REPORT OF SUPERVISOR OF SCHOOLS.

The schools of Old Orchard have maintained the same high standard that they attained the previous year, and they will compare favorably with those of the larger cities of the State.

The increase of attendance beyond the seating capacity of the two rooms obliged your agent to establish a third school for the younger scholars. If this increase should continue it will make a necessity for a second school building. But in view of the fact that much of the population cannot be considered permanent, I should advise that the town continue to hire a room for the primary department. If the number of scholars necessitate a continuance of the three schools, another year will better decide the accommodation required.

The grammar department during the spring term was under the instruction of Mr. C. H. Morrill, and was characterized by the same success as during the previous year.

The Intermediate department has continued under the management of Miss Ella Baker, and has made most satisfactory advancement, a result of careful instruction and fine discipline.

The primary department has been under the instruction of Miss Cora Jameson, with most satisfactory results.

The high school has been established in the school building during the fall and winter terms under the instruction of Mr. W. H. H. McAllister, and has afforded a grade of school that has met the requirements of the most advanced pupils. Mr. McAllister is a teacher of large experience and his school has met our highest expectations.

F. G. STAPLES,
Supervisor of Schools.

REPORT OF CHIEF ENGINEER OF FIRE DEPARTMENT.

In accordance with established custom, I herewith submit this my second annual report of the operations of the Fire Department for the financial year ending Jan. 31st, 1886, and call your careful attention to such matters as may be of public interest and necessity.

To be brief in the representation of the condition of department property, I am enabled to state that everything connected with the department representing property is in good and efficient condition, and the purchase of but few small sundries is necessary to the general efficiency for the coming year.

It is quite remarkable that during the past year, as also the previous year, no false alarm has occurred. The department has been called out but twice during the year, March 20th, to the burning of the Central House, and April 10th to the burning of the observatory building, at both of which the department rendered commendable service, the results receiving comments of highest praise for efficiency. But one additional reservoir has been constructed, this being located on Grand avenue, near the Cleaves House, items and expense of which, together with the general expense account of the department, will be found under the proper headings of the auditor's report. Additional reservoirs are needed, but pending the action of the town in relation to the water supply, I leave this matter for your deliberation, and in continuation of this subject I deem it in the line of duty the second time to ask your careful consideration upon this matter of a water supply.

Foreseeing future contingencies liable to arise pertaining to this subject, I last year called your attention in that direction by suggesting some move in obtaining a supply from the Saco and Biddeford Water Co., believing that such an acquisition, either from this or some other practicably efficient and available source, as a public improvement, would redound to our credit and immediate as well as future welfare.

Today we are paying at the rate of $250 annually for a supply of water for fire purposes exclusively, and with seemingly no practical remedy should the sum be increased, and even on the demand of the present basis of assessment, every additional reservoir necessitates an additional expense of $50. Conceding that it is commendable to appreciate and patronize local enterprise, yet the public interest should not be subservient to private emolument. You will readily perceive this to be a matter of vital importance, having various bearings, all of which will demand your candid deliberation.

Still another matter of last year's notice is the provision for better alarm service. The bell in the tower of the Odd Fellows' building is too small for the locality, and should be placed in the tower of the M. E. church, which is the only available commanding locality, and a new and much heavier one should be purchased for the present location.

During the two years past it has been next to an impossibility during a part of each year, to maintain the standard number in the company. Such vacancies, under similar circumstances, are liable to continue, which is greatly to be deplored, as it saps the vitals of the department for efficiency. The causes for this have been various, yet but two remedies occur to my mind; either the property owners who are most directly and financially interested in maintaining an efficient department must interest themselves personally for its welfare, or create a money interest for those who have no property at stake and little personal interest, but are active, able-bodied men, and ready to render their services for a fair compensation, and thus conduce to a more permanent efficiency. The members now receive $1.00 each per month, the torch boys nothing, except that in order to retain the services of the two torch boys, I took the responsibility to guarantee them $5.00 each for their year's services. With two exceptions, the members of the company have changed from one to three times. This state of affairs, when the hazard of inefficiency is so great, should find an immediate remedy. At the present time the company has a full complement of active members.

To the gentlemen constituting the fire department, as also to those who have, during the year, for various good reasons, resigned, I feel under many obligations, and acknowledge many personal courtesies rendered. I cannot speak too highly of the efficient manner in which they have on every occasion promptly responded to the call of duty, and of the interest shown under adverse circumstances through the cordial support and endorsement of all matters tending to the advancement of the best interests of the department for the public welfare.

WESLEY G. SMITH, Chief Engineer.

IN MEMORIAM.

It becomes the sad duty of the undersigned to announce the death of our associate John Jameson, the Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, who after a protracted illness of many months passed away on the 30th of December 1885, at the age of 59 years.

In token of respect to the memory of one so well known and who held such a prominence in the history of our town affairs, it is fitting that we devote this page to his memory. John Jameson was one of our elder and most respected citizens, having been born upon the estate whereon he lived and died. He was associated during his earlier life with the public affairs of the Town and City of Saco and later has occupied the most prominent positions of preferment and public trust within the gift of the citizens of our Town, having been elected its first treasurer, next a member of the Board of Selectmen, assessors and overseers of the poor and at the time of his death Chairman of said Board, it is but fitting that we express our appreciation of the services rendered the Town by him in these several offices in all of which he served with distinction. He was a strict advocate of the moral questions of the day and radical for the enforcement of the laws to the letter. He illustrated in his life and character the pre-eminent principles of uprightness and sobriety. Although very exacting in his business and official transactions, he was thoroughly conscientious in all his dealings and possessed of the most sterling integrity.

In our own community we have only to mention his name and add, he lived among us, we knew him, we recognized his merit and his worth and we honored him. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him for his worth and his true manhood, his genial presence and the warmth of his greeting which drew to him so many friends, will no longer be felt, but in their hearts his memory will live forever.

IN MEMORIAM

It became the sad duty of the undersigned to announce the death of our friend John Hancock, the Chairman of the Board of Selectmen, who after a protracted illness of many months passed away on the 20th of December 1887 at the age of 59 years.

In token of respect to the memory of one so well known and who held such a prominent place in the history of our town affairs, it is fitting that we devote this page to his memory. John Hancock was one of our ablest and most respected citizens, having been born upon the estate whereon he lived and died. He was associated during his earlier life with the public affairs of the Town and City of Salem and later has occupied the most prominent positions of preference and public trust within the gift of the citizens of our Town. Having been elected for that position, next a member of the Board of Selectmen, assessor and treasurer of the poor and at the time of his death Chairman of said Board. It is but fitting that we express our appreciation of the services rendered the Town by him in these several offices in all of which he served with distinction. He was a strict adherent of the moral principles of the day, and radical for the advancement of the laws to the better. He illustrated in his life and character the pre-eminence principles of righteousness and sobriety. Although very exacting in his business and official transactions, he was thoroughly conscientious in all his dealings and possessed of the most sterling integrity.

In our own community we have only to mention his name and add he lived among us, we know him, we recognized his merit and his worth and we honored him. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him for his worth and his true manhood. His genial presence and the warmth of his greeting which drew to him so many friends, will no longer be felt, but in their hearts his memory will live forever.
