RULES AND REGULATIONS.

1. It is hoped to make the showing and the judging of Stock of high order, and to do so exhibitors must work in concert with Officers and Judges, and bring their animals to the respective show rings when called.

2. The Exhibition of Manufactured Articles, Country Produce etc., will be in Association Hall, which will be open to the public on Tuesday forenoon at ten o'clock, and continue open during the Fair.

3. All Awarding Committees are requested to report themselves at the Secretary's office, in Exhibition Hall, at or before ten o'clock the first day of the Fair, to receive the list of entries for their examination and award. Each member of the Awarding Committee will be furnished a free ticket while on duty.

4. All Committees are requested to report at the Secretary's office in reference to their reports before making them public, and for that purpose the Secretary will be in attendance the forenoon of each day.

5. No person shall serve on any committee where he is personally interested as a competitor.

6. When there is but one animal or article in a class, Committees will award a second premium unless it is of especial merit, and in all cases will withhold premiums when an animal or article is unworthy.

7. Premiums will be paid on application to the Treasurer after thirty days from close of the Fair, and all premiums not called for within sixty days from the close of the Exhibition will be considered as given to the Association in aid of its funds.

8. Entries for premiums must be made before ten o'clock Tuesday morning, and the Secretary will be in attendance at the Hall on the Grounds Monday from 7-30 to 11-30 A. M. and from 1-30 to 5-30 P. M., and on the morning of the Exhibition from 7-30 to 10-00 A. M. for the reception of articles.

THE Twentieth Century Protection Policy is all that its title implies—insurance adjusted to Twentieth Century requirements and ideals. It is the very best plan of family protection offered to the public to-day; permitting a man to secure the greatest possible amount of indemnity to his wife and children, in case of his death, at the least possible cost.

For full particulars write to our nearest resident agent, for a brief descriptive pamphlet.
