My Dear Sister

I now take my pen in hand to let you know that I am all right and hope that these few lines will find the same. I read your kind letter of the 20th last night and the morning all so and was glad to get it.
When we was reviewed on the 25th you wanted to know when I am coming home it is hard to tell don't fret for I may get

Y^{es} Hild get before I get ^{my} home but not that air making out our Discharge papers but it is hard to tel when I shall get home Helen look hear who told you that I was a Corp'l pleas inform me if you will I am one but tel me who told you that was one Well Helen I got eny thing more to write so good by I come your Brother Yet
