BARWISE, Mark A

TO WRITE HISTORY OF SPIRITUALISM

Mark A. Barwise, well known Bangor attorney, former recorder of the Bangor Municipal Court and a member of the Maine Legislature, has been selected to write a chapter giving the history of spiritualism for the National Spiritualist Association. The book is being compiled by Prof. Charles S. Braden of Northwestern University on varieties of American religion.

The book will be published during the holidays. Mr. Barwise was for some years a prominent and influential member of the executive committee of the National Spiritualist Association and his selection to write so important a chapter is considered by his friends to be a distinct compliment to his ability.
