Annual Report
Department of Economic and Community Development
January 2010

Thaxter Trafton, Acting Commissioner
www.businessinmaine.com
DECD Statutory Mission

• Encourage economic and community planning and development policies and programs of the State and to coordinate these programs and policies within the context of a state economic development strategy.

• Work with municipalities and regional planning and economic development organizations to build strong local and regional economies and to implement programs and services through these local and regional organizations.

• Encourage the creation and retention of quality jobs through increased private sector investment.

• Enhance the quality of life for all by assisting local governments to plan and implement comprehensive community planning and development strategies.
The Role of Economic and Community Development

• Help Maine companies start, expand or relocate in order to add good jobs for Mainers and build sustainable communities that can host these companies
  – Provide technical assistance so companies and entrepreneurs can be more productive, innovative and competitive
  – Provide financial assistance and tax incentives so companies can invest in new products, processes, equipment and communities can invest in infrastructure
  – Market Maine to build demand for Maine products and destinations
Key Points

• Economic and community development is the most important investment that a state can make to ensure future economic prosperity.

• At 38 positions and $12 million/year general funds, DECD is the smallest cabinet-level department.

• DECD general funds leverage over $85 million in federal funds, and $800 million in matching funds from our investments.

• Companies and communities that work with DECD grow faster and are more successful than the average.
