Resolved on the report of Alexander Campbell and others, a committee, in behalf of this Commonwealth, to negotiate and settle any misunderstanding or differences with the Pasamaquody Indians and those of the other tribes connected with them.

Feb 7th 1793.

Whereas, by a Resolves of the General Court passed on the 15th day of June last, Alexander Campbell, John Allom and George Skillman were appointed a committee, in behalf of this Commonwealth, to negotiate and settle any misunderstanding, dispute or differences which may subsist between this Commonwealth and the Pasamaquody Indians and those other tribes connected with them, with full power and authority to lay out and assign to the said Indians any tract of land located and belonging to this Commonwealth in the County of Washington, not exceeding ten thousand acres, and also to purchase any particular spot of ground or tract of land for the use and convenience of said Indians, provided however, that such purchase shall not exceed the sum of five hundred pounds.

And whereas, the said committee have exhibited to the General Court in the present session an agreement signed the 20th day of September last, by and between them on behalf of this Commonwealth and the chief of the Pasamaquody tribe of Indians and others connected with them, in which agreement it is in the words following, to wit:

To all people to whom this present agreement shall be made known—Mr. Alexander Campbell, John Allom and George Skillman, Esquires a committee appointed and authorized by the General Court.
Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to treat, sell and assign certain lands to the Passamaquoddy Indians and others connected with them, agreeable to a Resolve of General Court of the 29th of June, in the year of our Lord 1794, of the one part, and the subscribing Chiefs and others for themselves and in behalf of the said Passamaquoddy tribe and others connected with them, of the other part, Witnesseth, that the said Committee in behalf of the Commonwealth aforesaid, and in consideration of the said Indians relinquishing all their right, title, interest, claim or demand of any land or lands, lying and being within the said Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and also engaging to be peaceable and quiet inhabitants of said Commonwealth, without molesting any of the settlers of the Commonwealth aforesaid in any way or means whatever, in consideration of all which, the Committee aforesaid, do hereby assign and set off to the said Indians, the following tracts or parcels of land lying and being within the Commonwealth of Massachusetts viz: All those islands lying and being in Schoodic river, between the falls, at the head of the tide, and the falls below the forks of said River, where the north branch and west branch parts, being fifteen in number, containing one hundred and forty acres, more or less, also Township No. 3, in the first Range, surveyed by Mr. Samuel Atwood, on the year of our Lord 1794, containing about 23,000 acres, more or less, being bounded as follows: Eastward, by Forest Reserv and Township No. 1, first Range; northward, by Township No. 2, second Range; westward, by Township No. 2, first Range; southward by the west branch of Schoodic River, also Pine Island lying in front of said Township, containing ten acres more or less, together with one hundred acres of land lying on immediate point adjoining the west side of said township, also Pine Island lying to the westward of said immediate Point, containing and hundred and fifty acres more or less; also assign and set off to John Baptiste Lauder, a French gentleman now settled among said Indians, one hundred acres of land as a settler in Township No. 1, first Range, lying at the falls at the carrying place on the north branch of Schoodic River, to be entitled to have said land laid out to show in the same manner as settled towns; Towns ships are entitled; also assign to the said Indians the privilege of fishing on both branches of the River Schoodic, without disturbance or molestation, and the privilege of passing said River over the different carrying places thereto, all which Islands, Townships, tracts or parcels of land and privileges, being marked with a col-tree X on the plan taken by Mr. Samuel Stilcombe with the reservation of all kindress for most on said tracts of land, to Government—thereby making said Indians a reasonable compensation. Therefore, also assign and set off to said Indians, the area of land more or less at present being purchased by said committee on behalf of and Government of J ohn Bliss, being bounded as follows: Begin at a stone to the eastward of the dwelling house, and running with twenty five degrees West thirty four rods, from thence running north sixty six degrees east thirty eight rods to the bay;
