After completing his examination of the petition, the town clerk shall certify the result thereof to the town council at its next regular meeting. If he shall certify that the petition is insufficient, he shall set forth in his certificate the particulars in which it is defective and shall at once notify the circulator of the petition as to his findings.

When a referendum petition, or amended petition, has been certified as sufficient by the town clerk, the ordinance specified in the petition shall not go into effect, or further action thereunder shall be suspended if it shall have gone into effect, until or unless approved by the voters, as hereinafter provided.

A referred ordinance shall be reconsidered by the council and its final vote upon such reconsideration shall be upon the question, “Shall the ordinance specified in the referendum petition be repealed?” In the case of referendum the entire repeal of the ordinance sought to be referred, and in the case of the initiative, the passage by the town council of the desired ordinance shall put an end to all proceedings under said petition.

Sec. 1308. Submission to voters. If the town council shall fail to pass an ordinance proposed by initiative petition, or shall pass it in a form different from that set forth in the petition therefor, or if the town council fails to repeal a referred ordinance, the proposed or referred ordinance shall be submitted to the electorate not less than 15 days nor more than 6 months from the date the council takes its final vote thereon. The town council may, in its discretion and, if no regular election is to be held within such period, shall provide for a special election.

Sec. 1309. Publication. Whenever any ordinance is required by the provisions of this article to be submitted to the voters of the town at any election, the town council must order publication of the complete text thereof to be made in one, or more should the town council deem it best, of the newspapers published or having a general circulation in the town of Brunswick, such publication to be made not less than 10 days nor more than 20 days prior to the election.

Sec. 1310. Form of ballot. The ballots used when voting on such a proposed ordinance shall set forth the title thereof in full and state its general nature; it shall contain the words: "For the Ordinance" and "Against the Ordinance."

If conflicting ordinances are approved by the voters at the same election, the one receiving the greatest number of affirmative votes shall prevail to the extent of such conflict.

Sec. 1312. Publication of ordinances. Initiative and referendum ordinances adopted and approved by the voters shall be published as in the case of other ordinances.
