Dear Librarian,

I am enclosing a complimentary copy of my book "Coming Home" which I published in October of 1977. I hope it will give pleasure.

The response to my book has been gratifying, especially from senior citizens who can relate to it. Friends who are in nursing homes write me that they have shared their copies with others in the home and it has proven to be a relaxing book.

It has occurred to me on the strength of this that I could give pleasure to others in nursing homes or hospitals throughout Maine by contributing a limited number of copies of my book. But I just don't know just how to go about accomplishing this.

Can you help me either with a mailing list of some you would recommend my mailing to, or with a suggestion as to how I go about my proposed project?

Very cordially yours,

Kathryn B. Jones

Dear Mrs. Jones:

Thank you so much for your complimentary copy of your new book Coming Home. We will add this autographed copy to the Maine Author Collection. We will soon be ordering a copy for our circulating collection.

The Dept. of Human Services is mailing you a list of Maine Licensed Hospitals and Related Institutions (Nursing Homes) Directory.

Sincerely,

Ms. Shirley Thayer
