Cut down the lead
—Cut down the guesswork

Shoot the speed shells and watch your field and trap average climb.

The steel lining gives the speed—grips the powder charge with just that compression needed to put all the drive of the explosion behind your load.

And with Expert Factory Loading, you're sure of the same speed—a uniform spread of pattern in each and every shell.

Shoot Arrow and Nitro Club steel lined Expert Factory Loaded Shells for speed plus pattern in any make of shotgun.

WINCHESTER

.22 Caliber Cartridges.

.22 Caliber cartridges are so small and cheap that some manufacturers don't take much pains with them. That's why some don't go, while others may go some, but not enough to amount to anything. You can't make this complaint about Winchester 22s. Just as much pains is taken in their manufacture as in that of the large caliber cartridges that cost money. They are loaded by automatic machinery, which must supply a full charge to each cartridge and seat the bullet properly. They are sure to go off and send the bullet with snap enough to hit hard. Ask for the Red W Brand. They cost no more than others.

SOME GOOD TROUT AND SALMON LANDED.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Trout Brook Camps, May 8—The ice went out of this lake on May 1 and we are getting very good square-ail trout fishing here now, but not many large salmon yet but I expect in a week from now to have good salmon fishing, just as soon as the water gets a little warm. Salmon fishing here is generally 10 days later than trout fishing.

There were seven trout landed here yesterday by one man, some of them weighing up to 5 pounds. Sunday, May 4, eight trout were landed by one man weighing from 2 to 6 pounds.

I haven't got many fishermen here yet but what I have got are doing good work. Robert Walker.

BROOK TROUT FISHING GOOD

The Robinsons Build Handsome Little Boat--Deer Wintered Well.

(Special to Maine Woods).

East Sumner, Me., May 3—Brook trout fishing is well started and a number of pound specimens have been taken by local parties. Asa Robinson caught one from the mill stream that measured strong 13 1-2 inches. Harold Spaulding and myself fished Allen Mountain brook up and went across to where the water comes off from Black mountain and down that brook to near Mud pond with good success. We have also taken quite a quantity of suckers and have everything ready for smelts as soon as they start.

Alvin Robinson and his brother Asa have just finished a handsome little boat which is made of cedar bottom with natural cedar knees and pine sides. She is only twelve feet long to be used with paddle only. One man can carry it with ease. Asa is going to put his other boat in Labrador pond and Alfred Morrill is going to put his in little Labrador.

two one day. He got $5 for one, to different parties in Lewiston and sent them by mail and by his ex-

When You Want a Thing Done Right, Do It Yourself

The man who wants his tobacco cut up for him months before he smokes it, just to save a minute's time, cannot blame the manufacturer because the tobacco gets dried up, burns fast in his pipe and scorches his tongue.

There's only one way to get fresh tobacco—cut it up yourself as you use it, from the Sickle plug. Then you get all the original flavor and moisture that have been pressed into the plug and kept there by the natural leaf wrapper—and you are rewarded by a cool, sweet, satisfying smoke.

Every day more smokers are coming back to the good old Sickle plug and satisfaction. Buy a plug of Sickle at your dealer's—and note how much more tobacco you get, when there's no package to pay for.

Just as soon, therefore, as this particular camp was deserted by the humans for a while the spiny glut-tions would hasten in and plane off the surface of the floor with their chisel shaped teeth, eating away all the wood that held a trace of grease. So, on return to camp Monday, the owner was enabled to sweep up and

ALLOTMENT OF FISH.

The Commissioners of Inland Fish and Game have commenced allotting the fish to the different hatcheries throughout the state as follows: Enfield, 320,000 trout; 10,000 togue; Winthrop, 40,000 trout; Berry pond, 50,000; Meadow brook, 10,000; China lake, 10,000; Narrows pond, 5,000; Maranacook lake, 10,000. Parker's pond and Thompson lake get 5,000 togue each; East Au-for some days, returned home successful, having landed two nice salmon. John Geagan of Bangor was also successful, getting a salmon weighing 8 3-4 pounds, which is one of the largest that has been caught in the past several years. The fish put up considerable fight.

The Lincoln Chronicle says a large moose made her appearance at Albert Morse's residence, Upper Drew, last week. She is not especially handsome, but nevertheless has many visitors from all parts of the town. Mr. Morse keeps her in the barn nights and days she stays in the field, but shows no inclination to run away. He cards her as one would a horse. She is gentle and not much like the moose we usually hear about.

