

PAUL D. SARGENT, Road Commissioner of Maine.

'T WAS years ago—the scriptures say
That Paul came down the old Highway;
And there, a light, immense, abode
Upon the old Damascus road.

He needs a brighter light to-day
Who travels State of Maine highway;
His benzine buggy strikes, kerwhack!
And out he slides, upon his back;
And while he writhes there in his pain,
He curses motoring in Maine!
Let him, to whom such things befall,
Sing praises to our modern Paul,
Epistled in our Public Codes—
"Paul Sargent; Maker of Good Roads."
