Wiscase, April 10, 1794
4 o'clock P.M.

G. Sir.

On my arrival here this afternoon from Halleck I found this letter in the post office. Considering the present urgency of the order, and the incapacity of the Adjutant General to attend to the business, I judged it expedient to transmit copies thereof to Colonel Barrett, Lieut. Col. D'Arby (who commands the late Emerson's regiment) to Colonel D'Arby. The latter of which accompanies this, and I wish you to enclose the former; and forward it forward to him as soon as may be after you receive it.

The original order after showing it to the General, I will transmit to you to forward to me, that it may lay on file in the Adjutant General's Office.

I am with usual esteem,
G. Sir,

Your in haste

Tallah