ANIMAL VISITORS IN A MAINE CAMP.

If the stories told by Maine woodsmen are to be believed they entertain many queer visitors in camp during the winter. Among the most familiar guests may be mentioned the chickadees and bluejays, but these are by no means the most interesting callers.

One woodsman, it appears, leaving camp on a Saturday afternoon left his shack door open, as was his custom, so that the hedgehogs might come in and clean up the floor. Inasmuch as the principal items of the camp menu are baked enjoy the luxury of a clean house for another week. About the only objection to this system lay in the fact that the camp must have a new floor each year.

The same woodsman tells how late in February, a pair of white footed wood mice stole into his camp from their home in the forest and made a nest in acorns under the bunk. The first thing the little fellows did was to eat a hole in a bag of cracked corn and carry away more than a quart of the contents. The whole bag was sorted for the largest fragments, every one of which was denuded of its covering and freed from all grains of meal. The pilferings were put in a heap near the nest and covered over with strips of newspapers.

When these mice had been installed in their new quarters for about a week they began to construct a luxurious couch. The outside was made of shredded newspapers and ribbons of birch bark. The lining was of horse hair taken from an old chair.—Bangor News.

GOOD APPOINTMENT BY ADJUTANT GENERAL DILL.

Adjutant General Elliott C. Dill again manifests his happy ability at smoothing out the wrinkles. In his selection of Col. Frederic E. Boothby of Portland to act as Maine commissioner of the 50th celebration of Gettysburg he has named a man than whom none has larger acquaint-tance among the Maine veterans and than whom there is no one better qualified to superintend transportation. Mr. Boothby will have an office at the State House, Augusta, where he will complete arrangements for the Maine veterans who were in the battle and who are to enjoy the trip to this famous battlefield at the expense of the state.

In speaking of the appointment the Waterville Sentinel says:

The selection of Col. Frederic E. Boothby to act as Maine commissioner of the fiftieth celebration of the battle of Gettysburg is a good one. No man in Maine has a wider acquaintance among the veterans and other citizens of this state. And when it comes to arranging an excursion by rail there is probably no man in Maine as well equipped for the job as is Colonel Boothby. During his many years of service as general passenger agent of the Maine Central railroad, he learned all about transportation facilities. He knows all the little wrinkles that go to make a journey by rail a success and a pleasure. When the veterans start for the battlefield they will find that nothing that will contribute to their comfort has been forgotten. It will be an excursion of veterans in charge of a veteran railroad general. Colonel Boothby is the man for the job.

Rangeley Steamboat Company Begins Regular Trips—Mr Crocker High Line of the Company

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Rangeley, May 12—To-day, May 12, the Rangeley Steamboat company began their regular trips. The Oquossoc with Capt. Chas. Hamlin and Sherman Hoar are now on duty. The Oquossoc looks as handsome in her new summer coat of paint as any Rangeley maiden in her new spring suit.

Two trains commencing today with Pullman car to Oquossoc station are now bringing mail and express and the steamboat is waiting at South Rangeley to take passengers to Mingo, Pickford's Camps and Rangeley.

The first of the camps at Hirobsamcook on Mooselookmeguntic lake was opened last Saturday by Hon. Chas. Sumner Cook of Portland who entertained for over Sunday Misses Ira Crocker, F. O. Conant and Wardsworth Noyes of Portland and G. Henri Desmond of Boston. All the report of the fishing we have been able to learn was, "fine luck. Mr. Crocker high line of the party, never had a better time at the lakes."

Several Record Fish Taken—New Yoraker Comes for the Season.

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Mountain View House, May 13—The cold wave did not pass by this place but they were looking for the freeze and saved the water pipes from bursting.

Several of the fishermen have returned home.

F. J. Pierce of Gardner, Mass., reeled in Sunday after landing a 6 1-4 pound salmon. He was the first to pen his name on the record book getting besides many trout and salmon that almost reached the 3 pound notch. His seven salmon weighed as follows, 3 lbs., 4 1-4 lbs., 4 3-4 lbs., 7 lbs., 4 3-4 lbs., 4 3-4 lbs., 6 1-4 lbs. Frank Harris was as usual his guide and Mr. Pierce remarked as he said goodbye, "Never had a better time or found better fishing on Rangeley lake."

