Dear Dr. Teg:

It was most interesting to us to read recently of your new book ALMUCHICOITT. The part of Maine included in the territory of which you write is rich in history and legend, and any material which finds its way into print is not only of interest, but also of value to us.

The Maine Author Collection, which includes books by Maine people, and books about the state, is composed of inscribed presentation volumes, and we hope that you may want to inscribe a copy of ALMUCHICOITT for this exhibit. The books form a unit which is impressive and fascinating, and which constantly attracts visitors and students. We are always delighted when a new Maine book may be added, and particularly one that is of lasting worth.

You have our very good wishes for the success of your new book, and our cordial invitation to call at the library and see the collection when you are in Maine.

Sincerely yours

Dear Dr. Teg:

The complimentary copy of your most interesting book, ALMUCHICOITT, is acknowledged with deep appreciation.

There is a wealth of information in the book, and we congratulate you upon gathering it together and making it available in this attractive form. Surely the book will be valued by many students and readers in search of historical material about this part of the country.

Please accept our thanks, and our good wishes for a wide acquaintance with ALMUCHICOITT.

Sincerely yours
