plan, or you can acquire them separately.

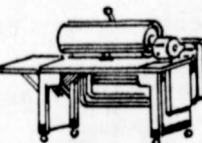

Ask Us About Electric Home
Laundries!

THE EASY WASHER

washes away every trace of dirt in five to seven minutes, and is kind to the most delicate fabrics.

THE EASY IRONER

takes the push and press out of your home. You simply guide the clothes through the rolls in about one-third the usual time.

THE ELECTRIC WATER HEATER

provides a never-ending supply of crystal-clear, piping-hot water at all times without the slightest attention. It's economical, too, because it gives you 1¢ Electricity after 200 kwh have been used in your home.

The Christmas Sewing Club entertained at Mayor and Mrs. L. A. Thurston's Wednesday evening in honor of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ladd. Cards and sewing were in order and late refreshments served, the dining table being very attractive with gay streamers and suspended "wedding bell" of silver. As the "bridal pair" started on their wedding trip by boat 25 years ago, it was "altogether fitting and proper" that a boat be used for a centerpiece, its doll passengers and suitcases causing much hilarity. The couple received a lovely gift from the club members. Mr. Ladd presenting the "Mrs." with a beautiful bouquet of roses.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY

Something About An Organization Which Is Doing Much Local Good

The International Sunshine Society was organized Jan. 15, 1896 by Cynthia Westover Alden and incorporated June 1, 1900 in New York State and Sept. 28, 1914 in New Jersey. Its object is:

"To incite its members to the performance of kind and helpful deeds; to organize branches in various cities and territories and all parts of the world; to publish an official organ and circulate the same to members of the association and others; to contribute money and useful articles to the needy and sick, to maintain, control and operate buildings, board and keep children, nurseries and kindergartens, playgrounds, wherein members of the association and all other well recommended persons not members of the association may be fed, cared for and lodged from time to time, either with or without pay; to establish a relief corps in time of war, famine, pestilence or catastrophe and thus bring the sunshine of happiness into the greatest possible number of hearts and homes; to acquire and hold property for these purposes and to sell, convey, lease, mortgage or encumber the same."

This paragraph is taken from the Constitution and By-Laws of the society and contains the law and Gospel of Christian living. The various departments function for the best good of all who need the help offered such as the department for the blind babies in private and public institutions; and care for the sick, bedridden and convalescent or weary and discouraged souls; also for remembrance of the aged on birthdays and holidays.

There are scholarships for deserving young men and women, libraries to be distributed, wheel chairs for cripples and crutches for the lame. Every human need can be ministered to if every member does a fraction of the requirement.

A comfort package for a shut-in or aged person may be bought for $1; pair of crutches, $2; comfort robe, $3; back rests, $4; pair of glasses, $5; maintenance of an invalid in comfort for one year, $10; school lunches for one year, $25; wheel chair, $50.

The local society was founded by Laura Case Bird who was born in 1848 and died in 1914. It is known as the Bird Branch. This society, of which Mrs. Bird was the first president, has carried out the principles of the Constitution insofar as possible, and many hearts have been gladdened by the unselfish service rendered. Those who have held the office of president include: Mrs. E. J. Southard, Mrs. Lulle Ufford, Mrs. Nellie Wade, Mrs. Minnie Miles, Mrs. Georgia Aylward, Mrs. Lizzie Smith, Mrs. Jeanette Dunton.

Charter members are: Mrs. L. Bird, Mrs. Eva Gregory, Mrs. May E. Sanborn, Mrs. Myra F. Clark, Mrs. Elizabeth Parmelee, Mrs. Evelyn Miller, Nixon, Mrs. Carrie Robbins, Mrs. Kate Tapley, Mrs. Clara Smith, Mrs. Elizabeth Spearin, Miss Helen York, Mrs. Hattie Davies, Miss Emma Shields, Mrs. Rebecca Ingraham and Miss Lizzie Haines.

The work accomplished by this society has been commendable and outstanding. Maine furnishes a room in Lewiston Y. W. C. A. and therein is a fine picture of Cynthia Westover Alden. The State annual convention is held in this building.