Mr. Damon of Fitchburg, Mass., spends most of his time tramping, and Al Sprague says, "We'll have them yet," and they are fishing today.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. F. Judd of Bristol, Conn., are to remain several days longer. Mr. Judd has the record for big trout caught today with his 6-pounder that he landed last

WOMAN COULD NOT WALK

She Was So Ill—Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Pentwater, Mich.—"A year ago I was very weak and the doctor said I had a serious displacement. I had backache and bearing down pains so bad that I could not sit in a chair or walk across the floor and I was in severe pain all the time. I felt discouraged as I had taken everything I could think of and was no better. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and now I am strong and healthy."—Mrs. ALICE DARLING, R.F.D. No. 2, Box 77, Pentwater, Mich.

Read What Another Woman says: Peoria, Ill.—"I had such backaches that I could hardly stand on my feet. I would feel like crying out lots of times, and had such a heavy feeling in my right side. I had such terrible dull headaches every day and they would make me feel so drowsy and sleepy all the time, yet I could not sleep at night.

"After I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a week I began to improve. My backache was less and that heavy feeling in my side went away. I continued to take the Compound and am cured.

"You may publish this if you wish."—Miss CLARA L. GAUWITZ, R.E. No. 4, Box 62, Peoria, Ill.

Such letters prove the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for women's ills. Why don't you try it?

Friday, also a pair of 3 pound salmon the same afternoon, besides all the smaller fish they wanted to eat. He has caught a 3-lb. trout, two 4-lbs., and a 3 1-2 lb. salmon. Bert Herrick is guide and they are taking a rest today.

The Davidson party had fine luck and before their return to Boson brought a 7 pound salmon to net that they are having mounted by Herbert Welch to prove any fish story they may tell their friends

Maximilian Foster of New York came last night and will remain here for several days before opening Camp Anthony, when he will be joined by Mrs. Foster and daughter for the summer. Mr. Foster has purchased one of the handsome motor boats of Mr. Fowler.

Mr. and Mrs. James Raymond of Canton, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Wardman of Augusta are at Heald's camp, having good luck fishing. They have caught several trout and salmon weighing between two and three pounds each.

From most of the camps on the opposite shore smoke is coming from the chimneys, which tells that the owners are there.

Itinerary of the railroad commissioners:

Fly Rod's Note Book

BY FLY ROD

Surely there are not as many fish in Rangeley Lake as there were the day the ice went out, for at night and morning the foot bridge across the cove has been crowded and each one had a hook and line dropped into the lake. A gentleman that knew said, "Strange they want to kill the goose that lays the golden egg, for I know that by correct count just 110 trout that weighed from 1-2 to 2 pounds each were caught off that foot bridge yesterday. These fish would have left at least $10 a pound in this region, but they went in on the fry pan."

H. H. Roelofs the wealthy Philadelphia hat manufacturer who comes each year for the pleasures of casting the fly, and who fishes for the real joy of fishing never kills a fish, except one or two for the table, and often will be here for weeks and catch many good sized trout and salmon and using a small fly hook, reels them carefully in, weighs them and returns them to the lake.

Mr. Roelofs has the past week on the fly caught a 6 pound trout and a 4 pound trout and many smaller ones, but they are in the lake growing bigger. If the citizens of Rangeley village did the same, no one would say, "poor fishing in Rangeley lakes, we shall never come here again."

The New York society papers, announce on May 24, at the chapel in Loyola School a wedding where a nuptial mass will be celebrated that interests many of the tourists who come to the Lakes. It will be remembered that the season of 1911 United States Senator, and Mrs. James A. O'Gorman and family for three months were at home in two of the log cabins at The Barker and each Sunday attended mass at Our Lady of the Lakes chapel at Oquossoc.

Miss Doloritta O'Gorman one of the charming daughters of Senator and Mrs. O'Gorman, who greatly enjoyed life out in the open, and was an expert with the rod and paddle, made many friends while here.

Miss O'Gorman is to be married to John Anthony Maher, son of ex-Mayor Edward A. Maher of Albany N. Y., who was a guest of Senator O'Gorman at The Barker.

Miss Alice O'Gorman, sister of the bride will be her only attendant and Daniel M. McMahan, who with his mother has spent a number of seasons in Pine Tree camp at The Barker will be best man.

