

Court in crise. pros.
S. J. C. Oct. 7. 1835
Oxford

7881 At 10.30 a.m. I went to the University Church of St. Mary Magdalene, Oxford, to attend the service.

At 11.30 a.m. I went to the University Church of St. Mary Magdalene, Oxford, to attend the service.

At 12.30 p.m. I went to the University Church of St. Mary Magdalene, Oxford, to attend the service.

At 1.30 p.m. I went to the University Church of St. Mary Magdalene, Oxford, to attend the service.

Oxford<sup>rs</sup>.

Account of fines ~~forfeitures~~ & costs in criminal prosecutions at the Supreme Judicial Court, October Term, A.D. 1835.

To wit,

n <sup>o</sup> . 1 State v Joseph L. Small, burglary, Jury do not agree, under Recog.	Costs 129.60
2 " " v David K Gleason, counterfeiting coin, Defd. on Recog.	Costs 150.40
3 " " v Issac Morse do not arrested	Costs 3.25
4 " " v James Allen Jr., Larceny, convicted, sentenced	Costs 149.93
5 " " v John Harris on scifa. Defaulted, debt $50.00	Costs 5.63
6 " " v Joel L. Virgin do debt $50.00	Costs 5.63
7 " " v Joseph P. Gilson do con <sup>d</sup> for Judg <sup>t</sup>	Costs 5.63
8 " " v David K. Gleason do do	Cost 5.75
9 " " v Nahum B. Morse & al do do	Costs 7.50
	$ 463.32

To Alanson Miller Esq<sup>r</sup>
Treas<sup>r</sup> of Oxford<sup>rs</sup>

I certify that the aforesaid sum of four hundred sixty three dollars & thirty two cents is the whole amount of costs in criminal prosecutions at the aforesaid Term. That judgment was rendered against John Harris for fifty dollars, debt, on scifa, and against Joel L. Virgin for fifty dollars, debt, on scifa. No fine was imposed.

R.R. Goodnow, Clerk.

To Asa Redington Esq<sup>r</sup>
Treas<sup>r</sup> State of Maine<sup>3</sup>