Williamstown 31st May 1824

Mr William Carleton

Sir

I have received your letter of 24th inst enclosing thirty four Dollars in full for the taxes & charges of sale on the land of John Evans Esq in this town & also for my trouble in the business, for which I have given a receipt to the mail carrier so that you may now safely send him his rec<sup>t</sup> to you, by mail. Agreeably to my understanding with you brother the deed from the Collector has been kept back, & is now rendered unnecessary so that the business stands as if no sale had been made, & this letter may be sufficient evidence that <sup>the taxes & charges are</sup> ~~it~~ discharged -

The taxes for this year are not yet assessed, when they are I will let you know the amount, & as I am Treasurer of the town my receipt to you for the amount when it shall arrive will be a sufficient discharge -

Respectfully, your obt<sup>servant</sup>

A. G.

P.S.

To Mr Wm. Carleton