It has become very popular to spend honeymoon days in a log cabin at the Rangeleys and it is hoped Mr. Maher and bride will come here.

The Barker, Mooselookmeguntic Lake, May 9.—Another season has come that promises to bring more people to The Barker and Birches than ever before.

Capt. Fred C. Barker, since his return from a trip to Panama and several weeks in Florida has had a big crew of workers at all of his places.

This is the first place to open up, and last Saturday night before the ice was out the first guests came.

CLIMATE IDEAL FOR WINTER

Southern Pines, N. C., May 4.

To the Editor of Maine Woods:

I have spent several winters looking for a climate where one could escape from the rigors of northern winters and yet not be subject to the lassitude felt in the tropics or in sub tropical localities. First Jamaica was described as the perfect climate where every day was like a June day in New England.

A visit to the island disclosed that it was more like a northern August there in the middle of winter. One gentleman I met there, formerly a resident in our middle west, although then having lived a number of years in Jamaica, spoke of the night before as being real cold. "Why the thermometer went down to 64 during the night" it was then early in February.

Because it was winter by the calendar people wore woolen suits while I sweltered in linen. This extreme heat and the multitude of insects decided me to give up the idea of making the place my winter home.

Bermuda proved to be an interesting spot for a brief visit in the early spring but the weather was very uncertain with altogether too much rain which was generally torrential and frequently without warning, so that one never knew when the foliage is much in advance of what it was at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Ritchie of Toronto, Canada, opened Camp Ritchie several days before the ice went out and plan to spend the month of May there.

Capt. Barker has made many improvements here. A new kitchen 36 x 46 with a large brick oven and all the modern conveniences has been added. Fred Andrews the old chef is back and J. C. Carlson a Boston baker will make the pies and cakes. In the rear of the large dining room a new maids' and chauffeurs' hall, with hard wood finish, has been added. The postoffice which was in the hotel office has been changed and a log postoffice added to the casino, which gives the guests an attractive place to gather while waiting for the mail, which is one of the amusements in camp. Chas. H. Whitney of Westbrook is the new clerk. Sam Eastwood, as in the years past has charge of the boats. Capt. Nat Barrett is again on deck and Mrs. Barrett looks after the row of cabins below the hotel. Mrs. Dudley Bemis is housekeeper and many of the same maids and waitresses have returned. The crew of men today put some of the motor boats in to the water.

The steamboats will be making their regular trips, and when this is in print several parties will be adding their names to the fish record and from now on this will be a busy place until October.

We have six hotels and many large boarding houses, while furnished cottages and apartments from one room up abound. Our largest hotel, the Highland Pines Inn, is beautifully situated just out of the town and is one of the best in the state. It has just been completed this year and under the able management of Messrs. Creamer and Turner has had a phenomenal season particularly for a new venture. Mr. Creamer was for years manager of one of the Pinehurst hotels and is deservedly popular. The Southern Pines hotel is the next largest in the town and is run by U. L. Pottle, who also is interested with his son in one of the Pinehurst houses. The Pottles run the Highland house at Jefferson Highland, N. H., as a summer resort. They are building another large house here to be ready for occupancy early next winter, while their present hotel will be remodelled and largely increased in size and be run by other parties the coming winter.

Our golf links are exceedingly attractive, being over a country of great natural beauty and are kept in the best of condition. It is a nine hole course at present but nine additional holes have been added and will be opened next winter.

There are good roads to the nearby resorts of Pinehurst, Pine Bluff, Lakeview, Jackson Springs and to the village of Aberdeen. There are several garages where first class cars can be had with competent chauffeurs at very moderate rates. Good teams and saddle horses are available at reasonable prices.

The weather has just enough variety to be enjoyable from Oct. 1 to June 1. Occasional frosts of short duration make agreeable changes from the balmy atmosphere usually prevailing. The sun shines nearly every day for at least part of the time and this with the sandy nature of the soil gives that immunity from humidity for which this climate is noted. Although quite a number of the white people are residents here the entire year, the greater portion are here during the winter season only, the majority arriving after Oct. 1, and departing for northern homes soon after May 1. Maine has probably the largest representation of any one state with Pennsylvania a good second. Many have houses here while others have furnished apartments. The houses are as a rule of moderate cost and the place is particularly adapted for home seekers of moderate means.

