Motion. Note of thanks to the Hon. R. P. Dunlap, Pres. of the Senate

On motion by Mr Williams. Mr Dennett having taken the Chair, Resolved that the thanks of this Board be presented to the Hon. Robert P. Dunlap President of the Senate for the able, faithful, and impartial manner in which he has, at the present session, discharged the duties of his station, and while the members of the Board are impressed with a sense of his assiduous and efficient efforts to facilitate and expedite the despatch of the business of the session, they would tender to him the assurance of their personal respect for the benefits conferred upon their Constituents by the prompt and discreet course pursued by him to promote the interest and prosperity of the State. This Resolution having been read from the Chair was unanimously passed.

The President then resumed the Chair and made the following reply:

President's reply. Gentlemen of the Senate:

The appreciation you have been pleased to express of my official conduct as evinced by the Resolution you have just adopted, and the numerous instances in which I have experienced your individual kindness, during the period I have had the honor to preside over your deliberations, cannot but awaken in the mind, feelings of the most lively sensibility.

Though the ties arising from similar pursuits must now suffer a convulsive shock, will not memory often look back to this Hall of Legislation, where we have pursued together the round of duty and have felt the impulse of a common interest? Yes Gentlemen

Gentlemen, the variety of objects which have here formed our circle of business and of pleasure will crowd upon the recollection with renewed force.

Having cooperated together during the present session, to lend strength and support to those free institutions, which involve the most important interests of our fellow citizens, we are at length called to bid each other adieu; with the sincerity of a friend I would now tender to you an affectionate farewell and would offer my best wishes for your individual prosperity and happiness — may you revisit, in safety your respective families, and in the delightful retreats of private friendship surrounded by those endeared to you by their virtues, may you experience every enjoyment that can render life a blessing — in the quiet of home as you review your official conduct may you be enabled to look back upon it with unmingled satisfaction, and while the moral, the civil, and social relations of our state afford the most pleasing anticipations, may impartial conscience find nothing to disapprove; and when Gentlemen, you shall be called to sleep in Death, and time with you shall be no longer, may your memories be consecrated by the blessings of the good and may you share in the rewards of a happy immortality.