President Mrs. Jeanette Dunton extends an invitation to all women of the community to join the Sunshine Society. The motto of this organization describes its aims: "Have you had a kindness shown? Pass it on. 'Twas not given for you alone, pass it on. Let it echo down the years, let it wipe another's tears, till in heaven the deed appears. Pass it on."

were visitors Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Simmons.

Miss Rosamond Wilson has returned to Boston after passing the season at her home here.

HAPPY HOPE FARM

Tall Hollyhocks, Nice Jam and Election Mud Slingers Are Considered

Editor of The Courier-Gazette:—

In my opinion, September is one of the pleasantest months of the year, sharing that honor with June. June is like a fair, young maiden, with all the sweetness and fresh beauty of youth, but September is the maiden grown to the fruitage of comely womanhood. June's dress is the color of spring foliage and flowers, while September has chosen rich gold and purple for her attire, the brightness of golden rod and the royal hues of the wild aster.

In the little flower garden, some tall hollyhocks have blossomed. Some of the stalks are nearly nine feet tall and one stalk has had rose pink and rich purple blossoms on the same stalk. You'll think I'm telling a "whopper" but it's really true. You see, a morning glory took the hollyhock for a support and climbing the tall stalk, mingled its blossoms with those of its supporter. Then there are some artichokes, the last gift of a neighbor, the late Rena Wiley, and they too, seem trying to peep over the roof, so tall are they.

We've had several hundred chickens, but so far they have not been a paying proposition. The price of grain is a burden to the poultryman, and how can there be a profit with grain at or around $3 a bag and broilers selling at 15 cents a pound?

In the vegetable garden, corn developed slowly. Tomatoes are ripening. I make a jam of ripe tomatoes which we like. The ripe tomatoes are cut up, sugar, pinch of salt and dried orange peel added and boiled until thick, then put into jars that can be sealed. It makes a delicious spread. I thought I had invented this recipe but not long ago I was reading the favorite recipe of someone's great-great-grandmother and it was identical with my tomato preserve! In those past days oranges were a rare luxury and great-great-grandma saved and dried the peel for the family's tomato preserve.

Well, by the time this appears in print the voters' great day will be past. I think Gov. Landon will be the people's choice for President. I hope he will not disappoint us, though I know it will not be possible to please Mr. Everybody. Politicians remind one of lawyers. They call each other everything but a good fellow, until we cannot decide who is the villain and who the hero. Mr. S. and Mr. G. were lunching together and conversing about the case just finished, in which Mr. S. had been the lawyer for the defense and Mr. G. for the plaintiff, who had lost the case.

"Congratulations, S," said G. "We both know that Jones (the defendant) was guilty but you beat me at the art of mud slinging, so your side won. Darn it, man, you called me so many names. I don't know myself whether I'm a villain or an honest lawyer!" Whereat they both laughed and shook hands, the best of friends parting.

Politicians sling mud at their opponents until we common people are about convinced that both sides are represented by villains of deepest dye. Then when it's all over we gaze in amazement to see the bitter enemies walk off arm in arm, the best of friends. It's all in the game, they say.

Nancy M. Savage

'The Gift Of Simple Speech'

Tenants Harbor Days

Quoting Will Rogers: "All I know is what I read in the papers". From them I infer that there is to be an election in my native State, Monday, and like the tell-tale on a ship, it will show which way the wind blows. My first, last and only vote cast in my native State was cast in Houlton where I was located when I attained my majority in 1886. I remember the "Big Guns" were in Houlton that summer. Hon. James G. Blaine, Hon. Thomas B. Reed and many others, but I cannot remember who was elected governor or anything about the election. For once, Dad's diary does not furnish the information. Just why I do not know. It may have been that the results of the election did not come up to his Democratic ideas or ideals.

I left Houlton and came to Boston in October 1886. In 1884 I was a Cleveland Democrat, without a vote; and in 1888 I was a Harrison Republican, with a vote, and cast it. I found that the Maine Democrats and the Boston Democrats were not alike, so I changed my political belief. Whether I was a traitor or a convert, I am not sure.

