Place of birth: Phila., PA.
Date of birth: 11-11-39
Home address: 36 MOUNTICOOK ST., CAMDEN, ME
Publications: I WILL MEAN, all other poetry and fiction unpublished to date.

Biographical information Stephen Alan Saft is currently employed by Journal Publications of Camden, ME, as news editor of "National Fisherman," monthly commercial fishing and boat construction newspaper. Prior to joining "National Fisherman," he worked for 12 years in New York City in a variety of writing and editing jobs. Saft is married to the former Jane Irene Lyons of Barre, VT. They have one son, Scott Lyons Saft, second baseman on the Tanner's Little League baseball team in Camden. Saft is a 1961 graduate of Lafayette College, Easton, Pa., in English literature, and he has a masters degree from Yale University, New Haven, Conn., also in English. Saft plans publication of a second book of poems in the near future, to be entitled STEVIE McSAFT AND IS SICK AS A TRICK WINDMILL BOAT. Finally, Saft is 6'6" tall.