AND MAINE SPORTSMAN

VOL. XXXII, NO. 34—PRICE 4 CENTS.

PHILLIPS, MAINE, THURSDAY, MARCH 24, 1910.

LOCAL EDITION—12 PAGES.

Remington

AUTOLOADING SHOTGUN

YOU don't have to bother to load a Remington Autoloading Gun. The recoil does all the work of ejecting the empty shell and throwing a loaded one into place. You pull and release the trigger for each of the five shots.

Pleasant to shoot because of slight kick. Absolutely safe because of the Remington Solid Breech Hammerless feature. Easy to handle and quick to point.

Try one on ducks or geese. You will agree with the sportsman who wrote "I wouldn't take a $1000 for my Remington Autoloader if I couldn't get another." Anyone can afford one, the price is so moderate.

If your dealer can't show you one, write us for catalogue and literature.

WINCHESTER

Self-Loading Rifle, .351 Caliber, High-Power

This six-shot repeater utilizes the recoil to reload itself, which places loading, as well as shooting, under control of the trigger finger. It is a very effective rifle for big game hunting. The .351 Caliber, High-Power cartridge has great killing power, making it heavy enough for the largest game. Circular fully describing this rifle, "The Gun That Shoots through Steel," sent upon request.

Model 25 Marlin Repeater

.22 Caliber—.22 Short or C. B. Caps.

This is a perfect Marlin repeating rifle that shoots 15 .22 short or 18 C. B. caps at one loading. Its take-down construction and trombone action are popular and desirable features; the side ejection favors rapid, accurate firing; the removable side plate makes it, especially easy to keep clean and serviceable.

The C. B. caps are entirely accurate and satisfactory in this short range work, yet they are the cheapest form of reliable ammunition made.

With .22 short cartridges it is very accurate and powerful enough for all small game shooting up to 50 yards.

The price of this excellent new model is surprisingly low—send postal today for circular with large illustration and full description. Complete catalog for three stamps postage.

A Portrait.

(By Edna Worthley Underwood.)
I wouldn't mind a bit, my dear,
If I could look like you,
Like to a Dresden figurine
With eyes of saddest blue,

Wherein lies such a plaintive lure
Of wistfulness—regret—
Such haunting sweetness—weariness—
That one may not forget.

A point of reddest petulance
The mouth—'tis not amiss
To say you're best described by
A glance and then a kiss.

I'd like to know the vanished lives
That gave to you this air,
So feverish—pale—so shadowed
And withal so debonaire.

Your figure's so petite, so mince,
Formed with such dainty care,
And yet held haughtily erect,
But with such childish air,

You suit not well our modern ways,
You do not fit the age,
I'd like you in old Dresden silks,
En train, held by a page.

Fluttering a fan made by Vanloo,
While your still slippered feet
Flash their gem-studded heels down halls

Where knights and ladies meet.

I wouldn't mind a bit, my dear,
If I'd been there with you,
To sigh my soul out like a king
O'er such sad eyes of blue.

Boom Your Own Town.

Business will prosper
Only when the people
Of the community
Make a united effort.

Your business depends
On others' prosperity.
Unless we work together
Results are disappointing.

Only those prosper
Whose patrons are prosperous.
Nothing succeeds like success!

Towns thrive and flourish
Only when they deserve to—
When their own people
Neglect no opportunities.

A Ballad of Woman.

She bore us in her dreaming womb,
And laughed into the face of Death;
She laughed, in her strange agony,—
To give her little baby breath.

Then, by some holy mystery,
She fed us from her sacred breast,
Soothed us with little birdlike words—
To rest—to rest—to rest—to rest;

Yea, softly fed us with her life,—
Her bosom like the world in May;
Can it be true that men, thus fed,
Feed women—as I hear them say?

I wonder if such men as these
Had once a sister with blue eyes,
Kind as the soothing hand of God,
And as the quiet heaven wise.

I wonder, when all friends had gone—
The gay companions, the brave men—
If in some fragile girl they found
Their only stay and comrade then.

Shall she who bore the son of God,
And made the rose of Sappho's song,
She who saved France, and beat the drum,
Of freedom, bear this, vulgar wrong?

Have no part in the world she made—
Sert of the rainbow, vassal flower—
Save knitting in the afternoon,
And rocking cradles, hour by hour!
—Richard Le Gallienne, in Harper's Weekly.

Man About Town.

Mary married a little lamb
Who's past was white as snow,
He never did a single thing
His mother did not know.
But when the honey-moon had past,
This lamb began to gambol,
And up and down the broad white-way
In ecstasy to ramble.
Quoth Mary as she let him in
Each morn at half past three,
Next time an old black sheep,
With a dark brown past for me.

Knowledge is Power

There is one kind of knowledge that is power and prestige in the hands of a woman. It is the knowledge of her own nature, her own physical make-up and the home-treatment of diseases peculiar to her sex. There is a great home medical book that teaches all this. It is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book of 1008 pages and over 700 wood-cuts and colored plates. Over 2,300,000 American homes contain copies of this work. It used to cost $1.50; now it is free. For a paper covered copy send 21 one-cent stamps, to cover mailing only, to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y.; French cloth binding, 31 stamps. A new, revised up-to-date Edition, now ready.