In 1895 it was estimated that out of a population of 487,000 in the city of Boston, 220,000 were Irish and 80,000 native Americans. For the benefit of the younger set who do not know of the time when Maine was "The Power Behind the Throne" in the Congress of the United States, I quote Speaker Thomas B. Reed of Maine, Jan. 1896, appointed chairman of these committees: Nelson Dingley, Jr., Maine, Ways and Means; Charles A. Boutelle, Maine, Naval Affairs; Seth L. Milliken, Maine, Public Buildings and Grounds. "How are the mighty fallen!"

LAKEWOOD THEATRE

Another Three-Act Comedy Next Week—Passers-By They Call It

Determined to keep their audiences in a cheerful mood the Lakewood Players next week will present "Passers By" a three act comedy-drama. Although not a farce like "Personal Appearance" and "Three Men on a Horse," nor smart comedy like "Oliver Oliver," "Passers By" offers amusing characters in a series of entertaining situations.

Frank Wilcox

"Passers By" is the story of a young man who returns to his apartment to find his butler entertaining a cab driver. Angry at first, he becomes interested in the butler's hobby of picking out passersby and learning their history. How, in doing this, the young man changes the course of his entire future is amusingly told.

For the remainder of this week the Lakewood Players present "Oliver Oliver," a three act comedy with Don Dillaway in the title role.

A CONTEST WINNER

A Former Rockland Girl's Works of Art Get Judges' Favor In New York

In New York City's world of art there has figured prominently the past week a former Rockland girl, Louise Nevelson. She is better known here at home at Louise Berlawsky, and she is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Berlawsky of 385 Broadway.

Last June she received honorable mention in the first annual competitive exhibition held in the A.C.A. gallery. In the exhibition held last week, she was again a contestant, her offering caricaturing duck and dancer in water colored plaster which "revealed strength and delicacy in her drawings, especially figures," according to a New York newspaper.

The New York World-Telegram said: "Louise Nevelson is the most interesting of the contest winners. She contributes twelve drawings which, despite their jagged, uneven line, oddly suggest strength and solidity, somewhat in the manner of George Grosz's things. But far more important are five wooden sculptures, unlike anything else we've ever seen before, with the exception of one of her figures in the original competition. They are small wood sculptures conceived abstractedly and with special concern for the tensions of planes and volumes.

"But they are coated with multi-colored paints. For example, one arm of a figure is painted blue and another yellow. Or one-half of her chest is one color and the other half another. Now the idea sounds startling. But colored sculpture is far from a new thing. The ancients always colored their figures. The figures on the Parthenon frieze were tinted. But Miss Nevelson uses color as it never has been used before. She applies it abstractly, so to speak, even as though she were working on canvas instead of in the round.

"She uses it plastically and structurally, to emphasize some planes and de-emphasize others, to increase the volume of a certain section as it stands in relationship to another."

Trone, Miss Kathryn Peabody, Miss Annie Starrett, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Perry and children, Phyllis, Carl and Jeannette, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wyllie, Mr. and Mrs. Maxey received a gift from the group. Ice cream, crackers, and cake were served.

Miss Marjorie Spear was honor guest Sunday at a dinner party given by Mrs. Edgar Barker for Miss Spear's birthday anniversary. Present were Mr. Barker, Miss Spear, Miss Eleanor Goodwin, Bradley Pipkin, of this place and Abbott Spear of Newton, Centre, Mass. Miss Spear received many nice gifts. The party enjoyed supper at Drift Inn, Martinsville.

Guests of Miss Ella Ladd are, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ladd of New Haven Conn.

Jill Cogan daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Cogan is ill.

Alice Griffin, youngest daughter of Mrs. Ethel Griffin, received a cut over her right eye Friday when she fell at school. The wound required three stitches.

ANY WAY YOU FIGURE IT

You Profit 3 Ways with this Gasoline

WITH Triple-Action Tydol you can always figure three returns on your money.

First, Tydol drives with an anti-knock rating unsurpassed by any regular price gasoline. Second, Tydol oils with a top-cylinder lubricant that keeps valves and pistons free from drag and excess heat.

Third, Tydol cleans with a special ingredient that dissolves carbon binder, prevents rust and corrosion... And "all three" result in a plus performance, a motor that's long on mileage and short on repairs.

The right answer to your gasoline problem is Triple-Action Tydol.