We have been fortunate in securing a fine residence here. It is a commodious house of eleven large rooms on a plot of land 200 feet square in the very center of the town, next block to the postoffice and handy to everything. The former owner came here in ill health and after visiting every state in the Union searching for the ideal climate, spent his last years here, the salubrity of the climate prolonging his life for 12 years.

He loved to see things grow and devoted much time and money to developing the trees and shrubs on the place and as a result of his well directed efforts we have the finest place in town.

Magnolias, pines, mimosas, hollies, umbrella and oaks are the principal trees. There are 18 full grown magnolias, the blossoms of which are just coming, being perfectly immense, larger over than a dinner plate, snow white and with a delicious odor. We have named our place "The Magnolias" after them. Several oaks are festooned with ivy which climbs nearly to their tops, 40 feet from the ground, making a green mantle in winter as well as summer.

One tall oak has a wistaria vine enfolding it so that in April it is covered with the fragrant purple bloom. In addition to the ivy and wistaria, honeysuckle, woodbine and climbing roses cover the trellises and fences. Roses thrive here and violets bloom through the winter in the open air.

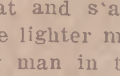

Altogether this is a most desirable location for those who are at liberty to leave the trying climate of the north for the winter months and those who stay here the whole year through, claim that the summer weather is more comfortable than that in the cities of the coast. The nights are always cool and the absence of humidity makes the days harmless particularly if one keeps quiet and out of the sun at the middle of the day.

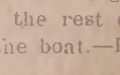

For ourselves we love our Maine home at Mingo hill on Rangeley so much for a summer residence that we must deny ourselves for the present at least the pleasure of staying here for the peaches, grapes, dewberries and melons of the summer time.

E. E. Patridge.

DON'T TAKE HEAVY WEIGHT ALONG.

One of Augusta's fishing enthusiasts, who makes occasional excursions to Cobbosseecontee in pursuit of specimens of the finny tribes which inhabit those waters, states that experience teaches him that when one fellow starts out fishing with another, a point which should be remembered that in the season of 1911 a comrade is the latter's weight as compared with his own. The young man in question weighs about 170 pounds, and not long ago he started out on a trip with a friend who would tip the scales at something like 230 pounds. They secured a boat and started out into the lake, the lighter man at the oars and the big man in the stern, but that wouldn't work, for the latter sunk the stern down, and as the wind was blowing, the little man couldn't manage the boat at all. Then they changed places, but that sunk the bow of the boat so low in the water that the waves slopped over, and threatened several times to swamp the craft, so they had to make their way to shore, which they did, and after making the boat fast they put in the rest of the time in fishing off the boat.—Kennebec Journal.

SEASON OPENS AT JONES' CAMP

Three Hundred and Fifteen Trout Taken to Date—Earliest Fly Fishing on Record at Moxie.

(Special to Maine Woods).

Mosquito, Me., May 7.—The season opened April 23. The first guest to arrive was Dr. Pepper of Madison. The next arrivals were; F. B. Brown, Mahlon Boynton and Mr. Martin of Madison; Mr. Hussey and Mr. Burgess of Norridgewock; Dr. A. Harris and Percy Lawrence of Augusta; T. H. McFarland, of New York; W. H. Sprague, Joseph Barstow and Mr. Purington of Waterville; J. H. Morse of Oakland; Messrs Brackett and Russell of Norridgewock; and Mr. Dempsey of Dorchester, Mass. All of these guests made fine catches of trout. The largest to date, was taken by Mr. McFarland, weighing 4 pounds. Next largest by Mrs. Carney of Bingham 3 pounds and several other 3 pound trout have been taken. The largest salmon to date, was taken by Mrs. C. L. Alsterburg of Portland, weighing 3 pounds.

PENNSYLVANIA NOTES.

Union City, Pa., May 1, 1913.

To the Editor of Maine Woods:

They tell me that our legislature has just passed some new game laws; also a license law of $1. They say each hunter must wear some kind of a mark on his or her person, but I can't vouch for this part, as it is only hearsay.

The ice still hangs onto the surface of old lake Erie, but our fishing season doesn't open until June, on most kinds of fish.

My next door neighbor, a very old veteran of the woods, has walked his last trail, the one that leads to Jordan's shore.

