Dear Mrs. Jacob:

I am sending you some more of the writings of my aunt, Dr. Anna E.
Perkins, formerly of N. Bemis. She also wrote under the name of Elizabeth Allen.

For a number of the articles I cannot set a date, but do know the approximate time; these in the "Every 6th Sunday" were all in the 90's except the one in Colorado Gold Times.
She was in practice in Durango, Colo., when the latter was written. "Every 6th Sunday" was published in Boston by the Unitarian Church.
The Vermont articles were some time in the 20's, early part I think.

Sincerely yours,

Thomas T. Stevenson

P.S. The Portland Historical Society Museum had a considerable collection of Dr. Perkins Botanical & Ethnological writings, I'm told.

Dear Mr. Stevenson:

Thank you for today's gift of Dr. Perkins' articles, which we are delighted to have for the Maine Author Collection.

These charming essays should have been collected into a book, don't you think? We are fortunate that they were saved, and grateful to you for sending them to us.

Sincerely yours
