Miss Marion Wallace
Warren
Maine

Dear Miss Wallace:

Some time ago we noticed an announcement of your little book of poems, STRAY THOUGHTS. Please accept our best wishes. We hope you will continue with your poetry, and that some day many, many people will know of it, and will enjoy reading it.

Most of our Maine authors have been very generous and interested in the Maine Author Collection. This collection has several hundred books in it, and they are all inscribed from the authors. They are all kept in the State Librarian's office and are not lent. We have them for exhibit only.

We hope you will want to inscribe a copy of STRAY THOUGHTS for this collection, and also send us a little biographical information: the date of your birth, where you were born, and such facts. We will be very grateful for your kindness.

We wish you continued success, and we invite you to visit the State Library and the Maine Author Collection when you are in Augusta.

Very truly yours

Dear Miss McLeod:

I appreciate your kind interest in my little book of verse, and I'm very grateful for the chance to send one to the Maine State Library.

The poems were all written between the ages nine and fourteen.

I am fifteen now, and a Freshman at Warren High School.
I was born March ninth, 1922,
in Warren.

I hope someday to do something worth while in the line of poetry.

Very truly yours,
Marion Wallace

Dear Miss Wallace:

The copy of STRAY THOUGHTS, which you have so kindly inscribed and presented to the Maine Author Collection, has been received.

It is with pleasure that we add this little book, with its charming poems, to the collection. We hope you will continue to write poetry, and that you may publish more books.

Thank you very much for this copy of your first book.

Very truly yours
