September 2015

Everett Carleton Herrick Correspondence

Everett Carleton Herrick 1876-1957

Hilda McLeod Jacob

Maine State Library

Follow this and additional works at: http://digitalmaine.com/maine_writers_correspondence

Recommended Citation
Herrick, Everett Carleton 1876-1957; Jacob, Hilda McLeod; and Maine State Library, 'Everett Carleton Herrick Correspondence' (2015). Maine Writers Correspondence. 275.
http://digitalmaine.com/maine_writers_correspondence/275

This Text is brought to you for free and open access by the Maine State Library Special Collections at Maine State Documents. It has been accepted for inclusion in Maine Writers Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Maine State Documents. For more information, please contact statedocs@maine.gov.
HERRICK, Everett Carleton.

b. Livermore, June 13, 1876
June 16, 1949

Dr. Everett Carleton Herrick
5 Ripley Terrace
Newton Center, Massachusetts

Dear Dr. Herrick:

Congratulations on the publication of your book, TURNS AGAIN HOME. We are buying it for the regular lending section of the library, of course; and we anticipate that it will prove popular with our readers.

Perhaps you already know of the Maine Author Collection. It is a permanent exhibit collection of books written by Maine people. The volumes are inscribed and presented by the authors, and we take great pride in the books themselves, the variety and originality of many inscriptions (they range from tributes to the state to verse, from pen-and-ink sketches to autobiographical anecdotes), the generous interest of the authors, and the impressive contribution which Maine people have made to literature.

We earnestly hope that you may want to inscribe a copy of TURNS AGAIN HOME for the collection. When you are in Maine, do come in, and give us the opportunity to show you the collection.

Our very best wishes go to you for the success of TURNS AGAIN HOME.

Sincerely yours

hmj

In Charge of
Maine Author Collection
My dear Mrs. Jacob—

My thanks for your very kind letter about my books. I turned again at home yesterday & sent an inscription copy to the Library. I was glad to do this and glad to have my books added to that must be a much Valuable Collection.

Your kind intention to give me as much as possible here but assured I have opportunity. I shall want to accept—your invitation—

visit the library.

Yours,

June 23

Ernest C. Haeberl.
June 24, 1949

Dr. Everett C. Herrick
5 Ripley Terrace
Newton Centre 59, Massachusetts

Dear Dr. Herrick:

Thank you for your friendly interest and letter, and especially for the delightfully inscribed copy of TURNS AGAIN HOME, which we are placing in the Maine Author Collection with appreciation.

This is a most interesting account of a full life, and we are glad that you were moved to set down your memories and experiences in this fashion.

Please accept our thanks, and our continuing good wishes.

Sincerely yours

hmj

In Charge of
Maine Author Collection