
In pursuance of the General Orders of the 6. of June last, requiring a detachment of 733 men from the 1. Brigade, & 44 from the 2. Brigade of this Division. Major-General L'Heureux directs Brigadier General Hamblet to cause the proportion of this detachment laid on the 2. Brigade, to be detailed divided from the several regiments therein, according to their strength, and that the same be formed into one Regiment, consisting of two Battalions, to be officered and organized as is directed by the General Orders aforesaid.

In order to accommodate the 1. Brigade in its present vacant situation, and to facilitate the execution of the General Orders above-mentioned, the Major-General has caused a more minute detail of his proportion of this detachment, and directs that the 733 men including officers, required therefrom, be furnished by the several regiments in the following proportions, viz.

1. (Lamont's) Regiment:
2 Captains, 2 Lieutenants, 2 Ensigns, 6 Serjeants, 2 Drummers, 2 fifes, & 128 rank files, to be formed into two companies of 64 rank file each.

2. (Page's) Regiment:
2 Captains, 2 Lieutenants, 2 Ensigns, 6 Serjeants, 2 Drummers, 2 fifes, & 128 rank files, to be formed into two companies of 64 rank file each.

3. (Late Emerson's) Regiment:
2 Captains, 2 Lieutenants, 2 Ensigns, 6 Serjeants, 2 Drummers, 2 fifes, and 128 rank files, to be formed into two companies of 64 rank file each.

4. (Late Barret's) Regiment:
2 Captains, 2 Lieutenants, 2 Ensigns, 6 Serjeants, 2 Drummers, 2 fifes, and 120 rank files, to be formed into two companies of 60 rank file each.

5. (Battie's) Regiment:
2 Captains, 2 Lieutenants, 2 Ensigns, 6 Serjeants, 2 Drummers, 2 fifes, and 124 rank files, to be formed into two companies of 62 rank file each.

The detachment from the 1. Brigade will form one Regiment, to be commanded by Colonel Ezekiel Battie- who will appoint from any of the regiments within the 1. Brigade, in conformity to the General Orders aforesaid, an Adjutant, the other necessary regimental staff, and the two Regiments will consist of two Battalions, as follows, viz... one Company from Lamont, the two Companies from Page, and the two Companies from Battie, will compose the first Battalion, to be commanded by Colonel John Reed.
the other company from Hamers, the two companies from the late Enrons, the two companies from the late Stewarts, will compose the second battalion, to be commanded by Major William St. Exisere.

As soon as the numbers from each standing company are designated to form this detachment, each commanding officer of the regiment from which they are detached, will direct the captains appointed to command them, to assemble the men by companies in some central place, cause them to be enrolled, and make return thereof without delay, as directed by the general orders beforementioned.

The whole of the detachment required from this division, being designed by the commander in chief to form one brigade, Brigadier General Campbell is hereby appointed to take command thereof. He is authorized to appoint a Brigade Inspector, and such other Brigade Staff as may be necessary to organize the same.