Spring rats are selling at 55 cents each. I shipped some away and got an average of about 45 cents each.

Would be pleased to live and enjoy one more trapping season, and catch that big mink that run the gauntlet of my traps all winter.

According to my ledger I caught 11 weasels this last winter, five white and six brown. There are nine weasels here to one mink.

Our home team went on the wet list this spring and every day brings home a load of wet goods men.

My rusty traps hang on the wall; the guns stand desolate and alone in their rack; the partly filled boxes of shells are hating themselves to death and the dog dreams on of past glory of the chase.

True Anglers Use The Williams Barbless Hook

Because it is guaranteed to catch and hold better than a barbed hook, yet you can remove the little fish without injury. Yearlings, spawn, and their killing wastes thousands of eggs, this means certain ruin to a glorious sport. The Williams Barbless hook is a scientific and a practical lure, no mechanism, just its ingenious shape. It stands for a SQUARE deal to the future of the sport; a SQUARE deal to the little fish and a SQUARE deal to yourself as a sportsman. Imported standard flies, $1.50 per dozen, bait hooks 25 cents.

HIGH LINE AT DOBSIS LAKE

A Remarkable Catch of Salmon in Two Days' Time--Fish Give Many Gymnastic Feats.

(Special to Maine Woods).

Grand Lake Stream, Norway Pines, May 10--The far famed terminus of Billy Rose's chain of camps adds to its laurels in a two days' record of 132 fish, of which 113 were the ouananiche or land locked salmon and 19 were square-jawed trout.

This splendid sport was experienced during the spring time visit of J. Scofield Rowe, vice-president of the Aetna Life Insurance of Hartford, who pilots a congenial party of enthusiastic anglers to this haven for the devotees of Walton's delight. For several years it has been the custom of Mr. Rowe and his friends to join in this outing, but never before have they arrived so soon after the outflow of the ice.

The weather ideal, the ripple just right and the location of Norway Pines so convenient to the best fishing grounds, served as a setting which augured for "good luck," but still another important element was needed to complete the program, being no less than a recognition of their duty and its performance by the salmon and trout families.

Their response to the tempting bait is eloquently reflected in the figures of the catch. One of the party, Mr. W. L. Atwood of Boston taking the palm by a string of 23 fine specimens in few days' trolling.

It is particularly notable in this year's catch that the salmon are very "gamy" fish, whose aerial tumbles add new zest to this form of piscatorial gymnastics.

Fishing parties have an especially fevered imaginations of their participants, but surely none of this festive "bunch" even dreamed of such rare sport and great as are the figures all hands look forward to their

SHOT SCORES FOR RIFLE MATCHES.

On the range of the Myles Standish Rifle club at Portland recently, Henry C. Hersey, the only member of the organization who qualified for membership on the national team to shoot in the international indoor matches, shot his scores as a member of the team. He had good luck, for all he was a bit out of practice, and turned in a total of 482 out of a possible 500.

In the shooting, there were five targets on each of five cards used, with a half inch bull's eye for each target. That Mr. Hersey fell but 18 points below the possible showed that he had his eye with him. If the other members of the team show up as well as he did, then America will surely stand a good chance of winning as this country has always done in these small-bore indoor matches. The scores made by Mr. Hersey were: 10 10 9 10 9 10 10 9 9 9 10 9 10 10 10 9 10 10 10 10 8 9 10 10 10 10 10 10 9 10 10 10 10 10 9 10 9 10 9 10 10 8 9 10 10 10 10; to all, 482.

Since the Myles Standish Rifle club was represented in the National Rifle association matches that have been recently been concluded, they will also take part in the new short range league which is being fostered by The Arms and the Man, the shooting weekly published in Washington.

The range is to be 50 yards and any 22 calibre rifle, using rim fire cartridges is to be allowed. The targets are to have a three-inch black space with three-eighths inch bull and the count from 25 to 10. Twenty shots, all prone, are to be fired by each contestant, in strings of five.

At the conclusion of the season, the clubs will be divided into four classes according to whether they shoot better than 90, better than 80, better than 70 or below 70.

The members of the Myles Standish club will shoot on a range at Cape Elizabeth. As this style of shooting will be something entirely new, the interest is expected to be even keener than it was for the indoor matches and many of the members are wondering just how they will compare in their work with what they have done at 25 yards on practically the same kind of a target.