This great book tells all about a medicine that is a cure for all weakness and disease of the delicate organs distinctly feminine. That medicine is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. During the past 40 years many thousands of women have used it with marvelous results.

It imparts health, vigor, virility, strength and elasticity to the organs that bear the burdens of maternity. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Taken during the period of gestation, it makes the coming of baby easy and almost painless. It completely banishes the pain and misery that are the result of a woman's neglecting her womanly health.

An honest medicine dealer will give you what you ask for, and not try to persuade you to take some inferior-secret-nostrum substitute for the little added profit he may make thereon.

"Favorite Prescription" is so perfect and so good in its make-up that its makers feel warranted to print its every ingredient on its bottle-wrappers. Is that not a significant fact? As will be seen from its list of ingredients, it contains neither alcohol nor habit-forming drugs.

A business meeting of the Webster Library association was held at the library rooms Friday evening.

The Kingfield W. C. T. U. held a Union Gospel Temperance service Sunday evening, March 13, in the F. B. church. A short praise service preceded the opening services, the choir of the Universalist and Free Baptist churches uniting. Our president, Mrs. Abbie Hunt, presided. She read for the scripture lesson, the 13th chapter of 1st Corinthians. Prayer was then offered by Rev. Sawyer of New Portland. A duet, "When the Mists have Rolled Away," was sweetly sung by Misses Gladys Pennell and Bernice Hunt. The collection was then taken, in which all were invited to take part and which amounted to $4.75. A solo by Rev. White of the F. B. church, assisted in the chorus by Geo. Winter, Fred Hutchins and Frank Boynton was finely rendered. A recitation, "The Face on the Floor," by Mrs. Fannie Hunt, was very touching. The pastors from the Evangelical, Universalist and Free Baptist churches each gave addresses along temperance lines, which were listened to with rapt attention by the large congregation. The life of our late lamented Francis E. Willard was eulogized. A duet, "He Lifted Me," by Misses Bernice Williamson and Hilda Huse was very sweet. A recitation by Miss Bernice Hunt, "The Sign Board," was finely executed. The closing solo by Roscoe Tufts was beautifully rendered. The officers of our union for the ensuing year are as follows: President, Mrs. Abbie Hunt; president at large, Josephine Jenkins; secretary, Effie Hutchins; treasurer, Lelia Hunnewell. Our union has recently sustained a great loss in the removal by death of two youthful members, Mrs. Jennie Pullen and Mrs. Emma Glidden. Mrs.

$1,000,000 TO FIGHT A WORM

A million dollars has been contributed by John D. Rockefeller, for the extermination of the Hook-worm.

Scientists have now proven that the pale anaemic condition and listless inanition of hundreds of thousands of Southern people is caused by an intestinal worm.

The Hook-worm is only one of fifty species of Worms that are known to infest the human intestines. Many cases of stomach troubles, blood impoverishment and general debility and weakness are caused by worms.

Dr. John F. True, Auburn, Me., was fifty years in advance of his time. He recognized this in 1851 and gave to the world Dr. True's Elixir, which positively expels worms.

Whenever a laxative is needed, Dr. True's Elixir should be taken. It is not only The Best Tonic Laxative ever devised, but it absolutely expels all animal life (worms) from the system. Worms cannot exist where Dr. True's Elixir is taken.

Instead of pills, syrups, or cathartic tablets, why not take Dr. True's Elixir? It fulfills everything that is asked of a laxative and also insures the expulsion from the system of all pernicious animal life, if any exists there.

Children, especially, are frequently sickly, peevish and fretful from no other cause than worms. Dr. True's Elixir makes them healthy, strong and well.

Many a man finds himself listless and without energy; does not know what is the matter with him. Cannot seem to put any force into the day's work; has no vim. A few days' treatment with Dr. True's Elixir will correct these conditions.

Pullen being one of our charter members. The meetings are well attended and much interest is manifested.

Pomona Grange Meeting.

The pomona meeting at Rangeley, March 17, was a decided success. The special train which left Strong at eight o'clock a. m. was well patronized by a jolly crowd who had no end of fun while enroute.

Arriving at Rangeley at ten o'clock, they were met by teams and conveyed to the hall, where they were welcomed by a large company of members of Oquossoc grange. A class of 16 took the fifth degree, which was well worked by the new officers. After one of the Rangeley's famous dinners was served, a very pleasing program was carried out, consisting of dialogues, readings, music, etc.

The next pomona meeting will be with Aurora grange of Strong, on April 21.

On Tuesday evening, Mar. 23, at Aurora Grange hall, Strong, there will be a pie social including a literary program, games, etc., to be followed with a dance. All are cordially invited to be present. The committee having the affair in charge are W. G. Durrell, Nora Stevens and Lillian Moore.