BUSY DAYS AT BEMIS

Popular Clerk Returns--Many Good Fish Taken from the Wharf.

(Special to Maine Woods).

Bemis, Me., May 10--There is snow in the air this morning and the wind is blowing "a real old fashioned gale" as one remarked, but spring reached this part of the region last week, taking the ice out of the lake, sending the leaves on the trees out of their buds, scattering the wild flowers around and everything was put in readiness for the summer. From the winter house things were moved to their summer quarters, the log, dining and camps opened. The traveling public will be pleased to find Geo. Lang again as clerk, also in charge of the postoffice where he is assisted by Eli Gaudet. Miss Jessie O'Neal is housekeeper and assisted by Mrs. Joe Lahnes, whose husband is "chore boy," Mrs. E. Gaudet and Mrs. S. Arnold.

The register was opened by Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Morrison of Portland, Saturday May 6, and Mrs. Morrison was the first to bring in trout.

Most of the camps have been taken this week.

A jolly party of four from Mechanic Falls: Messrs. A. L. Hutchins, Fred H. Fielding, S. R. Penny and son S. R. Jr., have spent the week here. "Never had such luck" one of them remarked. "We have had all the fish we could eat and passed them to friends." They caught several 2 pound trout and their big one weighed 4 pounds; all had "the limit" to take home.

The salmon have not yet taken a swim down this way for it is trout, the real square-jawed, speckled trout they are catching here.

Frank Esty is high line today with a 5-pound, 9-ounce trout.

The Bemis people and workmen at the mill catch handsome strings of trout daily.

R. E. Gevin of Lewiston and C. E. Collins of Portland took a day off and went fishing. Each had a fine string, the largest a two pound trout to take home with them and prove any fish yarn they told. J. T. Lamb, another traveling salesman on Friday caught 10 pounds of trout from the wharf. F. M. Owen, of the same city, was proud of his luck and took home all the law allows; trout that weighed from 1 to 3 1-4 pounds each.

Andrew Lang of Rumford came last night to spend a few days with his son, George Lang, and before eight o'clock this morning came in with a 3-lb. trout, that he caught off the wharf.

Although the wind is blowing the water over the wharf the persistent anglers sit there waiting for a bite and since the ice went out one would think the trout were hungry by the number that are eager to take a lunch of angle worms.

The past week there has not been such a busy place in this section as Bemis. The Upper Dam boat and Capt. Barker's boat are taking not only people but big loads of freight in all directions for the private camp owners are getting ready to come for a long stay and at each the sound of the hammer is heard that tells those in charge have got busy.

MILLIONS OF FISH FRY.

The native fish population of Massachusetts is taking a big jump these days, now that the new state hatchery at Palmer is getting into full operation. Yesterday a few wall-eyed pike--a matter of 3,000,000 or so--were shipped from the hatchery and most of them will be put into the Connecticut and Merrimac rivers. The rest will go into the ponds all over the state best adapted to them. They are tiny little fellows, being out of the egg only a few days, but in the course of a few years those that survive will be able to give quite a tug to a fishing line. The United States government some few years ago put some fry in the river at Greenfield and they are now caught weighing as much as six pounds. About 5,000,000 more wall-eyed pike are at the hatchery and will be distributed soon.

In a few days the fish and game association will begin distributing perch. About 8,000,000 fry of the yellow perch will go into the Connecticut river and the various ponds and pretty soon there will be 15,000,000 white perch for distribution. The fishermen will count themselves lucky if the ponds get well stocked with them, for they are a noble fish, running as high as 3 1-2 to four pounds. White perch as large as that are caught in Lake Quinsigamond at Worcester. The new policy of the fish and game commissioners is just beginning to bear results. It is intended to make fishing for everybody.

YORK CAMPS LOON LAKE

Trout and Salmon in Loon Lake ---Vis-a-vis With the Fisher Folks.

(Special to Maine Woods).

Rangeley, Me. May 12--Mr. I. V. S. Hillier, from New York City, eager for the early fishing arrived last week and is out every day on the lake playing the trout and salmon on which may be seen jumping for a stray winged victim in the sun's golden rays a eventide. Mrs. Hillier and Miss Edith will join Mr. Hillier a little later in the season.

Lee Wilcox and Clarence Gile will be among the proficient guides at York Camps this season and as usual will be in great demand as they are not only good guides but pleasing companions.

Stanley Savage, who has met with great success during the past three seasons is now in action and promises fine results in the garden which he is preparing for the season's products.

Old Pa Winter got a hunch on the sun during the last few days and returned for a parting caress. The discarded flannels, put away until his annual return, were hastily resurrected from the cedar chest, moth balls and all.

The flock of sheep in spite of the sudden change in temperature show no ill effects from the loss of their sheared fleeces and are happy with the little lambs which will make quite an increase to the number at the farm.

With the temperature going up and the wind going down the weather this week promises to be favorable for finishing touches by the workmen and much sport for guests at York Camps.

Many of the cabins now ready for occupancy have been engaged and by the twentieth will ring with the joyous laughter of those fleeing "far from the madding crowd," for the yearly rest at York Camps.

HERE AND THERE.

Capital Gun club of Edmonton, Alta., was organized on May 1, with 30 members and these officers: President, George P. Dobson; vice president, F. S. Watson and A. B. Agar; secretary-treasurer, R. G. McLellan; executive committee: N. R. Platt, F. S. Watson, D. Sewell, R. Northmore, C. Sanders, G. P. Dobson and R. G. McLellan. Membership was fixed at $10 a year. Judging from the interests taken in the new club it promises to be the largest in the most northerly city on the continent. The traps will be put in at once on Jasper Place, where a club house is to be established this season.

Curator Thomas A. James, of the State museum at Augusta, has returned from a trip along the coast of Maine on the state cruiser Shel-drake, in search of specimens for the museum. The trip was an unusually successful one as the curator and his assistant, Lyman Oliver, of Metinic, discovered a nest of Northern Ravens, a species almost extinct in Maine.

LADY LANDS RECORD FISH

The Spotts Camp to be Opened This Week--"Uncle Theo" In Charge of Culinary Department

(Special to Maine Woods.)

Mooselookmeguntic House, Haines Landing, May 12--Saturday night this hotel opened for the season of 1913 with everything promising a most successful summer. The snow was falling as the big team loaded with a jolly party made quick time across the carry. The fire was roaring up the huge stone fireplace in hotel office that has been newly painted and improvements made since it was closed last October, and Mrs. F. B. Burns welcomed the first comers of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Abbott of Westford, Mass., were the first in camp. Their sons, who have been with them for a number of years, did not accompany them. Their guides, Emery Haley and Joe Lamb, were all ready to take them out on the lake yesterday morning, even if it was only 28 degrees above zero. The fish were biting well and Mrs. Abbott was the first to pen her name on the fish record for she caught a 3-lb. salmon in the morning and the mate to it in the afternoon. Mr. Abbott caught a trout that lacked only one or two ounces of being on the book that all fishermen are proud to subscribe their names in. They also caught a number of smaller trout and this morning sent to their home a box of very handsome fish.

J. Russel Marble of Worcester, Mass., Messrs. Lewis H. Torrey, and Saul H. Clary of the same city and friend, Franklin P. Lee, of Medford, Mass., have arrived. The gentlemen stayed in camp yesterday and told fish stories but this morning with Ed Lowell, Fred Hoar, Len Ross and Deck Huntoon for guides, are on the lake trolling and the big trout and salmon will be reeled in.

W. R. Brown of Berlin Mills Co., was here en route for the Cupsuptic.

The "Crow's Nest" is open and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Carpenter of Providence, R. I. are there for the remainder of May.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Spotts of New York, and party are expected at their camp this week and no doubt we shall soon hear the announcement shoot at his traps and that some of the best shots in the country will try their skill against Mr. Spotts, who has this past winter made some remarkable scores.

The new chef, J. L. Mereness, who has cooked for the Worcester club for some time, has already proved himself, and the planked fish served last night was surely a wonder and will not soon be forgotten. Mrs. Alice Bates of Phillips is the past-ry cook. Theo L. Page, who for years had charge of the Senate cafe in Washington, D. C. is looking after the culinary department and the many old comers are glad to be greeted by "Uncle Theo."

Parcel post brings all kinds of good things and even fresh cucumbers and lettuce, come for the table without delay and the city florist must be sending lots of orders up this way, judging by the vases of carnations about the hotel.

The motor boats are on the lake the teams bringing loads of passengers and freight over the carry and the summer promises to be a busy one.
